

| Due By | HONORS PROJECT INTERIM DUE DATES - IDST 150 HONORS RESEARCH SEMINAR                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1/31   | Start IDST 150 Honors Research Seminar                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 2/7    | Check in with your Honors Professor and discuss your research topic and "Interim Due Dates."                                                                                                                                   |
| 2/14   | Meet with a Cañada College Librarian to explore research topics. Then identify your Research Topic and two Sources .                                                                                                    |
| 2/21   | Write your Research Question (s) and Identify two more sources .                                                                                                                                                 |
| 2/28   | Do Rough Draft of Honors Contract Research Proposal and get feedback from your Honors Professor.                                                                                                                        |
| 3/6    | Submit Final Honors Contract Research Proposal Form due on HTP website.                                                                                                                                        |
| 3/20   | Do Annotated Bibliography listing your main sources, summarizing them, and identifying how you will use them in your paper. Then write a Working thesis or hypothesis based on what you have read/your research. |
| 3/20   | Check in with your Honors Professor about your sources for your Honors paper.                                                                                                                                                  |
| 4/3    | Finish Detailed Formal Outline including which sources you will use in which parts of the paper.                                                                                                                        |
| 4/10   | Check in with your Honors Professor get their feedback on your detailed outline.                                                                                                                                               |
| 4/15   | Complete a First Rough Draft of Honors Paper . Then meet with a Writing Center Tutor and Professor Taveau in IDST 150 for assistance as needed and edit globally for ideas and organization.                            |
| 4/24   | Submit your draft Research Presentation Slides in IDST.                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 4/24   | Share your Rough Draft of your Honors Paper with your Honors professor and get feedback. Plan to revise more.                                                                                                           |
| 5/1-8  | Give and Get Peer Review of Honors paper in IDST 150 and keep editing.                                                                                                                                                         |
| 5/8    | Complete Revised Rough Draft of Honors Paper based on any feedback. Plan to edit more.                                                                                                                                  |
| 5/8    | Check in with your Honors Professor and get their feedback on your revised rough draft of your Honors Paper.                                                                                                                   |

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5/15 | Submit your Final Presentations Slides and Present your Research in IDST 150.                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 5/15 | Do Final Proofread of your Honors Paper .                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 5/15 | Check in with your Honors Professor to get their approval on the final draft of your Honors Paper.                                                                                                                                                                |
| 5/17 | Submit your Final Draft of your Honors Research Paper in IDST 150.                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 5/20 | *Submit Honors Completion Form on the HTP website . Be sure to include your professor's correct email. Once you submit this form, your professor will automatically receive an email at the address you provide asking them to approve it. |

| Honors Research SeminarSchedule of Activities                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Stages and Assignments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | IDSTClassSession | Select Course Topics and Activities                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Research and Exploration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>During this period, you are gathering information about potential topics and exploring your topic. You are talking to people and reading extensively. Then you should be thinking how to narrow your topic. Keep track of all the sources you find and identify two or three key sources. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Research Topic</li> <li>Research Questions</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Discuss your topic and questions with your honors professor | One                      | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Introductions</li> <li>2. Research and writing process overview</li> <li>3. Choosing a strong research topic</li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Two                      | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Writing your research question</li> <li>2. Writing your research proposal</li> <li>3. Finding and managing resources <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Library resources</li> <li>• Organizational systems</li> <li>• Documentation styles and resources</li> <li>• Annotated bibliography</li> </ul> </li> </ol> Reading is your foundation for good writing |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Organizing your research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>By this time, you are reading extensively on your topic, keeping track of all your sources, and summarizing and evaluating them in your notes. Then you'll do an annotated bibliography. Once that is done, you can more easily write a very specific and detailed outline with subtitles and sections indicating which sources you will use for which parts.</li> <li>Annotated Bibliography</li> <li>Working thesis</li> <li>Detailed Formal Outline</li> <li>Writing, Center, Peer, Self Review of Outline with checklist</li> </ul> Get approval from honors professor on your outline | Three and Four | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writing your working thesis or hypothesis</li> <li>Writing your outline <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Outline formats</li> </ul> </li> </ol> Avoiding procrastination! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Breaking your paper into sections</li> <li>Setting mini goals</li> <li>Rewards and routines</li> </ul> |
| Composing and Editing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Strong research and reading leads to clear well informed outlining, making the writing process easier. Contrary to what many students believe, you can "write to think." In other words, writing is epistemic; it can help you generate ideas. Write out your ideas. Then edit.</li> <li>Edit from global to local, first looking at ideas and organization and then later at paragraphs and sentences. Organizing your presentation will also help you to focus your writing.</li> <li>Rough draft of Honors Paper</li> <li>Rough draft presentation slides</li> <li>Presentation of Honors Research</li> </ul>   | Five           | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Writing your rough draft</li> <li>Getting feedback on your work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Writing Center</li> <li>The Tutoring Center</li> <li>Working with your Honor's Professor</li> <li>Peer feedback</li> <li>Honors Seminar Conferences</li> </ul> </li> </ol>                                                       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Five and Seven | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Editing your rough draft <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Editing strategies</li> <li>Editing checklist</li> <li>Proofreading strategies</li> </ul> </li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Six            | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Preparing your presentation</li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Seven          | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Individual conferences and assistance</li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Eight          | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Student Presentations of Projects</li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Be sure to show your first and second rough drafts to your honors professor and to apply any feedback they give you.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                 | <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>2. Reflection</li><li>3. Celebration</li></ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Proofreading and completion <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Revise your paper based on feedback from your professors and other readers.</li></ul> Honor Research Final Paper on IDST 150 site When you are done, remember to do the Honors Completion form with your honors professor. You must have your honors professor approval before you submit it to the honors website. | Seven and Eight | <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Final draft due in Honors Research Seminar Canvas Site.</li><li>2. Think ahead about whether you want feedback from me on how you can improve language, format, structure, or citation before your professor, the discipline expert, reviews your final paper content and more. Then be sure to get it to me with enough time in advance for you to get feedback and revise as needed. Or plan to use a Writing Center tutor. Plan to use someone who can teach you to edit on your own, not anyone who would edit anything for you.</li></ol> |

Note: the interim due dates on page one can be modified to fit the timeline and needs of the class for which the student is doing honors contract.