

In its fourth year, the Richland Two Film Festival had more than 90 entries. The winners were recently announced a “Night on the Red Carpet” at Spring Valley High School. There, students posed on the red carpet and next to their certificates before being honored individually. Age level winners received View Master Deluxe VR Goggle with a Space Pack. Overall Winner also won a pop up green screen, pocket printer and photo paper, and a lens/monopod.tripod pack for their camera.

“Light Up Diversity” was named the Richland Two Film Fest Overall Winner. It features Richland Northeast student, Jordyn Livingston, delivering a poem about being muslim in America.

The “Blue Legion Band Hype Video” was named the ninth to twelfth grade category winner. The film includes high-energy scenes from the band’s competitions from Blythewood High’s Savannah Simpson.

“Flying the Coop” won the sixth to eighth category. The video follows two chicken nuggets on a mission by Kincaid Cummings, EL Wright.

Roni Henderson’s “Living Black History” won the District Staff category. The film features Westwood High School students showcasing a variety of creative gifts.

“The Ciara and Myeisha Show” won the third-fifth grade category. In it, the friends encourage each other to be good digital citizens by Ciara Moorer and Myeisha Sumter, Joseph Keels.

“Death of a Dinosaur” won the pre kindergarten to second grade category. The film follows a group of dinosaurs on an eventful day by Kam’Ron Williams, Sandlapper Elementary school.

The festival is organized by the district’s technology integration team.