".....Waaaaaa, waaaaaaaaaaaaah!"

A baby's cry comes from a quiet, sleeping house.

In what used to be Noike's room is a newborn Kenshi crying in a crib.

"... hm~~, yeah yeah"

Rea, who was sleeping on the bed next to her, stretched and got up.

"Wait a minute"

As Rea looked at Kenshi with half-asleep eyes, she heard the pitter-patter of small footsteps in the distance.

"Humyang!"

Ryo-chan hits the door with all her strength and a small yelp is heard.

".....are you OK?"

Rea with a wry smile looked at the entrance door, and Ryo-Ohki came through the wall.

"Miyaa! Myaa!"

Rea's worries are elsewhere, and Ryo-Ohki seems to be worried about Kenshi who is crying, she looks at Kenshi in a flustered way.

".....myah"

"Damn... well then, let's get you to breastfeed right away, Kenshi."

Ryo-Ohki looks at Kenshi, who is completely satisfied with his stomach full. Rea looks at the situation and opens her diary.

Kenshi is growing really well.

I am thankful that by being here I hardly have to do any housework. However, although I alone should just be taking care of Kenshi, Tenchi's group all want to act like his mother.

 in the crunchy subs this is translated that she can't rely on them and this text translate very poorly to english but I don't see any negatives in it i think they mistranslated this

Each word translated comes out to something like furthermoreKenshi's attention as much as but Say despite, after all to Tenchi-chan's people's mother positional soe very single positional so to do

"Are you still awake?" (in the ova Tennyo says this but here it is to Kenshi and cuts to an internal monologue)

this didn't make it in and is probably why the line is mistranslated there was supposed to be more context as you can see

I can't afford to be spoiled by Sasami and the others. But that's the advantage of having a big family.

A very big family...I wonder what Tenchi plans to do. I'm sure he's thought about it too because it concerns him, but if possible, I'd like things to stay like this. There is so much warmth here. Now, regarding Kenshi's health, which is the most worrying thing, I wonder what kind of situation we would be in without Washu-sama's support.

If anything comes up it can be dealt with immediately... That's more reassuring than having a team of specialists at a large hospital who will be with you 24 hours a day. It's safe here, but....there's always a chance she could perform dubious biological experiments, and if she gets a chance, she might force Kenshi into a dangerous Sacred Mechalord that could easily destroy the world over there. That's a problem we have to avoid. Well as for the Seikishin it seems best that Kiriko-chan has taken ownership of it. Luckily, Renza, like Geminor, is a world where giant robots exist...that Seikishin will give her strength. I feel really sorry for Kiriko, I had no choice but to kneel down and apologize when she returned home safely.

end of cut content

There was a modest knock, followed by Tenny's voice.

Tenny and Rea look lovingly at Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki, who were sleeping next to each other. They had moved into the solarium. Nobuyuki's workshop was being set up there, and there was a table set for meetings with guests.

"She's already acting like Kenshi's big sister... even though I'm his real big sister."

"Please don't feel rivalry towards Ryo-chan, Tenny-sama."

"Don't give be so formal, My mother-in-law."

"Oh, please.... "my mother-in-law". Until recently, we were sisters, and Nobuyuki-san is not a royal (正統) Juraian....."

正統 translates out as orthodox or legitimate, Crunchyroll put pure. however this uses the kanji Masa used in the royal Masaki's vs the non royal ones. And the kanji Sou for ruling it may be mistranslated)

"Certainly, it's unnatural to change now, isn't it, Ms. Rea (Rea-san)?"

"Yes, Ms. Tenny. By the way, how is the progress of the investigation?"

"Well, I thought I'd take a look at Kenshi's face and ask Rea to listen to my complaints."

"Of course, it's probably something to do with me... but what is it?"

"I was surprised when I opened her treasure trove. You see, my mother didn't seem to have much desire for material things, so I thought this would be easy..."

"When you actually saw it, did it turn out to be amazing?"

"It's already a devil's cave, a devil's cave! It's a room that's never been cleaned up, it's a garbage house."

there is no scene where she almost wakes up Kenshi that seems to be an adlib added in

She used to stick her neck into everything that piqued her interest, then messed around a bit, got bored and disappeared. With that kind of attitude, she brought all sorts of things from here and there, threw them into the subspace warehouse, and forgot about them..."

There is no flashback written here like in the ova

"Well, I suppose so... it must look amazing."

"That unnecessarily over-excessive vitality over two-and-a-half-century created layers of junk. It's already a nightmare. Grandmother's stuff is classified scientifically, so it's easy to understand, but mother didn't think like that, so there's no telling what's what... And some of the stuff is just things taken from various research institutes. There were quite a few documents and experimental samples that she just took with her."

"Were there any items reported as stolen?"

"Luckily nothing among the things I've found so far. I'm guessing she went out and brought them back with her in her usual way. It's all from the Galaxy Academy lab, of course, so there's labels attached. I looked them up from the materials and the sorting number. I hurriedly went to return them and I came with the sweets. Everyone laughed and said, "That's just like that girl." I never thought I'd be forced to do something embarrassing like that again by her!"

Even though she was angry, she kept her voice low because it was late at night and Kenshi and the others were sleeping.

"Well... that's just Kiyone nee-san."

"It would be nice if it was just that."

uh...

Tennyo's expression was complicated, a bit more frustrated than disgusted.

"... Grandmother seems to have given her mother a high level of education, but looking at the scribbled memos attached to the items she brought out, I can see that her research notes were written at what would be considered a very high level of education. If I were to put it this way, it was written by someone educated to the level of being able to pass entrance exams for a first-class university, like someone giving proper advice to a world-class researcher."

"T-In other words, you're saying that she was really well self-taught?"

"Really?"

"She made a bunch of really good points. If she had proper guidance, well, I'm at the level of becoming a semi-philosopher. I'm sure She could've been one of the top class disciples of grandma-chan."

"It's really irritating knowing that... but I don't think it would have been suitable for her personality."

"Ah~~~~, well, that might be true."

nothing about doing better by having an aide is here in the text this was an addition to the final version of the ova

"Hahaha, Rea-chan...Do you know what your father is called over there? God, saint, super duper-masochist? They called him that just because he married and lived together with her. Seriously, the Human Rights Deliberative Committee did an investigation, you know?"

"...was she that bad?"

"Hahaha....."

"If you asked me to assist such a troublesome person, you'd have a problem. That's a human sacrifice. People would start a protest."

"Either way, it's too late for 'ifs' now. But maybe it's precisely because she had that talent that she decided to solve your problem herself Rea..."

"Or maybe it's because she was hesitant to talk about me to other people, like Airi-sama?"

"It's true that she sympathized with you Rea, but I think it's a little wrong to apply common sense to my mother's good intentions. She probably just didn't want someone else to take her precious plaything."

"....That sounds about right"

"It's irresponsible, though, since she never finished, isn't it?"

"However, in the end, you're here Tennyo-san doing your best. I really appreciate it."

Rea gave a deep bow to Tennyo.

"Don't do that, I'm grateful to you Ms. Rea for taking care of Tenchi and my father."

"Well, I've never thought of that as a burden."

"That's why I want to thank you even more. Thank you."

"You're welcome."*

Stuff was added in here and a scene transition was added in the finished ova*

"As for Rea-san and Kenshi-chan, my grandmother and I will do something about it."

"I said earlier that it was irresponsible, but although Kiyone-nee-san was capricious, she wasn't that irresponsible."

"Well, there was always a chance of unforeseen circumstances, so it was irresponsible for her not to think about having Grandmother take over halfway through. I'm sorry."

"Really, what have you found going on over there?"

"There was something that looked like a journal, so there was no doubt that she was researching a way back, but the contents of the journal itself were mostly irrelevant scribbles. So I guess she would just leave notes and scribbles here and there."

"Aren't you going to use the precision scan auto check features?"

"I would like to, but the research materials that my mother brought out are highly protected. The storage unit itself had high level protection. I wondered how hard it was going to be just to peek inside, lucky my biometric authentication was authenticated relatively easily."

"Could it be that subspace warehouse..."

"Of course, it was something she borrowed without permission."

"I see, so that's why you've decided to stay here all the time... Thank you for your hard work."

"It's not so bad if you think of it as me relaxing by spending time here with my brothers."

"So, how's the investigation going?"(Rea)

"Are you worried about the situation over there?"(Tennyo)

"What happened to the sisters I left behind... I'm especially worried about Neizai, who was originally supposed to come here."

"..... Huh?... I see....but unfortunately, there are still no clues...aah!?"

At that time, Chibi Tokimi appeared on the top of Tennyo's head.

"I don't mind telling you about it."

Rea and Tennyo were stunned by Chibi Tokimi's words.

"Wow, You know about where I'm from!?"

"I am a god after all."

"I won't give you too much information, and I won't interfere."

"I would appreciate it if you could get off my head before that." With a confused look on her face, Tennyo stopped Rea.

"Uhuhuhu.As if you're that delicate.", Chibi Tokimi said as she moved onto the table.

"Didn't you hear that we created this world in order to create beings with powers like your little brother? Our interference must be kept to a minimum, but even one word of ours has a great impact on this world. Can you understand what that means?"

"If it's just a complaint, I'll listen to you. I don't mind if you use this lovely figure to distress."

"Oh, you're so squishy and you smell so good... As expected of a god, and you're so comfortable to hold."

"...uhm what... about me." (Rea)

"Is she dead?"

"I'll do my best... I understand. Thank you."

Chibi Tokimi disappeared after saying that.

The moment Tennyo said that, Kenshi in the next room started crying.

"Hurry up, Ayeka-san, Sasami-chan." (Cut)

Ryo-Ohki wakes up Ayeka and Sasami, and Tennyo and Rea call out to them. (Cut)

"Ah! Good morning, Tennyo-oneechan! Mother Rea."

"Good morning"

"Good morning, Kenshi-chan."(Ayeka)

"Ah~~"Kenshi waves his hands as if greeting Sasami and the others.

"Good morning, Ryoko onee-chan."(Sasami)

"Yah~~" (Ryoko)

The four of them went straight to the Masaki family's living room. From the ceiling, as usual, Tenchi and Ryo-Ohki' chasing each other could be heard

"Good morning Noike Onee-chan!"

"Good morning everyone. Mother, shouldn't you be sleeping?"

"It's okay. I just want something to do."

"I understand. Then please help me."

"Sorry for taking your room."

Noike glances down the stairs to the basement and sees a sleepy Mihoshi coming up.

"Originally, this was my father (in law)'s house. I have a ship, so we're just sleeping there, so please don't worry about it. And it's no big deal, I've known Mihoshi for a long time since we met in the GP.

Then, while Noike and the others are watching, Sasami hands Mihoshi an insect net, and Mihoshi walks unsteadily in the direction indicated.

".....Oh, you're all here." Washu said as she came out the door to the lab.

"Oh~~Kenshi-chan. Come to your big sister." Washu hugs Kenshi as if snatching him from from Rea.

"Washu-sama! I'm his real sister."(Tenny)

"No matter what happens, your big sister will heal you right away."

Washu ignores Tenny and heads to her usual position to begin Kenshi's routine checkup.

"Huh!...Huh?"

Chibi Tokimi comes with a newspaper as she glares at Washu with frustration.

Mihoshi and Ryo-Ohki, who was now caught in an insect net, returned to the living room.

Ryo-chan saw Kenshi and ran up to him.

"Sister, I brought the newspaper."

"Thank you."

"Miyaa! Myaa!?"

(So in the early planned script Tokimi is frustrated that Washu is distracted from taking the paper and in the final ova she already took it and instead of flying awkwardly Ryo was supposed to get out of the net somehow and run up to Kenshi.)

"Kuh!"

"It's okay, Kenshi-chan is fine."

A friendly atmosphere unfolds around Washu.

Rea and the others watch over Tenny with a wry smile.

"Good morning everyone"

And then Tenchi came down the stairs.

Rea and the others greeted him, and the others also turned their gazes to Tenchi.

"Kenshi looks fine, too."

"Mia" Then Tenchi tried to approach Kenshi who was being held by Washu.

"Tenchi-chan~~n.

Then, Tennyo clung to him as if she was tackling him, and everyone looked at him with lukewarm eyes.

As usual, Tenchi went to the field before breakfast. Almost everyone saw them off, and Tennyo, who was healed by Tenchi, smiled broadly.

"If you're worried about Kenshi, he's fine, alright?"

Ryo-Ohki, who always follows Tenchi, was a little confused because she was worried about Kenshi.

Looking up at Rea and the others, she was relieved that they were watching over Kenshi, she gave Kenshi a cheek rub and jumped to Tenchi.

"Okay, let's go."

After being sent off by the Masaki family, Tenchi headed off to work in the fields.

".....Now that I've finished replenishing my health gauge, I can go back to work!" Tennyo, who was waving until Tenchi was out of sight, placed her hand on her hip and puffed out her chest.

【Five years later】

A gaunt Tennyo is hunched over the table in the Masaki family's living room.

"Are you okay, Tennyo-sama?"

Kiriko and Karen looked at her worriedly. Rea was next to her with a wry smile.

"You don't have to add sama. Kiriko-chan, you're already part of the royal Masaki family."

"That's true, but... it's hard to change old habits."

"On official occasions, you are a member of the Jurai royal family, and I am a commoner, Kiriko-sama."

"...that that is then and this is now. I'm tired of worrying about that in a place like this."

"It's been a long time since becoming a member of the royal family and going to Renza, are you still not used to it?"

"That's why I want to relax down here. So do they, after all they're members of the Renza royal family. Gyokuren is the head of one of Renza's Five Royal Family, a true queen." She glared at Karen who was next to her, but Karen silently averted her gaze.

"Here we are just ladies-in-waiting attending Seina-sama."

"Well, that little and cute Seina-chan isn't even here..." Tennyo remained prostrate on the table, staring at Kiriko and Karen alternately. "Wow, even I never thought something like this would happen back then."

"Kuh!"

"Tsukiko-chan didn't hold back either. It looks like that's going to cause a lot of trouble in the future." she glanced towards the garden and saw Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki playing with a woman. It was a woman named Jovia from Renza.

-----this next few lines cut probably for time-----

"Thanks to you, I was able to catch a gap when I was following her on her way home."
"It seems that Seto-sama plotted it. I have zero right to take the credit? Isn't that right?"
And Tennyo glanced at Rea, followed by Kiriko and others.

"To be honest, I'm also relieved. More than that, I'm sorry that I caused Kiriko-san trouble with that other matter."

"Ugwaa!?"

"Kenshi-chan it's cool, isn't it?"

At the laboratory, Washu was happily designing something while holding Kenshi in her arms.

"...is it the 'strongest robot' that Washu-sama said she wouldn't come up with" Behind Washu stood a glaring Rea

"Oh No! It's insane to use it on a planet like that."

"I heard you have earned various nicknames." Tennyo's words made Kiriko's shoulders drop.

"Well... from the names, I can tell there's a lot of malice..."

"Please don't bully me."

"I'm only mean Because I've been in a dark pit-like octopus room. Day after day, fighting with my mother's garbage, while she was having a lot of fun over there."

"It's no fun!"

"Do you think I don't know? Didn't you say you had adventures in another world?"

"Ugh!?... well After all, there was a fantasy world in front of me." Kiriko's tone is a bit childish, as if she's gone back in time.

"So you joined the adventurer's guild and did a great job?"

"Please leave her be." Rea interceded.

"Wait, I'm looking forward to seeing the elf girl you picked up from over there. Besides, I bet she can relate."

"Oh, come to think of it, didn't Rea-sama transfer here from another dimension?" Kiriko, who had dropped her shoulders, quickly raised her head with interest.

"You really like that kinda thing, don't you?(tennyo)

"Did you have a hard time finding that material?"

"I think Kiriko-chan remembers her mother well, but she was a rough person, so she couldn't gather decent research data or materials. It felt like there were notes left here and there that could be mistaken for scribbles..."

"I've had a lot of trouble with it."

As typical, the villagers were making conversation as they drank alcohol?

-----this whole thing is pretty different here-----

"I chased after the traces left behind on various junk... and my mother wasn't shy of writing, so I'm basically grasping at straws in the dark."

"Certainly... you can tell from your body language."

"But when I was about to give up, I thought there might be something in the massive collection of diaries my father keeps."

"Was anything in there?" Tennyo nodded slightly at Kiriko's question.

"My father was really diligent about his writing, and mom wrote various things over it as if she were correcting him."

"Oh... Tenchi-chan's picture book, and Seina-chan also has a doodle..."

"She scribbled everywhere like a child! It's not just here and there, she wrote quite frequently everywhere... I ended up reading all kinds of embarrassing love stories about my parents."

"Do you mean... from the beginning?"

"From the beginning. It's been a long time since my father was destroyed by my mother..."

"The way he started wanting to marry that thing was like witnessing someone mentally breaking down. My grandmother thought he'd make a special specimen."

"Umm... wasn't that an embarrassing love story to watch?"

Unlike Kiriko and Rea, who vaguely guessed it, Karen seemed a little confused.

"It's the same as Utsumi-sama who married Seto-sama."

"Oh! I understand."

"That's more accurate than anything else. That being said, even in that love story full of psychological horror, my father's naivety is pretty amazing. She left him worn out and tattered."

"Broken? Would Kiyone nee-san really do that?"

"Well, it's kind of in a romantic way."

"...if you don't mind, could you show it to me too?"

"Since it was sorted through, I moved it to the common subspace storage for materials."

"Thank you" Tennyo's cheeks loosened at the cuteness of Rea.

----- cut -----

"It would have been nice if there was more emotion in my mother's notes. In Kiriko-chan's words She was a very physically linguistic writer, so it's not written."

"There's notes from around the time I was born, but it only says 'cute'. It's 'cute when you poop' or 'cute when you burp.'"

