

Watertown Youth Soccer's Statement and Guidance Regarding Racially Charged and Discriminatory Comments and Behavior

Watertown Youth Soccer strives to treat all individuals with compassion, civility, and respect and to foster a positive and safe learning and playing environment for all children involved in the program.

RESPECT is the expectation amongst players, coaches, referees, administrators, and spectators.

Racially charged and discriminatory statements and behavior, whether verbal, written, physical, or implied, is expressly prohibited by US Soccer, US Youth Soccer, Mass Youth Soccer, BAYS, and Watertown Youth Soccer.

Watertown Youth Soccer, in its discretion, will follow the BAYS guidance on responding to inappropriate conduct and speech: Responding to Misconduct | Boston Area Youth Soccer

RESPECT STATEMENT

BAYS expects the highest standards of sportsmanship from each of you. Players, coaches, parents, fans, and officials should be positive and respectful. Discrimination, criticism, or hurtful comments or actions of any kind have no place here. Enjoy the game, have fun, and show respect for each other.
