

OR2025 Presentation Submission

The 20th International Conference on Open Repositories, June 15-18 2025, Chicago, Illinois, USA

For authors: Follow the directions in italics and where appropriate replace with your own content.

A reminder that the theme for OR2025 is: “Twenty Years of Progress, a Future of Possibilities”

OR2025 provides an opportunity to reflect on the progress and contributions that the repository community has made toward equitable access to digital resources and research outputs. In addition, we are also exploring the future possibilities of what repositories can do to tackle the many global challenges that currently exist. We are interested in the following sub-themes:

- Community: promoting inclusiveness in content, users and services
- Sustainability and Preservation: ensuring the future of repositories and their content
- Inspiration: 20 years of Open Repositories impact and inspiration
- Blue-sky thinking: big ideas for the future

You will be asked to select a sub-theme at the time of submission.

Title of Proposal

Author 1 name, affiliation, email address; Author 2 name, affiliation, email address

Abstract

Summary of your proposal; maximum 200 words. The abstract should be a concise summary of the background, problem, approach and conclusions of the work described. You will copy and paste this into the submission system at the time of submission.

Keywords

List 3-4 key terms or phrases that describe the subject of the proposal.

Audience

Tell us in a sentence or two who is the likely audience for this. Some examples might be repository managers, developers, data producers, librarians, etc.

Proposal (no longer than 3 pages)

- Tell us what you will cover in the presentation. Why will your topic be of interest to the intended audience? Include figures and images if they will help reviewers evaluate the proposal content.
- All proposals should be in English and approximately 2-3 pages in length - excessively long submissions place undue burden on the reviewers.
