Hey Adam,

I guess that fixing the issues that costs you potential clients by leaving your readers undecided isn't your TOP 1 priority.

So, whenever it becomes a priority feel free to reach out to me to organize a 15 min call to talk about the problem I mentioned.

I will mention during the sales call another problem that I noticed if we have time.

I'm quite busy these days so tell me if you are interested so I can organize my schedule.

Have a great day.
