Talking about bad actors

For a while I've been collecting info from a bad actor exposing group that's been abusing the situation that they are in to harass innocent people. I will not be talking about the situation that is the reason why they are doing all of this as these individuals have effectively made the situation a mess to even talk about and I think some others have done a better job at covering the situation.

I don't like talking about these things as it's bad for your mental health but I think it's the time to. I'll not reveal this individual's name as I can no longer expose this individual for the video that started all of this as he's not in the video itself. I still find it weird so I'll still keep this individual blocked. I'll refer to him as Y. The bad actors on the other hand deserve their names to be revealed to the public for what they've done in both of these situations.

Please before you read this don't harass anyone or anything in this doc and do the more effective thing of reporting, blocking, and spreading the word of the individuals mentioned in this doc if you so chose to. Harassment doesn't make anything better regardless who it is and worse giving them a defense. These situations should be handled peacefully and coherently.

On 8/12/2024 while working on a game I'm working on with my team Ricky Mouse alerted me in a DM showing that Y had posted videos of him in his shower on his server. I was shocked about this and never expected my first online friend to do something like this. We immediately cut all contact, Associations with Y, and kicked him from the team. Later we started to hear people say that one time Y was on a vc and decided to take a dump unmuted. I was left in shock and literally left broken at the fact that my earliest friend was exposed for such things. Including the fact that the videos went undetected from us for a month added another layer of disgust to me. I was left broken after this day.

A screenshot of the message of Ricky alerting me about what Y had done.

@Cornious Apple A Round Of aplauses

Us banning Y.

It is time for me to talk about the thing that's keeping this situation fresh in my mind. Not only will I be talking about Y but I'll be talking about the group of people that are handling the situation as well since I have the belief that people like them shouldn't be handling a situation like this as they're equally horrible. By doing this I risk myself being called a "Y supporter" in their words by simply disagreeing with the way they're handling things and the fact that they are the one's handling something like this when they are not fit to do so. If you simply disagreed with them on GJ they'll call you a Y supporter whether you support him or not. Which makes it a mess to tell the difference between a real Y supporter or someone who doesn't agree with the exposing group. Worst part is that they actively use the situation as some sort of scapegoat whenever they get confronted about their actions. They really don't care about the situation and use it as a scapegoat to get away with harassing people. If they did care then it wouldn't take them a month just to expose 1 person and what they've been doing for the past month is harassing and doing nothing but posting memes and making offensive remarks on their servers. That's all and nothing more. Before I dive into what they've done I would like to make it clear to everyone that I don't support Y nor the exposing group. I find them to be equally terrible.

Now getting that out of the way let's dive into what the exposing group is responsible for.

What are they responsible for?

Harassment | Mishandling the situation | Homophobia | Transphobia | Racist remarks | Leaking | Misc

"Yeah what's funny is that like.. if you're like.. the moment you become 9 years old you'd probably know the difference between right or wrong"

- A member from the exposing group from a video.

Oh the irony.

Harassment

One of the main reasons why I'm still involved with this situation. On 9/9/2024 someone had commented on my scratch profile and it was none other than Chris. Not only that but he was targeting my team members and bothering them. Chris was also taking down projects that were calling him out the last time he leaked. Members of the exposing group were harassing a friend of mine for being transgender as well. Later on Mickeythemfrat wanted to talk to me about certain things to which I talked to him. He had nothing with any substance to say. He asked me if I could join his GC. I practically denied this but he invited me to the GC anyway. At that point it was late at night so I went to bed. Unfortunately I got busy with IRL things those first 3 days and didn't get to see the GC. When I came back I was greeted to countless messages of them trying to get me to speak, them attempting to harass me, and them inviting me into gc where they would say some of the worst things you can say as a human being. I decided to do an experiment on them which was to not speak and see what they had to say next. I screenshotted and recorded all of the things they said in the gc.

@coolboy30000f 1. I'm older than you little bro. 2. Just because your still angry that the game your trying to leak (And for essentially nothing at this point too) is succeeding compared to what you tried to do is such a baby thing to do little bro. 3. The reason why I'm getting upset that your trying to leak my teams scratch game is because I hate when people ruin things for others because they decide to throw a fit. 4. You not only leaking their game but also harassing them. I don't take that too kindly.

@Morilix07 5. It may be a scratch game but that doesn't mean you need to act like a bully because you think someone wronged you when in truth nobody really did and is something you chosen to do to yourself. It is not my fault that you where canceled because you decided to leak, harass, and whine about something you chosen to repeatedly do for absolutely no reason other than you not liking the game and the people who are working passionately on it.

@Morilix07 Chris that fact you're repeatedly doing this to yourself is something I find both hilarious and sad. You could had made the choice earlier to simply stop but you didn't do that. Heck you do have that choice right now and I'm very much open to have you prove me wrong in just stopping and moving on from doing such stupid things. And yet you don't quit because you are stupid. So go ahead Chris. Prove me right.

Video of the bad actors GC.

Mishandling the situation

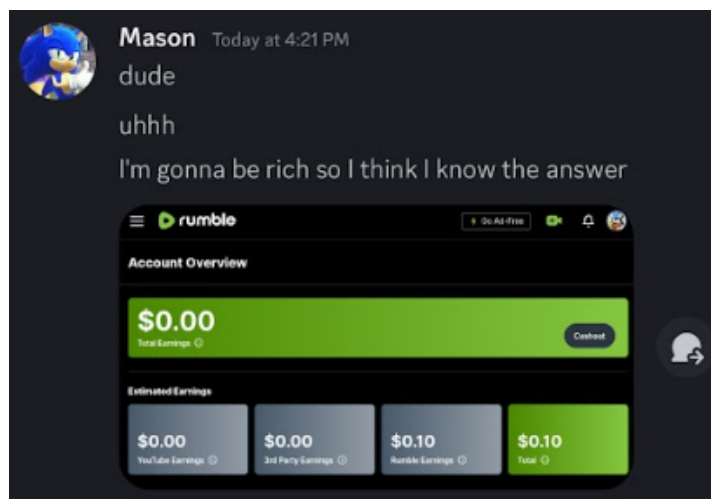

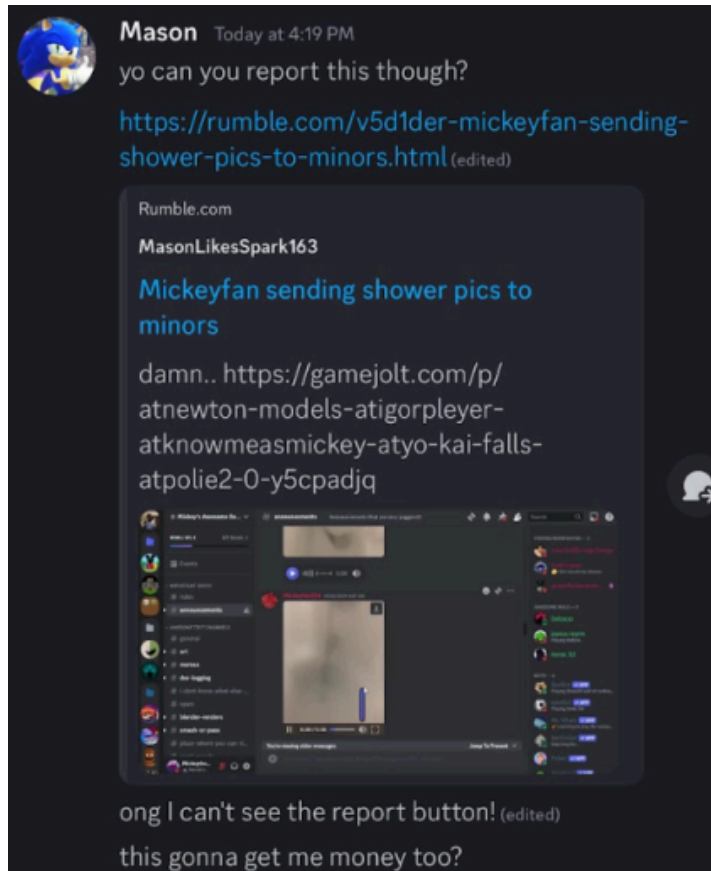

This group has been handling their situation very poorly. They have created an archive over 1GB of them harassing the innocent and pointless mumbo jumbo out of context screenshots. They don't even label what the screenshots are supposed to mean nor the point they're trying to prove and again they've been roping innocent people into this situation so they can harass them. They also have been creating duplicates of files and making them different file types to get their archive to around 1 GB (Now 2.5 GB). Mason also posted the very same video that Y got exposed for onto his rumble and even profiting off of it or attempting to profit off of the video.

They were also doing nothing but spamming memes for around a month on one of they're servers. Not even confronting Y. They also acknowledged in a doc that the reason why the "Y supporters" continued to support him was due to the fact they harassed them. When I was getting the people who had been dragged into this situation perspectives the bad actors managed to get in the server and even lied about me supposedly supporting Y supporters in the former Y server even though I never reentered the server.

A user on Game Jolt not understanding the archive proving the means of how they made the evidence public was messy.

Mason bragging about making money from the video.

Alright so I just confronted [REDACTED] bitch ass not that long ago. He's saying I'm making fun of him including the others for having family time but nope, that's just a bold face lie knowing he legit said he was spending family time the MOMENT we started confronting him. This man posted a lot of message logs of us saying fucked up shit but never actually talked about why, well. This guy [REDACTED] took a shit in front of a minor in a voice call on discord. He also took shower pics and sent them in his server full of people that are underage on his discord server.

A post made during the situation (Mason) saying how when a person who was dragged into the situation was spending time with their family. Yet he decided to say how it was a big lie which ended up him spreading misinformation inside his post.

Mickeythemfrat constantly trying to say how they should explain to their followers despite not wanting to be involved with the situation.

Frat talking about how the person who was dragged into this was supposedly “supporting” Y. With them saying multiple times he doesn’t support him. They pushed it to the side and said he did.

Here's a person who has been dragged into this asking politely to leave the post to which they harassed him and claimed that they were a Y supporter despite not having the evidence to prove nor showing it in their comments.

Homophobia & Transphobia

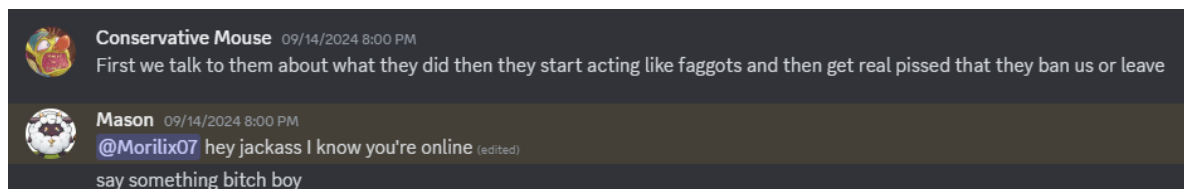

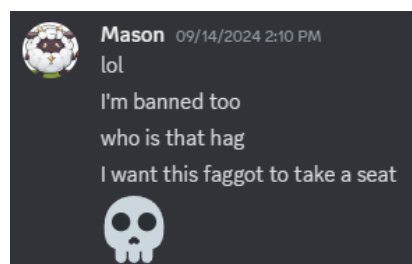

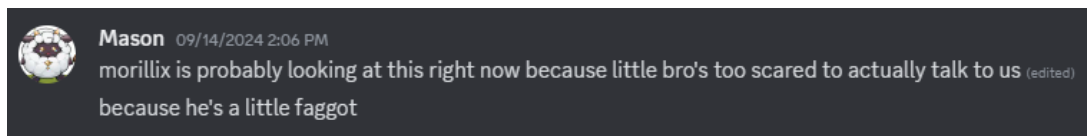

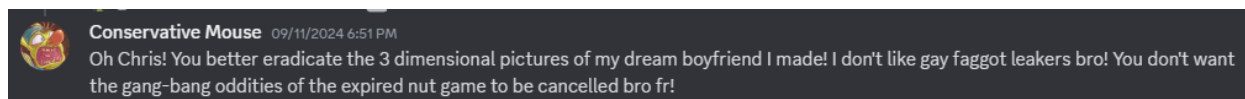

Mickeythem frat admitted that he is transphobic and multiple times used the f slur (The same with Mason, Chris, and Jacob). The whole reason for them going after one of my friends Ricky was solely because she was trans and the fact that she didn't agree with the way these bad actors were handling the situation. That's it. They also made false claims against Ricky stating that she supports Y even though they don't have evidence to support this claim.

Racist remarks

When the bad actors were harassing one of the people they dragged into the situation some began making fun of the person's color of skin. Chris then called him the n word despite him being white. I know this because he showed his face before on a fireside and a video of his face from 3 years ago is in one of his YT videos. I have blurred his face for privacy. They also posted images of things like the KKK when they attempted to harass me.

Leaking

The bad actors multiple times stated that they are ok with leaking the game that my team has been working on with the defense “It’s just a scratch game” (Doesn’t change you from being an asswipe) or that “We shouldn’t be treating the game like it’s an high quality production” (Sorry to say that it is compared to what these individuals created). The reason why they are leaking the game is simply because of the fact that I chose to not speak to them (Their actions have spoken for them) including the fact that Chris hates me. That's really it. The fact that they chosen to do all of this all over a scratch game is simply psychopathic.

This is a misc part of the doc that contains various questionable things that this group has done that don't have a solid category.

One of the bad actors sent a person who's been dragged into the situation Nazi planes in mocking them for being polish.

The bad actors using AI on my face without consent and leaking an image of my face. Chris also made a video of me trolling him when he asked for a model from the game with my voice redubbed with AI.

The original video: <https://files.catbox.moe/kd1c0c.mkv>

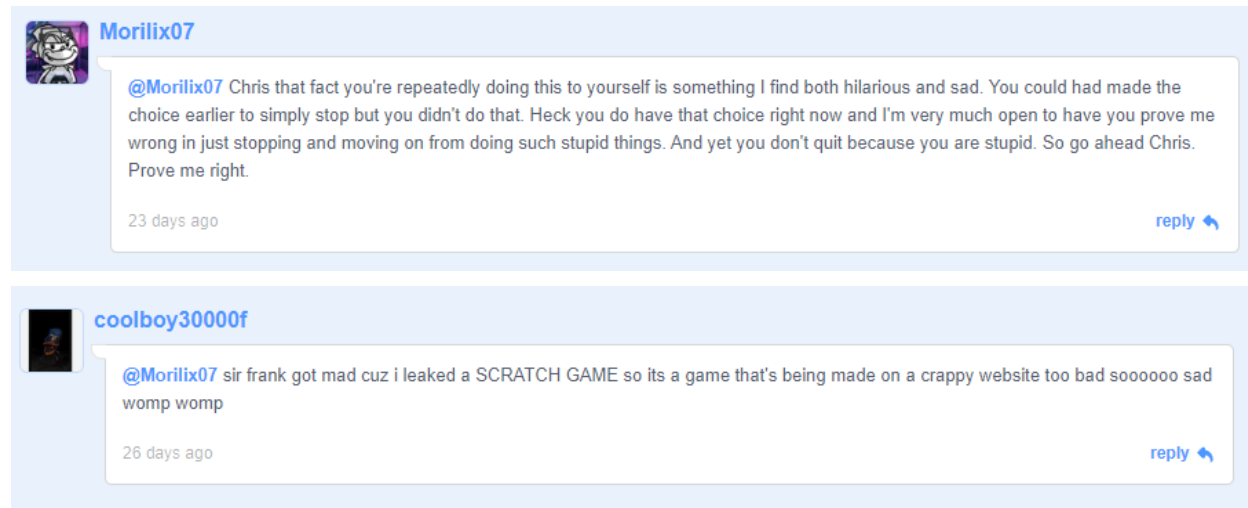

Chris's version: <https://files.catbox.moe/kr98kf.mov>

Chris also got a video of me trolling him when he asked for a model from the game and redubbed my voice with AI.
This happened way before Y posted the video.

Final thoughts

I never thought I would ever get leakers or people who would hate my team and I to this extent for only saying nothing including saying that we don't agree with the way they've been handling the Y situation. I'm relieved to finally show that these people don't care about the situation, Don't care whether your innocent or not (Only if you purely agree with them), They're ok with being the worst human beings to others, They profit of the situation (With the very same video that Y posted), and they use the situation to get away with harassing those who are innocent or uninvolved. I have a couple of words for them.

To Chris:

I challenged you to improve yourself. You've failed and I am correct about everything about you. You did that all on your own kid. See how being with bad influences and acting just like them can hurt you pretty bad? I bet with every single cell of my body you'll continue down this path and always keep proving me right every single time like you've done with this situation and with the situation that took away people's trust in you because you've chosen to go on this path. I know why nobody really likes you. You do things like this and when confronted you put the fault on them or use your ADHD as an excuse. A part of me wishes for the both of us to return to good terms and live once again in the fireside days where we didn't worry about pointless things. You could had but you have stacked all the odds against yourself now. See what you've done to yourself Chris? Oh that's right you can't see because you refuse to or you let others refuse to let you see with no individual thought. I gave you my chances Chris. I gave you way too much and now I see the worst version of you acting like a victim when in reality you're an equally as bad monster as Y using the victim card to get away with doing horrible things to others who never did wronged you but because you simply dislike them. All for no reason as well. Goodbye Chris. I'll make sure this will be the last time you'll ever speak to me.

To Mason:

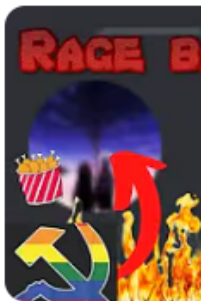

Mason 09/14/2024 2:06 PM

morillix is probably looking at this right now because little bro's too scared to actually talk to us (edited) because he's a little faggot

(No I was not Mason. You were stupid enough to harass a brick wall for the first 3 days. Once I saw that you were harassing me for literally nothing I decided that your actions spoke for yourself. You are perhaps the biggest fools I've seen. Wrote your own exposing material.)

You are honestly the biggest piece of trash I've ever seen. I am so glad that I'm not you—A person who freaks out over a flag. A flag. You are the exact reason why I don't get myself into politics and the reason why I judge people by their actions, not their race, gender/ sex, religions, etc like you thick skulls do. I'm sorry I threw some heavy blows at you in the videos yet at the same time not because you deserve all you get if you are willing to be this bad of a person. Now do me a favor and get out of the Mickeyfan situation. Others including me have handled far better than you. I also want to tell you something. Considering that you posted the same Y video that started all of this onto your rumble potentially getting more people to see it and profit off of it means you are the new Y. In your conquest to destroy the thing you hated you became just as bad if not worse than the thing you swore to destroy. Congrats, Mason. You are just like him.

To Jacob/Tr0llog33:

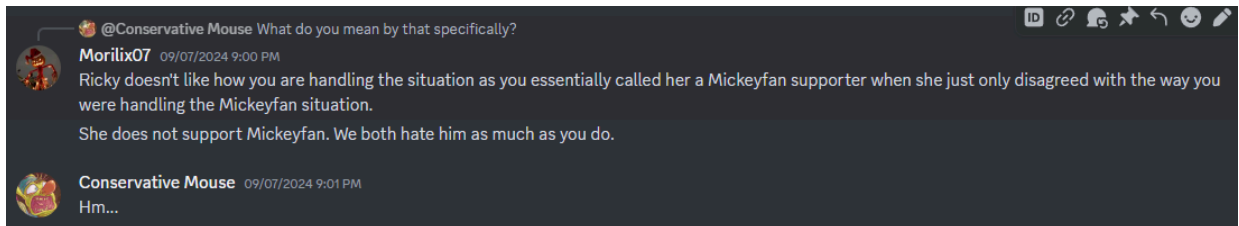

You are good at tracing vehicles and honestly that talent should have gone to someone else than you. You are equally as nasty as Mason despite you doing the least amount of things but you made sure those things were just as nasty as the others. I find it funny that you posted an image of the LGBTQ flag on a communist symbol being so keen on getting that group of peoples rights removed. Sounds pretty communist to me because it is. Sorry that you can't use your communist excuse anymore on a group of people who have done literally nothing wrong to you. Maybe you should stick to just drawing airplanes.

