

Marjorie Bash Foundation
And
Department of Nursing Science, Abia State University
Cancer Control Course Outline November 10 – 12, 2022

Day 1 (Thursday, November 10)

Presentation	Learning Objectives	Speaker (s)
Registration and Opening formalities		Moderator (Department of Nursing)
Opening Remarks	Participants will appreciate the importance of cancer control and the commitment of the university in promoting cancer control in Abia State	Vice Chancellor
Ice-Breaker and Pretest	Participants will be able to introduce themselves using an ice-breaker game. They will also participate in the pretest to reflect on their knowledge and practice about cancer.	Dr. K. Eguzo
Cancer Overview (risk factors, etiology, nutrition, myths)	Participants will be able to identify some key risk factor and myths about cancers, especially regarding breast, cervical and prostate cancers	Dr. K. Eguzo
Cancer in Nigeria (Epidemiology)	Participants will be able to understand some statistics about cancers globally and in Nigeria, especially regarding breast, cervical and prostate cancers	Dr. K. Eguzo
Role of Primary Care in Cancer Control	Participants will be able to reflect and discuss the role of primary care providers in cancer control	Dr. K. Eguzo
Breast Cancer in a Nut-Shell	Participants will be able to identify some key risk factors, clinical features, screening/diagnosis and treatments of breast cancer. Emphasis on examination.	Dr. B. Brown
Breast Self-Examination (BSE) Demonstration	Participants will be able to learn about breast cancer using breast self-examination video.	Dr. B. Brown
Prostate Cancer in a Nut-Shell	Participants will be able to identify some key risk factors, clinical features, screening/diagnosis and treatments of prostate cancer. Emphasis on examination.	Dr. K. Eguzo
Discussions, Questions and Comments	Participants can ask questions regarding issues discussed during the day.	Moderator (Department of Nursing)
Closing formalities		Moderator (Department of Nursing)

Day 2 (Friday, November 11)

Presentation	Learning Objectives	Speaker (s)
Registration and House-keeping		Moderator (Department of Nursing)
Opening remarks and questions from yesterday	Participants can ask questions regarding issues discussed during the previous day.	Moderator (Department of Nursing)
Cervical Cancer in a Nut-Shell	Participants will be able to identify some key risk factors, clinical features, screening/diagnosis and treatments of cervical cancer. Emphasis on examination.	Dr. K. Nnah
Introduction to Visual Inspection with Acetic acid for cervical cancer screening	Participants will learn the fundamentals about visual inspection with acetic acid (VIA)	Dr. K. Nnah
Introduction to use of cryotherapy	Participants will learn the fundamentals about using the cryotherapy machine	Dr. K. Nnah
If You Suspect Cancer... Patient Navigation	Participants will learn practical ways to guide their patients with cancer diagnosis to navigate the Abia State health system. Discussions will also include how to work with faith and traditional healers.	Dr. K. Eguzo
Inter-Professional Collaboration	Participants will share their thoughts on how to better collaborate as professionals to improve cancer control, including data sharing. Discussions will also include how to work with faith and traditional healers.	Dr. B. Brown
Lunch	Participants will be able to network with presenters and other participants	Catering Services

Group A	Group B	Group C
Approach to clinical breast examination Dr. B. Brown	Approach to rectal/prostate and pelvic examination Dr. K. Eguzo	Approach to cervical cancer screening and cryotherapy Dr. K. Nnah
Relocation break
Approach to cervical cancer screening and cryotherapy Dr. K. Nnah	Approach to clinical breast examination Dr. B. Brown	Approach to rectal/prostate and pelvic examination Dr. K. Eguzo
Relocation and nutrition break
Approach to rectal/prostate and pelvic examination Dr. K. Eguzo	Approach to cervical cancer screening and cryotherapy Dr. K. Nnah	Approach to clinical breast examination Dr. B. Brown
Closing formalities		Moderator (Department of Nursing)

Day 3 (Saturday, November 12, 2022)

Presentation	Learning Objectives	Speaker (s)
Registration and House-keeping		Moderator (Department of Nursing)
Opening remarks and questions from yesterday	Participants can ask questions regarding issues discussed during the previous day.	Dr. K. Eguzo
Hands-on training on VIA, Cryotherapy, pap smear, clinical breast examination and digital rectal examination.	Participants will be able to learn and attempt relevant cancer screening such as VIA, pap smear, clinical breast examination and digital rectal examination on real clients.	Drs. Brown, Nnah, & Eguzo
Lunch	Participants will be able to network with presenters and other participants	Catering Services
Hands-on training on VIA, Cryotherapy, pap smear, clinical breast examination and digital rectal examination.	Participants will be able to learn and attempt relevant cancer screening such as VIA, pap smear, clinical breast examination and digital rectal examination on real clients.	Drs. Brown, Nnah, & Eguzo
Closing formalities		Moderator (Department of Nursing)

