Overview

This is the Constitution of OSGeo Oceania Limited.

The Company is a company limited by guarantee. The liability of its members is limited to the amount they have agreed to pay in the guarantee. The Company must always have at least one member and three directors.

The Constitution sets out the basis on which the Company is to be managed. Nothing in the Constitution is intended to derogate from the Corporations Act. That Act:

- imposes many obligations on the Company which are not reproduced in this Constitution; and
- overrules anything in this Constitution to the extent that they are inconsistent.

This Constitution replaces the replaceable rules in the Corporations Act. Words used in the Constitution which have a meaning in the Corporations Act have the same meaning in this Constitution (unless expressly stated otherwise).

A Company's name, Objects and powers

Name of the Company

1 The name of the Company is OSGeo Oceania Limited.

Objects

2 The Company's objects are all or any of the following:

2.1 To support and grow the open geospatial community in the Oceania region, including the oversight and stewardship of a FOSS4G & SotM Conference series.

Powers

3 The Company has:

3.1 the legal capacity and powers of an individual; and

3.2 all the powers of a body corporate (other than the power to issue shares).

4 However, the Company has those capacities and powers only to the extent:

4.1 necessary, or convenient, to carry out the Company's objects; or 4.2 incidental to carrying out those objects.

B Members' liability and guarantee

Liability of Members

5 The liability of each Member is limited to the amount of the guarantee set in clause 6.

Guarantee by Members

6 If the Company is wound up while a person is a Member (or within one year after they stop being a Member) then that person must contribute up to $1 to the Company for:

6.1 payment of the Company's debts and liabilities incurred before that person ceased to be a Member;

6.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding-up the Company; and

6.3 adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

C How the Company's income and property are to be applied

For the Company's objects

7 All of the Company's income and property must be applied solely towards the promotion of the Company's objects as set out in clause 2.

No dividends etc. to Members

- 8 The Company may not pay, or transfer, any of its income or property — directly or indirectly — by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to any person who is or has been a Member.

Remuneration and expenses for Members allowed

- 9 Regardless of clause 8, the Company may pay remuneration in good faith to any Member, officer or employee of the Company in return for any good or services they provide to the Company in the ordinary and usual course of business.
- 10 The Board may authorise the repayment of any expenses a Member incurs for the Company, or in connection with performing their duties for the Company.

Payments to directors: restrictions, remuneration, expenses

- 11 If the Company is to pay any remuneration to a Director for services rendered in the capacity as a Director, then the remuneration must be on reasonable commercial terms and the Board must first have:
- 11.1 consented to the Director providing those services; and
 - 11.2 resolved to approve the amount of the payment.
- 12 If the Company is to pay any remuneration to a Director for services rendered in the capacity as an employee of the Company, then the Board must first have resolved to approve the terms of that employment.
- 13 The Board may authorise the repayment of any expenses a Director incurs for the Company, or in connection with performing their duties for the Company.

Loans and leases from Members

- 14 The Company may pay:
- 14.1 interest on money borrowed from any Member; and
 - 14.2 reasonable and proper rent for premises a Member leases to the Company.
- 15 For the purposes of clause 14, if a Member pays the Company a deposit, bond or other security for the payment of fees and charges levied under the Constitution, then that payment is not a loan from the Member.

D Fees imposed by the Company

Setting fees

- 16 The Board may prescribe:

- 16.1 a cost payable by Members by way of Membership fees and any other fees the Board thinks fit; and
 - 16.2 when and in what circumstances these fees are payable.
- 17 The Board must give Members at least one month's notice of any increase in the fees, or of a change in the due date for fees payable under clause 16.

E Membership

Members

- 18 The Company's Members are as follows (unless the Member has resigned under clause 30 or clause 32, or been expelled under clause 33):
- 18.1 the persons who are specified in the application to register the Company lodged under section 117 of the Act and who have consented to be Members; and
 - 18.2 any other person the Board admits to Membership in accordance with this Constitution.

Register of Members

- 19 The Company must keep and maintain the Register in accordance with the Act and otherwise as the Board determines.
- 20 Any dispute that arises in relation to the Register must be referred to the Board. The Board's decision is final and binding on all Members (in the absence of manifest error).

Eligibility for membership

- 21 The following are eligible to be Members:
- 21.1 any person who has a demonstrated interest in the Company;
 - 21.2 any person that the Board considers would benefit the Company by becoming a member; and
 - 21.3 any person in a category of persons that the Company has determined to be eligible to be Members.

Types of membership

- 22 At any time, the Board may (subject to the Act) create different types of membership with different rights, obligations and restrictions.

Membership is not transferable

- 23 A Member may not transfer their Membership to another person.

Voting rights

- 24 A Member is entitled to one vote at a General Meeting of the Company, unless specified otherwise under clause 22.
- 25 However, the Board may suspend a member's entitlement to vote if the Member owes the Company any amount that is more than 3 months overdue (or such other period as the Board determines).

Applying and being admitted to Membership

- 26 A person's Application to be a Member must be made in the form, and accompanied by any fee, the Board has set.
- 27 The Board will consider and, in its absolute discretion, accept or reject an Application. If the Board rejects an Application, then:
 - 27.1 it must arrange for any money the Applicant tendered with the Application to be repaid to the Applicant, without interest; and
 - 27.2 the Board does not have to give any reasons for the rejection.
- 28 An Applicant does not become a Member until the Company has:
 - 28.1 received any fee that applies; and
 - 28.2 the name and address of the Applicant are entered in the Register.
- 29 Each Member is liable for all taxes, duty and charges payable in respect of their Application, their Membership and any related transaction or document. Each Member indemnifies the Company and will keep it indemnified in respect of any liability for all those amounts.

Resigning from Membership: and ongoing liability

- 30 A Member may resign from Membership by giving written notice to the Company. When the notice period expires, the Member stops being a Member but:
 - 30.1 they remain liable for any money they owe the Company; and
 - 30.2 under clause 6, they remain liable for another 12 months.
- 31 A Member also resigns if they owe the Company any amount that is more than 6 months overdue (the Board may change the length of that period). If a Member resigns under this clause, then the Board may reinstate their membership if they pay the outstanding amount.

Expelling and disciplining a Member

- 32 The Board may — in the way described in clause 33 — expel a Member or implement appropriate disciplinary action if the Member:

32.1 has committed a breach of any obligation or duty under this Constitution; or 32.2 has engaged in conduct detrimental to the interests of the Company.

33 For any expulsion or discipline to be valid:

33.1 at least 21 days before the Board meeting at which the resolution is considered, the Member must be given written notice of:

- the meeting;
- the intended resolution; and
- the particulars of the alleged act, omission or conduct complained of;

33.2 at the meeting (and before the resolution is passed), the Member must be given the opportunity to explain themselves in writing or orally (or both if they request it);,

33.3 if the Member does give an explanation, then the Board must take it into account;

33.4 the relevant resolution must be passed by 75% of the Directors present and voting;

33.5 the Board must arrange for the Member to be given written notice of any Board resolution on the matter; and 33.6 if the Board resolves to expel the Member, then the Member ceases to be a Member when the Board serves them with the notice. Also the Member's name will be removed from the Register as set out in clause 34.

Removing an expelled Member's name from the Register

34 If a Member is expelled from the Company, then their name must be removed from the Register. The Company has no liability to the Member in respect of their removal from the Register.

35 When a Member's name is removed from the Register, the Member no longer has:

35.1 any rights or privileges attaching to Membership; or 35.2 any rights which they had against the Company that arose out of their Membership.

F General Meetings: frequency and notice

Annual General Meeting required

36 The Company must hold an Annual General Meeting:

36.1 in every calendar year;

36.2 within five months after the end of its financial year; and

36.3 at the time and place the Board determines.