To Mickeythemfrat:

trust me
themfrat is only under his manipulation
all the stuff he does is cuz of mason

when themfrat is saying smth and he has no argument
he usually stops what he is saying and says "hmm.."
meaning he has no argument and has nothing to say but then when mason comes in and makes some wild shit up he just repeats what mason said so he has a argument and (sort of) gets away with it mason is definetly
the real bad guy
along with chris cause
he was already bad
leaking shit

I've heard many things about you from others. I've heard you originally wanted to apologize to Ricky despite Mason telling you not to, I've heard that when you cannot come up with a response to things you immediately go to Mason for help, and I've seen you trying to talk to me about the situation to have an understanding and yet Mason is always there to tell you otherwise. You do not have independent thought but rather follow the advice of others right or wrong. I'm going to give you the benefit of the doubt. I've seen people who have been controlled by others push their personal agendas on them. If you are being told what to do by Mason then speak to me about it. I have a feeling like you never wanted to be a part of the later stuff in this situation. Remember to always have independent thought and question the actions of others to see if it's right or wrong. You certainly don't want to be controlled by an alien telling you things you don't want to do.

Exposing Y.

I decided to take a risk. I decided to ask Y several questions. The last time we messaged each other up to that point was 7/02/2024. He responded. The answers were more salt to my wounds. Yes it was true. Y was the one who shared porn to Chris during the RealYT situation when Chris asked for it.

[Redacted] This will be the last time I'll talk to as I don't agree with what you did but I have some questions worth asking and answer them honestly. (edited)

1. Did you leak any ST material to the terrible exposing group?
2. Is it true that you sent Chris porn?
3. Are you still friends with Chris?
4. Is it true that the exposing group on a vc we're making joke with you like friends?

[Redacted] Today at 10:44 PM

1. No. Not at all.
2. Yes, I never did it again after that point.
3. No.
4. I don't believe so.

I am once again left broken. Even more broken than I was before.

And that's how you expose someone. You don't need around 1 GB of nonsense. Just 1 screenshot. I've handled this situation better than these bad actors. Really goes to show that they didn't care about it in the first place.

Updates:

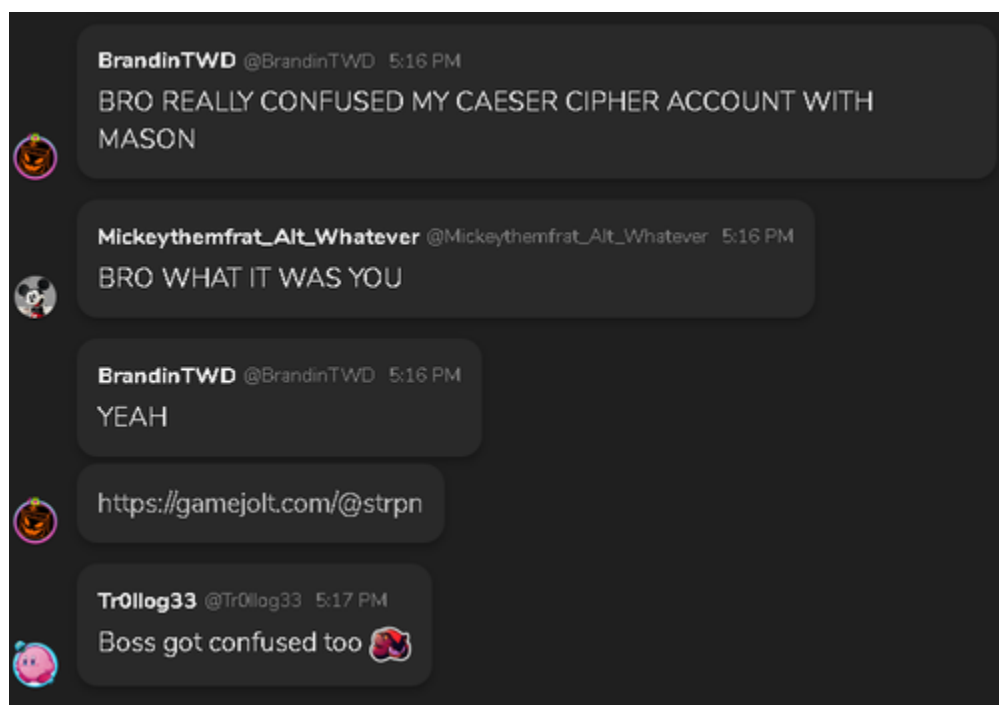

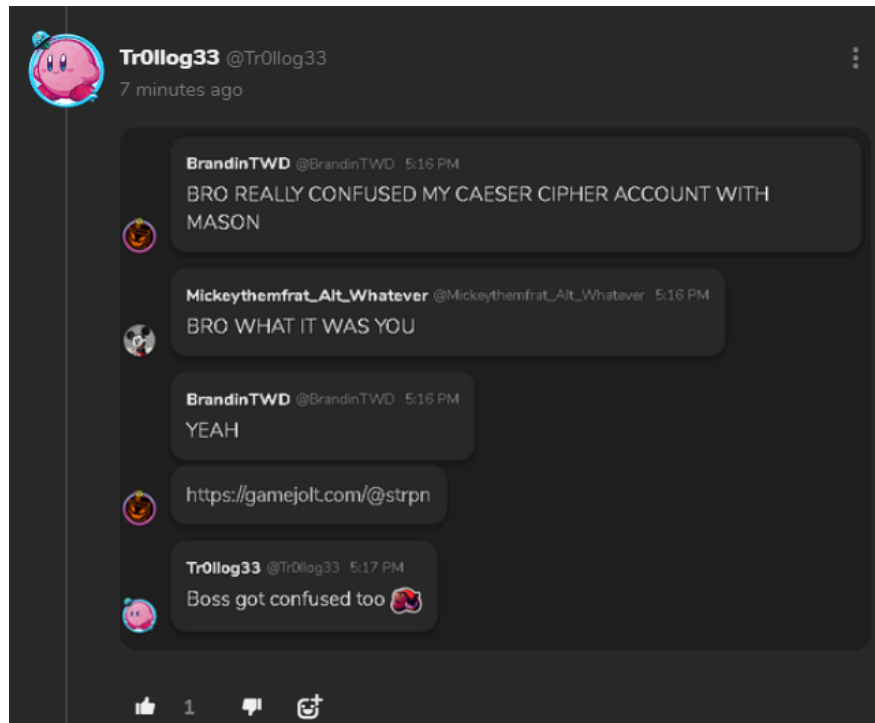

Last updated: 10/6/2024

These individuals are still going after us. Recently we've been sent death threats by one of these people. I also caught video of these individuals quite literally admitting that what they did was wrong and were fine with it. The video also caught them using one of these bad actors with autism as a scapegoat over when I mocked their OC for looking like a certain FNF mod creator who was exposed for bad things to which I didn't know that said individual was autistic and was never mocking him for that.

An image straight from the source proving that yes they were involved with it.

UPDATE 1/2/2025:

Now looking back there were some things that could have been done better with this doc but that's not important anymore. Very recently one of these leakers (Chris) have started to leak and harass again along with the very same group of leakers. This time they not only managed to render the harassment they had done to my team previously now pointless for them but they are now sending death threats to my team and also are now associating with the very person they harassed my team for (Mickeyfan). This update will compile evidence I managed to get and cover the situation in detail:

<https://archive.ph/tH4Zj>

Game Jolt post I did talking about the situation.

Now I do admit that the private jamboard joke was over the top and I do apologize on behalf of the team for it but the thing is Chris would need someone to leak the jamboard (Mickeyfan) in order to see it and now thinking about it I think he deserved what he found it considering he was doing something I told him to stop doing with some pretty horrible people. But that's what I think for the moment.

Update to that Game Jolt post.

Discoveries

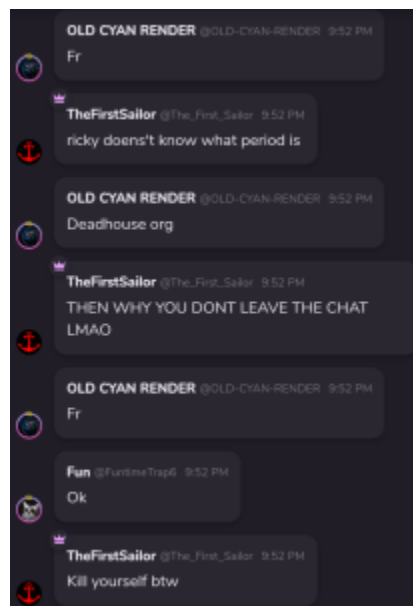

About the 12 year old claim in this screenshot: Long after the EX director of the game left the team I was told by a team member that they found out he was 12. It then started to make sense why he wasn't a good director now and why he threw fits.

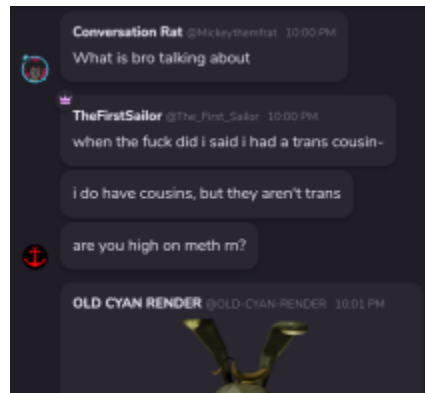

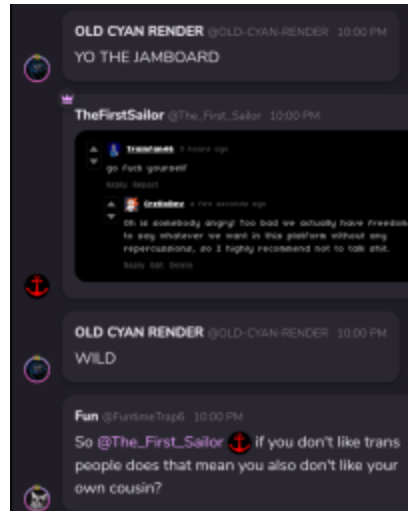

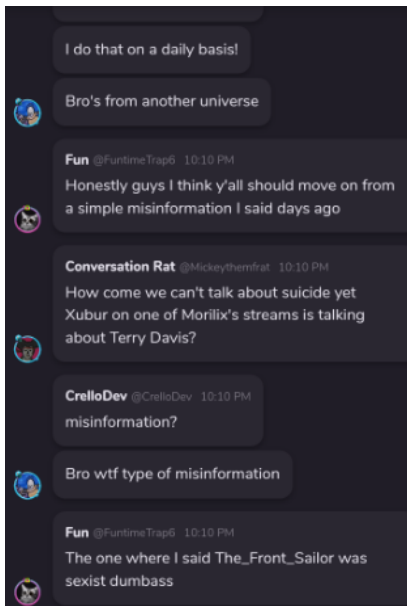

^ Crybaby.

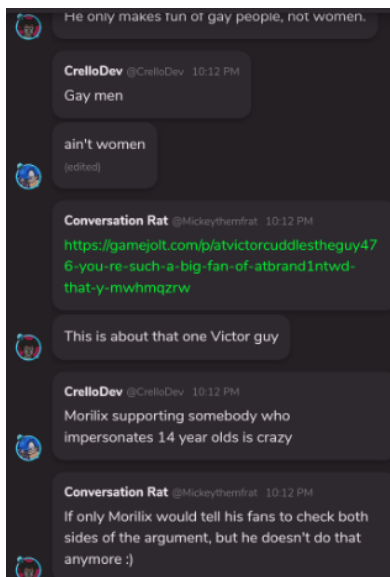

About the trans cousin claim in these screenshots: Chris has a trans cousin as I remember that was one of his excuses when I confronted him about him saying homophobic things.

The reason why you can't say "KYS" is due to the fact you guys actually mean it and not in a joke-like fashion.

The Morilix claim in the image: The reason why I'm not checking your side is because I already got enough evidence of you doing this for something objectively wrong.

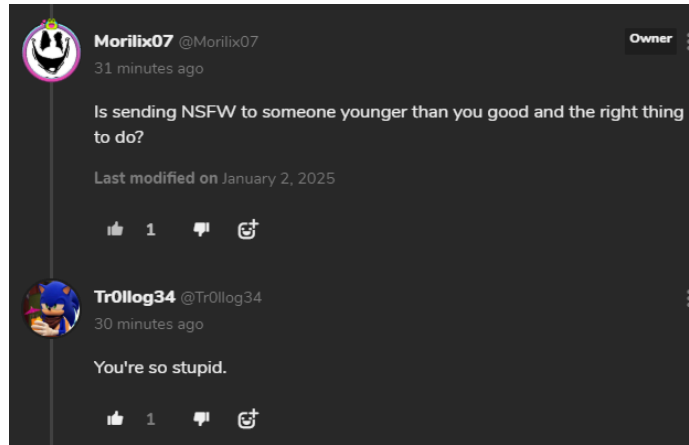

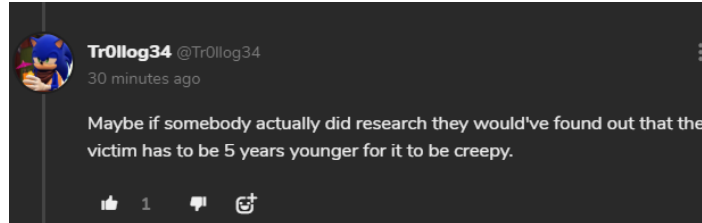

Image of me and one of the leakers talking about what Mickeyfan did.

On 2 of the ST archives you can find Victor's now deleted posts about him attempting to make Brandin look insanely fucked up with false information, I get it he harrasses gay people but making him act like he has sex with animals?

Both of them are annoying as fuck and they live in their own fantasy land.

The blame claim: We didn't blame anyone of the leakers for the dox. If you read the post I did then you would see. Chris (Someone a part of the leakers group) made the mistake of endorsing doxing.

Yes they are still leaking the game while also calling my team members horrible things. It also appears that Chris is also doing this to remove me as director while also acting like he wasn't the reason why those two team members left ST. Recently a now former team member got doxed by someone unrelated to the leakers to which Chris responded with this:

I'll update this if they decide to do more things to me and my team members. I requested for them to stop, to which they have rejected my request. I've already asked them enough and I'm tired of seeing them make victims over something stupid while calling themselves "freedom fighters" for harassing random people on the internet (Looking at you Frat). This is a stupid situation I know and it spawned from something and someone stupid but the fact that this is still being continued because of these people is the stupidest thing. I said many times to them that this would continue if they continue to do this to my team and it would only stop if they stop as they're the ones who are leaking, Harassing, Using our work without permission, and not leaving us alone.

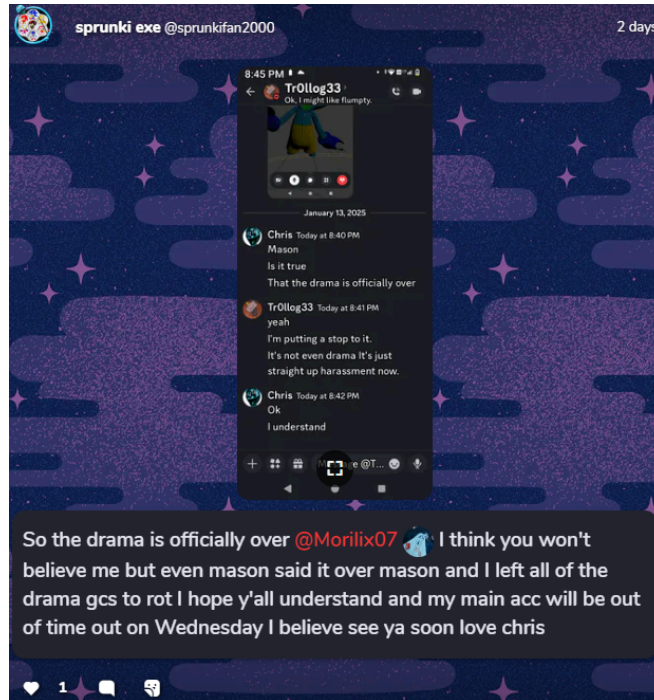

This all happened because of this kid who whines about not liking me and is doing anything in his power to cancel a FNaTI Scratch game that did nothing to him.

UPDATE 1/22/2025:

Finished on 1/27/2025

After 20 days after I updated the doc two members of the leaking group have since come to their senses and from what I'm seeing has since stopped leaking who are Chris and Crello/ Mason.

However there's two that are still active. Who are BrandinTWD and Mickeythemfrat. They're still targeting/ stalking me and my team members, hell even ex team members and my friends over the fact that me and others criticize BrandinTWD for making alt accounts to annoy people and to try to get them to leave GJ (Which is a very stupid plan because people can just block them repeatedly and refuse to leave).

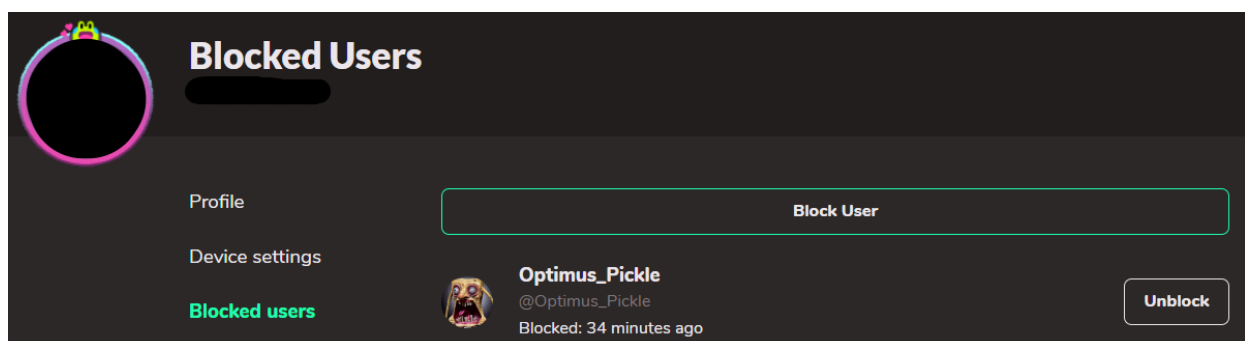

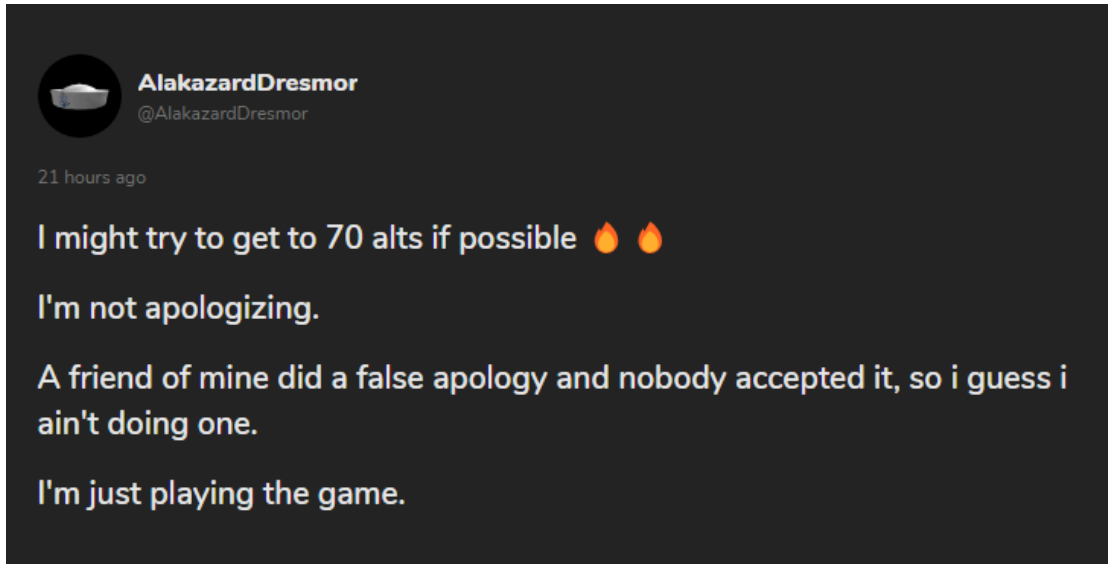

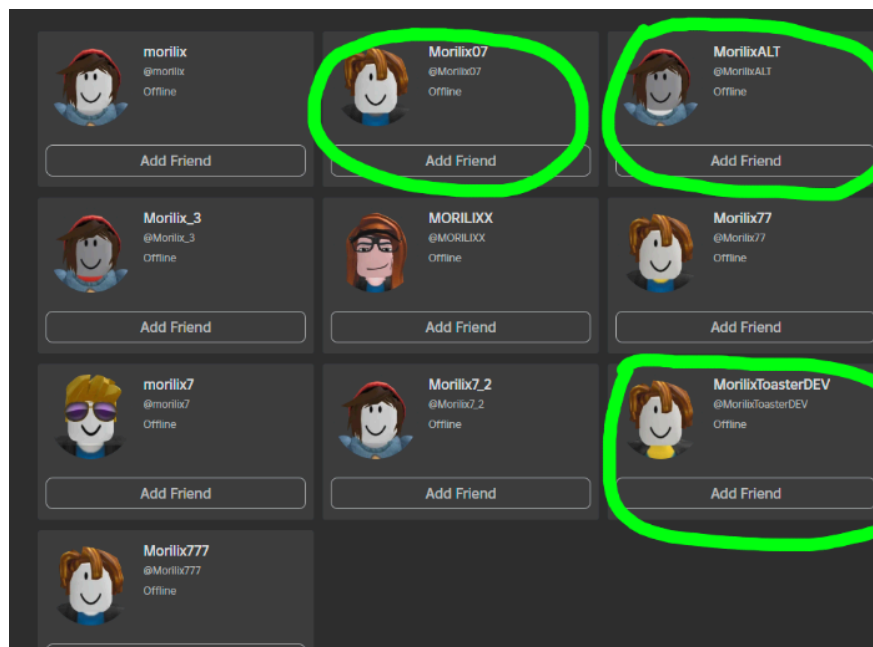

Image of one ex member having blocked one of Mickeythemfrat alts.

BrandinTWD openly stating that they would make 70 alts just to harass randos online.

This has gone so far that BrandinTWD has found 3 of my roblox accounts and has made fake accounts with my name.

The ones in green are my accounts and here is my password manager.. I don't use roblox too often and only use it to play with friends. The toaster dev one was an old account I lost.

They have also started stalking our accounts outside GJ.

Mickeythemfrat stalking one of my team members' twitter accounts and also unintentionally admitting that they're hanging out with someone who sent porn to Chris in 2023 (Mickeyfan).

Today I would like to clarify some things on certain claims the two leakers had created. One of the claims was that one of my team members posted bestiality on twitter. This claim was posted by Mickeythemfrat with the intention to cancel ST however the post or comment is gone now.

They responded with posts and comments to my team members and friends with this video which was recorded by Mickeythemfrat:

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/10BQgimTW9W5rGUHyzCtXJGfPdJAqbQKr/view?usp=sharing>

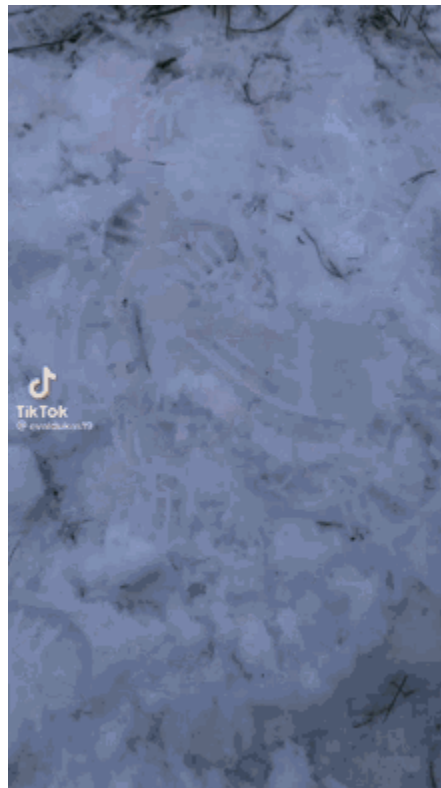

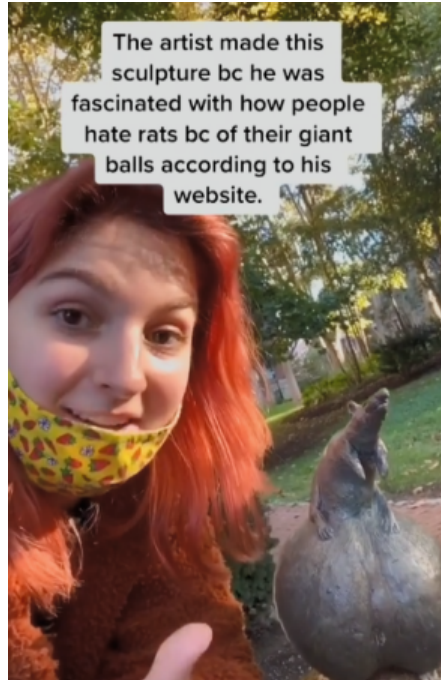

1/21/25, 3:57 PM

one of the leakers was saying that one of the ST members sent bestiality on twitter and send me a video link he went to me about it for some reason idk if i would trust it

Proof it was sent to people outside of the ST team and backing up that Mickeythemfrat claimed that it was bestiality.

