

The Three Teachings

The three ways of thinking, Confucianism, Taoism and Buddhism were important in ancient China.

Your group will review the teachings of either Confucianism, Taoism or Buddhism and share with your class as a presentation or video.

Requirements

Segment Title:

(This should be catchy and engaging, but also descriptive)

Setting the Stage:

(Provide an introduction to your segment. It should give some background on the time period.)

Confucianism, Taoism, or Buddhism In Depth:

(Describe the religion/philosophy your group has been assigned.)

Interview:

(Interview the founder of your group's religion/philosophy. Using what you have learned about the religion/philosophy, develop questions. You may do additional research if needed.)

Confucianism = Confucius

Taoism = Laozi

Buddhism = Buddha

Closing:

(Thank your visitor for the interview and provide one piece of important information for your audience about your group's religion/philosophy)

