Designing Your Future Coaching Devanise Atwood

Hi! My name is Suzanne, and I live in the Chicago area. I spent years working in marketing, but for the last eight, I've been home raising my kids. Now that one is in college and the other is in high school, I have more time to focus on the things I love–reading, quilting, and writing.

I am especially drawn to stories about women who have faced challenges and found their way to an authentic, fulfilling life. That's why I'm so excited to be working with you. I believe everyone has the power to design a life that feels true to who they are, and I'm honored to be part of your journey.
