The Christmas in July Toy Drive Featuring the Salvation Army and Stanislaus County Fair

TURLOCK (June 28th, 2021) - Christmas is coming early to the Central Valley! The Stanislaus County Fair and the Salvation Army are joining together for a Christmas in July Toy Drive. Bring one new unwrapped toy and receive one FREE general admission ticket to the Stanislaus County Fairgrounds Summer of Fun Arena Series Presented by Coors Light! All toys raised for the drive will benefit the Salvation Army and Turlock Together's Christmas Food and Toy Distribution on December 18, 2021. The toys will be given to needy children in Turlock and surrounding areas this holiday season.

The first 250 people to bring a new unwrapped toy to an Arena Series event will receive one FREE general admission ticket to that evening's event. The Arena Series runs on July 9, July 10, July 11, July 16, July 17, July 23, and July 24. For more information, contact the Stanislaus County Fair Office at (209) 668-1333.

Don't forget that tickets to the Stanislaus County Fairgrounds Summer of Fun Arena Series Presented by Coors Light are still on sale! Destruction derbies, monster trucks, drag racing, tractor pulls, a car-crushing dinosaur, and much more will be presented in the series. Remember, with the donation of a new unwrapped toy, you'll receive one FREE general admission ticket. Additional tickets can only be purchased online at www.stancofair.com.
