

MY THAT FUCKING ERDOGAN THREAD

Lots of good, solid, & credible information about our best anti-ISIS allies, the Kurds.

https://twitter.com/_oldmandownther/status/958032288838766592

I was on Twitter when the Kurdish people started tweeting to Centcom & every other U.S. political & military official they could find letting them know that Kobani was under attack from ISIS.

I watched as some of the brave Kurds stopped American built ISIS tanks the only way they could by carrying satchells of explosives up close to the tanks in virtual suicidal defensive operations.

I watched pictures of U.S. military planes flying overhead being tweeted at the very same time the Kurds were pleading with U.S. officials to stop ISIS from gaining a foothold in the city before it was too late.....TO NO AVAIL.

Over time I have learned much about Middle East politics because I'VE WATCHED all this and more.

I've come to love and respect the Kurdish people for being who they are, our most faithful anti-ISIS ground troop allies, & the multi-ethnic democracy featuring religious freedom they're trying to build in Syria or as they call it.... ROJAVA.

Kobanî massacre

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

See also: Siege of Kobanî

The Kobanî massacre was a combination of suicide missions and attacks on Kurdish civilians by the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant on the Kurdish-held city of Kobanî, beginning on Thursday, 25 June, and culminating on Friday, 26 June 2015.^{[6][7][8]} The attacks continued into 28 June, with the last remaining ISIL militant being killed on the following day. The attacks resulted in 223–233 civilians dead, as well as 35–37 Kurdish militiamen^[4] and at least 79 ISIL assailants.^[5] It was the second-largest massacre committed by ISIL since it declared a caliphate in June 2014.^[9]

Interestingly enough my latest move was brought on by a run in with a man who must be very stupid for a Turkish state sponsored troll.

His boasting prompted me to point out all the info in my tag to some Kurds

The screenshot shows a Twitter thread. At the top, a tweet from Jeff Sjolander (@_sirtainly) says: "Time for me to go peeps, take care, be safe. If you find a Turkish Twitter Troll....crush him like a bug with all the love in your heart." Below this is a reply from Frank Triplej (@FrankTripleJ) dated Jan 23: "Twisting reality is when you try to potray Pkk 'apo-ists' as ypg/sdf! Spreading fake news! Weather I'm a troll on or not is none of your business!". This is followed by another reply from Jeff Sjolander (@_sirtainly) dated 24h: "You ARE a troll, and the PKK deserve to be de-listed from the terrorist list. only reason the are listed is because Turkey has the pull to place them on the list no matter they are freedom fighters." Below that is a reply from Frank Triplej (@FrankTripleJ) with a "Follow" button: "I'm a proud troll! Do you have a problem with that?". The thread is timestamped "2:05 PM - 23 Jan 2018". The screenshot itself is timestamped "2:41 PM - 24 Jan 2018".

The Great Debate

Turkey's Erdogan fights for his throne by battling Kurds – but will voters buy it?

ISTANBUL – If democracy is the art of compromise, then Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan is no democrat. And if democracy means listening to the electorate and respecting the spirit of parliamentary procedure — then he fails on these criteria as well.

Hi Jeff

No panic about Hadi Elis account

Just wanted to be off line during the court proceedings in Turkey.

He will be back less then 30 days for twitter deactivation expires, not to lose contacts and tweet chronology.

It's ok to let to people know, but also we don't want to take attention of Turkish psychowarfare agents on twitter.

Also twitter needs to defend itself at Turkish courts, deactivated accounts might help them.

Let's see how the court decides, although we don't believe justice will be served.

Turkey Pays Former CIA Director & Lobbyists To Misrepresent Attacks on Kurds & ISIS

Columns

My Turn

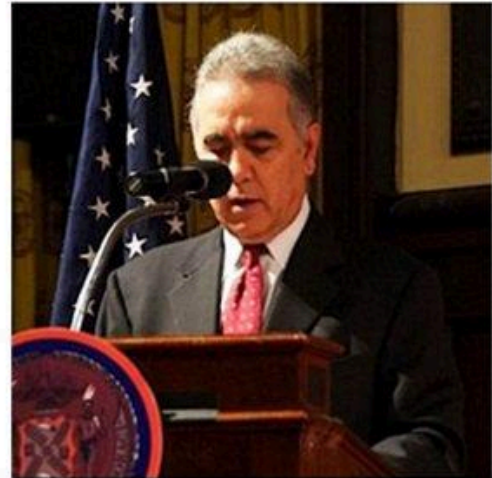

August 18, 2015

BY HARUT SASSOUNIAN

Thousands of articles have been published worldwide in the recent weeks exposing Turkey's strategic trickery — using the pretext of fighting ISIS to carry out a genocidal bombing campaign against the Kurds who have courageously countered ISIS in Syria and Iraq.

The Wall Street Journal reported on August 12 that a senior US military official accused Turkey of deceiving the American government by allowing its use of Incirlik airbase to attack ISIS, as a cover for President Erdogan's war on Kurdish fighters (PKK) in northern Iraq.

So far, Turkey has carried out 300 air strikes against the PKK, and only three against ISIS! Erdogan's intent in punishing the Kurds is to gain the sympathy of Turkish voters in the next parliamentary elections, enabling his party to win an outright majority and establish an autocratic presidential theocracy.

Jeff, glad to hear that Twitter will stand its ground in this 'Turkish Psychowarfare'. But .@jack has work to do to control nazis, fake news and nuclear pyromaniac. It's not personal, it is about avoiding WWIII. We don't need Twitter to become this century's Sarajevo incident.

I'm sure the pressures and specifics are mostly way above my pay grade. My intention is not to be hyper-critical of a good platform such as Twitter but to bring these things out into the light...and yes I often try to make my emotional state very clear as well. 😊

- German
 - Portuguese
 - Spanish
- ISIS terrorists have been attacking Kurds in an attempt to rape their women, sell them on slave markets and annihilate them. This is what happens when Kurds get caught unprepared or cannot fight back. And this is why the demands that the West arm the Kurds directly, and recognize Kurdish self-rule within secure and defensible boundaries, are a matter of life and death.
 - It would be much better if the states ruling over the Kurds would willingly recognize Kurdish rights without shedding any blood, but that is not how the states in this region operate.

Conditions for media freedom in Turkey continued to deteriorate in 2014 after several years of decline. The government enacted new laws that expanded both the state's power to block websites and the surveillance capability of the National Intelligence Organization (MIT). Journalists faced unprecedented legal obstacles as the courts restricted reporting on corruption and national security issues. The authorities also continued to aggressively use the penal code, criminal defamation laws, and the antiterrorism law to crack down on journalists and media outlets.

Verbal attacks on journalists by senior politicians—including Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, the incumbent prime minister who was elected president in August—were often followed by harassment and even death threats against the targeted journalists on social media. Meanwhile, the government continued to use the financial and other leverage it holds over media owners to influence coverage of politically sensitive issues. Several dozen journalists, including prominent columnists, lost their jobs as a result of such pressure during the year, and those who remained had to operate in a climate of increasing self-censorship and media polarization.

Application no. 5237/16
Karaman v. Turkey

Dear Sir,

I acknowledge receipt of your correspondence of 22 January 2016 requesting the European Court of Human Rights under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court to enable the applicant's immediate access to a hospital.

Reference for further correspondence
The file has been given the above number which you must refer to in any further correspondence relating to this case.

Decision on interim measure
On 22 January 2016, the Court (the duty judge) decided, in the interests of the parties and the proper conduct of the proceedings before it, to indicate to the Government of Turkey, under Rule 39, to take all measures within their powers to protect the applicant's life and physical integrity. This interim measure is in place until 5 February 2016 included.

The parties' attention is drawn to the fact that failure of a Contracting State to comply with a measure indicated under Rule 39 may entail a breach of Article 34 of the Convention. In this connection, reference is made to paragraphs 128 and 129 of the Grand Chamber judgment of 4 February 2005 in the case of Mamatkulov and Askarov v. Turkey (applications nos. 46827/99 and 46951/99) as well as point 5 of the operative part.

Priority
The Court further decided to give priority to the application under Rule 41.

Information requested
The parties are requested to provide the Court, by 29 January 2016, with further pertinent and relevant information concerning the applicant's current circumstances, state of health and of any further developments.

Teen Arrested for 'Insulting' Erdogan on Facebook as Crackdown in Turkey Continues

By Avi Asher-Schapiro

October 22, 2015 | 4:25 pm

Watch what you say on social media in Turkey — a 14-year-old schoolboy spent Wednesday night in a police station for supposedly insulting Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan on Facebook.

Authorities released the teenager, who is identified in Turkish media only by the initials UE, on Thursday morning after police determined he was a year too young to be criminally charged under the law.

Turkish authorities are not yet releasing specific details of the case. But it's clear that UE was initially arrested for violating Article 299, a specific provision in the penal code that makes any "insults" to the office of the presidency punishable by multiple years in prison.

Late last week, a conversation between high-ranking Turkish officials was leaked online purporting to expose a plan that had been devised to use a staged attack on a Turkish target in Aleppo as a pretext to start a war with Syria.

The leak of the conversation was considered sensitive enough that the government of Turkish Prime Minister Erdogan took the extraordinary measure of blocking YouTube in the country to prevent the population from learning about the story ahead of key local elections.

Sometimes the most amazing things can be found online.

NOW YOU CAN KNOW WHO STARTED THE SYRIAN CONFLICT!

A leaked conversation between Turkey's intelligence chief and the war room reveals plot to create a casus belli for war with Syria by using ISIL, an alQaeda offshoot, to threaten a turkish shrine Suleiman Shah Tomb. Turkey has blocked youtube in order to cover up the leaks. Turkish Foreign Ministry confirmed the recording of planning for a military incursion into Syria adding that a 'network of treason' was responsible for leak. Part two of the leaked conversation implicates John Kerry US secretary of state in the plot.

TURKISH WAR PLANS mp4

Yasar GÜLER: Absolutely, esteemed minister. You are absolutely correct.

Ahmet DAVUTOGLU: Isn't that so? That's how I see it. But when you pull out it ceases to be a military measure and becomes something else.

Feridun SINIRLIOGLU: There are severe shifts in local and global geopolitics. These can now spread to other sectors. You said so today and others agreed... We are entering a different game. We have to recognize this. These shadow organizations like ISIS are very open to manipulation and exploitation. Adjoining an area filled with these organizations is an extraordinarily high security risk for us. Anyway when we entered Irak to fight the PKK there was also always a possibility that they blew things up here. If we weigh these risks thoroughly and concretely but as our general just said...

Yasar GÜLER: Esteemed minister. While you were inside just earlier we discussed this quite openly. These armed forces are a tool (in English) that you need at all times

ISTANBUL — A Turkish court handed down a long-awaited judgment against two prominent journalists on Friday, sentencing them to more than five years in prison for releasing "state secrets." The verdict came just hours after one of the journalists narrowly escaped an attack by a gunman in front of the courthouse.

- Turkey is increasingly becoming less safe for journalists as Erdogan's systematic campaign to intimidate goes at full speed.
- In February 2015, Turkey ranked 149th on Reporters Without Borders (RSF) list of 180 countries. Venezuela, Cambodia, Ethiopia, Myanmar, Zimbabwe, Afghanistan, the United Arab Emirates and Algeria performed better than Turkey, where, according to RSF, arrests and intimidation of journalists are rampant.
- In a fierce speech in front of the newspaper's building, AKP member of parliament, Abdurrahim Boynukalin vowed that the Dogan media company (which owns Hurriyet) will "get the hell out of Turkey" when Erdogan will have additional executive powers "whatever the electoral outcome on Nov. 1 will be."