"That's just like Kiyone nee-san..."

"What about Seina-chan?"

"Well it seems like with Tenchi she was happy she'd express the degree of cuteness by layering things with 'cute'. so things with seina were about the same as with Tenchi, Though it's like 'cute with bandages' or 'cute with blood'." Everyone was speechless about this.

"I could tell that she didn't care at all about being involved in Seina-chan's bad luck

Ah, by the way, when it comes to Kai-chan, 'Tsukiko-chan looks so cute'."

"That's an accurate expression." Kiriko replied naturally. Rea and Karen were silent.

"So, did that diary contain the results of Rea's investigation?"

"Yes"

"So you were able to identify Rea's world?"

"It seems she found out at an unexpectedly early stage. But the plan was to send Rea's child over there, right?"

"Ah, that's why, while I was taking my time, unfortunately she passed away and there was a setback..." Kiriko and the others noticed Tennyo's face looked as if she had chewed on a bitter bug.

".....What's wrong? Is there a problem?"

"Yeah... the main reason why the plan was stopped in the middle of it was the birth of Tenchi and then meeting Seina. It was a proper account, but... As expected, I don't know exactly what happened immediately before her death, because my mother hadn't scribbled in my father's diary yet."

"That's right. Nobuyuki-san's diaries are written for each month, and she also writes about her work, so was probably going to be put in the archives that year. But it never happened..."

-----differs here as well-----

"Did you think something happened around that time? For example, Kiyone's....."

"Your grandmother was doing the investigation into the cause of your mother's death, and it was labeled a 'sudden death' due to the standard burnout syndrome... Uh?...Did I say something offensive?" Kiriko was confused as to why Tennyo stared at her.

-----back to final-----

"No, no. Kiriko-chan's your parent's house has books right, isn't there some my mother gave you?"

"Ah, yes. If I recall, most of them were fantasy-related... wait..." Kiriko glanced at Rea.

"Most of what mom gave you, she borrowed from libraries here and there. It was sci-fi that involved transferring to another world, right? I think she wanted to go to Rea's world herself."

"Th-that's what Kiyone nee-san might do...!" And everyone stared at Jovia playing with Kenshi outside. "What if it was Not to transfer to another world... but reincarnation?" Everyone was silent for a few minutes.

".....hahaha...don't you think that's overthinking things?"

"That's right."

Gaeaeaeae~n

At that moment, a terrifying roar was heard from the garden. When everyone looked at the garden, a giant sea dragon-like creature was roaring from the pond.

"Myaa!"

"Hahaha! Did you see this! are you surprised?" Jovia stood up in front of the sea dragon and laughed loudly.

"Gyaeaeaeaeae!" Laval barks as if to boast of his own intimidation. Ryo-Ohki and others were watching with excitement.

"Hey! What are you doing!" Kiriko and others flew in with raised blood pressure.

"Uuhuhahoo! Fear my summoned beast, sea dragon-class 'Laval'!"

-----cut lines-----

"Don't summon that kind of thing! Did you forget common sense after reincarnating!?"

"What is common sense? Is it delicious? Hahahaha!"

"Gyawoo"

However, Laval changed his expression when he saw Ryo-Ohki, and suddenly dived into the pond and showed his belly.

Jovia stares dumbfounded at Raval, who is flirting with Ryo-Ohki as he plays tricks and rubs his cheek against hers.

I'm not sure what's going on

"Gyauu!"

"Hey, you're not an Ancient Dragon class, but you're a Semi-Dragon upper class, aren't you? What, you're flirting with that little girl! What kind of high-level trick is that! You seem strangely familiar with it!?"

"Well, it can't be helped. Ryo-chan is Fuku-chan's big sister."

".....Uwaa!? You mean this fluffy Furball is her older sister....."

"By the way, Ryo-chan is superior in terms of single combat power."

"Damn it! Go back to Mikura, er i mean Raval!" Raval roared and the magic circle drawn by Jovia shattered.

"What! This bastard broke the summoning contract! How many sugar cubes did I give you? What are you thinking!"

"Gau?"

"Kuh!" Raval tilted his head and quickly started to circle around the pond with Ryo-Ohki and Kenshi on his back.

"Dragons are summoned with sugar cubes...?"

"Well you can't get back what's already in his stomach now can you?"

".....Ah"

"But if your opponent is Ryo-chan, it's cruel to blame that Sea Dragon." Kiriko grabbed the frustrated Jovia by the collar and drug her home.

"Kiriko-san, are you going to leave that sea dragon as it is?" When asked by Rea, she was stunned by how familiar she was with Renza's fantasy world.

-----Tenchi does not show up in like he does here in the final draft of the ova leading to the first major cut section-----

"What happened out there?" Kiriko, who brought Jovia back to the living room, asked the first question.

By the way, since Ryo-Ohki and Kenshi looked sad, the Sea Dragon was left as is.

"What are you talking about? I'm the same as usual."

"I don't want you to get used to it, but I've known you for a long time."

".....Chee! You've got a good eye."

"It's easy to understand you once you've gotten used to you." Karen nodded.

"Kuh!..... I'll admit that. Even Echin and the others knew."

(it seems like she has a habit of using chin instead of chan, and I'm sure this is a penis (chinpo) joke)

"What happened over there? did something happen to your family?"

"They were in such good spirits that I hated it. No...my friends found out about me."

"They you found out... did you actually talk to them!?"

"I couldn't help it.

"I'm sure.....wait do you mean?"

".....yes"

"Time flows differently here and there, and it's only been about eight years since I died here. However, the streets and the people who live there are no different from my memories of my previous life. "In other words, this Japan is definitely my previous life. So I thought in a rural town that's not even a famous tourist spot, a foreigner like me will stand out, so I'll disguise myself..." Jovia took out and put on sunglasses, a mask, and a deep hat, a classic disguise worn by celebrities.

"I think that stands out too much."

"It was okay! Everyone was looking away. So, among those people, who definitely weren't staring at me, I noticed that there was a group of people who were whispering from time to time. When I looked closely, I noticed they're old friends. I didn't realize it right away because they were on the phone. There, and then there he was..."

"Are you sure this person was Sachin?"

"Oh, my best friend, who killed me indirectly, called to me, or so I thought, he was observing me for a while, but suddenly he approached me and said, 'It's been a long time.'"

"What? Did you mistake me for someone else?"

"No he properly called me by my name from my previous life.

"What do you mean?"

"..... well the friends I met for the first time told Sachin that there was a suspicious person."

""Well, you look like that."" Everyone there nodded deeply.

""I see!"" but 'Suspicious' is one of my old nicknames."

Kiriko and Karen unintentionally raised their voices at Jovia's displeased words.

""It fits Perfectly!""

"Thank you for your annoying remarks."

"Well, even if you were completely convinced, the fact that your friend called you by a nickname means, well does that mean that your friend had a certain degree of certainty?"

"It's easy to understand once you get used to what Kiriko-chan said earlier, right? About my mother.. Even if she 'reincarnated', if she still had memories of my previous life, I'm confident I would notice her"

".....Well, that's what it is." Jovia nodded bitterly at Tenny's remark.

"Even if that's true, whether or not you suddenly believe in reincarnation..."

"Humph! Sachin is even more 'Otaku' than I am! What's more, he's a super geek with a lot of brain rot from it. "Reincarnation in another world" is a big deal." It's his favorite."

"If you didn't admit to it, wouldn't it have ended as just a misunderstanding?"

"Kyu... Kameya's deluxe parfait got me bad!" Jovia clenched her fists and groaned.

"In my previous life, that was the greatest reward for me!"

"In other words, you were lured in by that 'Kameya' deluxe parfait?"

"I was going to run away as soon as I ate it, but... the nostalgic taste made me happy, so I ended up talking to him..."

"....You mean you fell into the perfect trap."

"And with just one sweet, huh... it was that simple." Kiriko and Karen, who had known each other for a long time, had most astonished faces.

"Well, the desserts made by Kiriko-san and Karen-san are the best and also top of the line, right? But there are times when potato chips and junk food are good too! And Jovia fell down on the table,

"The only resistance I could put up was to buy that coward three cups of Delux parfait~ I cried aloud lying to myself.

"Is it crazy to remember someone you don't know?" Airi, of course, came to Rea's mind.

"It's okay, Mrs. Rea. I think it's not that strange, and if you're right...perhaps it's why Seina-chan is obsessed with Mecha and sci-fi things?"

(They say that kinda type this they mean mechas and scifi)

Rea and Tennyo weren't whispering, but they were talking normally with exasperated faces.

"So how much did you talk? Who knows about you?"

"Uh, I didn't say anything related to space, so don't worry.

"Yes....." Only Sachin knows that I came here. I made him promise to tell my other friends it was a trick." Kiriko relaxed her expression as if relieved.

"Then how is your family doing according to your friend?"

"Well, it seems that a lot of things happened after my accident, but it seems that Sachin on took a lot of trouble. Of course, he was responsible for most of the accident! My reputation is ruined! It's fine because I'm dead, but if I was alive, I'd be embarrassed and suicidal!"

.....that's a gag that only you can say. It's questionable that your current reputation is good."

Karen agreed with Kiriko on the irony of the statement.

"That's not a big deal, but I don't want to be falsely accused of corruption that was forced on me by Sachin!"

"Is it somehow only wrong because he was corrupting you and not the other way around?"

"The woman who was always wiping her buttocks was crying, wasn't she?"

"I want to cry more than you! Actually, my previous mother secretly watched Sachin's rotten doujin that I was hiding from long ago, and after my death, she and Sachin talked about rotten things!? I don't want a mother who gets excited about rotten stuff with her classmates!"

"That's another nice boomerang of a twist."

"Actually, I've been a closet otaku for a long time, and recently I've been reading online novels, and I've even learned about beings reincarnated into another world, so I was shocked when she told me and I believed her right away!" Karen said in a Serious tone Jovia gracefully ignored her and continued talking.

"So you're going to ask about it obviously so let's get to it, "if you let her know that I'm still alive in the form of reincarnation, my mother will be happy", yes but....."

"That's no good! The moment I tell my mother about it, the whole neighborhood will know and then it will be known throughout the town in less than three days. So for now, I'm just going to consult with Satchin and see how things go." "

"Well That's fine...I wouldn't call that a bad situation. Why were you in such a depressed mood?"

"Even if I was a human there in my previous life, I'm a stranger now... I was melancholy thinking that I had no choice but to look at this nostalgic place from the outside!"

"Yeah... Well, you're just that kind of person, aren't you?"

Kiriko and the others were amazed. Tennyo and Rea half laughed. Then, They heard the sound of a car stopping with tremendous force.

-----the Tenchi comes back and sees the dragon scene is put here-----

"Oh No! Tenchi-kun and Nobuyuki-san are back!"

"Oh no! He saw that sea dragon."

"Hmm? It doesn't matter, you're an alien, right?" Seeing everyone panicked, Jovia seemed puzzled.

"Why is everyone taking this so seriously?"

"Kiriko-san, I'm glad you're doing well. I heard about the situation from Seina-kun, but it must have been difficult." Kiriko and the others, who are talking with Tenchi and Nobuyuki, seem a little uncomfortable. Jovia was forced to sit on her knees a bit far away, and Chibi Tokimi sat on her head.

"Yeah, but I was able to come home safely like this, and there were many fun things."

"Kiriko-chan, you were in high spirits joining the adventurer's guild over there."

Even though Jovia was forced to sit on her knees, she never forgot her Tsukkomi kansai funny man routine. Tenchi also let out a big sigh as if he was amazed at Jovia's lack of discipline. sitting straight Ryo-Ohki and Kenshi quietly approached Jovia and began to mess with her.

"Damn, looks like she's already been certified as a fun toy."

"Well... Ms.. Jovia, could you entertain them? Of course, please don't summon anything."

"Oh, Understood! Ngya!"

"Myaa!" Jovia, who tried to stand up because her legs were numb, fell down and stiffened.

At that moment, Ryo-Ohki and Kenshi started attacking Jovia's leg.

"Damn it! You little ones. I'll have my revenge!" Jovia crawled like a snake and rolled into the garden and Ryo-Ohki and Kenshi ran away after her.

"...It reminds me of someone."

"Everyone agrees" Everyone smiled wryly at the stormy Jovia.

"Tenchi, it's time to start talking."

"Oh yeah....." Tenchi straightened himself and turned to face Kiriko and the others.

"Before that, I would like to apologize for causing you all sorts of trouble. Regarding Kenshi-chan's case, Amare and the others should have acted as a deterrent instead of Rea-san....."

"That's really cruel to expect that much of those two."

Rea and Tennyo were on the verge of laughing, while Tenchi and Nobuyuki were also smiling.

"At that point, even grandmother was neutralized. Amare-chan and Gyokuren had no choice but to nod silently. Only Kiriko-chan would have been able to lash out at the Galactic Federation's top guys." Karen averted her gaze and held back her laughter at Kiriko, who frowned a little complicatedly.

"Well, those two girls were just used to create an alibi so they could say that they talked to Seina-chan."

"I think I can understand that, however."

"Thanks to Mitoto-sama, we were able to make a safe soft landing so everything's ok isn't it?"

While saying that, Tennyo looked at Tenchi and the others.

"Hahaha, you noticed we were watching after all."

"Father"

"Hmm? Oh, that's right."

Prompted by Tenchi, Nobuyuki turned to Kiriko.

"Actually, it's related to Kenshi, but I have something to talk about with Kiriko-chan."

"To me?"

"Are we going to build our house here? But we have a house in Masaki's village....."

Kiriko stared at Tenchi and the others in surprise, or rather, in bewilderment.

"Kiriko-san has become a member of the original royal Masaki family, and Seina-kun also has a first generation Royal Tree."

"I already brought it up to Seina."

"Seina-chan... what did he have to say about it?"

"He agreed with me about the house."

"In that case, I have no objections, but I still think it's up to me, he shouldn't consult with other people..."----- this isn't how it goes in the final he left it up to her-----

"I don't want you to misunderstand that, but basically it's the Earth Masaki family, that is, Seina and Kiriko's house, who are from this planet. I think you should live here."

"Oh, ah... is that so? But if that's the case, I don't think Masaki's village will be much different, is it?"

"Kiriko-chan, you don't have to hold back like that, do you?"

"However, the core of our activities is the Galaxy Academy, and there is the possibility that we will not be able to return for a long time due to sudden events like this one."

"Kiriko and the others went to Renza in the middle of the wedding ceremony, so the marriage wasn't established, right?"

"Yes. Kiriko looked at Karen as if to urge him."

"We will be announcing our relationship with Renza at the same time, so it may take a while, but the identities of the four of us will be announced at that time, so depending on the situation, Seina-sama and us may announce our engagement. We also have plans for Earth." Karen continued.

"So I'm grateful for your kindness, but on the contrary, I'm sorry for the inconvenience..."

"The reason I said it was related to Kenshi was because I wanted it to act as a deterrent to Seto-sama and the others here."

"oh!"

Chapter two

Rea smiled wryly and stopped Kiriko.

"Ah... Ah, I see..."

"And Seina-chan and Kiriko-chan are going to be officially married..."

While saying that, Rea shifted her gaze to Kenshi in the garden.

Kiriko and Karen both realized the meaning at the same time.

The Kamidake was floating in outer space, Kiriko and other women gathered on the bridge.

"Our home on earth, huh..."

"First of all, it's to keep Kenshi-chan from unreasonable interference by Seto-sama, but more than that, the Masaki family are also concerned about Seina-chan and our child."

Kiriko had a serious expression on her face in front of everyone.

"Oh, I see. Neeju was the first to nod."

In other words, how are we going to raise our children?"

"I see, that's a troublesome problem." After Neeju, Amane and Ryoko also noticed the problem. "Kiriko's child is Jurai, Amane is the academy, I am the Kingdom of Balta, and Neeju is the same Amane."

"As long as they are Seina-sama's children, either way, the safest way would be to go to the academy." said Hakuren

"However, considering Seina-sama's position and characteristics, it seems highly likely that raising them at the academy will cause quite a lot of trouble."

"There are various groups who'd try to use those children."

"Yes. In that respect, Earth can completely prevent that."

"It's an early civilization planet, and it's the hometown of the First Empress of Jurai, Funaho-sama, and on top of that, it's got Tenchi-kun and the others, who are guard dogs."

"Tenchi-kun approached you with that in mind, didn't he?" (Amane)

"That's true, but..."

"In a way, it's the safest place in the universe."

Mihoshi, Jurai 2nd generation battleship "Ryuou" and enhanced 3rd generation ship "Kyoko" first-generation Jurai ship 'Funaho'. They easily beat Tarant, and even a surprise attack from the Daedalus with a large fleet before that."

"Even when we're not on duty, or when things go wrong like Renza, Tenchi says he'll take care of us."

"Then there's no reason to refuse, is there?" Amane looks over everyone, but no one seems to object.

"There's one more thing. If we're going to raise our children on Earth, we need to have a wedding here too."

"Ah!"

"To be precise, it means that we have Japanese nationality."

"I don't think you need to worry about that much, do you?" and Ryoko look around at the others, all smiling.

"Since it's just an alibi for the sake of a child, shouldn't Seina-sama and Kiriko-san be the only two on Earth?"

-----they added a lot here in the final-----

"As for our children, it would be fine if Seina recognized him and treated him as Kiriko's adopted children."

"Before we rush into that, wouldn't having mistresses cause a respectability problem towards Seina?" Amane and the others offered words of concern, but Kiriko looked philosophical and said, "Seina's too late to avoid a bad reputation. Of course those attending the marriage won't mind if there are four brides."

"They'll just say 'Tear him apart!'" Jovia suddenly appeared.

"Come on, this is the part where you all fall on the ground!"

