*Bullying & Harassment Referrals

No referrals in the current year. We had one last year.

Notes:

- Results are overall good to great. Focus will be on science as that fell just below our 80% goal.

- Kee has great kids with behavior being of minimal concern.

2. Update on preschool:

- a. 23 currently registered for 4-year-old preschool.

Notes: This does not include 3-year-old kids.

3. District Update - Mr. Trenkamp

- a. Expected Openings:

- i. Nurse (excepted offer, waiting for board approval)
- ii. Secondary English
- iii. Preschool
- iv. K-12 Level  $\frac{2}{3}$  Special Education
- v. Secondary/Marketing Secretary
- vi. Paraprofessional

Notes: Questions arose about the size of kindergarten (28?) and the potential movement of 5th grade to the NA building.

4. Legislative update - Mr. Trenkamp

- a. State Supplemental Aid (SSA) has not been set. We are also still waiting for our new Teacher Salary Supplement (TSS) amount.

Notes: Nick spoke about waiting to see what the state is giving for SSA. Therefore, the positions listed above are not 100%

5. Wellness Committee

- a. Review school board policy

Notes: Due to time we moved to finish discussing the policy at the next meeting. We delegated the various goal sections to members to choose the goals we will add to the wellness policy. Nick, Donna, and Sara will draft the updated policy and will share via email to ask for member input.

6. Other items

- a. Housing– Val?
- b. Learning Tree Update - Jenny?
- c. From members?

Notes: Jenny spoke about having a couple of grants that may take her to the $250,000 goal. She stated that she has been approached by community members and there is a higher need for care spaces. She doesn't have a date to open the daycare, but progress is being made. She would like to have the middle school cleaned out by the end of June.