GREEN PARTY STATEMENT ON TURKEY'S MILITARY ATTACKS ON AFRIN

29 January 2018

Green Party Leaders have condemned Turkey's offensive and invasion of Syria, and its attacks on Afrin in the north-west.

Jonathan Bartley and Caroline Lucas, co-leaders of the Green Party, said:

"Turkey's ongoing military attacks on Afrin are utterly wrong, and the killing of civilians is morally indefensible. The Foreign Secretary, Boris Johnson, must urgent make a statement on behalf of the government making clear that they condemn the Turkish Government's actions.

"The people of this region have been targeted by all sides. The atrocities they have suffered at the hands of Daesh are now exacerbated by the military onslaught of the Turkish Government. The British Government should be using all diplomatic means to bring an end to Turkish military incursions - and should start be using urging the UN and others to condemn Turkey's actions."

From a Kurdish friend....

Turkey attacking Afrin, and way too much psy-warfare going on again, to put USA & NATO in it against Kurds PKK.

Erdogan is 100% anti USA now, soon there will be Turkish army firing on USA personnel in Northern Syria.

“Slapping USA “Ottoman style” Means trying to organize a project to harm a damage to USA get a lesson that won’t forget That’s the Turkish linguistics & cultural background of using this discriminatory language.

Erdogan getting ready to give a lesson to USA.

From the same Kurdish friend. Better than the news or anyone can tell you.

We have a choice, but not an easy one, because neither USA nor Russia wants to move in the right direction. It leaves Iran to act and after controlling Iraq, now will control Syria.

Russia is not acting to NOT deal with Turkey and USA, letting Iran to do the job, which is anti-Turkey and USA. Iran is OK with Russia and Syria, will force Kurds to accept Assad terms as many as possible.

USA also wants to contain Iran and that's why wants to stay in Syria, but by not helping Kurds now, making it difficult for Kurds to resist Turkey, Iran and Syria.

Iran now helping Kurds with Shia militia groups in Syria to defend Afrin against Turkey.

I believe Russia, Iran, & Turkey will talk in Moscow next week.

Late last week, a conversation between high-ranking Turkish officials was leaked online purporting to expose a plan that had been devised to use a staged attack on a Turkish target in Aleppo as a pretext to start a war with Syria.

The leak of the conversation was considered sensitive enough that the government of Turkish Prime Minister Erdogan took the extraordinary measure of blocking YouTube in the country to prevent the population from learning about the story ahead of key local elections.

That a false flag event was being planned as a pretext for war with Syria should come as no surprise to viewers of the alternative media, who know that this was precisely what happened last year when rebel forces used chemical weapons in Ghouta in an attack that was falsely blamed on Syrian government forces, a fact that was confirmed by a recent MIT study into the incident.

Leaks Reveal Turkey using ALQaeda for False flag in Syria

March 27, 2014 Mimi al Laham Syria, Turkey, USA 2

A leaked conversation between Turkey's intelligence chief and the war room reveals plot to create a casus belli for war with Syria by using ISIL, an alQaeda offshoot, to threaten a turkish shrine Suleiman Shah Tomb. Turkey has blocked youtube in order to cover up the leaks. Turkish Foreign Ministry confirmed the recording of planning for a military incursion into Syria adding that a 'network of treason' was responsible for leak. Part two of the leaked conversation implicates John Kerry US secretary of state in the plot.

TURKISH WAR PLANS mp4

Yasar GÜLER: Absolutely, esteemed minister. You are absolutely correct.

Ahmet DAVUTOGLU: Isn't that so? That's how I see it. But when you pull out it ceases to be a military measure and becomes something else.

