

Untold Secrets RP History

More recent/ongoing events will be on the carrd – this will be updated as the RP progresses.

Moon 1- Prologue

The first days...to this story were quite mundane. There were some tensions between RiverClan and ThunderClan, tiffs over who had any real claim to the river. There were also similar issues between RC & ShadowClan over the Starlight Stream (border), plus the added drama of Cinderstorm & Ravenstone (SC) discovering former clanmate, Nightrose, now belonged to RC after she went missing a few moons prior.

A few days later, TC gets aggravated after deputy Willowtail claims she was attacked by an RC warrior (Minnowstep). The story was, however, slightly exaggerated.

Lightningstar decides to lead a warning patrol. Before things fully escalate between them, rats suddenly ambush them. RC gets involved when the rats begin to cross the river and try to attack them, too. Lightning begrudgingly understands part of why they manage to defeat them is partially thanks to an unknown but familiar RC she-cat (Night).

The First Gathering followed the next day.

➤ it is revealed that RC's former leader, Beaverstar, died after a battle & Nightrose is actually Nightstar; she proposes the tunnels be covered to prevent immoral ambushing; she comes to an agreement with Lightningstar that half of the river belongs to RC & the other half to TC. Heathersight fills in for Doestar (WindClan); all reports are otherwise normal

- Loststar reconnects w/Night after the gathering ends; things get a bit heated over why she left but she isn't able to explain
- TC leave early as they're still recovering from the rat attack; shortly after, they come across an unknown group of cats at the TC-WC border from the Big Twolegplace (city). They claim their leader, Scarlett, wishes to speak to the 4 leaders after having "dreams from StarClan." Lightning remains suspicious & decides to first meet w/the other leaders to talk about this.

Chapter 1

They later meet & it is eventually agreed that they will meet with Scarlett. When they do, they speak privately, where it is revealed these cats are actually BloodClan. Scarlett insists they aren't the same as before, & are seeking to learn some of the clans' ways & become a 5th clan. After Lightning proposes the idea, & they negotiate details, it is decided to prove themselves, BC will bring prey & hunt w/the clans every 3 sunrises till the next full moon.

While each leaves to go home, Adderpaw & Snakepaw (TC) sneak after the BC patrol & on the way are attacked by a badger. BC, initiated by Scarlett, turn to help Adderpaw & save his life. They take them back to BC camp where Scarlett brings the Witch, a two-leg acquaintance who has aided before w/serious injuries. A day or so later, a TC patrol tracks their scent down to the camp where they discover this info, & Adderpaw returns from the cutter. The patrol takes them back to camp w/some last assistance from Scarlett to find their way out. Lightning tries to lay down punishment. Adderpaw rebels against him, claiming it's unfair. He then storms out of camp & kills a TC warrior, Dustpelt. Promptly exiled, he takes the name Adder. Snakepaw is escorted to follow him.

Meanwhile, RC & SC find trouble at their border with 2 rogues — Scarletfang & Storm. Otterdawn is attacked just as a BC patrol w/prey & a SC patrol arrive. The two frighten off the rogues into SC territory & Otterdawn finds respect for BC. Cinderstorm decides to track the rogues. Cinderstorm is attacked by Scarletfang, & Lost goes to question her. She lies, saying Cinderstorm attacked first. Lost doubts her but agrees to a truce where she will go w/o attacks on their territory in return for protection for SC against outsiders. Lost later discovers the truth & calls off the truce. Later, BC hunts with the Clans on their 2nd return, Scarlett decides to visit WC & RC to also learn their ways w/her clanmates. Night opens up a bit to share these lessons with her.

. RiverClan↑↑

After the outsider attack on Otterdawn, she ponders if Night will warn the other clans. Koitail speaks to her, saying Night might mention it at the gathering. Later, Lightning & Otterdawn speak by the river about the BC cats. Night & a small patrol meet the BC cats at the border. Night finds Otterdawn showing the BC cats some swimming-techniques while hunting. Night shares some more info on clan-ways. She notes how peculiar Scarlett is. Meanwhile, Koitail & Minnowstep are growing closer & Hollyflower begins to notice. Otterdawn runs into Crowshadow at the TC border. Crowshadow falls into the river while trying to get a bottle cap & Otterdawn saves him. She takes him back to his camp before returning home without alerting anyone.

Minnowstep & Aria meet at the river border for the 1st time; Otterdawn intrudes briefly, but sees that Minnowstep has the situation handled & leaves. Hawktail & Eaglestrike are planning a prank by putting a minnow into a fish, making it look pregnant. Hunting together, no one notices, though Otterdawn does spot them. Otterdawn decides to get the bottlecap that Crowshadow wanted & brings it to him at the border. They agree to Otterdawn teaching swimming lessons, in exchange for Crowshadow to teach her battle-lessons. Minnowstep runs into Aria again, accompanied by Blink. Minnowstep decides to help Aria find Adder, who they're searching for along w/other outsiders. Blink doesn't like Minnowstep helping & decides to search alone.

Scarletfang & Yusha enter RC territory to search for Adder. Yusha feels let down by the entire journey & they decide to give 1 thorough search before leaving. Koitail runs into them while collecting herbs late at night. Scarletfang & Yusha are kind to the medic & they leave once confronted by Otterdawn. She decides to report the sightings of the outsiders to Night & also reports seeing a calico she-cat w/Minnowstep - Aria. She also reports saving a TC warrior from drowning & explains Crowshadow will give her battle-training as a 'thank you,' & Night accepts these terms. Nightstar orders for the territory & borders to be drenched in RC scent.

Nightstar's tension following the intrusion of rogues continues; she also receives a dream from StarClan:

◆ “ At dusk of the eve, beware the nettles that ensnare your claws and silence jaws. Blood will be drawn into the night, waves will swallow a flower and secrets sealed tight. At dawn, two must become one, a torrent becoming dark and the dark a torrent. If not, the four will face a fungus-like torment ” ◆

Night bumps into Lost after exploring the tunnels for safety precautions, finding they are connected to the Starshine Caverns. They share words as old friends, & she promises she'll tell him & Cinderstorm the truth of her leaving as soon as she can. Life is easing into normalcy as the gathering approaches. BC is to arrive for the last time & Night prepares herself.

. ThunderClan↑↑

Following the death of Darkpelt, the TC cats hold a proper burial. Lightning decides to post double border patrols & nightly guards until safety is ensured. He also orders for no one to leave camp alone. After, Willowtail informs the leader of Orchidnose's condition (hurt leg on fence while retrieving Adder & Snakepaw from BC) as well as Littlepaw's diagnosis; Littlepaw decides Orchidnose should be relieved from her warrior duties until she heals, Lightning agrees. Willowtail meets w/the BC cats, Tink & Bunny. Willowtail asks them to pass a message along to Scarlett, saying thanks for the hospitality to Snakepaw & Adderpaw. Lightning speaks to Otterdawn by the river about the BC cats; the smell of rogues is nearby & Light takes a patrol to investigate. The patrol finds Sparrowfrost speaking with 2 outsiders: Blink & Scarletfang.

Goldenfur & Crowshadow, as they mentored Adderpaw & Snakepaw, are informed that Goldenfur will mentor Foxpaw, while Crowshadow is relieved of mentoring for now. Light notices things have been peaceful, though patrols remain heightened; worries less about cats leaving camp. Orchidnose is picking up some med skills while healing in Littlepaw's den. Later he rallies a patrol to meet the BC cats & they meet w/Scarlett herself. The meeting goes well, Willowtail catches a hawk & Scarlett succeeds in catching a falcon w/Lightning's help of swatting the bird in her direction. He also opens up to Scarlett & teaches of loyalty & hunting; he offers Scarlett & her patrol to come observe a paw ceremony in TC's camp. Scarlett agrees & leaves with gratitude. Light feels BC has earned TC's trust. Willowtail escorts BC to the border. Light starts to notice Twigwhisker's absence. This concerns him & he feels that Littlepaw's hard work needs to be recognized.

Ospreywing is out on patrol while Light makes battle-training plans w/ Willowtail, Orchidnose, & Foxpaw. Ospreywing & the apprentice patrol run into Konstan. A small fight breaks out b/t Konstan, Ospreywing, & Brightflight before the outsider is chased off by Bluepelt & Brightflight. Whitefang returns to camp with minor injuries, reporting to Light that the patrol handled the situation w/small injuries.

Lightningstar has a dream w/a message sent from Starclan. He is informed that Twigwhisker has his own destiny & that the med cat will not be returning. Light then feels it's Littlepaw's time to become a full medicine-cat.

Most of TC collect for some nightly-training w/some 'paws. It goes well.

Lightningstar notices Redhawk's absence lately & he catches the warrior's scent in the woods, but it's stale.

Orchidnose tells Light she is pregnant; he is joyful & happy to become a Father

Sparrowfrost, Ospreywing, & Crowshadow are called to Light's den for an important discussion regarding their uncle, Redhawk. All 3 siblings note they haven't seen him lately & Sparrowfrost says she will go alone to find him. Light refuses & joins her in the journey. It is discovered that he was stolen by a twoleg. Sparrowfrost & Light journey nearly all the way to the city to find him, but she turns the leader away. Sparrowfrost insists she can make the rest of the journey on her own; Light accepts reluctantly. BC is to meet & hunt w/the clans for the last time, TC prepares to meet with them.

. ShadowClan↑↑

After the events of Scarletfang & Cinderstorm's fight, both he & Pinewhisper take awhile to heal. Cinderstorm comes across a tunnel & voices to Ravenstone that he thinks they should be checked out; Cinderstorm also voices concerns that the rogues will find the tunnels. Lost runs into Scarletfang again, as well as Yusha. They fight a fox together, killing it, but Lost leaves badly wounded. He loses a life out of his 9. The border is ruined by an outsider - Blink; the report is brought to Loststar about the borders & he is highly angered, Ravenstone has a panic attack & retreats to the warrior den when she sees Lost's wounds. Cinderstorm takes out a patrol to meet w/ the BC cats, as well as keep an eye out for outsiders. They meet with Scarlett & her cats; they all hunt, until they decide to split up & cover more ground. Cinderstorm also explains that Lost isn't able to make it. Ravenstone eventually calms & is asked by Lost to go on a patrol once he was feeling a bit better. They run into Konstan, who tries to kill Ravenstone. Lost saves her life by killing Konstan; this strikes some fear into Ravenstone. Lost asks Cinderstorm to finish the job with Konstan's body, so the warrior does as ordered & rids of the cat's body.

Ravenstone catches Robintail's scent in the woods, but there's also a stale smell of blood; she reports this to Lost & a patrol is taken out to investigate. The deputy & a few others witness a twoleg carry away Robintail & Snowbreeze in cages, but nothing can be done. Ravenstone tries to run after them, but she is stopped by a SC warrior. The news of the twolegs actions are reported to Lost; he decides that nothing can truly be done, & hopefully StarClan will guide the two home. The leader has a dream from StarClan with a prophecy:

◆ “ At dusk of the eve, beware the nettles that ensnare your claws and silence jaws. Blood will be drawn into the night, waves will swallow a flower and secrets sealed tight. At dawn, two must become one, a torrent becoming dark and the dark a torrent. If not, the four will face a fungus-like torment ” ◆

Lost declares Leafpaw is ready for her warrior's assessment.

Ravenstone has an emotional breakdown & shows disrespectful attitude to both Lost & Cinderstorm, but mostly towards the leader. Ravenstone is ordered by Lost to do Leafpaw's assessment after getting a meal; she is also told Cinderstorm will be joining.

Lost finds his way to the Starshine Cavern, an underground tunnel; he stumbles into Nightstar while within this tunnel & the two speak, mostly about old times.

Ravenstone realizes that she has feelings for Lost & is in love with him.

Leafpaw's assessment goes well. She passes & her ceremony is held at night w/another apprentice. The apprentices earn their warrior names, Leafpaw now named Leafbreeze.

Leafbreeze hasn't been seen for awhile a few days later. Ravenstone gets sent to look for a Leafbreeze & comes across the tunnels; she finds Lost's scent and Night's in the cavern; they also lead her out past the WC border where a WC 'paw spots her. She finds Leaf back on SC's side of the border.

. WindClan↑↑

Heathersight is still in charge while Doestar is ill.

A warrior ceremony is held for Lambpaw, who becomes Lambstep.

Doe starts to feel better from her illness & Heathersight reports the happenings with TC & RC splitting the river, as well as the recent show-up of the BC cats. Doe & Heathersight lead out a patrol to meet with the BC cats & collect prey.

Cinderfall is recently accepted into the clan, originally part of BC.

Weaselfoot & Cinderfall meet within WC & Cinderfall opens up to BC's "new ways"; Cinderfall tells Weaselfoot that ever since Scarlett became leader the BC cats were no longer loners under one leader. He tells of the BC cats being more there for each other, as a respected clan would be.

Doestar wonders where Rabbitear has been & asks around but no one has seen them; Doestar decides to bring out a patrol before dusk - Cinderfall & Weaselfoot agree to join. With no findings of the deputy, Rabbitear, it is declared he was kidnapped by twolegs & Doestar chooses a new deputy; Weaselfoot. Doestar goes missing trying to find Rabbitear, & it is believed the twoleggeds took her as well; this makes Weaselfoot the new leader. He earns his name as Weaselstar & chooses Honeybadger as the new Deputy.

As two WC warriors patrol borders, they find their SC border is drenched by an outsider (Blink). The news is reported to Honeybadger & Weaselstar. Weaselstar decides to take warriors along w/him to speak with Loststar, seeking to ask if their clan has also had any issues with outsiders. Raggedpaw spots Ravenstone on WC's side of the border & reports this to Weaselstar.

After the fox attack, Yusha convinces Scarletfang to go w/him to the mountains & introduces her to his “humble abode,” mentioning his old mentor, Calamone. The two are severely injured, Yusha helps take care of Scarletfang. Blink stumbles upon the area where the battle took place, follows Scarletfang & Yusha’s scent into the mountains but ends up clashing with SC warrior Northway. Blink finally finds the other rogues in the mountains. Konstan, a murderous rogue & somewhat friend of Yusha’s, ends up meeting with the group; the tom doesn’t get along well with the others. Konstan later leaves them & wanders onto TC & SC territory.

Scarletfang, Yusha, & Blink talk about finding Adder somewhere on the clans’ territories, Aria is caught listening in on their conversation. After a small fight between Aria & Scarletfang, Aria offers to help the group find Adder & suggests they split up; Yusha agrees & says he & Scarletfang will take on RC & TC territory, Blink & Aria will take SC & WC. Adder is found w/Snakepaw, but the tom says he will go to the mountains when he’s ready. The mission to bring Adder to the Humble-Abode feels like a fail to Yusha. Blink splits up w/ Aria during the search to find Adder; Blink discovers Konstan killed by the SC lead & his deputy, Ravenstone. Blink buries him, showing some respects for the savage tom.

Aria feels that she is shown disrespect after trying to help find Adder; Scarletfang shows irritability for Aria mingling w/a RC warrior. They get into a small dispute before Aria separates & heads off

Yusha has a strange dream of cats that seem to hunt on forever; he thinks that he sees a crystal glowing when he wakes up, but he believes it was a hallucination. He finds Aria & thanks her properly for helping find Adder; she shows gratitude for his kindness & the calico is off once more to find her love-interest, Minnowstep

Scarletfang has been guarding outside the waterfall passage-way all night & day.

Blink makes a friend w/ a strange she-cat named Trauma; she lives at the Humble-abode.

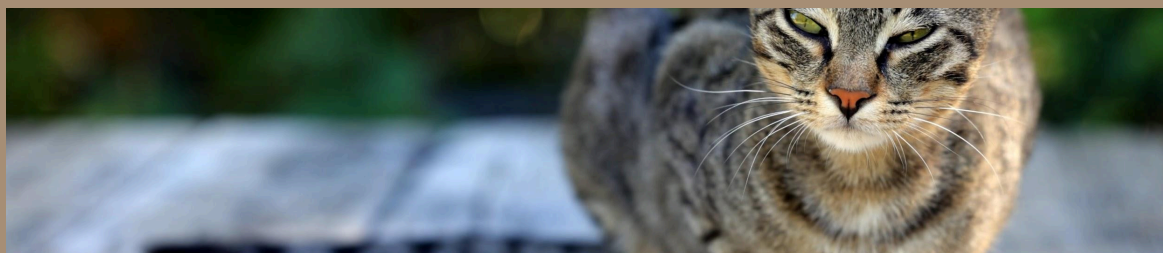

Yusha decides to find Lost & speak w/him about Konstan, wanting to hear his side, but Yusha’s tracks are cut off by another. A mysterious, oily she-cat stops him & informs him of what happened to Konstan once more, though the stranger seems to know far more about the clans than she should. This interests Yusha & he takes the advice to turn back, though he feels a negative energy within this cat

Alliance Status Updates

- ThunderClan: positive, neutral
- RiverClan: cautious, neutral
- ShadowClan: cautious, neutral
 - WindClan: neutral

The BloodClan cats have been dutifully carrying out each hunting trip to the clans since their initial appeal. Life has been typical otherwise; many of them don't particularly seek approval from the clans, they're just following Scarlett's orders. Scarlett prepares for the final trip.

Moon 2 - Chapter 3

all 4 clans attend as well as BC. After mingling, the leaders ask Scarlett if she has any final words before they begin. She thanks them & asks for their keen observance of who BC is rather than what one cat made them known for. Loststar (LO) begins the reports.

ShadowClan ||

prosperous; some paws made warriors; had a high amount of rogue activity. Added that they kept it under control.

RiverClan ||

Nightstar goes next; hunting has been fuller; mentions addition of Peachpaw as the medic's new apprentice. Adds similar news on the rogues.

ThunderClan ||

Lightningstar begins mentioning the clan lost their med; plentiful hunting; the clan is expecting more kits. Also mentions the activity of rogues.

WindClan ||

Weaselstar takes the stage by first elaborating Doestar made him deputy just before she went missing suddenly w/indications of two-legs involvement. Hunting also reported good; welcomed new 'paws. He goes on to mention scents of SC on their territory.

Weasel & Lost begin to confront each other; Weasel alleges that a paw spotted SC's deputy on their land. He also threatens war if not dealt with. Raggedpaw is asked to speak, to which he confirms, & soon after faints (stage fright). Night subtly encourages Koitail as the only medic in attendance to help.

Once things calm back down, the leaders resume the matter of BC. Scarlett speaks to all the clans; this time, asking them to judge on what they'd witnessed & not the stories of their past. Each leader gives their assessments & asks for the observations of the clans, in the order of TC, RC, WC, and SC.

Willowtail (TC deputy) speaks up & comments on how secretive Scarlett seems to be, saying their leader should speak more openly if they wish to gain their trust. Koitail (RC med) speaks up on the fact that some of BC's warriors had acted to assist RC when dealing w/ rogues at the border. She notes them as acting respectably, w/"determination, courage, and compassion." Ultimately, all 4 leaders announce they will recognize BC as a 5th clan. The BC cats celebrate, Night & Light also mention Scarlett should go to the Stardrop Pool as a tradition for leaders. All the while, a couple outsiders (Blink, Aria) hid nearby, observing, & Minnowstep (RC) bumps into & joined them. Just before the gathering ends, Koitail happens upon them, & asks for them to send another cat – Yusha – to the kinked tree to meet her, & then urged them to hurry & leave before they were caught.

The gathering ends without further issues.

Lightningstar receives a dream from Cranestar with a message from StarClan:

◆ “ At dusk of the eve, beware what lies in the dark. Blood will be drawn into the night, and the storm will be at its height. At dawn, two must become one, a storm becoming a breeze and the breeze a storm. If not, the four will face a raging scorn ” ◆

Light discusses this with Crowshadow. Patrols & daily life resume.

Eagleclaw & Poppyshine have 4 kits; Ashkit, Stonekit, Rosekit, Redkit.

