

This is a brief report of what I was able to find in the logs between Star Giant Productions/Ryan Kruleski and Jed0Bread/BynkGin/Jenny and elaborating on certain points. My first announcement of these logs was an emergency report, because the logs contained things that were public interest immediately:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1mrhpJd1ltpDBHXaNKs9n80gAi_xpyPT5FjazZOK0A5U/edit?tab=t.0

This report is to elaborate on what I can inform the public about in said logs. Not everything can be fully stated at this time, for reasons that I cannot publicly state at this time. To be blunt - the logs are incredibly bad for both Ryan and Jenny. It is also worth stating that both of the individuals were full grown adults as these logs transpired. Jenny claimed to be born within 5 months of the creation of Ocarina of Time within the logs.

This will be lighter on the screenshots, as it's just a document report. The full google document that will be written when all is said and done will contain all relevant screenshots. There are many people mentioned we need to censor. Feel free to take the points without screenshots as simple allegations at this time, although I hope that the reputation of the team and I have at this point has earned enough public trust that we won't be accused of simply "making shit up."

The Jed0Bread log started on December 10th, 2021 and (mostly) ended around August of 2023. The BynkGin log began in August of 2023, and ended shortly after the video release of "Star Giant Productions Belongs in Prison" during March of 2024.

The first log contains 41,412 messages. The second log contains 16,353 messages. This is for a total of 57,765 messages (in my initial tweet, I mathered incorrectly, I apologize).

The DM's do verify that this is Ryan Kruleski speaking to Jed0Bread. Many of the discussions are about work for Star Giant Productions as it happened. Ryan gives his full name drop. There is scriptwork for Star Giant Productions videos as they happened. Jed0 was an animator and editor for Star Giant Productions, as well as doing proofreading jobs for works such as "Addressing My Abuse." Despite the incredibly shocking and revealing contents of the DM's, there is a zero percent chance that these are faked or OP'd.

These DM's were sent to Kota shortly after the "Star Giant Productions Belongs in Prison" video during a concentrated effort to reach out to as many people that Ryan harmed as possible, and get their stories, console them, so on. Jed0Bread, being a former friend of members of the investigation team sent these logs the day after the initial video, March 16th, 2024.

It took the team a long while to actually examine these DM's - over a year. This is for several reasons. Most majorly being that we had a plethora of other evidence to examine first. Jed0Bread did not initially seem to be high priority. Her relevance is that she had one testimony in Addressing My Abuse - one which was cut in half; and that she was employed by Star Giant Productions. Many other people were harmed by Ryan while working for him, so that alone was not impetus to inspect anything. Jed0 wasn't for instance, a partner of Ryan, like Weegieslayer was at the time. Jed0 was also friends with people on the investigation team (however they did have a falling out before the logs were thoroughly examined).

Making things more difficult was the fact of the expanse of the logs. While discord exports are usually not heavy processingwise, the sheer amount of messages sent between Jed0 and Ryan caused browsers and computers to lag and crash when opened, even without images archived. And I want to make it abundantly clear - these logs were archived without any images included - for saving processing power, for safety, and for the sanity of the person who had to view it.

We were able to finally access and start reading the logs on October 25th, 2025. And even then, they would often lag, and crash the programs that we were using to view the logs. It took me from then to November 2nd to go through the logs as extensively as I could with that being my sole focus for much of the day.

The final reason of taking as long as it did to get into Jed0Bread's logs was that she handed them over willingly. She wasn't coerced. She wasn't even directly asked. She handed them over "in case there was something there." On March 16th, 2024, Ryan Kruleski was already dead to rights and until he reappeared on the internet - and we learned of that fact - it appeared that the fight against Star Giant Productions was over. An at-the-time friend giving these DM's over willingly masked their urgency and the horrors that they actually contained.

Regardless of the reasoning behind not making it to these logs as soon, it was a major oversight on the investigation team to not examine them as soon as we possibly could've. And the public does have our sincerest apologies. It should be noted that Jed0Bread's social media has gone dark months before we brought these DM's to the public. I would also like to ask people to be understanding. Jed0 was, at point, a friend to some members of the team. Even though they had their falling outs prior to this, the revelations were shocking, disgusting, and horrifying as everyone realized that they did not know this person they thought they knew.

