

Adopted at MUG's November 2023 Congress

Whereas, the coming year will see an increase in discussions around democracy and the Constitution.

Whereas, the time is now for MUG to make a concerted effort to intervene in discussions around democracy and the Constitution.

Whereas, The declaration in the DSA's Political Program that the U.S. is "no democracy at all" and that socialists should call for a Constitutional Convention can be leveraged to strengthen the movement for a democratic constitution and a democratic republic.

Whereas, MUG members have the ideological foundation, resources, and contacts to create and disseminate interventions in the political discourse in the DSA and society at large.

Resolved, that Congress tasks the Programme Committee with also developing and implementing a strategy for agitating against the existing undemocratic Constitution and for a democratic Constitution through the program the committee is putting forward.
