My Goals Achieved

- Landing 5 Clients:

I feel it. I got it. This strange and sweet feeling flowing through my body up and down. It feels like a sweet perfume that you can barely smell. I'm feeling happy. Proud. I have succeed. I had a call with a client for my BIAB Marketing Agency a few seconds ago. They said YES. This is the last client I can handle right now. The fifth. I'm feeling secretly scary. It's something unknown, I need to work, to do something new, it must work. Every of this strange feelings are tearing my body apart. And I like this. I have.. my own company.. Sounds Glorious for me.

- Be shown in BIAB Wins:

I have closed my fifth client and started working on the ad for them. Everyone around be are just a background noise right now. They don't know. They don't know I'm already making more than they can imagine. And they don't know, what's this thing on my neck. A symbol. A glass for a new me. Only my closest know. And they are proud. Deeply inside they are truly proud. I feel proud for myself.. as I'm looking at BIAB-wins channel and see myself in the table. I knew I'm gonna struggle. But in the end.. it all pays off.

- Generating 20K In Revenue:

I have opened up my bank account. Oh, what is this? This is my completed milestone. 20k a month. It's not much in dollars, but quite big in UAH. And I feel.. Nothing? Yes, I have reached this milestone. I'm happy. But I'm greedy for this. Now I need to make a 30k. it's my new milestone.

My Rewards Earned

- I have bought myself a token on my neck. It says "In the darkest hour When the demons come Call on me brother We will fight them together". I have bought one more for my brother. We don't have the same family. But we are more than friends. We are brothers.
- Went to this fancy stylish place where all the money are starting. Joke. But talking seriously. I really wanted this for loong. Today I have bought myself the most serious and sexy costume in my life. When I wear it, I feel sharp as razor. Super confident. I'm the killer, the Hitman. In THIS costume. I can easily conquer the world.
- Upgrading my workflow by making myself a little tech-treat. Bought myself this AI camera that Professor Dylan and Professor Andrew uses. I can't get enough of seeing this shocked faces of everyone I'm speaking with. It's really fun and it helps to get a rapport with a potential client.

My Appearance And How Others Perceive Him

- Wearing my well-fitted attire, I ooze an air of professionalism and meticulousness. Each piece, carefully selected and expertly tailored, showcases not just sartorial elegance but a deep respect for myself. This deliberate attention to detail bolsters my self-confidence, radiating a sense of competence and cultural sensitivity that's crucial for making impactful first impressions across a variety of professional and social settings.
- I maintain a well-groomed appearance that shows my professionalism. Every detail is overthought twice. I could call my look perfect. Shiny polished shoes. Perfectly pressed suit. Good smell. And a good haircut. All in one, it shows myself as an unstoppable professional. The man who will do his job 100% perfect. Everyone can sense it. That's why everyone wants to work with me.

- I carry myself with a posture that projects confidence and authority. Everyone knows when I'm in the room; I keep my body language in hand, acting calm, steady, yet open and lighthearted. The best thing is that everyone feels easy to talk to me. No one is scared in some type, form or shape. But at the same time, these people respect me and my time.

My Day In The Life Stories.

- I wake up early, refreshed from a solid night's sleep. As a sergeant screaming to wake up, I'm jumping off my bed, wearing a sport costume and go for a morning run. When I get back to my room, I'm taking my clothes down and look for today's look. Brush my teeth, drink some water, watch an MPUC and get things ready for one university day more. Today I have decided to wear jeans and a white shirt. I'm going to washstands once more and making sure my hair looks 10/10. Some water, time, and it looks even 11. I'm taking my backpack with all the necessary stuff and going to "study".
- My working process, my daily checklist. It all looks a bit chaotic. Sure it is! I cannot be sure, when I'm having free time to work on my project, have the assignment done etc. But no one knows that it's a secret to my success. All this stress and chaos giving me just enough strength and will to push forward and kill every task and challenge I face. Every new day, I feel even more powerful than the previous one.
- Almost all my day are just going thru because of university and unsureness whether I will have time or not. Sometimes fun, sometimes sad. You cannot know what will happen today. The one thing you can be sure of, you can say goodbye for your plans before you even went to study. Happily I'm good at this one thing.. At improvising.
- As the evening sets in, I finally can start to work. I will go shower. I will do my training and then I will dedicate 100% of every second to work. I will finish my daily checklist tasks and go to an evening check. Then I will have time to brush my teeth again and spend some time to skincare. Some more work and here is the time for sleep.

- I lie in bed. Finally, I can get some rest. I will relax. Clean my soul from all the negativity I have gone thru. Now I'm thinking about every little win I have made today. I'm analyzing my day. Where I did a great job. Where I have failed. How I can prevent myself from doing the same mistake. Done. I'm gonna close my eyes again. And look at something in the future. Yesterday I have looked at my house and my car. Today I am on a date with my beloved woman. Tomorrow I will work under the palms. Thanks to my vivid imagination, I can see, smell, feel and sense everything if I want to. Thanks to this, I'm not really imagining. I'm living this life. For a moment, but I'm living it. And tomorrow I will try to make this true even without my imagination. Have a good night world. Tomorrow I will conquer you.