"You really come out of nowhere a lot. I have no intention of going out with that Kansai comedy routine."

"Don't put down the excitement I have after seeing a nostalgic stage play comedy for the first time in a while!"

"...Then it's decided that everyone will participate in the reception on Earth." Kiriko starts talking to ignore Jovia.

"So how many people does that include?" It was Miki who said that with a cold glance at Jovia.

"Even if it's just Kiriko and the others for the time being, what about after that?"

"Well, I'll have to think about that at that time. Of course, if it's in space, we will include Miki-san and the others, we'll have a proper wedding, you know?"

"I phrased my question poorly. In other words, who will be living in houses built on earth."

"Oh! Of course, the people who are here now..." Kiriko paused and glanced at Jovia.

"...All of them will be accounted for. Acha-chan and Ainren-san and the others need to be disguised as Earthlings, but Miki-san and the others are disguised as Earthlings. As long as you don't transform you should be fine"

"But how are you going to raise your children? If we follow Masaki's tradition, we should raise them as earthlings. But that would be an issue for the Wau girl.

"Washu-sama will take care of that, so you don't have to worry about it. Even among the people of Masaki, there were people who looked different from Japanese people. That thing has already been dealt with in Masaki village."

"They have a 'coming-of-age ceremony', right? I've heard it. Sounds interesting. I'm going to participate, too."

"Even if I say no, you're still going to come out, right?" Kiriko sighed, and Jovia responded with a V sign. Kiriko let out a sigh

"That's a prankster for you..."

"Well, if you go up to space, you'll be exposed to the ferocity of Airi-sama.

So this level of pranking plus Jovia is a bit of a rite of passage."

"Hahaha! What do you mean?" (Jovia- this is a Kansai bit)

"Then what kind of house should we build? Amane ignores Jovia and continues.

"Ignoring me?"

"The site is on the opposite side of Tenchi-kun's pond."

"Hoho...that's fun" After all, women were very interested in building a house. Everyone's eyes are shining.

-----huge section of cut content-----

"I'll tell you, we can't do anything too fancy! It's a house in a private position on Earth. We can't build anything too strange either!"

"I know, I know!"

"Well, it would be nice to have a place where everyone can relax and play with the kids, but there are examples like Tenchi's father. Isn't that a bad thing?"

"I heard, I heard! Do you like old shoujo manga? I heard that Tsukiko-san and Masaki's children were also freeing them, right?"

"That's...that's right."

"I'll tell you, I'm not the rotten person, so I'll think about zoning, you know?"

"Well, that censorship should be done by Kiriko-san.

So back to the house wouldn't the house that Amane-san bought at the academy for Seina-sama's training be a good model case?"

"Yes. It might be a good idea."

"Seina's personal space was still basically six tatami mats."

"It's the same here even though there's so much space in the Kamidake... Anyway, let's think about it while actually doing a simulation."

Kiriko and the others moved to a large space for simulated combat training inside the Kamidake. And what was projected there was the image of the around the Earth Masaki house.

"Here is the planned site."

A plain covered with vegetation is created.

"First of all, the front door and the entrance?"

"Putting aside the entrance, is it necessary to have one with a foyer?"

"Well....In the form of this house, the entrance is a dirt floor... It's like a kind of workshop with a roof, so I just turned it into the living room. It's fine."

"But, considering the pattern of life in Amame's house, it seems to me that the living room and dining room are the places where most of the residents were, right? It seems to me that most of the time everyone was there except when they were out of the house or sleeping."

Neiju's words made everyone recall their own patterns of behavior.

"I think it's true," Neiju said. "We were scattered in Renza, but after we got together, most of our private time was spent in that house in the staff living quarters."

"We are the same as Seina."

"Me and Ms. Kiriko are like normal people by nature, but Amame and Neige are different, aren't they?"

"Tell that to the charismatic priestess Neiju-sama."

"After all, she's a caged bird. Renza's royalty are not like the others."

"I don't deny it, but I do feel that Seto-sama has put me on the spot."

"What Hakuren, Karen, and Suiren saw was Gyokuren."

"In our minds, aren't you still a Queen?"

"The queen has no private life. She is like an ornament sitting on a throne. As they say on earth,

"waking on half a tatami, sleeping on one tatami." Gyokuren said nonchalantly.

"Kiriko's team and Karen's team both don't require a proper room."

"What about Miki and the others?"

"We don't need space. If we're in Beast form, we can just roam around the place." At Miki's words, all the cabbits nodded. Miki nodded, "Well, I guess it's business as usual."

"Though Jovia is the one who's going to take up the most space."

"Don't worry! In that case, I've got a secret technique to keep her scattered here and there..."

"Such a child, you even default to the point where Kiriko just drops you somewhere."

"..."

"If it's an earth house, don't Seina and Kiriko need a proper room more than we do?"

"I agree with you. Especially since the wedding party will be held on Earth, I think there will be a certain amount of social interaction."

"If not only Kiriko-sama, but also Amame-sama have children, I am sure there will be some socializing related to their parents."

"I see that there is also the issue of the children's friends...we should think about the children's room for that. But that's something that can be solved by expanding what we've already built."

"BExpanding?"

"Well, the countryside is big enough for a house like this, right? If necessary, we add on to it, because having a big house from the beginning would be a lot of work and maintenance."

"I see. Then, Seina and Kiriko, you will have one room each. We can go in pairs... and then we have a couple of spare rooms?" Jovia looked at her intently, and Karen continued.

"In that case, Miki's room will be Seina's study room, right?"

"I'll probably hardly use it, but that's fine. The most important thing is to have a common closet and powder room, so that each person's room can be compressed or consolidated accordingly."

"We can use the compressed space if we can keep the kids out of that one. The rest of the rooms are related to the other bathrooms. We can have more than one bathroom. I've been told I can use the one at Tenchi's place, so I hardly need it, but it would be nice to have one for external use as well, wouldn't it?"

"I think this one from Seina-sama's parents' house would be fine. However, the laundry room should be a little larger."

"What about a storage room or a garage for our car or something?"

"Daily necessities and food can be stored near the kitchen, and the garage can be a simple one. It would be more convenient if it can be easily moved, assuming we build more."

"What about a garden?"

"If you are going to build a garden, it should be toward the front door. The other side of the house would be the additional space, so it could remain wooded or have a small vegetable garden."

"That seems to solve most of the initial problems. Do you want a one-story house or a multi-story house?"

"Considering the size of the lot, I think that can wait. Given Seina's characteristics, the ideal house would be a one-story house, right?"

"What about the guest room?"

Kirche then interrupted.

"Oh! Oh, yes, that's a problem, too, isn't it?"

"Earth guests are no problem, but space guests are a bit of a problem, aren't they?"

"All of your acquaintances are at the level of heads of state and VIPs..."

"Don't worry about it. If they're going to come to earth anyway, they're definitely going to come privately, right? Who's going to talk to you about prestige and all that?"

"""" ... """"

Miki's words made everyone think. Each of them picked out the acquaintances who might be coming to earth.

""""None of them are here."""" They all answered at the same time.

"Then why don't we just build a room or two for that purpose?"

"Then the first thing we need to decide is the layout of the living room and water supply."

Kiriko activated the monitor and began to build a holographic house. There were various templates in the data, and Kiriko and the others were comfortably going over the plans of the house —end cut-----

Mikagami residential area.

Seto and Kuisu Panta Were glaring at each other.

"I heard you had a lot of fun over there."

"Seto-sama can't leave here, and in Renza you can't move freely, I had no choice but to go, right?"

"You also had a job here, didn't you?"

"If I hadn't had to go, Seto-sama would have gone, right?"

"You weren't the one who started this ordeal in the first place!"

"Even I didn't think it would advance so quickly!"

"That's why I took responsibility and went myself. It's been very difficult. A little praise wouldn't hurt?"

"Ahahahahaha, thank you for your hard work."

"Are you two finished talking?"

It was Ringo who said that with a standing stance. In fact, Seto and Kuisu were sitting in front of Ringo.

"A little longer if possible....."

"At least until this is settled..."

"You can do as you please after you answer what I want to ask." Seto and Kuisu looked down in resignation.

"Then, let's start with the questions about the income and expenditure report that Kuisu-sama filed over there."

"Eh!? Everything I put in accurate?"

"I will judge that after hearing your explanations." Seeing Ringo with a smile, Kuisu started sweating like a waterfall, and Seto smiled.

Gong!

Kuisu's spirit had been exhausted, and she turned white and collapsed.

And before that, Seto collapsed with the same feeling.

"Thank you for your hard work."

To Seto and others, Ringo left with a glamorous expression and a big smile. Minaho, who was hiding behind a pillar, stealthily approached Seto and the others.

".....thank you for your hard work"

Minaho whispered as if she didn't want to irritate the two of them.

"Approval has been given for the example."

"".....alright.""

Seto and Kuisu, who nodded while lying down, suddenly got up and grappled and stared at each other.

"You go!"

-----cuts to a different scene in final-----

"Kiriko-oneechan, welcome!"

When Kiriko and Karen arrive at Masaki's house, Seina's younger sister Yoshiko suddenly hugged them. She looks like an adult but it feels the same as before.

"It happened."

"eh!?"

"It's been a long time since we've met face-to-face like this. Anyway, Yoshiko-chan. You've grown up a lot and become pretty."

"Thank you, Kiriko-oneechan...do you feel like you've got a little dignity?"

"Ah, of course I'm not saying I've gained weight, but I feel like I've come to resemble Tsukiko's mother-in-law. I wonder if it's because I went through a lot of hardships over there?"

"Hey Yoshiko, don't talk at the front door, get up early and wait until you've calmed down!"

It was Seina's mother who warned her.

".....This is Tenchi-sama's house, isn't it?"

Karen looked around for a moment at the mother and daughter who were there so naturally.

"Tenchi-kun works in the field, and both Noike-san and Sasami-chan are dating Kuisu."

"Ah, that's right. Among the space people, it was a little plain, but it had a lot of impact and atmosphere."

"...Is that so? And your mother-in-law."

"Since Kiyone passed away, we were mainly socializing in Masaki's village, but when we learned about space, we became close friends, partly because of the purchases we made."

"Oh, I see."

"Oh, I'm fine! I'm on this street too."

"I'm sorry I couldn't come to say hello. Yoshiko's wedding..."

"It can't be helped from Kiriko-chan's position, and she participated in the force field video. is not troublesome. After all, if it turns out that she won't participate, all the people who were reluctant to attend will participate, ahahaha!"

"No, that's no laughing matter..."

"that's right"

"It can't be helped. She's that kind of person here. And thanks to Seto-sama, who attended on behalf of Seina, her stock has gone up considerably."

"And it's not something for Kiriko-chan to apologize for. Originally, it's all because of that girl's troubles. Rather than that, why don't you ask Kai-kun if he's okay?"

"If you're causing trouble there, I'll stop you, so don't hesitate."

Suddenly, the emotion disappeared from Kiriko's eyes.

"Ahahaha! You've really come to resemble Tsukiko-san. It's no wonder you're bothering me."

Kai-kun is naturally friendly and picky. His personality is suitable for customer business."

"I'm just in good shape. Please don't let me get too carried away."

"She has been with Seina for a long time, so it's good to be patient."

What about the customer?"

"It's just insensitive."

"Ahahaha! That evaluation is the same as Tsukiko-san's, but I think it's a good property that I'm sorry to exchange with Seina."

"Mother, didn't you just tell me to get up quickly?"

"Oops, no way. Nobuyuki-san and the others were waiting."

----- back to where the final cut to-----

A corner of Washu's laboratory. Kuisu, Noike, Sasami and Ayeka meet there. "Everyone, it's been a while." Seeing Kuisu bowing respectfully, Noike and Ayeka had on complicated expressions for some reason.

"Ahahaha, that's right, Kuisu-oneechan, but Ayeka-oneesama and I were frozen in time, so it doesn't feel like it's been a long time."

"I'm glad that Sasami-sama is also doing well. Ayeka-sama."

While saying that, Kuisu turned his gaze to Ayeka.

"Well, that's right...Kuisu Panta...Kuisu-san."

"Oh, you can just call me Kuisu, okay?" Ayeka smiles sweaty and taut and looks away.

"It's been a while, Ms. Noike."

"I hear your time in Renza has been difficult."

Nike was smiling, but Kuisu's expression hardened. Kuisu stared at Ayeka and Noike's faces and slowly brought them closer. With that, Ayeka's face began to drip with sweat.

"Sasami-sama" Kuisu shifted her gaze from Ayeka and the others to Sasami.

"...Sasami Samaaaa"

"Oh... we you know, uhm well uh."

Realizing that Sasami was about to fall, Ayeka tried to run away.

Kuisu, still concentrating, grabbed her. Noike kept her eyes closed in resignation.

"Sasami-chan? How do those two know about me?"

Kuisu and the others were at Ayeka's "Ryuou" bridge.

Sasami smiled wryly, and Ayeka and Noike hung their heads. And while Kuisu was playing around with the terminal body of "Honoka", she looked at Ryuou, who had grown a little.

"Ah, Honoka-chan, come here for a second."

Kuisu peeled off Honoka from her face and held it to her chest.

"Did Tenchi-dono ascend Ryuou-chan....."

Ryuou begins to actively shine a nerve light on Kuisu who stared at him.

"Ryuou-chan. I won't get angry with Ayeka-chan any more, so don't worry. I was just a little surprised."

Perhaps relieved by Kuisu's words, he began to emit a nervous glow here and there as if he was in high spirits.

"...Is it okay to recognize Kyoko-chan as a member of the first generation class?"

"Honoka seemed to take well to Washu-sama's tuning..."

"It's a hybrid with the Ryo-Ohki type tech.

What will happen to Honoka?"

"As expected, now that I know it's gotten this far, I have to report it to the Supreme Council, but... well, I guess It will be treated the same as Seina-dono."

"In other words, acquiescence?" Noike sighed in relief.

"Of course, on the condition that information will not be leaked from Tenchi-dono's side, right?"

There are people in the Jurai royal family who have various opinions, so be careful. Especially Ayeka-chan, don't go too far with Ryoko-chan" She was referencing a case involving Tarant.

--- the event we never saw but gets mentioned strikes again!-----

"Ugh!?!.....I'll be careful."

"Mm, that's fine."

"Anyway, as for Mr. Seina and Mr. Tenchi, we really have to plan carefully"

"It's a pretty solid plan...it seems like I probably won't need to add anything."

Kiriko was planning the house with Seina's female family members and Rea in the solarium that is Nobuyuki's workplace at Tenchi's house.

"It's embarrassing because it's just a bunch of amateur's ideas."

"Well for amateurs you sure studied a lot."

"Yes. Well, there are a lot of things I would have wanted, but for Kiriko-chan it's fine, right?"

"...and yet it feels quite small, doesn't it? The number of people at Kiriko-chan's place has also increased, hasn't it?"

"That's right, and the land is large enough."

"That's true, but after a lot of discussion, we found that we didn't need private rooms. It turned out that everyone just uses the living room."

"Ah, I can understand that somehow. Tenchi-chan and others are like that."

"Haha, that kind of thing is fine, isn't it? After all, it's best to have the family in one place and see each other all the time."

"You...you seem to have forgotten, but Ayeka-san and Sasami-chan are also members of the Jurai royal family, and so is your grandfather-in-law."

"Hmm? Ah! Ah, ah... that's certainly true. Hahaha... Well, if necessary, you can add more, and it's designed that way, so there's no problem."

"Sorry for bothering you."

"There's no need to worry about that. I've known Seina since he was little, It's because Tenchi and him are like brothers. It's the same as making a home for a relative's child."

"Next time, we will have a wedding on Earth, so we will be relatives officially."

"Yeah, yeah, I'm so happy... because the atmosphere was so good when we got together with my father-in-law at the shrine office before. I've been looking forward to building Seina's house to connect to the house here."

"Thank you."

"I am happy to have you."

"connect?"

"Oh yeah! And after that, I talked about various things with my father-in-law, but I also have a plan to connect this house and Seina-chan's house in the future."

"Is it okay if the Earth Masaki family and the Yamada family make one big house?"

"We have no objection to that, but..."

-----cut-----

"It's no wonder Kiriko-oneechan is perplexed. In the first place, the Yamada family are just commoners, but there's a world of difference between them and the people of the Jurai royal family, a superpower in space." Kiriko nodded slightly at Yoshiko's words.

"Yoshiko-chan you're just a commoner, but the influence that Seina-kun's existence has on the Galactic Federation is, in a sense, Equal to or more than the Jurai royal family. Kiriko-chan knows this better, right?"

"That's true, but I'm still not used to being a member of the original Masaki family, and neither is Seina-chan. It's not like I had a sense of purpose there."

"Hahaha... Well, maybe that's the case with Seina. But I'm sure you've done enough to live up to that expectation... No, I feel like I've gone beyond that." Hey, both your father-in-law and grandfather were worried about Seina-kun, that his influence would become so big that it would be difficult to handle, and it would be hard for him to get around."

"That's why I was given Washu-sama's ship and the second generation Royal Tree... I was forced to stand on the big stage against Seina-chan's will. That's right."

"Ahahaha. Nobuyuki-san and Kiriko-chan, there's no need to be too take what that girl says too seriously. Rather than that, Kiriko-chan and the others who were forced to take care of Seina which is much more difficult, isn't it?"

"We do it because we love him."

"But hey...no really, thank you." Seina's mother concluded the story with a big smile on her face towards Kiriko and Karen.

"It's true that Seina-chan's status is at the level of a country's head of state. So status of this place is also increased, but the fact that the earth itself is a planet of an early civilization hasn't changed, right?"

"Of course, but thanks to Tenchi that has it's own problems."

"What does that mean?"