Feridun SINIRLIOGLU: There are severe shifts in local and global geopolitics. These can now spread to other sectors. You said so today and others agreed... We are entering a different game. We have to recognize this. These shadow organizations like ISIS are very open to manipulation and exploitation. Adjoining an area filled with these organizations is an extraordinarily high security risk for us. Anyway when we entered Irak to fight the PKK there was also always a possibility that they blew things up here. If we weigh these risks thoroughly and concretely but as our general just said...

Yasar GÜLER: Esteemed minister. While you were inside just earlier we discussed this quite openly. These armed forces are a tool (in English) that you need at all times

US Technical Intelligence in the Damascus
Nerve Agent Attack of August 21, 2013

s3.amazonaws.com/s3.documentclo.../20140304/possible\_implications\_of\_faulty\_intelligence.pdf ...

THE BOTTOM LINE

- The Syrian Improvised Chemical Munitions that Were Used in the August 21, Nerve Agent Attack in Damascus Have a Range of About 2 Kilometers
- This Indicates That These Munitions Could Not Possibly Have Been Fired at East Ghouta from the “Heart” or the Eastern Edge of the Syrian Government Controlled Area Depicted in the Intelligence Map Published by the White House on August 30, 2013.
- This faulty Intelligence Could Have Led to an Unjustified US Military Action Based on False Intelligence.
- A Proper Vetting of the Fact That the Munition Was of Such Short Range Would Have Led to a Completely Different Assessment of the Situation from the Gathered Data
- Whatever the Reasons for the Egregious Errors in the Intelligence, the Source of These Errors Needs to Be Explained.
- If the Source of These Errors Is Not Identified, the Problems That Led to this Intelligence Failure Will Go Uncorrected, and the Chances of a Future Policy Disaster Will Grow With Certainty.

The geopolitical and geostrategic interests and balance in Turkey, due to its current Islamist Government lead by the authoritarian President Erdogan, have changed the country in last 15 years to an unrecognizable degree.

In my personal opinion it's hard to continue to define Turkey as an ally to Canada, USA and EU, and naturally to the NATO, too.

Details that were new in Mar, 2017 on Mike Flynn's lobbying on behalf of Turkish interests, his military intel experience retained for college intern PR tactics.

Mr. Rafiekian met with Miles Taylor, National Security Advisor to the House Committee on Homeland Security, on two occasions in approximately October 2016, at Mr. Taylor's office and at Flynn Intel Group's office. A representative of S.G.R. LLC Government Relations and Lobbying attended the meeting at Flynn Intel Group's office. Over the course of the discussions, Mr. Rafiekian raised the firm's representation of Inovo and issues related to the research conducted for Inovo concerning Mr. Gülen and Turkey. Flynn Intel Group also oversaw outreach, which was conducted by the public relations firm, to a state government official in Arkansas.

Pursuant to its contract with Inovo, Flynn Intel Group informally engaged a group of individuals (independent contractors) to form a film and production crew for the purposes of producing a video documentary based on its research associated with Mr. Gülen. The activities included a couple of videotaped interviews and other initial development of content. Because the contract was not extended, the full scope of anticipated work was not performed and, to the best of Flynn Intel Group's current knowledge, the video was neither finished nor disseminated to any third parties. S.G.R. LLC Government Relations and Lobbying created a Gulen-themed monopoly graphic at the direction of Flynn Intel Group. To the best of its knowledge, Flynn Intel Group did not disseminate this document or associated research (other than to Inovo).

