Great location and the food is good. Sometimes they have live music and it's a lot of fun. Roman cuisine. After dinner you can go to "Bar del Fico" for drinks (see below). Bar San Callisto - <https://barsancalisto.it/>

Areas

Trastevere

Similar to the East Village in NYC. I would recommend it at night for aperitivo, dinner (typical roman cuisine) or drinks.

Monti

Similar to the West village (kind of), I would recommend it at night for aperitivo, dinner (typical roman cuisine) and a gelato/drinks after.

Ghetto

Jewish neighborhood, I would recommend it for dinner and a walk right after around roman ruins.

Testaccio

Similar to Greenpoint/Williamsburg, it's less touristy but also less to see there in general.

Piazzetta Testaccio could be nice for drinks but it's also out of the way from the rest so go there only if you are already in the area.

City Center

You have everything there. The area around:

- Via del Corso/Piazza di Spagna: Shopping & Art
- Piazza Venezia/Fontana di Trevi: Shopping & Art
- Piazza Navona: Art & Dinner/Drinks