-----back to final version but notice there's a janky cut outside of the solarium to the dock in the final that isn't in the script-----

"is that so"

"I heard this story from my father-in-law, they say Tenchi and Seina-chan have too much power."

"That's...that's certainly true. Come to think of it, it might be a bad idea to incorporate Tenchi-chan into the Jurai Masaki family."

"Ayeka-sama, Sasami-sama, and Mihoshi-sama probably have no problem, but the existence of Washu-sama, Ryoko-sama, and Ryo-Ohki-sama is troublesome. ..."

"It's not just a matter of the galaxy, it's a matter of the universe, isn't it?...So, with the intention of bundling them together with Seina-chan, you came up with the term Earth Masaki family?"

"That's right"

-----more cut stuff-----

"Seto-sama asked you to make it seem like it was your idea, didn't she uncle."

"Yeah... no, no, no? No, that's not true!"

"I don't mind complaining about Seto-sama's way of doing things, but I can't forgive my uncle for getting involved in it."

"Well it's only natural that I chose the Earth's side."

"Huh?.....Oh!?"

"Obviously, my father-in-law will return to the Jurai Masaki family if it is made public that he is alive. Tennyō is a Juraian citizen and probably would return to the academy. But since I'm from the Masaki family, it would be best to be the spokesperson for Earth Masaki."

"In other words, you want to physically isolate Tenchi-chan and Seina-chan on Earth."

Kiriko sighs sullenly.

"But Kiriko-sama, I don't think it's a bad idea. In a world of peace, a war hero like Seina's very existence would be seen as a threat by authority figures."

" 'only dead heroes are good heroes' they say... Maybe it's about time we figured out just how much Seina-chan is needed by the Galactic Federation. Seina-chan is a political figure. That's going to be an issue if he doesn't want to be involved and wants to have meaningful relationships, if we don't think about a good way to end his political involvement, there's no doubt that things will be troublesome."

"Would you rather go to another galaxy in the future? With Seina-sama's ability, the distance of space is no longer meaningful."

"Yes. By the way, what does Tenchi-chan think of that?"

"Tenchi doesn't seem to have plans to leave Earth at the moment. Well, he's got something to protect him."

"Kuh. That's true. But what are you planning to do?"

"Personally, it would be ideal for me to leave things as they are now.

However, because of Kenshi, it's true that the number of visitors from outer space will increase."

"Kiriko-chan, do you know that the road in front of this house is a private road?"

"Eh!? Isn't it a prefectural road or something?"

"I'm just lending it to the end. I'm thinking of making it impassable. Of course, it was left open all the time, so closing it would require some work. That's why I'm building a more convenient bypass. And then, from beyond Masaki's village, this valley and part of the mountain beyond will be completely closed off."

"If that happens, a certain area of the site will be completely isolated... ah! So that's what the river and irrigation canal just outside the range was originally for?"

"Well. There are several bridges for daily use, but there are only two places where cars can pass. People who have lived here for a long time know that this side of the mountain is forbidden land, but for picking edible wild plants, there are other areas. There are also people coming from , so I plan to surround it with a hedge so that it doesn't look unnatural. Well, regarding the sky, I'll have to increase the concealment level of the protective tree for a while. It will be gone when you return to Jurai, but Washu-sama will take care of it then."

"kusu"

"Cook-cook, even if you don't do such troublesome things, if you spread the rumor that Seina is loitering inside, no one will come to you."

Seina's mother's words make everyone confused, but no one raises an objection.

"Certainly, if that much area can be considered a closed district, I can understand what Uncle-sama is saying."

"Of course, it's all about dealing with sudden events, and as Kiriko-chan said, this is a planet of early civilization. It's a private place, separated from politics."

"If Kiriko-chan can come here often, I'd appreciate it if you could help out with the shop again."

"That's right. It was very popular."

"It's nice to relax for a while."

Kiriko and Karen looked at each other and smiled at Seina's mother and Yoshiko's words.

"Oh, it looks like you're done talking."

Then, Kuisu suddenly appeared from the shadows.

"Don't make that scary face. Kiriko-chan these days you come off as really rough and powerful, I remember when you were just a little girl."

Kuisu hid behind Rea and said that to Kiriko who looked grumpy.

"Thanks to you, I've been through quite a lot, and I even received a cavalry machine with an interesting name."

"Well...I'm sorry for the trouble on behalf of Seto-sama. She got carried away."

Kuisu surrendered completely and bowed obediently.

"But the reason I asked Nobuyuki-dono to talk about it was because if Seto-sama or Yosho-dono said it, the meaning would change."

"I can understand that, but logic and emotion are separate matters."

"Seina-dono's ability was so amazing and transformative that it was impossible to control it.

That's why I had no choice but to let you go wherever you wanted to.

At the end of Kuisu's line of sight is Tenchi, who has returned from the field.

"You know that Seina-chan wouldn't want something like that, right?"

"Of course.

"...Are you sure you want to set him free?"

"Would you be happy if he worked a little harder?"

"What are you going to make him do next?"(Kiriko)

"What are you trying to make him do!"(Kiriko)

"For the time being, I am also a mouthpiece being forced by Seto-sama."(Kuisu)

"Understood. So what are you trying to do?" I want you to tell me."

Kuisu timidly confessed to Kiriko.

"You're going to hold a unification battle for the remnants of those pirates on Earth!?"

"It's a proxy war with one representative from each pirate guild remnant. They refused to join any existing country but they won't join Balta either. It's about collecting them and putting them together into one country. There are quite a few idiots at the top of the remnants who are not into the idea of a contest. They're taking people hostage."

(There was a picture here page 70)

"But can all these people really be united into one country?"

"They are also aware that they failed to escape, and they are impatient. It's just a formality, but there are a lot of them who have high up connections, and it would be troublesome if we chased them too much, now wouldn't it?"

"So you're trying to consolidate them to the Galactic Federation side now? What is the reason for doing it on Earth?"

"I made them agree to the unification war, but not all of them were really convinced, and I don't want them to do anything strange. Kiriko stared fixedly at Kuisu's expression.

"I see. so you're going to do it in this solar system as well as handling the clean up?"

"Gee!?...well it's for the sake of the people you want to protect, right? But do you really think it's a good idea to get involved with such idiots?"

"Are you saying that you're going to do it in this solar system...?"

"It's certainly a good place. Seina-sama and the rest of us can monitor and manage the proxy war on Earth.

"Seina-dono and a watcher from earth- maybe?"

"Wait! Wait a minute! Isn't it full of problems? I can understand the intention of making Seina-chan a watcher, but Earth's watcher is a pirate's territory after sorting. Don't you mean the earth or the solar system!?"

"If it was only Mr. Funaho, it would have been possible to create a special protection zone for Jurai, but since Mr. Seina, an outstanding human being, was expelled, there are people who are suggesting that the earth should be given a special exemption for human resources. There is."

"Isn't the human resources exception an ancient evil law to supply healthy slave resources?"

"I know about Tenchi-dono, so I can't deny it."

"Dear First Empress Jurai, Dear Seina, Dear Tenchi...The influence and power of those from Earth are enough to influence the trends of the Galactic Federation and the Renza Federation. It's enough to make you believe in superstition. But now, in exchange for the achievements of Seinan-dono, we can make you accept a special exception to make Earth independent from the Jurai." If it's one of the

"However, even if Seina-sama monitors the battle, is it okay for us not to assist her?"

"Kiriko-chan and the others have to deal with the federation and Renza, right?"

"But Seina-sama's special ability."

"I'll ask Fuku-chan and the others to do that. It's convenient because they don't stand out and the pirates don't know much about them."

"...I see. Then the four of them can always do it together."

"That's right, and I would like to ask Mihoshi-dono and Tenchi-dono to make sure the pirates don't invade the solar system."

"I don't want Ryoko-dono and Ayeka-chan's existence to be known, and if it's only Mihoshi-chan, there will be various problems with fighting power, don't you agree?"

"Are you saying that you want to see Tenchi's power as well?"

"I already know because I have received various materials from Washu-chan. In the case that this solar system becomes its own country, there may be more jobs like that, right?"

"Is it better to get used to it now...it's true that we had pirates who invaded the solar system before. Considering the situation, I don't think Ayeka-san or Ryoko would be suitable."

"Ryoko said that Taranto had been completely destroyed."

"Yeah, well... for some reason, they seem to have been happily chasing after each other."

".....You're a self-serving bastard, but I have a little sympathy for you."

"It's kind of an amazing story, but is it okay for me to be here?"

Seina's mother sighed.

"If it's Seina-dono's mother, there won't be any problems."

"I thought that Seina would go to space and calm down a bit, but in the end, the scale of the turmoil would be bigger and she would come back, ahahaha."

"Mother-in-law, it's a joke....."

"I've come to be able to make jokes about it. There are so many people who worry about her and tell me that she's good. I'm grateful."

"I don't want to get in the way of business."

"You also know something that is surprisingly old, don't you?"

"Oh! But it's fun to have a lot of sisters-in-law, and I'd like to see just how much more they can grow. They're all surprisingly beautiful and super talented, so I don't want Onii-chan to go near the store. Sisters-in-law would definitely like to ask you to help out at the shop."

"Yes yes. We are also having fun, so if we have time, we will cooperate."

Kiriko and Karen nodded with a wry smile at Yoshiko's hopeful gaze.

"Speaking of which, Yoshiko-chan, how is Jovia doing?"

"Yeah, Jovia-san is also very capable. Karen-san and others needed a little explanation of the procedure,

That person needs almost no explanation, and is especially good at resolving congestion and creating queues. Say something like, ``I'm sick of being overcrowded at this level!""

"Well, Kiriko-chan and the others have plenty of ideas for different departments."

"Are you in a different department?"

"I would be happy if you could guess that I'm on good terms with Kai-kun."

...yes, I know very well."

"Ah~~, so I'd like to get back to the topic, but considering the proxy war on Earth and the negotiations with Renza, it's a little hard to say."

"Are you talking about my wedding with Seina on Earth?"

"Well, that's right. If you're both busy, you can either do it before you get to the peak of your busyness, or you can take it easy later."

"Kai-kun checked the attendance of Onii-chan's friends, but I'm sure there are four. What about Kiriko-oneechan?"

...I think it will be about the same."

Kiriko has a bad reputation when it comes to Seina. On top of that, if Seina is the one to marry, there will be few stubborn friends who will participate. Kiriko replied shyly.

"If the other party isn't Seina, I'm sure the number will change by about two... In the case of Seina, I'm just surprised that there are people who attend."

"Do you think daredevil is like that? Are you brave?"

Seina's mother and Yoshiko look really happy.

"If it's a ceremony in space, a great number of people celebrated it, so I guess that's fine. On Earth, we just need to report that we got married, so we can have a private reception, and let others know by postcard. It's enough. I can't force you to attend, and they will come to the shop as customers, and there are quite a lot of people who ask their mothers if they are okay."

"My friends and Kai's friends are like that too.

"It's saved that I'm avoided, but I'm not hated."

"Because Seina didn't do anything wrong."

"And what about Kiriko-san? No matter what we say, the most important thing is what the person concerned thinks."

76

At Seina's mother's words, everyone turned to Kiriko.

.....I would like my friends and acquaintances to congratulate me, but I also understand the feeling of avoiding Seina-chan's characteristics, as your mother-in-law says. I can do it, and I've been through a lot of painful experiences. We can't force it on others, and in the first place, our existence itself and the fact of marriage have become remarkably far from the common sense of the earth. So I don't think you need to worry about that. Of course, I don't mind if Seina-chan and I got married as the mothers-in-law said. In the end, it's a fait accompli for raising our children on Earth, so I don't think there's any need to rush."

While saying that, Kiriko glanced at Kuisu.

"The reason we rushed to get married in space in the first place is because of the strong political implications."

"Ah~~~ Well, we admit that it was definitely our speculation, right? There's no doubt about it.....but if you miss the right timing, it's certain that you'll end up like Minaho-chan and me, right?" there is

"I don't think it's a good idea to involve Minaho-sama in your self-destruction."

"...It would be helpful if you kept it a secret from Minaho-chan."

"I have no intention of depressing Minaho-sama, but please think about it for a moment."

77

"Do you understand? Thanks to Seina-dono, if this matter settles down, I think I'll be able to breathe, so I'll think about it with Seto-sama and Funaho-sama."

"So what is the progress of the unification plan on Earth?"

"Since we are doing it on Earth, we will use a fairly old type of weapon equipment for local ground battles, it's also going to be quite restricted. And the stage will be..." What was reflected on the monitor was a fairly large island floating in the ocean.

".....Is that an artificial island?"

"It's a ship whose environment has been adjusted in accelerated space."

"By any chance, is it a 'Royal Tree'?"

"A fourth generation, codenamed 'Banjo Island'. Currently we are synchronizing it with the global environment, after that, facilities on the surface will be created. After that is completed, it will be colonized."

"Is Seina-chan will be there as a watcher..."

"His being there is more about preventing interference from the Earth's side."

"What is your intention in provoking me by hanging the bait in front of me?"

"We've decided to give the Earth a seat on the Galactic Federation. That's a stepping stone. Of course, separate from the government created by the pirates."

"What!? Earth is still an early civilization planet!?"

"Is that also why the pirates agreed to this proxy war?"

Huh!? In response to Karen's question, Kiriko guessed the situation and stared at Kuisu.

"Of course, it will be a long time before Earth officially joins the Galactic Federation...or maybe that time will never come, but you can think of Earth as the seat of the Masaki family."

"Two seats in one solar system is certainly a good condition. I see, so you've decided to interfere with the Earth in earnest as Jurai?"

"Basically, we plan to just leave it alone."

"So you mean to strengthen your external surveillance?"

A place on the Pacific Ocean. Seina sits fishing on the sandy beach of a deserted jungle island.

"...Renza is all about the jungle, and when I come back, I'm stuck having to live on a deserted island."

"While I get why you're saying that, isn't it actually fun?"

"And It seems that you were enjoying living in a different world quite a lot in Renza."

It was the Beast-type Miki and Kirche who said so. (In the final they are in humanoid form)

".....I'm sorry. It's fun. Life in another world was fun too!" Seina quickly landed on the ground.

"Seina, Seinaah. I like this kind of survival life, don't you?"

Fuku, who was by D, said that and stroked Seina's head. And the bell attached to the tip of the pole leaning on the beach started ringing.

"Hmm!? We got a bite!" After a bit of fighting, He caught a fish over sixty centimeters long with spots all over its body.

"Fish species Korodai. It's edible. It's just right for tonight's side dish."

"The ecosystem seems to have stabilized considerably. After about a year of spatial acceleration, we should be able to match the surface to that of the earth's."

Seina immediately shredded the fish he caught and put it in the Rei Thread Storage.

"Let's pick some fruit for dessert and head back."

"Kuhuhu. I feel bad for Kiriko and the others, this kind of life is nice."

"Yeah! It's fun. But I want to invite Ryo-Ohki and Acha too."

"Yeah but Time is accelerated, so it's difficult to go in and out, but after adjusting the environment, I'll invite them when the timing is right."

Seina grabbed the tools, and Fuku and the others moved behind Seina. With that, the figures of Seina and the others vanished.

"Yeah.

"I'm sorry for wasting your time even though you've gone out of your way to help me."

"Since we're parents and children, we don't need a reason to meet even if we don't have anything to do. Kiriko-chan and the others are safe."

I was happy to see your face, and the plan for the future has been decided, so it's not useless."

"Onii-chan, if you're free over there, could you catch some fresh fish and send it to me?"

"Oh, that's nice. A fresh fish fair straight from the production area looks good."

Yoshiko and Seina's mother is already in business mode.

"Since it will take about a year to adjust the environment, I think it will be possible after that?"

"Oh! Mr. Kuisu, I'd be happy if I knew what kind of fish I could catch in advance..."

"Since we should have collected data on the ecosystem, I will submit it all together."

Kuisu's answer gave Yoshiko a big smile.

"In the image just now, it looks like a fairly large island, but is it all a primeval forest or something?"

"Oh, it would be nice to have fruit and produce."

"Since the island itself is in a subtropical location, there are plenty of fruits.

So, as expected, permanent sales may not be possible."

"Since time-freezing storage is possible, it can be used as the centerpiece of the fair."

"After that, it's like side dishes."

Kuisu and Yoshiko and the others smiled and talked about business using Banjo Island, while Kiriko and the others watched in silence.

"Yes....."

"Meh?"

"...It looks like Seina-sama will be busy with work other than monitoring the island."

Kiriko and Karen, who are out of the conversation, can only sigh.

Early one morning. While it was still dark and everyone was asleep, Ryo-Ohki was looking around the house. Then she came to Chibi Tokimi, who was sitting on the roof as usual. "Are you having a little trouble today?" Ryo stared at the face of Chibi Tokimi who said that. Then she suddenly started looking around and found a rope connected to Chibi Tokimi and a sleeping bag that was painted to look like the roof.

"Hmm. It looks like you've been found. I'm sorry Kenshi."

"Myahahahahaha!" Ryo-Ohki climbed into his sleeping bag and the next moment she heard Kenshi's screaming laughter.

"It looks like she's found Kenshi-chan." Sasami smiled at Ayeka as she put away her futon.

"It's impossible for Ryo-Ohki-chan, a combat ship's computer unit, to not find him." Ayeka smiled as she combed her hair.

"Damn...but I think he's making progress because his record is improving little by little every day."

"Good morning, Tenchi-sama."

"Good morning, Tenchi-san..."

Noike came up from the basement and a sleepy-eyed Mihosh greeted Tenchi, who was looking outside.

"Good morning. Good morning Sasami and Ayeka."

As usual, Sasami and Noike went to the kitchen, and Ayeka and Mihoshi went to the dining room.

Then, Kenshi, transformed into a sleeping bag bagworm, fell in front of Tenchi.

