

Kelly started her coaching career at West Chicago High School where she coached from 1993 to 1999. She was an assistant track coach and head cross country coach. She became the head girls track coach at Glenbard West in 2003. At the IHSA State Track & Field Championships, Kelly coached Glenbard West to first place finish in 2017 and third place finishes in 2013 in 2019. A total of 37 individuals and six relay teams, coached by Kelly have earned All State honors. Her teams have won three sectionals.

"She does a great job in taking young talent and spreading it out to get the most points out of their ability". Kelly has served as president of the Illinois Track and Cross Country Coaches Association. She has been a tireless worker to make sure the clinic has been a complete success for several years. She played a major role in moving the clinic to the Westin hotel in Lombard. Glenbard West hosts a lot of track meets every year and Kelly goes out of her way to make sure all have a great experience."
