

Purpose Corner Video Transcript Week of 9/26/22

Welcome to "Purpose Corner" for the week of September 26th, 2022. A big shout out to all students, staff, and families for a great start to the 2022-2023 school year!! This Blog is something I have done for the past several years and I look to post weekly if possible, and a minimum of bi-weekly throughout the school year. This is my blog and I do not always capture everything that happens at West in each post, but the great thing is that I can add what I missed to the next post!! I look to celebrate the happenings around West and update our community in a more personal way on topics that need to be addressed. I look to keep my videos to around two minutes in length and there will always be a transcript to read for those who do not like to watch video. We are at the start of homecoming week and we look forward to having a ton of fun this week. The blog will showcase the happenings for this week. I always encourage families and students to check the daily announcements for all the information you need at West, as my blog is not all encompassing on information. Thank you and Go Wolverines... WHOOP!!!
