

Job Shadow List

Official List of Employer Hosts - NCC Winter Job Shadow Program

Thank you for your interest in NCC's Winter Job Shadow program! Below is the official list of employer hosts for January 2026. It is important to read the descriptions thoroughly to understand what the employer does, which majors they are hosting, dates, times, and location. This list is exclusive to employers who have registered to host in this program. It's important to note that if the opportunity is not listed, it is not available in this program. Similarly, if it is listed, the opportunity is available.

Additionally, this is a live document and will be updated to reflect current opportunities. Some employers have limited availability and will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. That being said, if you do not see the opportunity listed in this document, it is no longer available. We apologize for any inconvenience this may bring.

We will do our best to match you with your number one preference; however, this is not a guarantee. Please be sure to select a second and third preference on your registration that is different than your first.

Please click on the links below to see the list of employers in those areas:
