Saint Louis School Counselor Association Professional Recognition Process

Step 1

Nominate someone for Counselor of the Year or Advocate of the Year by completing the SLSCA Professional Recognition Nomination Form. Get started today because the entire process needs to be completed by January 2, 2026.

Counselor of the Year Criteria: Scoring Rubric

- A. Nominees for "Counselor of the Year" must be responsible for innovations in a school counseling program, for providing leadership in the further development of an existing school counseling program, and/or for performing outstanding service to the school community.
- B. The individual must be a current member of St. Louis School Counselor Association (SLSCA). It is strongly recommended they be a MSCA and ASCA member, but not required. The counselor must be a MSCA member if they are awarded at the regional level and nominated for the state award.
- C. Nominees must be certified 3 years as a school counselor and employed as a full time school counselor for at least 3 years after certification.

Advocate of the Year Criteria: Scoring Rubric

- A. Nominee for the "Advocate of the Year" must provide exemplary support of school counseling services, outstanding promotion of school counseling services, implementation of new/additional school counseling services and/or improvement of existing school services.
- B. The nominee may be a principal, superintendent or other district personnel, school board member, parent, teacher, community leader, or organization who has consistently made a significant contribution to the improvement of school counseling service in the school setting.