Jed0Bread's motives in handing the DM's over willingly are something that no one on the team has been able to parse out. The only things that hint at an answer is that Jed0Bread is either very unintelligent, or it has something to do with the fact that she kept calling Ryan a "soulmate", hinting at a "nothing left to lose" situation. Regardless of the reason, regardless of the fact that the DM's were handed over willingly, it should be stated that Jed0Bread's compliance and knowledge with Ryan's worst actions should have her be considered dangerous.

Contents

The DM's contain many unsavory things.

Much of the DM's are about Star Giant Productions work - early drafts for Star Giant Productions scripts, links to things Jed0 animated or edited for the channel. Completely innocuous stuff you'd expect in anyone's DMs with a working relationship.

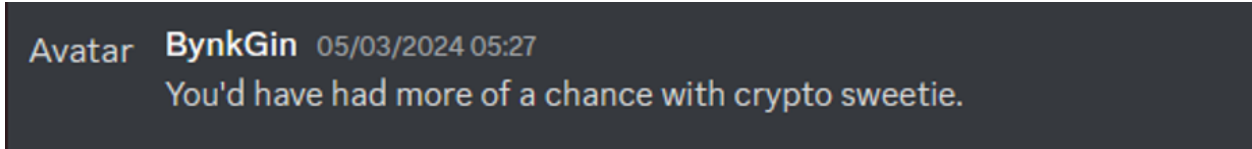

The DM's do shine a light a lot on the production of Addressing My Abuse in particular Another good set of DM's are wall of sadpost texts from Jed0Bread that go on and on about random anxieties or problems in her life. To the point where Ryan had to establish a "five message limit" and remind her of it repeatedly.

Many, many of the DM's were about their sexual roleplays and their specific fetishes.

Many of the DM's were about Jed0Bread talking about weed and Ryan telling her to stop doing drugs or "illegal shit".

Towards the end, Jed0Bread was trying to get Ryan into crypto, specifically bitcoin.

You'd have had more of a chance with crypto sweetie.

As revealed in my first google document about Jed0Bread, Ryan talked to her about every controversy that he was going through - Sean Sohr, N3k0Pan, his grooming victim, the Indiegogo and Ryan getting scammed out of the money, etc.

In the DM's, Ryan does have a legitimate mental breakdown that seemed to be caused by my very first video on him "Regarding Stargiantproductions". He rants obsessively about me and my teammates and has an absolute mental spiral about them.

Ryan also admits to his worst, most disgusting personal habits. Exceptionally gross ones that I will spare the audience of at this time. They are gross habits that a rational individual - not Jed0Bread - would have some reaction to.

Points of Interest

- Much of the DM's are about Kota, Ryan revealing that he went out of his way to learn Kota's fetish. In DM's, he starts kinkshaming Kota over this to Jed0Bread, who would later reveal that she has a diaper fetish as well.
- Ryan lied about having "PTSD over diapers" in Addressing My Abuse, attributing to his dog Shadow being put in diapers. Ryan just found them disgusting beforehand.
- Jed0Bread's testimony in addressing my abuse was cut in half because the other half of it was about her explaining and defending the ABDL fetish.
- After Jed0Bread revealed she was ABDL to Ryan, and Ryan found it gross, Jed0 kept pushing the subject and pushing it further and further until Ryan eventually capitulated and engaged in roleplay with ABDL themes with her, and at points even did request art and animations of himself. Even after Ryan capitulated, Jed0 kept trying to push him into more extreme content.
- Ryan also claims that "slowed down for seizures" is a trigger statement.
- Ryan accuses someone of having a fetish roleplay with another person, claiming that they were sexualizing the CMC in it, as shown in the first google document.