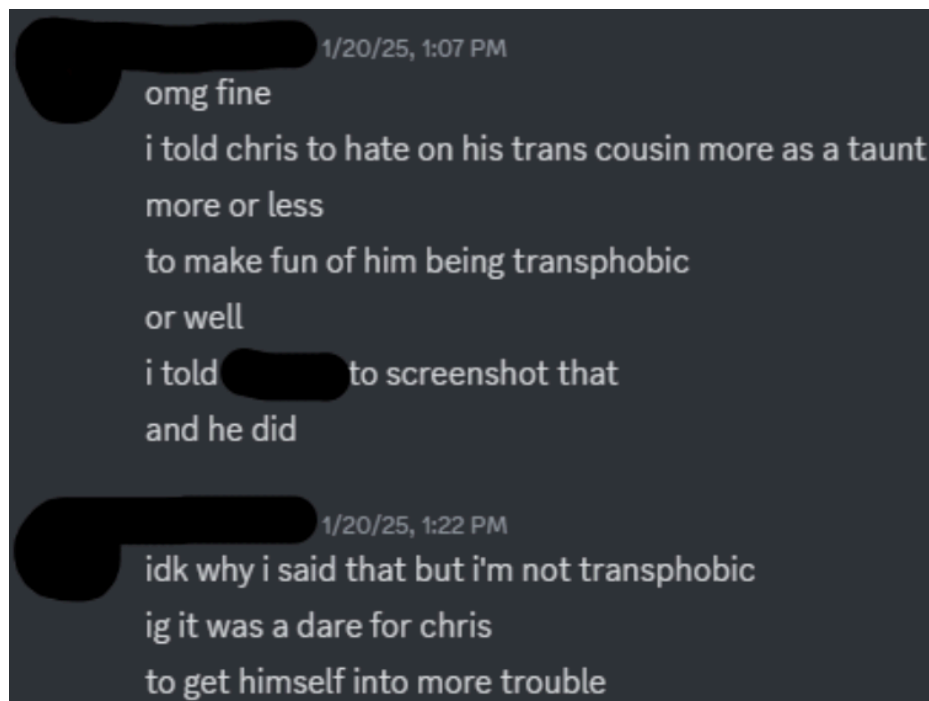

Now what was the video? Video of a rat statue with big balls with brazilian music playing in the background. I know it's pretty edgy but it's really no different than sharing this gif.

The gif I'm referring to.

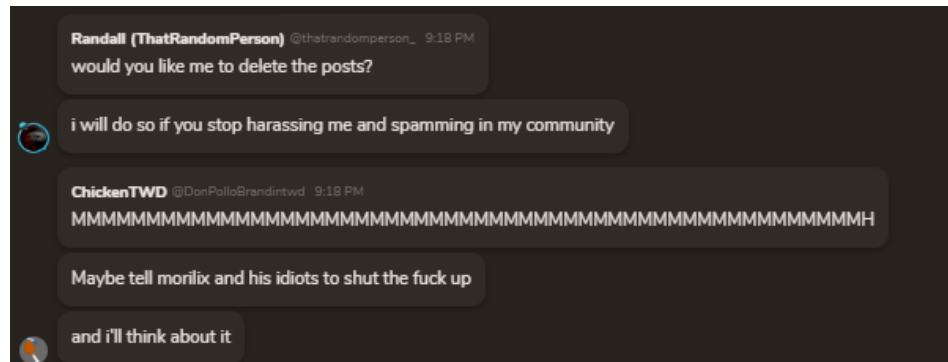

For the second claim Mickeythemfrat claimed that one of my team members was transphobic which is very obviously not true and can be disproven with one screenshot. I know my team members pretty well for the most part so a claim like this would be pretty easy to disprove.

Now that their claims have been disproven with ease I can now finally say what I have to say to the leakers or at least what's left of them:

No. We will not cancel ST over you being angry that your behavior online is finally giving you consequences. We won't leave GJ because you don't like us. It is within our right to openly criticize and talk about you. We will not be silent about your actions unless you stop harassing my team members and friends. I want this stupid drama over just as much as you do but the only way it can end is if we both stop talking to each other at least directly. So please can y'all just stop it already?

Images of DMs from BrandinTWD after harassing a friend of mine while trying to silence me and promptly doing a mentally unwell rant.

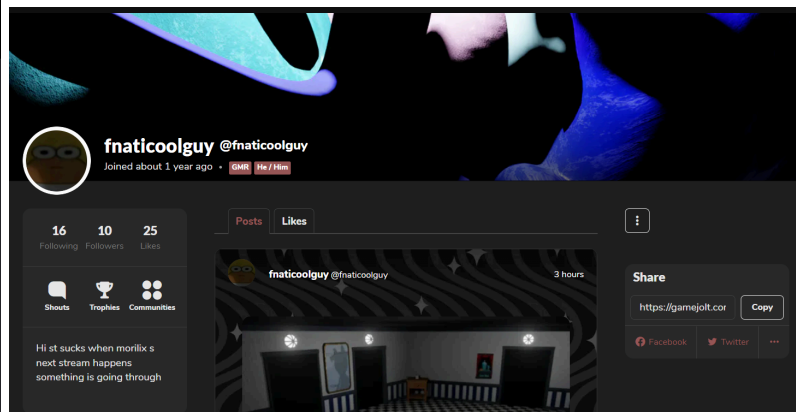

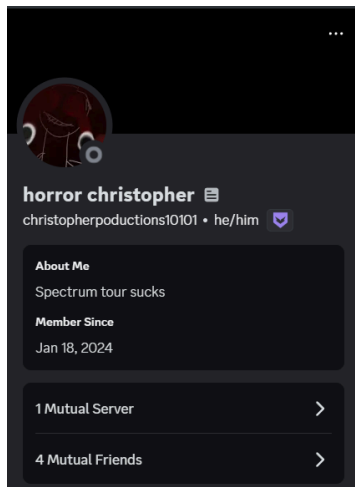

That will be greatly appreciated by the both of us.

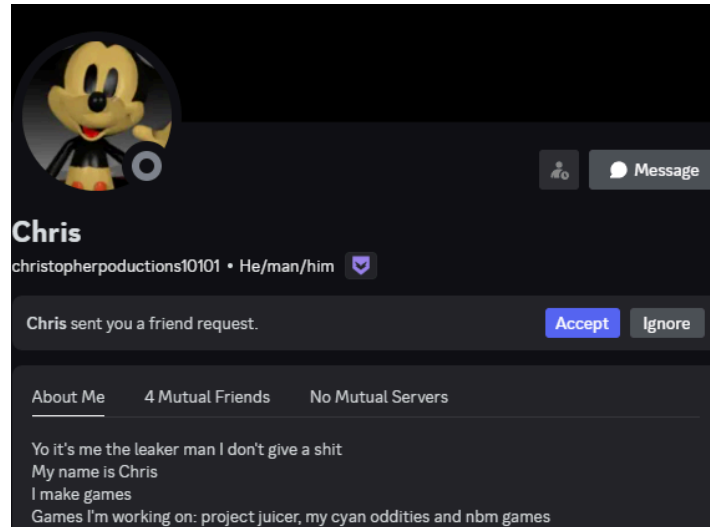

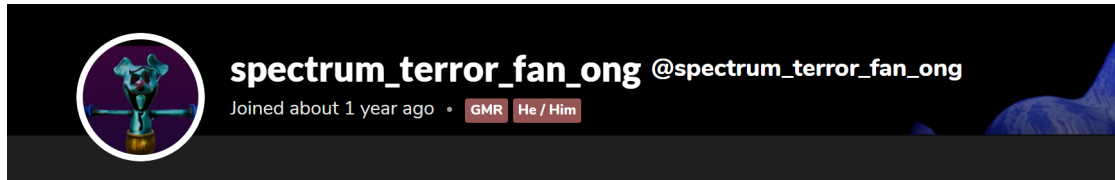

Since it's not my decision to decide what you'll do next I'll leave it up to you guys to decide whether or not to