"....." Tenchi silently watched Kenshi, who shook around and fainted in agony from Ryo-Ohki's intense tickling attack.

"Myaa!"

Coming down the rope, Ryo-Ohki proudly showed Tenchi her prey.

As usual, Noike saw them off, and Tenchi, Ryo-Ohki, and Kenshi headed off to work in the fields, unaware of what happened earlier.

"Let's go~~"

"Ah, Washu, good morning. Can I have some tea?"

Washu, who came out of the research institute feeling like an exam student who stayed up all night, returned to her usual position. And then Sasami immediately served tea.

"Sister, here's the newspaper." Chibi Tokimi handed over the newspaper as usual.

"...Hey, Washu." Ryoko laid down on a fixed beam and spoke.

"Call me Mama"

"Yeah yeah, but more importantly, it seems that some small fish has arrived, is it okay to leave them alone?"

"Hasn't Ryo-Ohki noticed yet?" Ryoko's gaze remained on the ceiling, and Washu's gaze turned to the ceiling for a moment, but quickly returned to the newspaper.

"Kenshi's influence has made her grow up nicely, but Ryoko you should follow up on that. After all, you're her older sister."

"...You don't even need to say that." Ryoko blushed a little and looked away.

"Even if Tenchi-dono comes home and has breakfast, we can still make it in time... Oh, it seems that Tenchi-dono noticed already."

Looking up at the sky in the field, Tenchi let out a big sigh.

"Ryo-Ohki, Kenshi, please do some work while im gone."

"Yeah, no problem. Tenchi-niichan."

"Myaa!" The two of them replied with big smiles. And the next moment Tenchi disappeared.

Tenchi, who had suddenly moved into the earth's satellite orbit, quickly turned in the target's direction and flew. Mars and Saturn flew past Tenchi as he performed a hyperspace jump.

"....There they are." Tenchi's vision became super-telephotoscopic, and he noticed there was a battleship anchored in stealth mode.

Tenchi spacially jumped and appeared on top of the battleship.

"Eh~~ I'm pretty sure this will do it....."

A single light wing appears in front of Tenchi, and it spread with tremendous force, enveloping the battleship. And the crew members who were making a big fuss inside were suddenly frozen in time.

"Now then. All that's left to do is hand it over....." The monitor Tenchi activated was a delivery document for the GP Courier service.

"Still, I wonder what this is about..."

Tenchi let out a big sigh and typed in the delivery address. And when he stuck it on the hull, the battleship was instantly transported somewhere,

"Yes, yes. Confirmed, I received it." Mihoshi replied

"... Well, I'll try not to think too much about it. I have to get home soon."

Tenchi transferred straight from space right to where Kenshi and Ryo-ohki were.

(this is greatly simplified compared to the final)

"...Washu-sama, in the future, there will be visitors from outer space teaching Kenshi, right? And Ryoko-san and Ryo-Ohki-chan fly.

Rea anxiously asked Washu who was drinking tea.

"It's true....it's about time for elementary school. He's going to school on earth, so that would be bad."

"It's okay! I'm thinking about countermeasures."

"memory manipulation? Or a seal?"

Washu was hypnotizing Kenshi with a pendulum with a coin hanging on it.

"...Um, Ms. Washu?"

"This is the best if you don't want to use technology so we can keep things normal."

"...Rea-okaasama (mother in law), it seems to be working just fine."

third chapter

A few years later -----

Tenchi and Choushin Washu monitor the light of battle between Banjo Island and pirate remnants in space within the solar system from a great distance.

".....Funaho-sama and Seina-kun, and now a third person from Earth...how unexpected."

"Kukuku. Strictly speaking, there is another one."

"Because of her, Seina-kun has been complaining about various things... Talking about her puts Kiriko-san in a bad mood..."

"Things are settled now so it's all worked out right?"

"... Seina-kun is worried about forcing this on a nice boy... "But it can't be helped" is that really okay?"

"Cook-kook. Seina-dono is forced into more troublesome things than he is, but hey, hey, it's about time to move."

"Understood. Marker check!" Then, Tenchi begins to move, transitioning to hyperspace navigation. (.....I still haven't gotten used to this feeling)

Moving in hyperspace while emitting friction light, Tenchi found a small ship of about 20 meters and climbed onto it. Then, it was restrained with light wings and a transfer tag was attached.

(.....Okay, next)

After confirming the reply tag, Tenchi moves to normal space and then to another hyperspace.

(This just needs a marker...OK)

He put a sticker on the hull with Washu doing the V sign. Then the seal with Washu disappeared in front of him with an evil grin.

(.....OK, is that right? I have to hurry)

Tenchi reappeared in normal space, on the far side of the moon and then went back to hyperspace. (That's it!)

There was a cube-shaped object moving through hyperspace that was different from the other ships he had seen up until now. (absolutely not!)

In a rare rage, Tenchi emanates Light Hawk Wings and uses them as swords to cut through the cube. Then he converted the sword to the light wings to wrap and compress the torn up cube.

"Ms. Washu. Take this." Tenchi returned to where he started again and handed the compressed cube to Washu. Then, Washu gently placed her hand on Tenchi's cheek.

"Those who do things like this will be properly compensated by Tenchi-dono's wrath."

"...Oh, I...I'm not so angry anymore." Tenchi panicked and excused himself from Washu's ridiculously cruel smile.

"Oh yeah? Then I'll take my anger out on them instead."

"Huh?"

".....Ah! It looks like we'll be able to settle things soon."

-----differences-----

"Fufu huh. With this, Tenchi-dono and Seina-dono will be able to relax."

"Well... by the way, what about Banjo Island?"

"I guess it will be treated as the base for those kids and the secretariat of the Earth government."

I was really hoping that Fuku-chan would get thrown directly into a reef."

"Well, then it would no longer be a game! It's only okay because there's no real danger."

"How exactly are you still a teacher when you're constantly seducing your student's? Well, I guess that's actually a little bit endearing(moé)."

"Which one is it! You second rate bride"

"What are you talking about! This beautiful girl and I came bundled with another beautiful girl!"

"Oh, I wonder which one is the extra in that bundle?"

"What are you talking about! It's me!"

"Why!" Miron's Serious man Kansai comedy act response made the place quiet.

".....Huh? I wonder why no one's laughing?" Jovia and Miron looked at Tenchi and the others in silence, wondering.

"Isn't it funny? Airi-sama and Seto-sama, gave a big laugh, but they didn't budge." Jovia and Miron tilted their heads in a stunning unison.

"Both Seina and Kukoma sure have a hard time..." The whole Masaki family nodded at Tenchi's words.--- it's just rea in the final --

In the scenery that could be seen beyond the windows, Kenshi was being thrown into the pond over and over again.

"Myahahahaha! You're a thousand years too early to beat me!"

Fuku crossed her arms and looked down at Kenshi, while Kenshi peered out from the water.

Ryo-Ohki was watching the situation with a smile.

"What's wrong, are you going to surrender already?"

"... Ah, Seina Onii-chan." said Kenshi happily, looking in the direction away from him. Fuku turned that way.

"Eh!? Seina, Seina, Seina, Seina. Did Seina come here too?"

Fuku looked in that direction happily. Kenshi took advantage of this opportunity to climb ashore and push Fuku into the pond. "Ahh oh no~~~!!"

Fuku fell into the pond and didn't come back to the surface.

".....Fu, Fuku-oneechan!?"

"Myaa"

Ryo-Ohki stopped Kenshi from jumping in. After a while, Fuku floated to the surface with a fish from the pond.

"Myahahahaha!"

"Are you going to anchor Banjo Island!?" Miron quietly nodded at Tenchi's question, to which he seemed a little happy.

"Sho and the other people here seem to like it, so we unanimously decided. For space travel, we've coordinated with Washu-sama so that the Royal Tree ship part of Banjo can be separated."

"Is that so? That's good. I was a little disappointed because I couldn't go out even once to visit it. because the plans were accelerated and because of Kukoma's problems."

—altered from final—

"My mother-in-law was also terribly sorry." (This is probably jovia)

"For me, she is a benefactor who created the opportunity for me to meet Shou."

"No way, I can't believe Seina-kun's mother gave Kukoma-kun's mother a pamphlet that guided him to migrate to fight the pirates.

"We really didn't know what else to do....."

"In the end, it turned out to be for the best, but she was also why Seina ended up in space too when you think about it..."

"Shuu... In that sense, I guess I should thank Seina's mother."

"So why bother to report on Banjo Island today?" (Tenchi)

"The various problems have been resolved, and the battle is over, so I would like to take this opportunity to invite the Masaki family."

"You're talking about Kenshi, aren't you? Banjo Island has quite a few peculiar and interesting people who aren't overpowered monsters like the ones here."

"Monsters..."

"Isn't this just the perfect opportunity?" Washu came out of the lab to say.

"Oh, is it already that time?" Just as Tenchi said that, Sasami came out of the kitchen with a snack. In the back Noike was preparing various things. "I'll call Kenshi and the others..."

Tenchi stood up and saw Kenshi and his friends drying their clothes around the bonfire in the garden and grilling the fish they had caught.

"Mya~~. It smells delicious. The fish in the sea are good, but the fish in Ryo-Ohki's pond are good too."

"Myaa!" Ryo-Ohki puffed out her chest, she was happy to be praised by Fuku. Kenshi stared at the sizzling fish.

"Kenshi, it's okay now."

"Wow, itadakimas!"

"Ow!" Kenshi and the others picked up the hot skewers stuck in front of them and bit into the grilled fish.

"Myahahahaha! Are you okay?"

"Myaa?"

"Yeah! I'm fine."

Kenshi blew on the fish and slowly started to eat it, while Fuku and Ryo-Ohki started eating without hesitation.

Is delicious. This is great." Miron's eyes widened as she ate the homemade sweets on the table.

"I had heard from Jovia that the food here was excellent, but she has such broken taste buds that she thinks even Palty's junk is delicious, so I thought it was going to be only about one tenth as good as she said.

"Hahaha! Don't you feel ridiculous now!"

"I doubt you know how great this food really is."

—cut—

"Oh, come to think of it, Miron, aren't you a good looking super-elite conglomerate owner's daughter? You should introduce me to him."

Miron gave Jovia a sarcastic smile.

—back to final----

"By the way, Mr. Washu, how is Kenshi's growth coming along?"

"As long as we are aiming for the best outcome the natural way, it's going to take time.

Full-fledged combat training will not be effective unless the first stage of breaking through the situation is completed. Well, until then.

is best left to play with Ryo-Ohki. It's effective just to have the girls over there play with it lightly."

"Is that what it is?"

"As I always say, the essence of Kenshi is Seikishin's ability to control and operate. will be able to demonstrate the ability of

"Rea-sama, then the girls from Banjo Island might be a good opponent. A general who is an amateur in combat, but with Fuku-chan's follow-up and his abilities, he can be a good opponent."

"Hmm~~~, you don't have to think about it so hard, right? It's a paradise-like island in the south, so just enjoy it. Dard is an idiot in a good way, so he's the perfect playmate. "

"Huh.....That's right."

Then, as if they resumed playing, Kenshi was thrown out the window and into the pond again.

That night, Tenchi, Rea, and Miron gather at Washu's laboratory to listen to Washu's explanation.

"...I see. I've heard a lot of things from Jovia, but since I've been involved in space-related things, I've been surprised."

Miron let out a big sigh,

"Oh! I'm glad I got the qualification!"

He raised his hands to the sky with a loud voice.

""eh!?""

"That's good. If it's not like that, I can't serve as Prime Minister of the Earth."

Tenchi and Rea looked at Miron in amazement. However, he averted his gaze as if he was convinced immediately.

"Cook-cook. Political opponents are Seto-dono, Airi-dono, and others. There is no shortage of opponents. It looks like it's going to be interesting."

"Thank you for your guidance and encouragement."

It feels like I'm doing a control.

Tenchi and Rea are grinning moms who know they've met at the moment when Miron's future is decided.

"On a different topic, is Tenchi-sama married?"

Washu froze in response to Miron's blunt remarks.

"If you're coming to Banjo Island, we'll accommodate you for accommodation...what's the matter?"

"I have no plans to get married at the moment.

Rea stares at the bewildered Tenchi with a blank look. It's time to settle the matter.

"Oh, that's what it is. Minamida is also an earthling, and besides Kiriko and others, Jovia is a bad person.

I'm obsessed with it, and it's all complicated."

"Miron-san, what do you think about Sho-kun? About the other daughters..."

"My grandfather had about 30 mistresses in my house, so I'm used to it," Miron replied with a big smile.

"That's also... a very special case."

"People who were close to me lived together, and they were affectionate to me too, weren't they? Once you've made up your mind, it's best to have a face-to-face discussion."

Miron glanced at Washu,

"If you don't have any problems living here, I don't think you need to think too much about it."

Yes, Miron smiled broadly.

(Kenshi asked me the same question. I'm sure I have to come to a conclusion somewhere.)

"Then change your mind at Banjo Island

Wouldn't it be nice to have Kenshi as well?

"but....."

Rea smiled at the pondering Tenchi.

"It's related to Nobuyuki-san's work, so I'll let you relax here."

Tenchi and others were heading to Banjo Island on a small ferry.

"It takes so long to travel such a distance, it must be troublesome for an early civilization."

Ryoko mutters, leaning her elbows against the window.

"Travel is something to enjoy, including the course...But it seems that Ryoko-san had a lot of fun with Kenshi-chan and Ryo-chan, too?"

"I was just dealing with those two because they would get involved."

The others stare at Ryoko who is frustrated with a smile. Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki seem to be having fun moving around the ship.

"I can see the island."

When Minamida, who is steering the ship, announces it with a microphone, a mountain like a volcano and a strange huge stone pillar come into view.

"Wow~~ It's big. I want to climb Ryo-Ohki-nee-chan!"

"Myaa!"

And this time, a blue hole suddenly appeared in the shallow water.

"That hole looks deep.

"Myaa!"

Minamida is dumbfounded in the control room and Tenchi smiles wryly.

"As always, she's a child who doesn't get scared at all."

"Ryo-Ohki seems to be getting less and less... Well, Washu-san is the guardian. It doesn't happen because I have it, but I won't guard unless I'm on the verge of death, so I won't stop getting hurt in a different way than Seina."

"Isn't Fuku doing something unreasonable?"

"That's okay. My daughter still doesn't know what's fun, but Kenshi is happy too."

"I've told the duds about it, so I don't think it's unreasonable, but it's not like I'm not worried."

"It's also a good experience. Isn't it good to let loose a little?"

Tenchi looked around and smiled.

103

"Southern islands are nice, aren't they? Actually, I'm a little excited too."

"Hahaha. I was too. I guarantee you'll have a lot of fun."

Durd, Alea, Apuesta, Palty and General Kukoma were waiting for us at the small dock.

"welcome!"

Alea shyly kicks Dard into the sea as he warmly welcomes him by waving both hands.

"It's terrible, Alea."

"rule?"

"Myaa?"

"Don't embarrass us!"

A ship comes alongside and Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki get off first. Wait a minute!"

It was Miron who pushed his way through the dards and came forward.

"This is my island. Physical examination is the rule here before landing."

Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki tilted their heads. In the back, Minamida stopped Tenchi and others and explained various things.

104

And Dard and the others are looking at him with exasperated faces.

"Mya!"

"That's right! Every corner of that body..."

Then, Fuku, who suddenly changed into a humanoid, lifts Miron and throws it into the sea.

"Shou, see you later."

Palty put his hand on the general's shoulder as they passed each other, said so, and started walking towards the Tenchi and the others.

"Everyone, thank you for coming all the way here. It is a great honor to be able to welcome the authentic Masaki members. Come on, come this way."

Pulled up onto the dock, Miron, lying on his back, seems to be fainting, and doesn't move at all.

"Are you awake, teacher?"

When the general said so suspiciously, Miron made a gesture of sticking out his lips.

An octopus suddenly appeared on Miron's lips.

"That smells fishy... Devilfish!"

105

Miron gets up and pulls the octopus off his face and throws it into the sea. When I look around, I see children all around me.

"What, why are you guys here, General!?"

"Sho-nii-chan is over there."

In the direction the children were pointing, the figure of Shou walking away with a rush.

"Wait! Deep artificial respiration here! Wait a minute!... What!?"

A child is grabbing Miron's lab coat as he tries to chase him.

"The teacher threw my octopus..."

"Oh, I already know!"

I took off the white coat that the tearful child was holding and suddenly jumped into the sea.

Swim in the sea at great speed

"This is fine!"

Then, Miron comes up from the sea again and throws many octopuses at the children's faces.

".....yeah"

The crying child must have been satisfied, and with the octopus still attached to his face, he held out the white coat he had grabbed, and Miron grabbed it and started chasing the general.

"Sho-nii-chan, don't worry too much."

Everyone nodded at the child's words.

The house where Tenchi and the others were guided is a building that used to be a small company.

Since the proxy war between pirates ended, many of the former pirates have returned to their families and clan, and this is one of the activity bases that is no longer used.

This place is used as it is as it is with the place where employees such as singles and couples and the office are together. Because of its modern design, it feels like a villa cottage.

Although it is right on the coast, the site is on a slightly higher cliff. There is a maintenance place for equipment in the basement, which leads to the sea in a cave.

Below the cliff is a sandy beach that continues to the general's base.

"Come on~~ to Banjo Island~~"

Guided by Jovia who greeted me, I brought my luggage to the office, which is the living room.

However, looking out the window, Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki, Fuku and Dard started playing on the beach.

"Dad! Damn you idiot!"

After deciding on each room, we gathered at the office, introduced ourselves, and started talking about Kenshi's training.

The basic idea is to play with Kenshi in their respective areas of expertise.

Dard just plays with Kenshi, like Ryo-Ohki, and Alea plays hide and seek with traps. Apuesta is a video game, Palty is a chase.

And Sasami and Noike are no different. Go out with Kirshe and Apuesta in search of ingredients from Banjo Island.

Ryoko finds a cool place to take a nap. Ayeka modifies her clothes to fit Banjo Island, while Alea and Party take sewing lessons. Mihoshi heads to the beach to fish. Washu is guided by Miki to remodel the island on the board.

"Somehow, it's the same as usual after all."

Then, Tenchi goes to collect ingredients with Shou and Minamida a little further away.

In the evening, Tenchi, who was worried about Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki, who hadn't come back for a long time, pointed to a place that seemed awkward.

"You seem to like the tent I live in..."

Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki happily pitching a tent in the corner of the garden.

"Ahaha. It certainly looks fun. I understand how you feel."

"Well, I had fun too."

That night, a welcome party will be held in the garden of Shou's accommodation.

108

"I caught you!"

Jovia, disguised as an old fisherman, brings in a giant tuna, and Miron, in response, brings out high-quality meat. Sasami and the others also cook a lot of food, and Dad and the others also participate in it.

"It's fun, Ryo-Ohki sister."

Eat, drink and have fun together.

"It's a beautiful starry sky. It looks like it's going to rain."

It's always time to go to bed, and Kenshi, who finished early with Ryo-Ohki, is walking along the beach with Ryo-Ohki, Fuku, and D. The feast seems to be still going on at Shou's base in the distance, and the lights are shining brilliantly.

The next morning, Kenshi woke up in the dark. Surrounding him were the figures of Ryoo Oni who had turned into beast types and were sleeping.

D was the first to wake up when Kenshi woke up. Ryo-Ohki and Fuku raised their hands in the sense that they should still be put to sleep and urged them to leave quickly.

"Ah, good morning Tenchi-nii-chan."

"Good morning Kenshi. Let's go find some ingredients for breakfast."

Tenchi invites Kenshi to the jungle. Collect ingredients while climbing trees and competing in the jungle,

109

Finally, catch shellfish on the beach. and meet Mihoshi, Fuku and Ryo-Ohki, and Durdo fishing on the shore.

[Kenshi-chan, have you handled fish before?]

With Dad's guidance, I started cooking fish and for some reason I started making breakfast.

".....What are you doing?"

"Oh... that's right, there was a house over there. Ahahaha."

"Then let's have breakfast together."

The leftovers from last night's banquet and the meal Kenshi and others made for breakfast.

"Can I borrow Kenshi?"

After suddenly barging into breakfast and eating a lot, Jovia kidnaps Kenshi and takes him away. The destination was a fisherman village that was outside the combat zone.

"You damn impertinent brats! Today is the last day of your misdeeds!"

"Auntie Jovia, don't bother Minamida's uncle too much, okay?"

"Is your daughter crying?"

"Damn! Don't say that, Obachan!"

Jovia stepped on the ground at the children's admonishing words.

"Today, I'll make you bark! Let's fight against my ultimate weapon!"

110

"Isn't he the one who came by boat yesterday?"

The children and Kenshi greet each other in a warm atmosphere. "Hey! You're heartwarming! Do you want to fight or not fight? If you're scared, say 'Beautiful and kind Jovia onee-sama, I'm sorry for hurting you until now.'"

X

Jovia is too noisy, so instead of Kenshi's welcome party, it's a competition.

No, don't do it."

"I didn't expect us to lose completely..."

X

All the battles were crushed, and the children collapsed on the sandy beach.

"Hahaha! Are you intimidated!"

"I'm afraid it's only Kenshi."

"Still don't lose that much..."

Jovia is thrown into the sea by Ryo-Ohki who runs with an angry expression.

".....Fuku-nee-chan is the only one who can throw something like that."

The surprised children are convinced when Fuku, who runs late, introduces Ryo-Ohki as his older sister. and a sword

When I heard that Tsukasa was always playing with Ryo-Ohki, I was convinced that they couldn't beat them.

111

"Hahahaha! All you kids. Don't be arrogant about defeating Jovia, he's the weakest of my four heavenly kings..."

Now Miron to the sea by Fuku.

".....Sensei, what are you here for?"

"Because it's Miron. I have no idea."

"First, the Four Heavenly Kings, even though there are two people who are annoying..."

The children with genuinely amazed faces are watching the flying Miron.

"Poor Sho-nii-chan and Minamida-ojichan"

Apuesta silently nodded at the girl's words. The children and Kenshi are taken by her Head to the settlement, where you dive into the sea and start collecting ingredients for lunch.

"Kenshi-chan, you're having lunch with your friends."

"Cook-cook."

"Ryo-chan too."

Following Ryoko, Tenchi looks up at the sky.

"The stars here are really amazing...they are very different from what you see at Masaki's house."

Look at the starry sky that will suck you in.

"Why is the starry sky seen from the ground so beautiful?"

"It's a common theory that it's because it's a place where people live."

"Is it because it's a place where we live? It's true that the universe is a world of nothingness.

"But I also like this place.

For example, it was a good time to think slowly." "Is that so?"

"I was angry, but even though I was trapped in a small world, my heart was free. When I was a Kagato marionette, my body was free, but my mind wasn't.. ...that small world of that shrine... that Masaki's house is much more valuable to me."

Tenchi showed a slightly bewildered gesture,

".....Is that still the case?"

He stared at Ryoko's face as if he had decided something. "I see....."

Ryoko closed her eyes as if thinking for a while, enjoying the moment.

Chapter Four

"....Huh?"

"Myaa!"

When Kenshi woke up the next morning, he sensed something outside and hurriedly got up.
Ryo-Ohki suddenly hugs me and looks very happy. It's the same for other women and Tenchi.
I wondered if something good happened, but Dard and Fuku came and told me to head to the lake in the mountains.

Head to the mountains with a full lunch.

Race to the lake instead of training.

"Kenshi-chan is amazing."

"Because I'm used to mountains."

The Durds arrived at the lake with astonishing speed.

"Ah~~hahahaha! You've finally come this far, kid!"

It was Miron who appeared there. In the back of it, the general is unarmed, and Jovia is watching. "Eat my ultimate weapon!"

116

Miron smears the mud in his hand on Party's face and runs away like a rabbit.

"Come on, Berserker, huh?"

In the next moment, Miron flew through the air.

"Oh my god! But he's one of the four heavenly kings..."

And this time, Jovia was thrown to Parthi just like Miron.

"What were those two trying to do?"

"I tried to use my trauma, but I've already overcome it."

"Teacher, it's been interesting since before, but it's become even more interesting since Jovia came."

"You're the only one who thinks so, you idiot!"

"I think it's going to be a good experience here because we have the vegetation close to there."

The reason I brought Kenshi to the mountains was part of my training in another world Geminer.

.....Tenchi-san. I asked Minamida-san...Is it true that there are many people in the universe who are more amazing than Miron-sensei?"

"Yeah... well, that's right. They're all powerful, and I'm sure they'll never get tired of it."

"I thought so too, Seina-kun, but.....

You give up when you stand in a position that you can't experience as an earthling."

While saying that, Tenchi hands over a monitor plate to Shou.

"..."Fucking old lady victim's group"?"

"It's a mutual aid society to reduce the tendency and countermeasures of troublesome women and reduce the burden even a little."

"Oh! There is such a meeting."

"Well, each of them has a troublesome person, and the women are all in collusion, so it's just a comfort.

"Isn't it bad!"

"It's easier if you give up early."

"Oh, oh, oh, the same thing as Minamida-san..."

"Do you dislike Miron-sensei?"

"Kaku-ku-ku-ku-ku"

D, a cat and rabbit, came over and put his paws on the fallen Shou as if to comfort him, and Pi and Piyo snuggled up with him.

"Wait, your Berserker is useless!"

"Yeah yeah yeah! I'm holding back from wanting to go and hang out with Tenchi and Kenshi!"

"If we don't finish here, Airi-sama will come, so please be patient."

"I know. Seina-chan will also draw the short end of the coin in various ways."

"Huh? How does it feel?"

Washu approached, interested in what Dard said.

"I didn't really feel it when I was on level ground, but... Uh~~n....Eh~~"

"Washu-sama, I can't let that idiot explain!"

Washu looks at Dard's gestures to see if he doesn't mind Alea's advice. "Hmm....I see."

"I have something similar at home."

With that, Washu turned on the monitor and got to work.

"What happened?"

"It's only a small amount of progress, but it seems it's been worth coming here."

"Maybe Kenshi's breakthrough?"

"It's not to the extent that I can say that, but it seems like it would be nice to have a light battle with the duds."

"Then, are you going to fight using Guardians?"

"That's way ahead of you. That kind of battle gives you a poor sense of omnipotence and hinders your physical growth. It's just a physical battle. Also, let's start training to use the sensor instead of using the five senses to identify the position of the enemy. However, the sensitivity of the

"Is there no harm in that?"

"Moving the body with the information obtained from the sensor is the ability that I inherited from Rea-dono in the first place."

"Come on! It's an excursion until we get home!"

Durd's words are the signal, and the race begins from the lake to the shore.

"Then Kenshi-chan and Shou should come first."

121

"What is it, ah, is it bad to have one small child?"

"Sho-nii-chan, I lost at rock-paper-scissors, but I won't lose in competition."

"Hmph, I was also licked. I'm not the old me anymore!"

So, Sho, who started at the same time as Kenshi, is impatient with Kenshi moving in a straight line through the jungle, and the situation is closer than he imagined. And he himself fails when he tries to cut through the jungle.

"Good! Number one!"

Ryo-Ohki and Fuku landed first before Dard landed from the top of the tree in front of Kenshi who was delighted, and Palty and his group arrived one after another after Dard.

"Uuuuu, I thought I could finally win."

"Ahahaha, you were able to get revenge on the General."

The general came out of the jungle and fell to the ground.

"Why is such a small child in the jungle so fast..."

Kenshi and his friends return to Shou's base, and at Washu's suggestion, they begin a full-fledged game.

"I remember the time when the general came to this island and fought for the first time."

The rule is to reach a place about 1km away while dodging the attacks of the duds. Negative points are added when attacked. Each of the dards attacks one by one, only in a certain area. The key is how to reduce the negatives.

"In the punishment game, the amount of negative points determines how long Ryo-Ohki tickles. Then let's start."

Kenshi, who has changed his blood phase, starts running in a hurry.

".....What is the reward for doing well?"

"Ryo-Ohki strokes my head! Nyahahaha!"

"...Kenshi-chan, you're used to it."

When the general heard Washu's answer, he turned a sympathetic look at Kenshi's back.

Dard launches a variety of irregular attacks in the jungle. I was barely able to escape while using obstacles as shields, and when I escaped from that area, I was deprived of a considerable amount of points.

"It's in the jungle, so I feel like I can escape somehow."

"But if it's an empty place, it's one-sided."

x

Next is the Alea district. It is a ranch with shrubs here and there from the jungle. A bullet from a long distance grazes Kenshi, who senses a presence and hides in the bushes. Of course, it's a shock bullet that hurts a little even if it hits.

Kenshi hides behind bushes and grazing cows, but he manages to move on to the next section while being hit by traps and shooting skills here and there.

"It's really hard when combined with a trap."

x

Next is the area of Palty. It's also deep in the jungle. In front of Kenshi who is hiding and moving Pi and Piyo appear and start crying loudly. Then animals like stuffed animals attack. No matter where you run away, you will be found by Pea and others.

I managed to escape to the next area.

The last is the area of Palty.

X

"Kenshi-chan. I can't fight skillfully."

"...Yeah. Got it."

It seemed that he would face Palty standing in his way, but Kenshi quickly escaped.

Kenshi dodges Palty's attacks with short spears and escapes.

"Palty is also quite skilled. If you fight with a spear, you're stronger than me."

"He's still serious, but he's a good partner for Kenshi."

Still, Kenshi got out of the jungle while receiving a lot of bullets. Ryo-Ohki and Fuku run towards the goal, where they are waiting with smiles.

"Myaa!"

"Ah~~Hahaha! I'll praise you for defeating the Four Heavenly Kings and getting here!"

While saying that, Miron and Jovia suddenly appeared.

"But they're just an opening act!"

"I'll try to defeat the two of us, but..."

Then, Miron and Jovia were thrown high into the sky the next moment and fell into the sea.

"Because I'm really not punished."

Of course, it was Ryo-Ohki and Fuku who threw Miron and the others.

"Ryo-Ohki sister! Fuku sister!"

Kenshi jumps into Ryo-Ohki, who gently spreads his hand. But the next moment, Ryo-Ohki's hands began to move.

Kenshi's heartbreaking laughter echoed through the jungle.

A number of monitors are activated around Seina. There is also a general who activated the guardian next to it.

Then, Tenchi teleports there.

"I'm sorry I'm late. How's things going?"

"It's approaching silently from all directions. A considerable number of unidentified large ships and small ships have been confirmed."

"Unconfirmed? Does that mean it's a new ship? Did you even bring something like that?"

"If you don't change your response depending on what kind of background you have, you'll feel sorry for the taxpayers..."

"They are probably misappropriating the funds anyway."

"Both of you...the conversation is amazing. Are you really going to participate too?"

"Sho-kun will eventually become like that too. By the way, what about the other forces?"

"Ships take a long time to move, so they aren't around."

You can check how many anchors there are. After that, there are suspicious movements in the air force."

127

"I think the goal is to occupy Banjo Island, but I'm unfamiliar with this kind of strategy..."

There's no such thing as sneaking in."

"I thought they were probably going to shoot missiles preemptively. Ah, they're here."

"The number is like mistaking this place for a training ground."

"It's close to 1,000!?"

"Oh, it's okay."

and move instantly.

Tenchi appeared on the side of the large ballistic missile that was launched into the sea and began to accelerate.

One after another, all ballistic bullets disappear almost instantaneously.

"Wow, that's amazing... that many in an instant. Isn't it possible for Tenchi to do it all by himself?"

"If you just want to destroy it."

ZINV appears in front of Seina and disappears.

"Umm....yes. Even if you say so, what are you looking at..."

Staring intently at the data displayed on the monitor.

128

ZINV appeared in the sea, transformed into a water dragon, and moved with tremendous momentum. dive under the sea

It discovers a submarine that is in it, becomes huge and swallows it.

"..Wow! I got a reaction too."

The reaction of the monitor that Shou was watching disappeared one after another.

"ZINV is moving underwater, right? If there is, I think I want it... Hm!?"

As soon as the general was conscious of the sky, the general's Guardian jumped out of the atmosphere. And there was an old large satellite that was about to launch something towards the ground.

".....It's definitely the Banjo Island fall course. Then collect it."

Collect the bundle of metal rods about 2 meters that were launched together with the satellite into subspace storage.

"The structure is highly insulated with composite ceramics...a simple high-density alloy in a huge thermos flask...is that the man called God's wand? "

The General suddenly looks at the surface and zooms in on Banjo Island.

"Even if it doesn't have the destructive power of a core, its penetrating power would be troublesome... However, to be able to come this far in an instant is an order of magnitude different from the Guardians when they were fighting Dard and the others. So this is what a high-level guardian should be..... Ah, there's another suspicious thing."

129

The General Guardian moved to another satellite and followed the same procedure to retrieve it.

xxxxx

".....Now then. Are you ready?"

Katsuhito is talking to someone he doesn't know at the tree shrine office.

"There are still many hands here

The other party's voice suddenly stops. ".....not"

Do you know how many hands you have here?"

"Your.....doing it? There's no way you can do something like that!"

"You're underestimating the technology of a world where interstellar travel is commonplace.

There were three people who responded to your interception. If you didn't think about how easy it was, even one person would have been enough, and with their abilities alone. Let me also add that this is a response to the situation, and my assistant does not do anything at all."

"Are you saying that whatever we do, it's in the palm of your hand?"

"If our memories are being swayed to such an extent, then shouldn't we treat them like everyone else?"

"Why is it that girl!? If it's the prime minister of the earth government, there must be someone more suitable! In the first place, there's no way you can handle such a heavy responsibility alone!"

"She's just our agent. In the first place, Earth is a planet that has no say in the Galactic Federation. Seats are only for the purpose of not interfering with Earth, so you should think about Earth." We only need the development of .Earth government is what we are until we qualify anyway."

"That's why we need the technology you have. If you are also an earthling living on earth, there is no need to reject it. Of course, I have no objection to acknowledging the appropriate position."

"This is something that your predecessor and the generation before you had. Because I can't stand being rude."

"You can't stand it?"

"In order to live in space, it is necessary to evolve physically and mentally. It takes a lot of time. We have no choice but to develop the technology by ourselves through trial and error and progress gradually. Our technology is exactly the same as a deadly poison to humankind on earth."

"Then what are Miron and Kukoma!?"

"It means that you met us with an astronomical probability, and you were recognized after passing through the ordeal.

"Are you saying I don't have the qualifications for that!?"

"I couldn't make it to Banjo Island"

:hot"

"But that's!..... that's what it is!"

"It's not about abilities. No matter what form it takes, it's a unique ability to be there, and a supernatural ability that can affect the flow of the place. It's a special exception because it's been recognized."

"Erase my memory. It's too painful to live with this memory

The next morning, Kenshi's tent has doubled, one is full of food for storage, and the tent where Kenshi is sleeping is also hanging.

In addition to Ryo-Ohki, Fuku and Dard were also sleeping there, surrounding Kenshi.

Kenshi, who was feeling hot, slowly came out of the tent so as not to wake Ryo-Ohki and the others, who were still sleeping.

Kenshi, who came out to the beach, did warm-up exercises and jumped into the sea with a harpoon. After a while, it comes up with a big fish.

"...You've become stronger without even looking at it."

End page 131

All night. Seina and Tenchi, who were working, and a slightly gloomy Shou watched Kenshi from a distance.

"It seems that coming here has been a good influence.

"In a little while, each guild will be organized and there will be more people."

"I'll come visit again. It seems that the trouble here is over, so it should be a quiet island."

"I would appreciate it if you could do that....."

Shou says reluctantly.

"Once those grandparents return, we'll be able to use the original system for managing and defending Banjo Island.

Therefore, the generals will no longer have a chance to appear. Well, I have something to do at Galaxy Academy, so I can take it easy until then."

"It was GP Academy, wasn't it? I didn't expect Miron-sensei to become our alumni....."

"Because it's the place that she seems to be most suited for... well, I hope you'll enjoy it too, Sho-kun."

"Every time I hear Minamida-san's story, I feel uneasy, but... various things."

"There is a way to deal with that anxiety."

Seina said so,

(I'm sure it will strengthen and amplify that anxiety.....)

"Today, I'll guide you to a nice place! It's a reserved place even on this island!"

Dard and the others guided us to a circular cove separated by a high quay wall and connected by several caves.

"If you came to Banjo Island, here!

""Myaa!""

It is a recreational facility with huge trees growing there, gazebos built on several huge rocks, and each connected by a suspension bridge.

Miron and the others once again stand in the way of Kenshi and the others who land admiring the beautiful scenery.

"Ah~~hahahaha! How did you manage to reach my castle, you boys!"

"But can you beat us who have gained new power? Come out, my underlings!"

Jovia summoned the cat fairies Kett Sith.

"What nya!? Where is this nya!""

The Cait Sith are puzzled by the suddenness.

Then, Fuku and Ryo-Ohki, who saw it, attacked Cait Sith with their eyes shining brightly.

"Gyaaaaa! Fuku nya! Demon beast nya~~~!"

"Oh, there's another one nya!?"

Fuku and Ryo-Ohki chase after the Cait Sith who run away all at once.

"Ahhhhh! Now the kid's guard beast is gone! Come on out!"

134

""Angyaaaaaaaaaaaaa!""

The one that was summoned was the sea dragon that appeared in Masaki's pond before, and another one of the same species.

"Ah! Laval-chan"

"Gah..... gahaaaaaaaaa!"

Laval hesitated for a moment, but was glared at by another sea dragon and began to threaten again.

"Cook-kook. This Avaluru is a high-ranking species of Laval! Even if I ask for help from Laval, it's useless, useless, useless!"

"Hahaha! Rub your forehead on the ground and submit to us!"

At that time, a large humanoid weapon flew behind Laval and the others and landed.

"What!? What??"

"Gee! What's going on here!?"

"What? Do you know?"

"The cavalry machine Seikishin that threw down all of Renza into a terrifying thunderbolt...

Yomotsu wolf, a god of misfortune with power comparable to those small animals!"

"What's with that ridiculous name! I'm not kidding!"

"Kuh! But this time, two

·that?"

However, the sea dragons turned pale and were sweating and trembling.

135

"Gurururu....."

I shook my head with great force as if to answer the wolf. And he canceled the contract with Pakin and Jovia.

"Ah!

""Gow!""

""Ngya!""

The two cleverly grabbed Miron's and Jovia's collars and threw them far away. Then, just as if the mission had been completed, he saluted the Yomotsu wolf.

"How do you know that you guys salute~~!"

"I told you!"

Miron and Jovia became stars.

"Kenshi-cha~~~~n!"

Tenno emerges from the Yomotsu wolf.

x

Kenshi and the others are playing with sea dragons. Playing with dards is also training, such as climbing trees and jumping from there, enjoying the complicated seabed.

Tenno stares at it with warm eyes. Cait Siths played by Fuku and Ryo-Ohki are lying in a pile of corpses.

"Sister, that robot is Kiriko's, isn't it?"

"In Renza, it's a cavalry machine, and in Rea's world, it's a Seikishin. That girl was doing maintenance at Washu-sama's, and I was asked to check its operation, so I brought it here."

"Ryo-Ohki and Fuku-chan's younger sister, right?"

"Like those girls, you're a good, obedient girl. Washu-sama regretted not being able to become Kenshi-chan's partner."

"Hahaha.....Yes."

"What!?"

At that moment, there was a roar from outside, an explosion, and a splash of water from the shock wave that rained down on the place where Tenchi and the others were, like a big wave. The cause was that Kenshi, who was having fun with sea dragons and dards, became friends with the Yomotsu wolf and as soon as he got on board, he started to go out of control.

"Ahahahaha!"

"Amazing, amazing!"

Running around the sea with tremendous momentum, Tenchi, ZINV, and General Guardian finally capture and capture it.

End 136

137

[Kenshi, what happened!?!]

I tilted my head to Tenchi's question, but I answered, "It was fun."

"Uh-huh. Now I understand why those people sent Rea-san over here. No way!

I can't believe I have a good relationship with it."

".....sorry"

Rea-san, you did a great job of preventing Kenshi from having that."

"And Kiriko-san's notoriety... well, all sorts of things."

"No, it's fine. Kiriko-san also said that using her in ground combat was an outrageous act." After a few days, Kenshi's school started, so I went home.

x

They are seen off by the children and duds who have become friends.

"Kek, Kenshi-cha~~n"

The one who cries the most is Dard.

"I'll come visit again. Dard-oneechan, please come visit, too."

"Yeah. I'll definitely go."

I said goodbye and headed home.

138

"Welcome home~~, Kenshi-chan!"

The ones who greeted Kenshi and his friends when they returned home at the Masaki family were Dads who were having tea with Rea.

chapter Five

A few years later. Kenshi was in junior high school.

usual morning.

That day, while playing in the mountains with Ryo-Ohki as usual, Ryo-Ohki tried to attack Kenshi by hiding in a tree. Kenshi dodged.

"Cook-kook. Looks like the time has finally come."

Hakubi Washu, an evil genius scientist, was laughing in a dim laboratory.

Xxx

".....That's good news. Even here, I was annoyed when my turn would come. How's it going with other education?"

"Masaki's valley and Banjo Island have no problem procuring living materials. Clothing is provided by Ayeka. Food is provided by Sasami and others. Housing is provided by the people of Masaki's village and Nobuyuki. Of course. Me too."

"Yosho for the combat skill, Ryo-chan for the physical side?"

"The field work with Tenchi-dono has also been very useful. From the first breakthrough, Dard and the others have also been helpful."

140

"Miron-chan and she were quite the goodies."

"Cook. Those girls make me laugh in many ways. It's worth raising them, isn't it?"

"Especially Miron-chan is a future executive candidate. It's bad for the general, but if you're in that much of a state of love, there's no problem.♪"

"No, no, you're cute."

"She looks like old Washu-chan."

".....Is Jovia Naja?"

"Wow~~(! If that's the case, that's a problem. I want you to grow up straight without being twisted by all means."

"Couscous, yes."

Kenshi's image is projected in a pitch-black space, and the faint silhouettes of several people.

"Fufufu... it's finally our turn."

"People of Fu Chikyu Masaki are the undercard"

"Yes. Powerful, but still immature."

"As expected, we have no choice but to leave.....!?"

Then, the room suddenly became brighter, and a quiet room appeared with sweets lined up on a large dining table.

141

Isu, Funaho, Misaki, and Yuzaki Hirata looked at Ringo and Minaho.

"Wait, Ringo-chan, I'm in a good mood, so don't disturb me!"

"...This situation is really embarrassing."

"It's more embarrassing for us to be shown that embarrassing act!"

"You can't even make a sound, right?"

"That's right! Shouldn't Ringo-chan be first?"

""Oh!""

"Ringo-sama is here!?"

Kiriko and the others panic when they hear that Ringo is coming to Earth.

"Ah, umm... what did we do wrong?"

Kiriko, who thought they were the accounting auditors of the Yamada family, greeted them all in seiza. However, he is relieved to learn that it was dispatched for Kenshi by order of Seto.

"...Am I that scared?"

In the Masaki family, Noike was also in a state of panic. However, Kiriko and the others persuade him to regain his composure. Ringo pretends not to see it and goes to Kenshi.

142

After introducing myself, I started giving a lecture to Kenshi.

An hour later, Kenshi collapses, completely burned out.

((((Ah, after all)))

Those who knew Ringo's fury could only stare at it with dead eyes.

"Recently, Kenshi hasn't talked about his pocket money at all... do you have any idea?"
In response to Rea's question, Noike and Kiriko pretended not to hear it with their eyes closed, while Jovia and Miron, who were traumatized, burst into tears.

Next came Minaho.

"...Come to think of it, what is Minaho-sama good at? Come to think of it, he doesn't know any other profiles other than being Seto-sama's adjutant."

"There are many people in the Jurai royal family who don't know about it. The same is true for the Masaki and Kamiki families, so it's only natural that you don't know about it."

Kenshi and Minaho face each other.

Kenshi approached with a feint and was lightly relieved and thrust into the bush with his own momentum.

"No hands... Aiki!?"

143

"I'm not very good at weapon-related things, but I'm not very good at it..."

Next in front of me is Sasami, holding a stick. The moment Sasami launched an attack to make her disappear, she was also flung into the bushes.

"No way Sasami-sama!?"

".....That's right, you're a master class when it comes to receiving."

Ryo-Ohki flew next, then Fuku.

"Maaa!

Kenshi ignores Fuku and gets stuck. Kiriko and the others took him in, and training with Kenshi resumed.

be.

Masaki family hall.

Minaho, Rea and Tenchi are talking.

"Minaho-sama, thank you very much for Kenshi's sake."

"It's for my lovely nephew. Don't worry about it. More than that....."

"More than that.....?"

"I feel like I'm growing up just as Seto-sama and the others intended...it's cute, but...

144

Minaho seems complicated.

"Huh... I thought I was raised like Tenchi, especially in a normal way, but for some reason it's like that....."

"How did you feel about Kenshi's physical side?"

"That's quite a lot for a normal Earthling. More importantly, it's reflex-related is amazing. This is already on par with a low-rank warrior, so the future challenge is to improve the matching with the body as much as possible. It's just a matter of how many different experiences you can have..."

"It doesn't seem like you have anything to worry about."

"Shhh. Certainly the best people imaginable within the Galactic Federation are involved."

Minaho quickly approached Tenchi on his knees.

"...I'm sorry."

"I will demand 'Today is my Tenchi-chan' for two days as a consolation prize! Is that okay?"

“Are there people listening outside?”

"Okay then! Congratulations Tenchi-chan. Actually, I'm here today not only to talk about Kenshi-chan, but also to check on Tenchi-chan's situation and have a meeting for the future."

“Um, why are you all here?”

"Oh? We're family, right?"

"This is the second time I've been to Tenchi-chan's place, and more than that, you're interested in various things, aren't you?"

"Are you doing it right?"

"Wh-What do you want?"

"Well, there are only women here..."

[illegible]

"Wow~~~, Fuku-chan. So cute."

The location has moved to Masaki's living room.

Misaki happily flirts with the Fuku-chans, Sasami and Ryo-Ohki. The other women are still talking about something involving Kiriko and Masaki's women.

"Oh, Yuzaki-san, are you going out? What about Kenshi-chan?"

Noike looks around the garden with juice and sweets. There is Yuzaki looking up at the sky and mumbling.

147

"It's a chasing race. Kenshi-chan goes to the mountain first, and Yuzaki starts later."

"Oh, so... what are the conditions for that start?"

"Wouldn't it be nice to just take a sip of that juice? Yuzaki! Come over here, get some rest, and then go."

At Seto's call, Yuzaki gleefully comes over.

"please"

"thank you"

Yuzaki took a bite of the sweets and threw them into his mouth, then took a sip of the juice and said, "Thank you for the meal."

As soon as he said that, he rushed toward the mountain, suddenly stumbled over something, fell, and plunged straight into the pond.

"Ahahahahahaha!"

Seto is laughing out loud, while Funaho and Misaki are smiling.

However, Yuzaki just landed on the opposite bank and went straight into the mountains.

"that....."

"Because it's soaking wet, it's okay in outer space."

Occasionally, a tremendous dust cloud caught in a trap rises from the surface of the mountain.

Katsuhito and Airi are facing each other at the shrine office of Masaki Shrine, and they are having a hearty conversation.

"The universe and here... it's kind of calmed down..."

"Seina's little boy is also involved in various things, but now he's freed from Seto-dono and should be able to calm down a bit."

"In the end, it's ironic that we're going back to Earth again."

"It's an experience that most people can't get in their entire lives. I think it would be nice to take it easy for a while. I heard that you've grown quite a bit on Banjo Island."

"I would die of boredom."

"Galactic Federation and Renza have many challenges to overcome from now on. That's your job, right?"

"That's troublesome! You're probably someone else's problem, aren't you? You'll soon be in a position to do that troublesome work."

At Airi's words, Katsuhito looked around the shrine office.

"Tenchi has calmed down. Seina's kid has done more than I expected with the trouble he was forced to do. It's time for me to get up..."

"I'm sorry, Grandpa!"

149

"Ahahahahahaha! I won't let you escape, kid!"

Kenshi and Yuzaki chasing him enter the shrine office and cross between Katsuhito and Airi. Kenshi takes off his shoes and Yuzaki moves with only his hands.

".....For now, why don't you just lift your hips and hit your butt?"

"Ahahaha!"

Yuzaki is crouching in the living room after being spanked by Katsuhito.

The Tenchi and the others look toward the garden and are stunned.

Kenshi and Misaki aren't fighting, they're just chasing each other. It feels like I'm being swayed by Misa Itsuki when she grabs my hand and separates it from time to time. However, it was not on the ground, but on the pond. "Yes. It's over."

Misaki grabs Kenshi's hand and kicks him off the surface of the water to land on the pier. A curious Kenshi tries to check the surface of the pond and falls into the water.

Next up is Funaho.

×xX

"Funaho mother, I want you to show me that after a long time."

150

Sasami says that with an excited face.

"That's right. But when it comes to Kenshi-chan, let's change what we use."

"change?"

"Ayeka-chan, do you have a thick thread?"

With that said, Funaho took out a kite string from among the sewing tools Ayeka brought. Cut it out about two meters long and tie a knot on both sides.

"Hold on. I'll go."

Funaho let the kite string sway like a rhythmic gymnastics ribbon, then let it bend like a whip.

Then the kite string pulled taut like a thin stick or needle. The next moment, Kenshi was lightly poked by it and flung backwards.

""eh?""

Anyone who isn't familiar with Funaho's technique simply stares at the spectacle in amazement.

"Wow! Mother Funaho, you used to do it with chains?"

Kenshi realizes it's a kite string and tries to do it from the side instead of from the front. But the kite string spear

Knock Kenshi away while drawing an arc.

Halfway through, he uses it like a whip to entangle Kenshi, and uses Kenshi to start playing a top.

Hand over Kenshi to Ryo-Ohki.

151

"Meow! Next, me! My turn!"

Fuku looks at Funaho with hopeful eyes.

"Kiriko-chan?"

".....yes"

do.

"Please do it. I will be pleased."

"The only one left is Seto-sama, but what is Seto-sama good at?"

"That's right... Well, it's possible to give Kenshi-dono training, but..."

Game operation is what Seto chose.

Each has a wireless gamepad. and a head-mounted display activates around Kenshi and the others.

"Hmm....I'll do it."

Monitors activated around each other erode each other and flicker busily. However, Seto gradually became inferior.

Don't worry!"

""""Ah!""""

Seto's controller turns into something that is clearly high level.

152

Kenshi collapses with white eyes.

"Huh.....I won."

Boasting Seto from the surroundings. But Seto is covering his ears and pretending not to know.

"How immature"

"...Grandmother"

next morning.

Ayeka and Sasami look embarrassed.

each sight.

A chase between Ryo-Ohki and Kenshi.

Noike and the others are joined by Seto and the others, and they are starting to make something different from the usual treats. Fuku asks Funaho to play a music top.

In front of the warehouse outside, Seina's mother, Yoshiko, and Kiriko are also preparing food.

The appearance of Hakuren and others who were not there the day before.

Tenchi goes to the field with Kenshi, Ryo-Ohki, and Seina.

Seina's father and the sea arrive with ingredients on the back of a small truck.

153 㐁㐁㐁

At the shrine office, Katsuhito and Nobuyuki, Emperor Jurai, Kazuki Shika, and Utsumi are having tea made by Rea.

Tenchi and the others are working in the fields, and Amame Shika appears in front of them with a big smile on her face.

Kenshi runs away in front of the stunned Tenchi, and Amame chases after him. Mitoto's broom suddenly appeared again, and they both tripped and fell over.

"Oh~~~ That sounds like fun"

"I'm not doing it for fun, though."

Amane buds full of mud and grass are stunned. "Oh my god~~"

Mitoto goes to Tote Tote and Kenshi to clean up the mud, without worrying about Amame.

"As expected of Mihoshi's mother..."

"I found Mitoto. Seina contacted me."

Minami, Nakita, Misao, and Mashisu sighed in relief at Mikami's words.

"Damn. You don't have to clean up until this time....."

"It's better to give up on that about your mother."

154

"... Well, I have no choice but to be happy that I have one more thing to worry about."

"Oh, you've become a lot more understanding, haven't you?"

"one!"

Minami averts her gaze sullenly.

"I was threatened by my grandmother... persuaded, exposed to mother's silent pressure, and the ending was my sister's crying.

Misao said quietly to himself.

"That face of Mihoshi must be the best."

x

Ahead of Mashisu's gaze is Mihoshi with a big smile. Then Noike comes with tea.

"But... I didn't expect Noike to go out with me this far."

.....You are... well, I think you are happy."

To everyone's sympathetic eyes, Noike answered with the best possible smile.

