		Rounders It was common among girls but we allowed boys to play with us if they promised to behave! Rounders involved five bricks, four at every corner of a square and one in the middle. One team would try to make as many runs as possible around the square while dodging a ball thrown across the field by the opposing team. One player was allowed to try and catch the ball, and throw it as far as possible so her team mates could make as many runs as possible as the other team fetched the same ball.
