

臺北市私立新民國民小學

Taipei Xinmin Private Elementary School

Grade 4- i1 Bilingual Class – Summary- Below Deck

The story is an historical fiction.
The ship is really big called the Titanic.
Grace leaves Ireland to go to America.
Grace misses Auntie Nora but a little excited.
Grace will live with Uncle Patrick in New York City.
The ship leaves from Southampton, England.
Grace can only afford a third-class ticket.
Her cabin is cramped.
She meets stands next to 2 boys, looking into first class.
One boy sneaks in and steals cake.
Catherine accuses Grace of stealing.
Down in third class, the people have a party.
The is a big shock, people from all classes go to the main deck.
The ship hits an iceberg.
There is not enough lifeboats for all the people.
Grace goes back to get the photo and Patrick's address.
Grace left her stuff and went back to the main deck.
Grace met Catherine who was lost, but she did not want to help, but she knew it was wrong to leave her alone.
Catherine met her parents and went to a lifeboat.
Catherine and her parent got on a boat, but a crewman stopped Grace.
Catherine's father said Grace is with them, and let Grace on the lifeboat.
The Titanic went down into the water.
She was only halfway to America, but at least she felt safe for now, sitting between Catherine and her parents.

Grade 4- i1 Bilingual Class – Summary- Below Deck

The story is an historical fiction.
The ship is really big called the Titanic.
Grace leaves Ireland to go to America.
Grace misses Auntie Nora but a little excited.
Grace will live with Uncle Patrick in New York City.
The ship leaves from Southampton, England.
Grace can only afford a third-class ticket.
Her cabin is cramped.
She meets stands next to 2 boys, looking into first class.
One boy sneaks in and steals cake.
Catherine accuses Grace of stealing.
Down in third class, the people have a party.
The is a big shock, people from all classes go to the main deck.
The ship hits an iceberg.
There is not enough lifeboats for all the people.
Grace goes back to get the photo and Patrick's address.
Grace left her stuff and went back to the main deck.
Grace met Catherine who was lost, but she did not want to help, but she knew it was wrong to leave her alone.
Catherine met her parents and went to a lifeboat.
Catherine and her parent got on a boat, but a crewman stopped Grace.
Catherine's father said Grace is with them, and let Grace on the lifeboat.
The Titanic went down into the water.

She was only halfway to America, but at least she felt safe for now, sitting between Catherine and her parents.