Bluepelt notes Orchidnose is generally fine, but also going into labor. Crowshadow arrives & directs the warriors to protect & help. Blazefire tends to Eagleclaw. The next day, Bluepelt & Blazefire come across Weaselstar & a WC patrol in TC territory. They confront them, Weasel explains he has urgent business to discuss w/Light. Light happens to come by w/a hunting patrol - Lightpaw, Goosedawn. The leaders speak privately, Light assures Weasel that they will search for the missing WC kits, Tumblekit & Tinykit. He adds he'll send a warrior to carry the news to RC. Weasel lends some of his warriors to help search in TC as night falls. They don't find them, but Light discovers 7 trees on their outskirts border w/the trunks practically mauled & rogues' scents all over them. They don't carry any further into their territory. While on their search party, Redstream(WC) is injured & Goosedawn is killed by a dog. Lightpaw rushes back to alert Light.

Crowshadow journeys to the Stardrop Pool to see if he can contact StarClan & find a med 'paw. Scarlett is also planned to be there.

Wolfpelt & Willowtail take a journey to BC to alert them of the WC kits; Light tells them to keep their guard up, feeling suspicious of their involvement. Light orders for upped patrols & a vigil for Goosedawn.

Bubblepaw is named med apprentice.

Willowtail is named mentor for Featherpaw.

A fog rolls in for a few days. A terrible sight is discovered at the WC border involving dead prey carcasses. 4 of which are laid out in a specific line.

Barkpaw witnesses the brutal murder of clanmate Stoneheart.

. WindClan↑↑

Raggedpaw remains a bit on edge after his report at the gathering about Ravenstone. The leader assures him he did well. Spottedstrike reports getting into a small skirmish during a small storm with a rogue (Aria) by the TC border claiming to be meeting someone at the Kinked Tree; also says she has friends possibly captured or dead in RC. Weaselstar decides to increase patrols there & orders no one leave camp alone. He contemplates going to speak with Nightstar but decides against it.

Daily life & patrols resume as usual. Weaselstar receives a dream from Snowspot with a message from StarClan:

◆ “ At dusk of the eve, beware what lies in the dark. Blood will be drawn into the night, and the storm will be at its height. At dawn, two must become one, a storm becoming a breeze and the breeze a storm. If not, the four will face a raging scorn ” ◆

Pulseheart notes Smokepaw's training is going well.

Smokepaw & Ghostpaw have a budding friendship. Smokepaw invites Ghostpaw to a training session after discovering her mentor hasn't been training lately. Lionwhisper & Glasswhisker have a pleasant exchange.

In the middle of the night, an intruder kidnaps Tumblekit & Tinykit w/a faint, slightly sour scent mixed with smells of the forest. An early border patrol goes by TC & catches Tinykit & Tumblekit's scents. The rest of the patrol remains while Pulseheart leaves to inform Weaselstar. Lionwhisper is the first to awake & catch the scent the following morning. Softwing wakes up in the nursery, notices her kits are missing, & tells her mate, Gorsepelt. He tells her to alert the other queens. Beetleshine & Rainpelt help search the camp. Gorsepelt alerts Weasel & mentions the strange sour smell. Weasel directs Beetleshine & Rainpelt to scour around the outside of camp. Ghostpaw promises Softwing she'll find her kits & checks w/Smokepaw if he saw the kits. WC gradually spirals into a panic & search everywhere for the kits. Weaselstar orders these search patrols:

Glasswhisker, Snowspark, Rowandusk, Blacknose - Horseplace, the Lav-Gold fields, & rabbit burrows

Redstream, Poppypaw, Blazetail - western borders by kinked tree & lake

Weaselstar - northern border around mountains & Stardrop Pool

Ghostpaw is directed to help guard the nursery. Pulseheart bursts into camp, alerting Weasel that the kits' trail may lead into ThunderClan & speculates a TC warrior may be the culprit; Owlears & Flamepelt are waiting there. Weasel, Pulseheart, Smokepaw, Beetleshine, & Rainstep go to the TC border. They confirm the scents there. Weasel decides they will march to the TC camp simply to retrieve the kits; they will not rush into a war yet.

While in TC territory, they come across a patrol & shortly after, Lightningstar arrives. The leaders discuss & it seems apparent that TC had no involvement. Light promises they will search & pass on the message to RC; Weasel lends some of his patrol to search w/them. They don't find the kits anywhere. Redstream gets injured after a dog attack that kills Goosedawn (TC). He's assisted back to his clan. A fog rolls in over the coming days. A patrol discovers dead prey at the TC border, 4 of which are positioned in a particular line.

4 days pass -- a storm rolls in. Mossfang (SC warrior) arrives at the WC camp claiming she wishes to join them. Weasel interrogates her w/Pulseheart & eventually he agrees she may join, though he warns this is under a probation. He instructs Pulseheart to go out on a patrol w/her, Beetleshine, & Rainstep by the TC border. Rogues rush over the moors, & the patrol notices them. Pulseheart instructs Mossfang to hurry back to camp & alert them.

Back at camp, Ghostpaw notices the incoming rogues & proceeds to alert the rest of the clan. A rogue, Winter, followed the group in & attacked a grey shecat. Brittlenose awakens & is attacked by a rogue. Mossfang arrives & rushes to the old med's aid. Brittlenose tends to his own injuries w/Sunfur's assistance & then hurries to get the queens & kits to the safety of his den. Winter, formerly Winterfall of WC, arrives & aids in the fight. Weasel gives orders to protect the nursery & joins the fight. Ghostpaw gets spooked by the voice of Sunset & retreats to the med den. Winter exchanges an idea with Puddlesky & they go to inform Weaselstar of it.

Pulseheart & Rainstep go into ThunderClan to help them fight.

Flintstrike & Swanshade were out in the territory, heading back to camp when they're ambushed by a small patrol led by Ravenstone (SC deputy). She claimed Loststar had ordered them to "claim part of their territory" in response to Flintstrike crossing into SC while trying to track the WC kits. The cats w/her don't appear to be warriors to Flint, & they also attempt to kidnap Swanshade. Flint reports this all back to Night, & a patrol finds Swanshade in the territory that night after she had managed to free herself. A thick fog rolls in for a while.

4 days after the patrol, a severe thunderstorm rolls in that night. Nightstar goes out on a walk to clear her mind. She finds herself back by the border, overhears voices, & crosses the border. Blaze (TC) crosses into RC to visit her & Blossomtail's mother's grave. Flintstrike, Otterdawn, & Swanshade come across them & have a mild confrontation.

Loststar & Ravenstone tensions rise; a few days after the gathering, they speak privately in his den to discuss what happened. She explains she followed orders to look for Leafbreeze, came across a tunnel that led her to her but it forced her to step on WC territory. She also says she found his & Nightstar's scents there, though stale. She accuses him of intentionally meeting w/her in secret. She also questions why he made her deputy. Their argument continues for a while, & she says he should tell the clan about everything & makes more assumptions. Lost eventually goes on to what her punishment should be, this leads to Ravenstone declaring she's stepping down as deputy & Lost says he'll tell the clan about Night on his own terms.

Cinderstorm is named deputy.

Loststar discusses his dream with the new deputy & med, Honeyclaw.

Ravenstone's turmoils w/Loststar continue to fester. She happens upon an outsider by the outskirt border of SC. The 2 seemingly share similar sentiments about the clans, & the rogue expresses empathy for Raven's predicament. The 2 agree to do something to earn each others' trust; Pariah kidnaps 2 WC kits, Raven attempts to plant RC traces on SC side. Coincidentally, a RC warrior crosses over briefly while searching for the WC kits. Cinderstorm dismisses this as it was harmless.

Aria enters SC territory & is taken prisoner.

Ravenstone bumps into Hawkstorm while out in the territory & have a budding friendship. After they split up, Raven meets with the rogue again & learns her name is "Pariah." As the 2 find some trust for the other, Pariah introduces Raven to a few other rogues & they plan out a way to cause further trouble. The other rogues cover themselves in SC scent &, led by Ravenstone, they go into the tunnels to go into RC territory. Pearkit & Freezekit sneak out of camp & follow after them. Raven tells them the cats are "new warriors" for SC. Two of the rogues carry the kits. The group arrive out the other side in RC territory & cover part of it w/their scent. They attack a passing patrol - Flintstrike & Swanshade. Ravenstone tells them this was "ordered by Loststar" for Flintstrike crossing onto their territory. One of the twins - Tweedle & Dee, attempts to kidnap Swanshade. She manages to free herself while Flintstrike retreats to alert Nightstar. Raven & the rogues leave.

A few days pass, a fog rolls in. Dead prey litters the RC border, but isn't checked. A body is found at the WC border w/prey discarded around it. Ravenstone, Dapplenose, & Molepaw go out on a patrol & discover it. At first unrecognizable & covered in blood, Raven notes they're alive by the shallow breathing. Dapplenose leaves to alert Honeyclaw & Loststar, Raven & Molepaw remain but don't approach in case of the cat being sick. Molepaw treats the cat w/marigold anyway. Lost arrives. The cat indicates they should wash the blood off; Lost directs Mole & Raven to help, Raven refuses & instead suggests she track who did this. Lost agrees. She leaves, & the remaining two discover it's Applebelly. Honeyclaw & Milkbelly arrive to help. Applebelly later explains to the leads that she was attacked by a small group of rogues, her asthma issues hindered her, & they pelted her w/dead prey hence all the blood - her actual injuries were all relatively minor.

Ravenstone leaves ShadowClan to go join Pariah's forces.

4 days pass -- Honeyclaw notices Freezekit missing. Applebelly is recovering. Cinderstorm alerts the clan of Freezekit & Pearkit's disappearance, as well as Ravenstone's. They organize a patrol to go search - Hawkstorm, Cinderstorm & Loststar. As night falls & a storm rolls in, Hawkstorm heads back to camp to guard it. Cinderstorm & Lost continue the search while talking amongst each other. Moonstep slips out of camp to find Cinderstorm. The leader & deputy are confronted by Pariah & Ravenstone. They question them about the kits. Pariah & Ravenstone press on, claiming that Lost is a failed leader & intend to replace him for the sake of SC. Pariah moves to attack Lost but is intercepted by the arrival of Nightstar. Pariah gets onto her case next, tries to convince her to join them, Night refuses & it's revealed Pariah is actually Thornthroat - former SC warrior & Nightstar's mother. Thornthroat attacks Night & then calls on her rogues' invasion & to kill the clans.

Ravenstone was not let in on this plan, believing they would only kill Loststar & Nightstar. Rogues swarm into SC, some cross over into RC. Night & Thornthroat's battle begins. Cinderstorm orders Moonstep to retreat back to camp. The elder does so, but is attacked by a rogue on the way. Cinderstorm & Lost fight off rogues together. Raven chases after Moonstep.

In camp, rogues begin to infiltrate. Former SC warrior Frostalon uses their cover to sneak in & attack Molepaw in the apprentice den. This carries into camp, Hawkstorm rushes to help. Palefeather awakens & alerts the clan of the ambush then confronts his father, Frostalon. Hawkstorm gets injured, Palefeather & Molepaw help take her to Honeyclaw. Molepaw chases Frosttalon out of camp. Pyrefrost goes to follow her brother into the med den. Yusha searches the camp for the leader. Applebelly attacks a rogue.

Dapplenose & Milkbelly arrive to fend off the rogues from Moonstep. Aria gets out of camp & helps fight rogues; Tawnyblaze finds her & helps fight w/her. Ravenstone turns back to try & convince Cinderstorm to join her side. He declines. Thornthroat reveals to Night she killed Geckospring (Thorn's brother, Night's old mentor) & Featherstar, Lost's mother. Night regains her will to fight, Lost overhears & joins their fight now also enraged. Their fight carries east toward the beach & cliff. Raven asks Cinder to help take down Thorn, Tweedle & Dee are outraged & attack Cinder again. The fight carries over & Ravenstone attacks Loststar w/one of the twins while a very-angry Thornthroat chases after Nightstar up into the trees.

Scorchmask & Brokenstep fight together. Tawnyblaze & Aria chase off the rogues they were fighting & rush to help Scorchmask & Silverberry.
