Where to get an IC card(Ez link)?

IC cards can be purchased at ticket machines and ticket counters at the corresponding railway stations. The initial cost consists of a refundable deposit of 500 yen plus an initial amount (typically 1500 yen) to be charged onto the card.

How to recharge IC cards?

IC cards can be recharged at ticket machines and special re-charging machines found at railway stations and other strategically meaningful locations. The maximum amount to be charged onto a card is 20,000 yen.

How to check the current balance?

The current credit balance is shown on a small display whenever you pass a ticket gate or make a payment at a store. Furthermore, the balance can be checked at ticket machines together with a usage history.

How to get back the 500 yen refundable deposit?

Bring your card to the ticket counter of the issuing operator in order to get back your 500 yen deposit. Unused credit can also be refunded, however, a 220 yen handling fee is subtracted from the remaining balance to be refunded.

1. LOCATE THE NEAREST EXCHANGE OFFICE

JR Pass Exchange Offices are located in most major train stations and airports (but not all!). Plan out ahead of time where and when you'll exchange your pass using this official list of offices.

It's important to note: Regional passes can only be exchanged at certain exchange offices within the region. Please check beforehand.

Haneda Airport International Terminal	JR EAST Travel Service Center (Tokyo Monorail 2F Ticket Gate/Arrival lobby)	7:45-18:30
Shibuya	Information Center (South)	10:00-18:30
Shinjuku	JR EAST Travel Service Center (New South Gate) Information Center (EastGate)	8:00-19:00 9:00-19:00

2. FILL OUT THE FORM

Once you reach the exchange office, there will be a brief form for you to fill out, with spaces to enter your name, passport number, and the date you want your rail pass to start (it doesn't necessarily have to start the same day that you exchange it).

This form will be copied into your official rail pass.

After turning in your Exchange Order for a JAPAN RAIL PASS, you can make seat reservations at a “Midori-no-madoguchi” Reservation Office.

There is no additional charge for making seat reservation. To make a reservation, go to any Travel Service Center or a Reservation Office (Midori-no-madoguchi) at a JR station, or to the sales office of a JR-associated travel agency. There, show your PASS, and obtain your reserved-seat ticket before the boarding.