Convening Extraordinary Meetings

- 37 An Extraordinary Meeting may be convened:
- 37.1 by the Board at such time and place as the Board thinks fit, (as long as it complies with the Act); and
 - 37.2 by Members as allowed under the Act.

Notice of General Meetings

- 38 The Board must give at least 21 days' written notice of a General Meeting to the Members, the Directors and the Auditor (unless a change to that arrangement is made under clause 45). The notice must specify:
- 38.1 the place, the day and the hour of meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
 - 38.2 the general nature of the meeting's business;
 - 38.3 the details of any special resolutions to be proposed at the meeting; and
 - 38.4 that Members are entitled to appoint a proxy who must be a Member.

Changing the notice procedure for General Meetings

- 39 A meeting may be convened in a way other than, and on shorter notice than, clause 38 requires as long as:
- 39.1 all the Members entitled to vote at the meeting consent to the change beforehand; and
 - 39.2 the notice and the shorter notice period comply with the Act.

Failure to receive Notice

- 40 A meeting and its proceedings and resolutions are valid even if any one or more of the following is the case:
- 40.1 the Company accidentally omitted to give notice of a meeting to any Member; or
 - 40.2 any Member did not receive notice of the meeting.

G General Meetings: proceedings

Use of technology in conferencing

- 41 The Chair may (with the approval of the meeting) confer with Members and others by radio, telephone, facsimile, computer, Internet, closed circuit television or other electronic means of audio or audio-visual communication. Any resolution passed using such a system is to be treated as having been passed at a meeting of the Members held on the day and at the time the conference was held — even if the Members were not present together in one place at the time. This clause does not limit the discretion of the Members to regulate their meetings.

- 42 The provisions of this Constitution regulating the proceedings of the Members apply so far as they are capable to such conferences.

Business at the meeting

- 43 The ordinary business of an Annual General Meeting may include:
- 43.1 considering any annual financial report, directors' report and Auditor's report;
 - 43.2 electing and appointing Directors; and
 - 43.3 appointing the Auditors and fixing the Auditor's remuneration (if the Company is required to have an auditor).
- 44 All other business at an Annual General Meeting, and all business at an Extraordinary Meeting, is regarded as special business.

Quorum required

- 45 For any business to be transacted at any General Meeting — except the adjournment of the meeting — a quorum must be present. The quorum for a General Meeting is the lower of 20% of the Membership or 10 Members, present in person or by proxy or attorney.

If no Quorum present

- 46 If a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for a General Meeting then:
- 46.1 if the meeting was convened on the requisition of Members, then it will be dissolved; or
 - 46.2 in any other case, the meeting will be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place (or at such other place as the Chair decides). If at that adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, then the Members present are a valid quorum.

Chair of the meeting

- 47 The Chair or in the Chair's absence, the Deputy Chair is to preside as chair at every General Meeting.
- 48 If at any General Meeting neither the Chair nor the Deputy Chair is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting (or if neither is willing to preside), then the Members present are to choose a Director to preside. If no Director is present (or if all Directors present decline to preside), then those persons present will choose a Member who is present to preside as Chair.

Adjourning (and resuming) a meeting

- 49 The Chair of a General Meeting:
- 49.1 may, with the consent of the Members present and entitled to vote at any meeting, and at which a quorum is present, adjourn a meeting; and
 - 49.2 must adjourn a meeting if the meeting directs them to do so.
- 50 If the Chair adjourns a General Meeting, then they may do so to another time or place (or both).
- 51 If a General Meeting is adjourned for one month or more, then the Company must arrange for a new notice of the adjourned meeting to be given.
- 52 After an adjourned meeting is resumed, the only business that may be transacted at the meeting is business that was unfinished before the adjournment.

Auditor attending etc. meeting

- 53 The Auditor is entitled:
- 53.1 to attend any General Meeting of the Company;
 - 53.2 to receive the same notices of, and other communications relating to, any General Meeting that a Member is entitled to receive; and
 - 53.3 to be heard at any General Meeting which the Auditor attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns the Auditor in that capacity. The Auditor's right to be heard exists even if the Auditor retires at that meeting or if a resolution to remove the Auditor from office is passed at that meeting.

H General Meetings: voting

Show of hands vote

- 54 Every item of business submitted to a General Meeting is to be decided in the first instance by a show of hands of the Members who are personally present and entitled to vote. The Chair will not have a casting vote.

Evidence of resolution

- 55 It is conclusive evidence that a resolution has been passed (regardless of whether there is any proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution) if:
- 55.1 the Chair declares that a resolution has been passed or lost (having regard to the majority required); and

55.2 an entry to that effect has been made in the Company's books and signed by the Chair of that, or the next meeting.

Poll vote

- 56 The Chair or any Member present (personally or by proxy or attorney) may demand a poll before, or on the declaration of the result of, a show of hands. Any person who has demanded a poll may withdraw their demand.
- 57 A poll demanded on any question of adjournment must be taken before any adjournment.
- 58 The poll is to be taken:
- 58.1 in the manner and at the time and place as the Chair of the meeting directs; and
- 58.2 either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise.
- 59 The result of the poll is to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 60 If there is a dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, then the Chair will finally determine that dispute.
- 61 At a poll, the Chair will not have a casting vote.

Continuing with other business before a Poll

- 62 After a poll has been demanded, the meeting may continue with any business other than the issue on which poll has been demanded.

I General Meetings: appointing a proxy

Eligibility to be proxy

- 63 Any Member may:
- 63.1 appoint a natural person who is a Member as a proxy to vote on the Member's behalf; and
- 63.2 may direct the proxy to vote either for or against each or any resolution.

Company receiving notice of proxy

- 64 For an appointment of a proxy to be valid, the Company must receive the document appointing the proxy (and an original, or certified copy, of the power of attorney, if any, under which it is signed):
- 64.1 at least 48 hours before the time for holding the relevant meeting or adjourned meeting or poll; and
- 64.2 at one of:
- the Registered Office;

- a fax number at the Registered Office; or
- a place, fax number or electronic address specified for such purpose in the notice of meeting.

65 An instrument appointing a proxy is valid for any adjournment of the meeting to which it relates — unless it states something to the contrary.

Form of proxy

66 An instrument appointing a proxy must be signed by the appointor, or his or her attorney, and must contain the following information:

- 66.1 the Company name;
- 66.2 the Member's name and address;
- 66.3 the Member's type of Membership;
- 66.4 the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
- 66.5 the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

Proxy's voting instructions

67 A document appointing a proxy may specify the way in which the proxy is to vote for a particular resolution. If it does so, then the proxy must vote on the resolution as specified.

Proxy's authority

68 A document appointing a proxy will be treated as giving the proxy:

- 68.1 authority to demand, or join in demanding, a poll; and
- 68.2 the power to act generally at the meeting for the person giving the proxy (except to the extent to which the proxy is specifically directed to vote for or against any proposal).

J General Meeting: appointing an attorney

Member appointing an attorney

69 Any Member may, by duly executed power of attorney, appoint an attorney to act on the Member's behalf at all, or certain specified, meetings of the Company. If the attorney wishes to appoint a proxy for the Member granting the power of attorney, then the attorney must at the Registered Office (or any other place the Board determines) produce:

- 69.1 the power of attorney for inspection; and
- 69.2 any evidence the Board requires that it has been properly executed.

Directors appointing an attorney of the Company

- 70 The Directors may, by power of attorney, appoint any person whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors to be an attorney or attorneys of the Company. The appointment:
- 70.1 may be for any purposes and with powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in, or exercisable by, the Directors under this Constitution);
 - 70.2 may authorise any attorney to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in them;
 - 70.3 may be for periods and on conditions as the Directors think fit; and
 - 70.4 may contain provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any attorney as the Directors think fit.

K General Meeting: voting by attorney or proxy

Validity of vote after death or revocation

- 71 If a person who has appointed a proxy or attorney has either died or revoked the appointment but any notice in writing of the death or revocation has not been received at the Registered Office before the meeting, then a vote given in accordance within the terms of appointment will be valid.

Person who has appointed proxy or attorney may attend meetings

- 72 A person who has appointed a proxy or attorney may attend and take part in a meeting. Doing so does not revoke the appointment — unless the person votes on the resolution to which the appointment applies.

L Directors

Number and qualifications of Directors

- 73 The number of Directors comprising the Board will be at least 3 and no more than 9. They may be elected by the Members in accordance with this Constitution, or appointed under clause 77 or clause 81.
- 74 Each Director must be a Member except that where the company has less than 3 Members, additional directors need not be Members.

Length of appointment

- 75 Each elected Director will hold office from the end of the Meeting at which they were elected, for a period of two years, or the time between two consecutive Meetings to Elect Directors.
- 76 In order to implement staggered terms, at the first Meeting to Elect Directors half of the newly-elected Directors will be appointed to a half term of one year. These Directors will volunteer or be chosen by random selection.

Election of Directors

- 77 A person who is eligible for appointment under clause 74 may be appointed as a Director if all the Members sign a resolution to that effect. The appointment takes effect on the date the last Member signs.
- 78 Within 6 months of the end of each financial year, a General Meeting shall take place, at which directors shall be elected in accordance with the rules relating to the "Election of Directors", such meeting to be known as the Meeting to Elect Directors. This Meeting may be held concurrently with the Annual General Meeting, or may take another form, as laid out by the Board in clause 79.1.
- 79 In addition to clause 77, Directors may be elected in the following way:
- 79.1 Prior to the completion of each financial year, the Board shall lay out a process for electing new directors to the board, such process to be distributed to members. The process shall be at the discretion of the board but shall be designed to be in the best interests of the Company.
- 79.2 50% of the elected Directors, or the whole number of Directors nearest to 50% rounded up or down, shall stand for re-election annually.
- 79.3 Any Member may nominate a person who is eligible for appointment under clause 74 to serve as a Director.
- 79.4 The nomination of any Member as a candidate for election as a Director must be:
- agreed by the nominated person; and
 - lodged with the Secretary at least 7 days before the Meeting to Elect Directors at which the election is to take place.
- 79.5 If the number of nominated candidates:
- is no more than the number of vacancies, then the Chair of the Meeting to Elect Directors will declare those candidates elected as Directors.
 - is more than the number of vacancies, then the Secretary will arrange for balloting lists to be prepared containing the names of the candidates in an order determined by lot. The Board may determine the method of the ballot. Each Member is entitled to vote for any number of candidates not exceeding the number of vacancies.

- is not enough to meet the required minimum number of Directors, then the Board must appoint a Member as Director (as long as they consent) until there is at least the minimum number of Directors.

Officers on the Board

80 At the first meeting of the Board after the Meeting to Elect Directors, the Directors will elect from among their number a Chair, a Deputy Chair, a Secretary and a Treasurer (one Director may fill more than one position). Each of them will hold office until the end of the next Meeting to Elect Directors.

Casual vacancies

81 If there is a casual vacancy in the office of Director, then the Board may appoint a replacement Director. That replacement Director holds office until the end of the next Meeting to Elect Directors.

Disqualification of Directors

82 The office of a Director will be vacated if the Director:

- 82.1 is a Member, and they become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with their creditors;
- 82.2 becomes of unsound mind;
- 82.3 is absent for three consecutive Board Meetings without leave of the Board (unless the Board resolves to the contrary);
- 82.4 resigns from their Directorship by giving written notice to the Company; or
- 82.5 ceases to hold office by reason of any order made under the Act.

