Translations

O mio babbino caro

Oh my dear papa
I like him he is so handsome
I want to go to Porta Rossa
To buy the ring
Yes yes I want to get there
And if my love were in vain
I would go to the Ponte Vecchio
And throw myself into the Arno
I am pining I am tormented
Oh God I want to die!
Father have pity have pity
Father have pity have pity

Blue Bayou

I feel so bad I've got a worried mind
I'm so lonesome all the time
Since I left my baby behind
On Blue Bayou

Saving nickles, saving dimes
Working til the sun don't shine
Looking forward to happier times
On Blue Bayou

I'm going back someday,
Come what may
To Blue Bayou
Where the folks are fun
And the world is mine
On Blue Bayou

Where those fishing boats
With their sails afloat
If I could only see
That familiar sunrise
Through sleepy eyes
How happy I'd be

Oh that girl of mine
By my side
The silver moon
And the evening tide
Oh some sweet day
Gonna take away
This hurting inside

Well I'll never be blue
My dreams come true
On Blue Bayou

Mo Baziuk will graduate this spring with a Bachelor's in Music and a minor in Theatre. She has been a member of SMC Glee, Chamber Singers, and Jazz Singers throughout her four years. Since moving to the Bay Area, she has dedicated the past few years to working and singing for the residents at Aegis Moraga, an experience that has profoundly shaped her perspective on music. Inspired by the wisdom and warmth of the elderly, she now sees music in a deeper, more meaningful way. After graduation, Mo plans to continue performing live and, one day, hopes to grow old enough to join the audience she cherishes. Follow Mo's band, Mother Rain, @motherrainmusic and stream her new album, Starry Skies, on Spotify!

Mo would like to express her heartfelt gratitude to her incredible friends, family, and faculty members for their support in helping her find her voice. Your encouragement has been truly invaluable—thank you all! PS: Tara Sundy is a REAL ONE!