Kenshi and his friends go home with various harvests. Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki are holding hands to prevent Mitoto from going anywhere.

"Congratulations, Tenchi-senpai."

"It's not official yet, but thank you.

"It's reassuring"

"Well, I don't know if it will be helpful."

Tenchi and Seina smiling at each other.

"...so that's why"

I hear the voice of Emperor Jurai explaining.

A group of people are sitting at round tables and listening.

"At present, we cannot make an official announcement about these people. We had a gathering, and it was a show only for the inner circle."

They are lined up in the order in which Ryoko and Ayeka met, with Tenchi at the center.

"However, looking at the line-up, an announcement will undoubtedly cause a big uproar. When it comes to Earth, Lord Yamada Seina has great influence, and my wife, the First Empress of Jurai, is also from this area. Considering them, our Galactic Federation, and now the Renza Federation, where exchanges have officially begun. Let's forget about this and celebrate the auspicious occasion of these people."

Emperor Jurai's greeting ends, and Tenchi takes a step forward.

156

"Today, everyone, thank you for taking time out of your busy schedules to gather here for us."

Everyone follows Tenchi's bow.

Banjo Island recalled.

"When I first met them, I was 15 years old, had just graduated from high school, and was just living as an earthling. There were many surprises and sometimes dangers involved, but I can only imagine how fun it was. I think the reason I was able to live in the same place for so long was because I knew that they share the same emotions as me and live their daily lives in the same way. I didn't have time to think about living with them, but the reason I thought that I couldn't stay like this forever was when I heard about Seina's marriage. I had to choose one person, but the more I thought about it, the more I realized how important my current situation was and how I couldn't stand to be without any one of them. Everything was there, and it had become like an ordinary family...."

".....Is it okay for me to be selfish?"

"Is it possible that something is troubling you?"

157

"Family has to go independent at some point. Don't stay in the cradle forever.

No... remember what was written in some book."

"Fufu. That's Tenchi's misunderstanding."

"misunderstanding?"

"Yes.

Ryoko looked around and everyone nodded.

"Okay. But even if it's the second time here..."

At Ryoko's words, the light disappeared from Washu's eyes, and Ryoko averted his gaze while sweating profusely.

• Is it okay for me to be selfish?」

"Then, shall we take a majority vote? Those who agree with Mr. Tenchi's opinion."

Everyone raises their hands as if flying.

"...thank you. Then everyone with me....."

A big wave drowns out those words.

Tenchi, whose eyes were closed, stared straight ahead.

"We have confirmed our intentions to become a family and will report this to everyone.

158

However, we will continue to work together to the best of our ability. Therefore, in the future

Thank you very much for your guidance and encouragement."

Everyone bows in unison, and applause erupts from the guests.

"Well, everyone."

At Emperor Jurai's signal, everyone holds the cup.

"I would like you to express your intentions for this ceremony with that cup."

And they all drank the cup.

"We unanimously approve of this marriage. Congratulations!"

A big round of applause broke out again.

And a pleasant dinner begins. Hakuren and others wear white court uniforms and serve as waiters.

The circle of talk spreads here and there, and Minaho is still being told about marriage by Katsuhito and Airi. However, Mitoto, who was watching the situation,

"Speaking of which, when was Airi-sama's wedding?"

That's what I said.

""a!""

"No way!?"

Everyone who knew Yosho and Airi since they were young, including Emperor Jurai, raised their voices.

159

"No, not yet."

"Oh, that's right."

Airi and Katsuhito said bluntly.

"In the first place, since Yosho's survival has not yet been announced, there is no way to hold a wedding ceremony or a reception."

""Eh!""

"Wait! Mom and Dad, is that true?"

"We just didn't have a ceremony. You don't even have a partner!"

"The reason why you don't have a partner is because of your mother and Seto-sama!"

"Minaho-chan, we'll have more time soon."

"Saying that, how many years has it been!?"

It's a big fuss with Seto and Airi.

"It has already started. What are you going to do?"

"But we really can't do anything about it..."

"I had a lot of troubles, but I was able to take care of various things..."

Tenchi, the main character of this gathering, was hiding in a corner with Seina.

Chapter Six

The unchanging morning of the Masaki family,

Kenshi in bagworm state hangs outside the window, and Ryo-Ohki hangs a little later.

".....The rate of trade-offs is gradually increasing."

The smiling Tenchi stretched wide.

Field work in the morning. Do the same job as Tenchi, and go home with a big basket full of harvest. breakfast for everyone. Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki compete to transfer the finished side dish to a plate with chopsticks.

The winner gets to taste the side dish, and Ryo-Ohki wins first and eats the side dish.

"Yes. Next is this."

Sasami made a big pot.

And the competition started again, and Kenshi won next time.

Noike puts the transferred side dish on the dining table. Kenshi's upbringing becomes even more intense.

General Kukoma, Durd, Alea, Apuesta, Parthi.

Seina just runs Kenshi and Yamano, but she doesn't have women who change the bias of the probability, so she gets into a lot of trouble.

162

I don't know what it means in a different way than Mihoshi-nee-chan."

Kenshi, covered in scratches, tilts his head.

years later.

"Good morning Tenchi Onii-chan"

"Good morning, Mr. Tenchi."

As usual, I was greeted by Sasami and Noike in the morning.

A rare snow scene outside.

163

"Are Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki still in the mountains?"

"It looks like it. It's been a week today, so it's a new record."

.....Even though the functions are restricted, has it come this far against Ryo-Ohki?"

"If it's a small amount of equipment and the rest is locally procured, there shouldn't be any problems over there."

Washu comes out of the lab and sits in place.

"What about Banjo Island?"

"You can't catch it over there unless you unlock some of Ryo-Ohki's functions. That's why you can hide it for the rest of your life, cuckoo."

"Ah~~ But if you don't come back soon, I think you'll go wild."

"Well, that's true, too. Ryoko!"

Washu looks up at the beam.

"Hey hey"

and a few minutes later,

"Myaa!"

"Uh~~"

Ryo-Ohki came back carrying Kenshi, who was like a clump of mud, dead trees, and dead leaves.

x

164

Kenshi, who had his whole body washed in the bath and became human, but his behavior became wild, was holding breakfast.

Moaning. Ryoko and Ayeka's daughter happily caresses it.

"Well, if it's this, I'll be sane when I'm full."

"sister"

And Tokimi who approached Washu whispered something.

".....I understand. Thank you."

"Kenshi to Geminer!?"

x

At Washu's lab, Rea and Tenchi listen to a report from Washu.

"But Kenshi is still!"

"but"

It was Tenchi who objected.

"I think we met Tenchi-dono about the same time as Kenshi now?"

"Now is just the right time... No, it's just convenient."

Didn't you say it was interesting?"

Tenchi stares at Washu.

"No, you know, you know..."

165

Washu, who is weak against Tenchi, is quickly replaced by Rea.

"I'm grateful that Tenchi-chan is worried about Kenshi, isn't she? But..."

"Myaa!"

I don't know where he heard that from, but Ryo-Ohki suddenly appeared and stared at Reia with eyes full of tears.

"Ugh!?"

"Myaa, myaa, myaa..."

"Washu-sama touch"

Rea is replaced by Washu when Ryo-Ohki is about to woo her.

Humya....."

Ryo-Ohki's momentum weakens as Washu glares at them.

"Well, both of you, please listen.

"Is it likely that Gaia will be resurrected any time soon?"

"There are several options. How to prevent Gaia itself from being revived. But this won't be a fundamental solution. Crisis will come again in hundreds of years. The worst timing is that Geminar will be the death star."

166

"that is....."

"Either way, there is an order placed on Rea-dono. This cannot be lifted unless Kenshi is sent over there."

"Of course the Yomotsu wolf..."

"That's a refusal!"

"...Then, if I take the option of defeating Gaia, what I'm worried about is what happens after defeating her."

"After defeating him?"

"How you defeat Gaia will change the future of Geminer a lot."

"Is it a prophecy? Or..."

"Either way, we can't intervene much in the planet of the early civilization."

"Didn't you try to make him have a Yomotsu wolf?"

"Because Kenshi-chan is cute!"

It's an invincible theory that doesn't make you say yes or no.

"So, sending Kenshi at this timing..."

"Diversity will be born in the future of Ichiban Geminer. And..." "And?"

167

"Well, this is still a possibility."

"The future of the people over there... is heavy. Are you going to let Kenshi carry it?"

"This is also the time when there can be a lot of people who can carry that burden with them."

"Let me think about it for a moment."

After saying that, Tenchi left, and Ryo-Ohki followed silently.

"Originally, I have to do that, right?"

"That's also a curse placed on Rea-dono."

"What about Kenshi's powers?"

"I have enough strength to live. With the Yomotsu wolf, I am invincible!"

"I don't want that!"

"Myaa"

"Myaa"

To Tenchi, who was idly watching the training with Kenshi and Katsuhito. Ryo-Ohki sat quietly next to him. "I've become stronger...more than when I was...thanks to you."

X

"That being said, I'm not going to play over there."

168

"Myaa"

"Isn't your father worried about Kenshi?"

Tenchi talking with Nobuyuki at work.

"It's anxiety. It's Tenny's time, it's yours. It's always anxiety when a child leaves a parent."

"How did you convince yourself?"

"Let a cute girl go on a trip."

".....eh?"

"When I was Tennyo, I was beaten by Kiyone, and when you were, I was brought here with my house.

Yo! There was nothing I could do!"

Nobuyuki's cheeks, facing Tenchi, are bright red.

".....Father, maybe this time"

"That's why I can only tell you to convince someone before they force you to convince them."

"That's right...it was helpful."

X

"Hey Kenshi, let's try a little more seriously today."

169

Tenchi and Kenshi are facing each other.

"Are you serious?"

"Yes.

"Uh, yeah. Please."

"Huh!"

Kenshi rushes in after bowing. However, as it is, it hits Tenchi with something like a smoke screen, slips through the side and escapes. And while it was still cold, I jumped into the pond.

"Now"

Tenchi threw a wooden stick into the pond, destroying Kenshi's breathing dome in the water. Large bubbles and logs rise one after another from the pond. However, they are all fake, and Kenshi, wearing cloth that is difficult to distinguish from the color of the water, gently crawls up from the edge of the pond.

Kenshi generously uses the strategies he has saved up until now and runs away.

Kenshi goes into the mountains and keeps various traps activated. "Wow!"

Then Kenshi tumbles down the slope as if his foot slipped. When the chasing Tenchi reaches a certain point, arrows come flying from all directions.

At the moment Tenchi hit it and knocked down all the arrows, the spear fell from the ground, which was Tenchi's blind spot.

Tenchi picks it up and pulls him out of the disguised ground.

.....You've gotten stronger."

"Ahahaha. Wasn't this too bad? After all, Tenchi-nii-chan is also strong."

Tenchi beamingly looks at Kenshi playing with Ryo-Ohki. Other Ryoko flying fluffy

Ayeka's daughter clinging to Kenshi.

"Are you a little convinced?"

Katsuhito called out from behind.

"....It doesn't mean that my anxiety has completely disappeared."

"No matter how powerful you are, it's the same for your parents. Even so, Washu-dono wouldn't be able to send you over there without taking any measures, right?"

"That's true... maybe it's better to worry about overdoing it."

"Kenshi is old enough to stand on his own. Besides that, you have more people to protect."

"It looks like it's going to increase again."

171

Katsuhito's gaze turned to Ryo-Ohki.

"Yes... well."

A few days later.

"TRUE!?"

"Tenchi-niichan. Are you celebrating something today?"

Kenshi, who was working in the field, suddenly asked Tenchi. "Hmm?"

Tenchi whispered to Kenshi.

"Oh, so let's hurry home." "Yeah!"

Kenshi and Ryo-Ohki are talking happily after returning home.

Taking a bath with Tenchi, Nobuyuki, and Katsuhito. Tennyo and Ryo-Ohki take Kenshi and get him washed.

A rare dinner with Katsuhito Tennyo and Airi also started. The Yamada family has also arrived and it's quite lively, and Ryoko and Ayeka's daughters and Seina and Kiriko's sons are clinging to Kenshi.

Rea and Nobuyuki are looking at Kenshi asleep.

be. Those who were involved in Kenshi's training also participated in the monitor's farewell to Kenshi. "Kenshi....."

Cool Rea, Nobuyuki shedding tears.

"it's about time"

The two nodded at Washu's words.

"Then let me give you my final blessing."

When the god Tokimi appeared and touched Kenshi's forehead, a pattern appeared on Kenshi's body, which was absorbed by his body.

It disappears as it is contained.

"that is?"

"It's just a little amulet. It's just a little comforting since I can't really have a strong influence over there, but I'll try to be of some help."

"thank you"

"Well then, shall we begin?"

A teleportation magic circle appears around Kenshi and begins to link with Rea's body.

"Check the space-time and link over there. Adjust the time axis... adjust the coordinates."

The magic circle is rewritten.

"Sister, I've connected with the coordinates of causality."

End pg172

173

"Okay then let's go"

「.....Often」

"Myaa!"

"Kenshi-chan"

The magic circle begins to rotate, and the space-time around it begins to distort.

Seen off by their respective farewell words, Kenshi is transferred and disappears.

The wild dance of light disappears, and its remnants disappear slightly.

Then, the command crest on Rea shattered.

"Oh... oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh!"

Rea's posture collapses, and tears overflow from her eyes.

"Kenshi... Kenshi! Kenshi! Kenshi! Kenshi! Kenshi! Kenshi!"

It crawls over to where Kenshi was sleeping and starts crying and sobbing repeatedly.

"Rea-san!?"

"The order that bound Rea-dono has been lifted."

Washu raises his hand to subdue those around him. "Kenshi, Kenshi..."

Nobuyuki approaches and puts his hand on Rea's shoulder as she breaks down in tears.

174

"You...Kenshi! I.....I..."

Nobuyuki gently caresses Rea who clings to her and starts crying.

"Well, let's check on Kenshi."

Amidst the sorrowfulness, Washu is blunt.

""eh?""

"Repatriation?"

Tenchi and the others stare dumbfoundedly at Washu.

"Can you see what Kenshi is doing?"

"There's no way I would leave my cute little brother in a strange place without giving him anything, right?"

"Hey, wait a minute!"

"It's okay, it's okay! It's just a monitoring probe, so it's safe even in the unlikely event that it has an emergency repatriation function!"

"Ah, of course, you can only interfere once. Once the game is over, it won't change."

"Then... does that mean Kenshi will be able to return home safely?"

"Of course...well, most of all..."

Washu glances at Seto and the others on the monitor.

175

"...I don't know if it's safe or not."

"Ahahaha. It's the guy who said, 'It's a shame to die.'"

[.....

Rea and Tenchi were at a loss for words imagining the future of Kenshi, who had come back after a long time.

"Kenshi, do your best. Really do your best."

A figure approaches Kenshi, who is sleeping quietly in the ruins.

Tenchi no use • Ryo-Ohki is an early civilization planet that is legally prohibited from entering by the Galactic Federation, which is in a closed protected space from the perspective of the universe called Earth. The stage is a place where no one can enter. For that reason, it was a slow-life work with almost no characters other than Tenchi and the others. The first episode was quite extreme, with only three main characters, Tenchi, Katsuhito, and Ryoko. However, in the fifth season, in addition to the original main character Tenchi, the main characters with different titles from the same world, MasakiKenshi (The Tale of the Holy Machine), YamadaSeina (Tenchi Muyo GXP), and Shou Kukoma (Paradise War), will appear. But walla walla walla walla.....

This is the result of the 15-year upbringing story of Kenshi, who was born after the identity and purpose of Rea, Tenchi's father, Nobuyuki's remarriage partner, was revealed. This is because even the Kukoma generals, who were caught up in the battle of the annihilated pirates and their return to Earth, will also appear.

It's already Tenchi world's Manchurian seat!

If it were a novel that didn't have to think about budget or length, how many other characters would appear in it? There is no introduction of each character. Starting with Jovia, I think that the appearance of characters in GXP and Paradise War is quite abrupt for Tenchi's main animation. Well, I would appreciate it if you could supplement it with a novel.

By the way, the original main character of this work, Tenchi, who was a 15-year-old high school student when the first season appeared, finally got married and even had a child.

Tenchi Muyo started as a harem cohabitant, but since it was an OVA with only 6 episodes of the first season, marriage and the existence of children are far beyond the story, and I don't even think about reaching there. If so, it was only in my head (delusion). Other than that, when Tenchi was announced, harem stuff wasn't common, and even if it continued for two and three seasons, I thought it would end in the form of living together.

Actually, there was a great (?) pioneering anime in the past about marriage with multiple people. The genre of that work was gag, so I wondered if it would be difficult to do the same thing with Tenchi. Well, I did it in GXP after that, but Seina has a marriage of convenience, forced by scary older sisters and high-ranking people, so the situation is slightly different from Tenchi. Moreover, if the stage is the Earth, Tenchi's consciousness is that of an Earthling, and the environment and surroundings' coercive elements like GXP are weak, then it won't be easy to marry everyone.

In other words, Tenchi's worries were also my (author's) worries.
But... well, okay.
Even if you pretend to choose one person now.
In real life, the time I spent worrying about it was less than a minute?
Since the propensity is exposed before, it is useless just to cover it up.
Of course, I had the serious Tenchi-kun seriously worry about this and that!
179

Anyway, this is the end of Tenchi uselessness... or rather, when I think about what I originally wanted to do, this is actually where the real thing starts, the story of Sazae-san's daily life. .
Also, the main theme of the 5th season was Kenshi's development, so I skipped Ryoko Ayeka's pregnancy and childbirth story from Tenchi's point of view and Seina's return.
That's why it's a punctuation level even if it's a delimiter. The world of Tenchi is still in full swing.
Or rather, it's hard to connect between GXPs...
