

Cookies Policy

Cookies are small text files that are placed in your browser by the websites you visit. They are widely used to help users navigate websites efficiently, to perform certain functions on the sites, and/or to provide site owners with information about how their sites are used.

We use cookies on our website(s) to personalise content, to provide social media features and to analyse our traffic and where they are required for particular features to work. We also share information about your use of our site with our analytics partners who may combine it with other information that you've provided to them or that they've collected from your use of their services

To disable all cookies:

Most web browsers will allow you to set some control over cookies in your browser settings. This includes deleting them from your browser or disabling them altogether.

If you do choose to set your browser to disable all cookies, this may affect your ability to use some of the features on our site.

Privacy Statement

Connected Neighbourhoods Trust collects personal information from you, including information about your:

- name
- contact information
- billing information
- how you will use our services and/or facilities
- how you use our website using cookie tracking and analytics features

We collect your personal information in order to:

- be able to contact you and to identify our clientele
- be able to bill you where required
- ensure that our facilities are operated safely

Besides our staff, we share this information with:

- Auckland Council and key funders (usage data only) in order to report on who is using their facilities and/or how funding is spent and what are the outcomes.
- Stripe.com in order to process your payment

Providing some information is optional. If you choose not to enter your contact and billing details, we may be unable to provide facilities or services for hire in some instances.

You have the right to ask for a copy of any personal information we hold about you, and to ask for it to be corrected if you think it is wrong.

If you'd like to ask for a copy of your information, or to have it corrected, please contact us at:
