

madisoneducationfoundation
MOVING EDUCATION FORWARD

GRANTS AWARDED BY SCHOOL FALL 2022

Central Avenue School:

- Bilingual and ESL Books - New books to enrich the educational experience of all students, especially EL students (Chris Paradiso and Ingrid Arosemena)
- Pile of Poetry- Virtual author visit with Poet Ken Nesbitt and a poetry book for each classroom. (Maureen Magnani and Chris Paradiso)
- One School One Book- Students will join together and read one book and participate in extension activities (Maureen Magnani and Chris Paradiso)
- Recess Equipment- Playground equipment to engage more students including giant jenga, giant connect four and a speaker (Jason Izsa)
- First Grade Alternative Seating- Various seating options to help students feel motivated, comfortable, and engaged. (Stacy Trilling, AnneMarie Mastaglio, Kelly Dacey)
- Zones of Regulation- Tools to set up calm, safe, quiet areas in the classroom to support the current Zones of Regulation initiative. (Katie Nesheiwat and Kathie Spelker)

Kings Road School:

- Lego Board- Lego wall to create an interactive space where students can show off their creativity in the new Media/Steam area. (Leanne Conner)

Torey J. Sabatini School:

- One School One Book- Students, families and staff will join together and read the classic 'Charlotte's Web' and participate in extension activities. (Ashley Lobracc) Co-funded by the TJS PTO

Elementary Schools:

- Troy Cummings Author Visit (KRS,CAS, TJS)-_Award winning author Troy Cummings will engage all students in multiple assemblies by walking them through the process of creating a book. (Chris Paradiso and Mary Thomas)
- Sensory and Motor Learning in Kindergarten (TJS/KRS)- Materials to integrate fine motor practice providing multi-sensory input into the daily curriculum. (Theresa Feron, Rachel Lemon)

Madison Junior School:

- Digital Astronomy Dome- An interactive experience for 7th grade science students to further illustrate Astronomy concepts (Barabara Zabel)
- The Skeleton Detective- 7th grade Forensic students take on the role of Forensic Anthropologist through an interactive program with Rutgers University. (Barbara Zabel)

madisoneducationfoundation
MOVING EDUCATION FORWARD

- The Microbiome Inside of You- An interactive virtual session with Rutgers for all 7th grade science students to better understand cells. (Barbara Zabel, Alejandra Spangler)
- La Gringa Book and Play- ESL students will read the book and take a trip to see the play in NYC. (Priscilla Sanches Salles)
- Audiobooks- Popular audiobooks to supplement the MJS library (Karen Bessin)
- Mayhem Poets- Assembly for the entire school blending the love of poetry and spoken word with messages of inclusivity, sense of belonging, and kindness. (Brooke Philips)
- Trip to Met- Field trip for all 7th graders to the MET in NYC. (Rich Newbery, Silver Laur)
- Economy Activity- Custom t-shirts to supplement the 8th grade year long Economy classroom game. (Maryana Kolinchak, Matthew Millichap, Kathryn Ferris)

Madison High School:

- CSPA Fall Conference- Annual Fall Conference offering workshops on writing, editing, design, photography, and digital media. (Jeff Coviello, Dani Bratton, Lisa DiTuro)
- CPR Training Aids- New and updated CPR equipment for Health class. (Nicholas Liberato)
- ELA Macbeth Trip- ESL students will experience the play Macbeth to help better comprehend the material and make connections. (Nancy Brzozowski and Jessica Blier)
- Digital Audiobooks- A variety of digital audiobooks through Sora, our digital library. (Karen Bessin, Jason Ellrott, Mary Beth Gabel)
- Classics- Various classic books to supplement the library 'Classic Corner' (Karen Bessin)
- Treadmills- Additional cardio equipment to enhance the current weight room. (Jessica Rosella and Jacqui Novack)
- Disney Workshops- These workshops pair professional Disney Conductors with our band, orchestra, and choir students in Disney. (Russ Batsch)

Visit www.mefnj.org for Application Form, Guidelines, FAQ's
Contact grants@mefnj.org to submit applications, ask questions at any time.