

South County Art Association Instructor

Anni Barnard

Anni received both her BA. and MA. in ceramics from Indiana University of PA. She had a minor in Fiber Arts as well. She was the ceramic technician at Edinboro University for several years before applying to graduate school. She received her MFA from RISD and began her teaching career 30 years ago. Over the years she has taught both clay and studio art classes to middle and upper school students in a private school, as well as adult education classes in Providence.