AUXILIARY VERBS

The foundation of the English language

Warm-up Quiz

_____ children spend a limited amount of time in front of the computer?

Unfortunately, Jack _____ able to write it yesterday.

Jennifer‟s boss says she _____ allowed to help Jack.

What else _____ children do to have fun?

If your child spent too much time on the computer, what _____ you do?

Jennifer says she _____ be able to help him tomorrow

_____ you think a parent must be strict about this?

_____ you think it may cause weight problems?

Negatives and Questions

- I study at night; I tend to study early in the mornings.
- She work here anymore.
- You attend this school?
- He work here?

Short answers

- Does she work here? No, she.

With “yes-no” questions

- Wildflowers grown in your back yard this year?

Similarity and differences in conjunction with so and neither.

- My wife hates spinach and ____ _____ my son.
- My wife doesn’t like spinach; _____ ____ I.

Question Tags

He was such a weird guy, _____?

The car was destroyed, _____?

You don’t actually plan to leave the country, _____?

He doesn’t call often, _____?

Do* is also helpful because it means you don’t have to repeat the verb:

- Larry excelled in language studies; so _____ his brother.
- Raoul studies as hard as his sister _____.

Passive voice

- The students _____ introduced to me last year by the director of studies.
- The liberal candidates have _____ elected by North Vancouver and Port Moody.
- A rally is _____ organized by the protestors as we speak.
- An election will _____ held next month.
- I would have _____ hired, but I couldn’t give them the schedule flexibility that they required.

Quiz

- _____ come to school yesterday because he was ill.
- She _____ been working in the garden since two this afternoon.
- He _____ finished his homework by the time arrived.
- I'm afraid I _____ be able to come to the party. I have to study.
- You've visited London, _____ you?
- They _____ going to attend a meeting in Chicago next week.
- Why _____ you buy that?! It's ugly!
- She _____ often go to the movies.
- He _____ watching TV. He's doing his homework at the moment.
- They _____ been playing tennis for two hours.
- I don't like country music. - Neither _____ I.
- They won't come to the party, _____ they?
- Mom _____ been working for two hours when I telephoned.
- I think they are fantastic! - So _____ she.
- What _____ they doing?
- Mary hasn't enjoyed herself so much for a long time. - Neither _____ I.
- Mike _____ go on vacation last summer. He was too busy.
- He's studying Russian this semester, _____ he?
- I _____ just been to the bank.
- How long _____ you been working for this company?

AUXILIARY VERBS

How to Survive...

How to Survive a Zombie Apocolypse > Video

How to Speech - (Giving Instructions)

- Use this website WikiHow to find a topic and then condense the information into a 1 to 2-minute speech that you will read to your group.
- You must include BE, DO, HAVE + 3 Modal Verbs