

Alaska Social Studies Playlist: America250

Resources
America250Alaska from Alaska Department of Natural Resources Office of History and Archeology state A250 project site with resources, events, press releases.
A Revolution of Words: the 250th Birthday of the Declaration of Independence from Univ. of Florida / CSPAN Curriculum featuring 9 lessons, for grades 6-12, plus ongoing monthly webinar series featuring experts and scholars from August 2025 through May 2026.
America's Field Trip from America250 contest for students grades 3-12 to create artwork or essays. 25 first-place awardees from each grade level category and their designated chaperone will receive travel and lodging accommodations for a three-day, two-night trip to a select historical or cultural site. 25 second-place awardees from each grade level category will each receive a $500 cash award.
National History Day Competition for students grades 6-8 and 9-12 to create historical research projects. School and district winners have the chance to travel to the national competition.
Alaska's Field of Dreams Proposal from America250Alaska charity baseball game with former Alaska Baseball League players and the Alaska Goldpanners on or near July 4, 2026, in Fairbanks, Alaska.
We the People from KTUU list of news stories and features 250 years
Declaration Drafts from America250AL compares an original, primary source draft of the Declaration of Independence with the final signed document.
America's Stories from America250 project to collect stories on American themes like courage and hope. Includes a video call-for submissions from Andrei Jacobs of Bethel, AK.
America250.org website from America250 a non-partisan initiative to engage the nation commemorating the 250th anniversary of America.