

Not-So-Silent Movie

Choose one of the following video clips for which to write dialog. WATCH THEM WITH THE VOLUME OFF. You may choose to write realistic dialog (if you really must), but it would be more fun to write humorous dialog that we don't expect. Try to make your dialog take the actual time that it takes the actors to speak.

Using Screencastify (or any other audiovisual tool you like), record your own voice(s) over the video, replacing the audio that's in the clip. (You can do this by recording your screen on mute while you record your own voice on your mic.)
