In Ghent

Once you arrive in Ghent Sint-Pieters, the easiest way to get to the center is by public transport. Tram n° 1 drives every 15 minutes from the train station to the city center.

Information on the tickets can be found here:

<https://stad.gent/en/international-students/living/transport-travel/public-transport-ghent>

Easiest is to install the dedicated app for Flanders buses and trams on your phone, and buy a ticket there. You will also see when tram/bus will arrive. For android, the app is:

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.themobilecompany.delijn&hl=nl&gl=US>

You can also take a taxi: there is a taxi rank at the front of Ghent Sint-Pieters. Information on the prices, taxi ranks etc you find here:

4. Activities in Ghent

You can have a look on the following webpages

<https://visit.gent.be/en>

Ghent is a historic city with many views. World heritage in Ghent and must sees are:

- Ghent Belfry. Listen to the songs that play on it while walking around Ghent!
- Flemish Béguinages (There are two in Ghent, a small one in the city center, and one at the outskirts)
- Ghent historic town centre (on the nominative list of UNESCO)
- The Ghent Altarpiece, or 'The Adoration of the Mystic Lamb' by the Van Eyck brothers, completed in 1432, is recognized worldwide as a great work of art, and one of the most influential paintings ever made. Do PAY to visit it, reserve a spot and pay here: <https://www.sintbaafskathedraal.be/en/buy-tickets/>
- Ghent has 11 musea, hours and booking: <https://degentsemusea.be/en>
- Ghent is great to visit some of the other great cities less than 1 hour by train away: Antwerp (56 min), Bruges (25 min), Brussels (28 min). You can even reach Amsterdam in 2h17min or Paris in 2h
