VIII. FINAL BOARD COMMENTS

- Trustee Koetje, Thanked both Trustee Verburg and James for their support and service. He went on to say that he along with the community will continue to benefit from their service and they will be missed.
- Trustee Bristol, thanked Trustee James for her contributions to the Board and community. She went on to thank Trustee Verburg for being her “board buddy” attending on campus events and conferences together. Trustee Bristol also thanked Chris Verburg for allowing Trustee Verburg to serve on the Board for almost 20 years.
- Trustee Stewart, said he has learned so much from both Trustee James and Verburg about the community and himself. He feels the board will be continue to be guided by their wisdom stating “we will stand on your shoulders”. Trustee Stewart thanked Chairperson Bleke for his “knock-out” job leading the board as it is always with thoroughness and fairness. He thanked Dr. Ender for his work in Lansing around the bill that will allow community colleges to annex territory that was noncontiguous to the colleges district, going on to say this is one of the many benefits that he has worked on that will benefit the college for years to come.
- Trustee Bailey, congratulated the volleyball and cross country teams and their coaches for their season success as this is an incredible gift for not only them but the institution as well. She also shared how impress she was after meeting with Achieving the Dream coaches when they were on campus for a review as the commitment to student success was front and center. Trustee Bailey thanked both faculty and admin negotiating teams for their hard work around the faculty contract. She also said that Trustee James, Trustee Verburg and his wife Chris will be missed and welcomed new trustees Kenyatta Brame and Kathleen Bruinsma.
- Trustee Verburg, Thanked his wife Chris, the students and community for their support along with the three founding members Trustee James, Terri Handlin and Jan Maggini for their guidance. He also thanked faculty and staff for making his service interesting and fulfilling.
- Trustee James, said she was happy and sad as she closes another chapter of her life. She went to say that open access has been her mission and it was an honor to serve. She expressed her heartfelt thanks to the KISD community for electing her over the past 25 years and how proud she was as the institution continues to provide oppourunities for all students. Trustee James thanked the three executive assistants she has worked with, Fran Pepper, Kathy Mullins, and Misty McClure-Anderson along with Karen Ender for being a friend. She said she felt blessed to be part of naming Dr. Bill Pink as the next president and proud of the GRCC faculty and staff for doing the best job possible for students.

- Chair Bleke, said “well done” to both Trustee James and Verburg as there are many hours of work that the public doesn’t realize goes into work of a trustee and their concern for the institution and students. He also thanked the faculty and admin negotiating teams and said he believes this is a fair contract, also making mention of the noncontinguous agreement and what a big difference this can make.
