Dear [Mention the name of the recipient]

I spotted your job posting and this week immediately applied since I believe I would be a great fit for your organization. Since I was a little kid, makeup and its art have been my passion, and I take great delight in my work.

I began applying cosmetics to people when I was thirteen years old. People were delighted with my abilities, and other ladies in my class began requesting me to do their cosmetics, which I gladly accepted.

To help pay for my college fees, I used to do other girls' cosmetics for prom and dancing nights in high school. On the side, I'd upload makeup instructions to YouTube. Despite my years of experience, I maintain a humble demeanor and strive diligently to improve my makeup application skills.

Following my completion of my cosmetology school program and receipt of my license, I pursued a range of internships that taught me everything I know about lightening, facial contouring, lip lining, and more advanced methods like skin exfoliation, extraction, and lymphatic drainage.

After completing my internship, I was recruited by a local beauty shop in my hometown, where I was able to expand my knowledge of cosmetics and assist the salon's clients in feeling beautiful. I maintained a [mention the number] percent client satisfaction rate, worked with a variety of skin types, assisted in the provision of makeup and hair services to over [mention the number] clients per day, and developed beautiful and distinctive looks based on my own consultation with clients of varied skin tones and ages.

Thank you for your time and thought. I eagerly await your response and to know more about the opportunity.
