

There is nothing like disappointment.
You come on the internet expecting the earth and you get served sauce.
I'm really sorry about today.
If you feel like you have given and given and given, do not give up.
I know without what I got a lot of you will get broken so be of good cheer.

I have not really studied how to do launches. Again not from an internet perspective.
I have a badass product and it really does not need anything else.
I felt I should spend longer trying to get more momentum, so I will delay the launch for a little while.

Here is what I will suggest so you can get cash directly and more quickly. The following me stats on instagram is not strong
As you see I'm doing all the content and promotion myself.

Like , comment, repost the works I'm requesting of you on Instagram. My handle is 4dpupus.
Look me up, you should find me. <https://www.instagram.com/4dpupus/>

We want quick results. The way to do that is to contribute. Participation is more important.
You won't believe the power of it till you do it. Those who delay will pay the price.

You will form part of a group. The persons who contributes the most and moves the following me status

The most will get the greatest rewards. You have to do that within the next 5 days.

The group that is in the top position will also get paid out quicker.

The group size will be determined by the capital amount. When £500.00 is reached whoever is in that group forms the group.

A new group is automatically formed.

Bear in mind that if contributions are low, group size will be big. That is not particularly good as it will take longer to pay everyone.

How many groups there will be is anybody's guess. However if we set a target of £5000.00 we can gauge our movements by that.

Although I set a target of 5 days it may have to be extended.

I used 500 members and it yields £10.00 per person.

I want a membership to be at least £50.00 so We will move with pace and group size.

I do things differently to the standard.

If you want to get paid give me your email here:

<http://paypal.me/asimplesolutionGB>

Only use the Paypal link to give me your email. I will then email you for your bank details.

To deposits funds do it direct to my bank account;

Royal Bank Of Scotland

The very first person to register their interest will get a £50.00 bonus paid in my own sweet time.

The very next person who enters after we reach 5000 likes gets £100.00

That person must have contributed £100.00 or more. We will search until we find such a person.

If any of you have joined an offer I will give you £10.00. You will have to email me your receipt and your Affiliate link. I will also promote your links to help you to grow your business. Remember that offer only stands for when we reach 5000 likes.

Now here is the gist of it.

If we get enough interest before I give a date for the launch I would have achieved my purpose.

Don't think I want the hassle of paying money into umpteen bank accounts.

When you are in the position of trying to convince others that you are genuine and that what your offer is as good as you say it is. That is an uphill struggle. I know because by being here you are seeing it.

The other side of it is the offer. It is realistic and it will do exactly what I want it to do for me and for you.

Then why work more than you have to job done.

Here is the sage bit.

When we launch this will be like a prelaunch. You would be in and you will be accredited.

You think being here is just a matter of fact. You are in a privileged position.

I am pointing it out to you. Pick it up with both hands and feet.

It is no joke. My hardest job is to get the first customer. My second job is to get the next one.

My next job after that is to increase to double figures.

When I have done that to get to 100.

The next job after that is to make sure there is no turning back.

You see only when a system fails am I stoppable. Without the internet I was totally disabled today.

There is another place where that can happen. That is my only nemesis.

Beyond that I'm good and so are you if you make the right decision.

Good luck does not come into this. God bless you, yes I definitely believe that.

All you have to do is create activity. That is what most people want. To take an action and get a reaction.

Ok that is the beginning. When we launch, if ever we do the rewards will be a lot more profitable.

It is 1:40 am. I was driven. I wanted to find a way of giving you something substantive.
