

I am redoing the life coaches niche since I wasn't specific enough as in what I was sharing.

I would consider these subject lines rather than fascinations.

1. A portal to your way of freedom has just opened...
2. Control yourself to control success
3. The Door is open, if you want to escape you must be willing to walk out yourself
4. See for yourself...
5. Become the master of your life...
6. Take control
7. Unfinished Sympathy...
8. Escape the chains of self-doubt
9. Face the fear of the near negativity
10. Realise do not compromise