First Directors

83 The first Directors are the persons set out as Directors in the application to register the Company lodged under section 117 of the Act. The first Directors will hold office until the end of the first Meeting to Elect Directors, at which point they will cease being directors but will be eligible for re-election.

M Powers of the Board

The board controls and directs the company

84 The control and direction of the Company and the management of its property and affairs are vested in the Board.

- 85 The Board may exercise all powers of the Company that are not required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting.

Borrowing

- 86 The Board may raise money in any manner it thinks fit including by borrowing money (whether on the security of the Company's assets or not) and the issuing of a security for any other purpose — so long as this is done to further the Company's objects set out in clause 2.

Investment

- 87 The Board may invest the Company's money in any manner, and for any period, it thinks fit.

Negotiable instruments

- 88 Two Directors, or one Director and some other officer authorised by the Board for the purpose, may sign, draw, accept, endorse or otherwise execute (as the case may be) the following documents for and on behalf of the Company: all cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for money paid to the Company.

N Proceedings of the Board

General

- 89 The Board may meet for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit.
- 90 The Board must meet at least 1 time a year.

Use of technology in Board conferencing

- 91 The Board may, if it thinks fit, confer by radio, telephone, facsimile, computer, Internet, closed circuit television or other electronic means of audio or audio-visual communication. Any resolution passed using such a system is to be treated as having been passed at a meeting of the Board held on the day and at the time the conference was held — even if the Directors were not present together in one place at the time. This clause does not limit the discretion of the Board to regulate its meetings.
- 92 The provisions of this Constitution regulating the proceedings of the Board apply so far as they are capable to such conferences.

Notice of meeting

- 93 At any time, the Board may convene a Board meeting by at least 24 hours' notice served on each Director. The Secretary is to arrange that notice at the request of the Chair or Deputy Chair.

- 94 The proceedings of a Board meeting are valid even if:
- 94.1 the Company accidentally omitted to give notice of a meeting to any Director; or
 - 94.2 any Director did not receive notice of the meeting.

Quorum

- 95 A quorum for Board meetings is (unless the Board determines otherwise) if the number of Directors:
- 95.1 is an even number, half of the Board plus one other director; or
 - 95.2 is an odd number, the odd number nearest to, and greater than, half of the number of Directors.

Chair

- 96 The Chair, or in the Chair's absence the Deputy Chair, is to chair every Board meeting.
- 97 If at a Board meeting neither the Chair nor the Deputy Chair is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding that meeting (or if neither is willing to chair), then the Directors present will choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

Voting

- 98 Questions arising at any meeting will be decided by a majority of votes. Each Director present is entitled to one vote. The Chair does not have a casting vote.
- 99 However, the Board may suspend a Director's entitlement to vote if the Director owes the Company any amount that is more than 3 months overdue (or such other period as the Board determines).

Delegation by the Board

- 100 Subject to clause 101, the Board may, as it thinks fit, delegate any of its powers to individual Directors or Members or to committees. A committee may consist of the Directors or Members (or both) that the Board thinks fit. Any individual or committee must comply with any Board direction about how to execute the delegated powers.
- 101 The Board may not delegate its power to delegate.
- 102 The meetings and proceedings of any committee will be governed by the provisions of this Constitution that regulate the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as they apply and so far as the Board has not replaced them.

Defects in appointment

- 103 An act done in good faith by any meeting of the Board, any meeting of any committee formed by the Board or by any person acting as a Director will not be invalidated merely because of:
- 103.1 any defect in the election, appointment or tenure of a Director or person acting on any such committee; or
 - 103.2 the disqualification of any of them.

O Board minutes and circulated resolutions

Making Board resolutions

- 104 The Board may make resolutions either:
- 104.1 in a meeting, of which minutes must be kept as set out in clause 105; or