Avatar Do not talk to me. 28/03/2022 21:45
It kind of reminded me of this one event that I barely remember with this friend of mine. This was years ago. I think I was 19 and they were 18. They were really into the CMC, and ESPECIALLY Diamond Tiara and Silver Spoon! We did RP's with them.
One of them, I think, had me ejaculating to them. To make them grow? I think that's what the person wanted.
This was a very long time ago.
So I sadly don't remember all the details.

- Ryan later namedrops this person, attributing the story to them. Later on in the document, Ryan claims that they miss this person and want them back in his life.
- Ryan claims that he used to believe that Native Americans were a different species.
- Ryan really really fucking hates people on SSI, claiming that they take his tax dollars. The only person on SSI he defends for it is Brandon (presumably Brandon the Brony Pony) because "he has an excuse."
- Ryan asked Jed0 to find "Lewd" art of Kitty Katswell for a video "not too lewd that YouTube would take it down."
- Ryan agreed to be the cosigner of a loan with someone, didn't know what being a cosigner entailed, and had a freakout about it to Jed0
- Ryan claims that his neighbor is forcing him to eat unhealthy fast food
- Ryan got way too personal with the information about others he knew at the time to Jed0, revealing every detail he could, like how someone had an abusive mother, someone else's struggle with porn.
- Despite standing by Ryan through Sean Sohr, N3k0Pan, knowing about Rei Rants, knowing about Ryan's grooming victim, there was one point where Jed0 did start getting annoyed - the IndieGogo scam, where Ryan was conned out of over 1,000 dollars for, as she put it "a Nigerian Prince scam". After that she became less tolerant of his behavior. It is also because Ryan wouldn't create alt accounts at Jed0's request.
- Ryan claims that his grooming victim started "that rumor about N3k0Pan".

- Jed0 shilled NordVPN to Ryan. Ryan claimed that he was blocked by a gun website, and after that his only use for a VPN was now invalid.
- The most likely reason Sean Sohr was removed from Ryan's discord server is because Jed0's family saw what was going on and it risked her internet privileges. Once again, Jed0 was a grown adult.
- Despite knowing a good chunk of what Ryan had done, Jed0 still took it upon herself to try and mend fences between Ryan and Kota
- This is in spite of Ryan making up false accusations about Kota, and Jed0 not defending him (and then later stating that she does)
- Ryan claims that he wanted his mother to be a lesbian
- Ryan claims that, at the age of 3, he beat up his 6 year old brother for destroying a pinata.
- There are discoveries in these DMs that we cannot tell the public yet. We will keep you updated as soon as we can.

Conclusions

- Upon Ryan name dropping "I didn't groom <x> or <y>" the team and I did a separate investigation and have come to the conclusion that the evidence supports Ryan having groomed a second minor. There is evidence that makes it more likely than not that this happened.
- The first half of these DM's occurred while Ryan was in a relationship with someone else. This largely reads as an emotional affair. It's more minor in his offenses, but it continues his pattern of using people to meet his own ends without regards of boundaries.
- It should not have taken to the video I released in March of last year for Jed0Bread to have stepped forward. Even after the Sean Sohr incident, after knowing about Ryan's first discovered victim, she just stood there and kept talking, engaging with him, calling him a "soulmate", and testifying for him in "Addressing My Abuse." It's a nonchalance that is frightening, and should be considered dangerous. This indifference to the suffering of others is horrendous and shameful.
- Everyone on the investigation team re anything positive they have ever said about Jed0Bread in the past.
- With our current evidence, Jed0Bread is the closest thing to a "second in command" of Star Giant Productions that we know about.
- Ryan makes up accusations and things about people with the frequency of a compulsive liar or someone with severe memory issues. Stating that Wes/MintKitten accused Ryan of harboring N3k0Pan, which Wes never did independently of the investigation team. Saying that an individual had a sexual roleplay with him involving the CMC, something that apparently disgusted him in the modern era, saying he couldn't remember many details. Then later namedropping the individual. Then even later saying that he misses having that person in his life.

- The people who knew Jed0 once upon a time were hurt and horrified with her actions and lack of action. The people who did not were shocked and appalled with what was found in the DM's.
