Account creation is NOT necessary for money transfers. Some countries cannot register an account to Western Union. (eg. those in Turkey cannot register)

If making payment without an account (as a guest):

You will be asked to give out information that Western Union keeps hold of.

Receiver cannot view ANY of this information.

Paying on mobile phone

	MTCN = Money Transfer Control Number. Generated once payment is made. Payment to IBAN doesn't require sender's personal information. Receiver only needs to know MTCN. If your bank provides the option to pay via Western Union you will be needing to disclose the following information: • sender's country • sender's full legal name • amount paid • MTCN This payment method transfers money to IBAN. After successfully installing the mobile app for Western Union you will be greeted with this page. Menu leads to "Sign Up" "Log in" and various options. Account creation is not necessary for money transfers. Some countries cannot register an account to Western Union. (eg. those in Turkey cannot register)

This is where you ask the receiver for information.

Payment within bank account doesn't ask receiver of:

- receiver's email
- receiver's street address
- receiver's city/town
- receiver's postal code
- receiver's mobile number

However sender has to reveal private information with bank payment.

Within Western Union's own app, receiver's private info is mandatory to have to make payment.

I am open to both options, and prefer bank method however this document explains WU app method. If you are comfortable sharing your country and legal name & your bank has a deal with Western Union please pay from bank app. Thank you!

After entering payment method you will be referred to this section.

Please send me a screenshot before finalizing payment. Censor your name so that I cannot see.

After I review the information and you are directed to the "Receipt" page there will be an MTCN number I need to know for payment to go through.

That's all.

It takes a few business days for money to reach my end. Turkish banks do not proceed with money transfers on the weekend.