In late October and early November 2016, Gen. Flynn of Flynn Intel Group developed an op-ed article based, in part, on the research conducted by Flynn Intel Group under the Inovo engagement. The op-ed was not written or published at the request of, or under the direction or control of, Inovo, the Republic of Turkey, or any other party. No compensation was received for the publication of the op-ed. In addition to Gen. Flynn, Bijan Rafiekian and an editor, Hank Cox, participated in the drafting. Inovo, Mr. Alptekin, and the Republic of Turkey did not participate in the drafting. Nonetheless, the op-ed addresses subject matter related to the research that Flynn Intel Group conducted for Inovo, and a draft of the op-ed was shared with Inovo in advance of publication. No changes, other than technical edits, were made to the op-ed based on feedback from Inovo. To the best of our knowledge, Inovo did not communicate with the Republic of Turkey regarding the op-ed or provide the draft op-ed to the government. S.G.R. LLC Government Relations and Lobbying assisted Flynn Intel Group with placement of the op-

1 October 2009 14:36 (UTC+04:00)

The map published by the Turkish Education Ministry has described the land of Azerbaijan, Iraq and Syria as Turkish, the website of CNN Turk reported with reference to the "Milliyet" newspaper.

The map described Kerkuk, Mosul, Arbil and Nakhchivan as the Turkish territory.

The Turkish Education Ministry demanded to withdraw the map from sale and secondary school.

By Ilham Ahmed March 21, 2018

RAQQA, Syria — A few days before Anna Campbell was killed in Syria by a Turkish missile on March 15, she called my office in Raqqa. Anna, a 26-year-old British feminist who had come to my country in May 2017 to fight alongside Syrian Democratic Forces in northern Syria, was begging to go to Afrin, a Kurdish-controlled city that Turkish forces were on the verge of seizing after a brutal two-month offensive.

Her military commanders in the Kurdish Women's Protection Units — the all-female army known as the Y.P.J. — were not allowing her to go, arguing that a Western woman would be a particular target for Turkey and the radical jihadist groups it is backing. But Anna was insistent.

“My government and the Western world left you alone to face the second largest army in NATO,” she said. “I won't abandon you.”

“We need you here,” I told her. “We need you to get our story out to the British media.”

“My country gave you nothing but words,” she replied. “I want to give you action.”

[SUMMARY OF THE PARIS PRESS CONFERENCE] After the meeting today between French president E.Macron, his Army commander & Rojava reps.

The image shows a screenshot of three tweets from the account 'IC Afrin Resist' (@ICafrinresist). Each tweet is preceded by a circular profile picture containing the word 'AFRIN' in white capital letters on a dark red background. The tweets are arranged vertically and separated by thin vertical lines. The first tweet is a summary of a Paris press conference, mentioning French President E. Macron, his army commander Amiral Roger, and representatives of the Democratic Federation of Northern Syria. It includes engagement icons for replies (1), retweets (10), likes (1), and a share icon. The second tweet lists three bullet points: France will send new troops to Syria, they will be stationed in Manbij, and France will provide humanitarian and medical help to refugees in Afrin. It has 1 reply, 17 retweets, and 14 likes. The third tweet states that a direct connection between French diplomacy and the Federation is now established, that this cooperation concerns the whole N-S Federation, and that the French ambassador in Ankara shared these decisions with Turkish authorities. It has 1 reply, 17 retweets, and 14 likes.

Statement by Tabqa Civil Council regarding Turkey Cutting of the flow of the Euphrates, causing very low water levels & problems.

As a result of the aggressive practices carried out by Turkey against the Syrian people to reduce the flow of water to Syria, and the consequent damage to the interests of the people in Syria.

The Economic Committee of Tabqa civil Council issued a statement condemning this aggression. The statement was read by Ahmed Sulaiman, a member of the Joint Presidency of the Economic Committee.

The Directorate of Electricity in Tabqa and the efforts of its employees and in coordination with the administration of the Euphrates Dam, the completion of all maintenance work in the transformers and the electricity network in Tabqa.

And that the reason for the power outages and rationing for long hours is due to the low level of water in the lakes behind dams which are the main source of electricity supply, because of the unjust decision and the insistence of the Turkish fascist regime to cut off the Euphrates River.

This makes us stand on this site and in front of all the media to reach our vote. Our facilities, projects and daily lives are in jeopardy because of Turkey's cut-off and reduction of water. All international organizations and bodies must shoulder their responsibilities for the aggressive actions of Turkey.

Obama's decision to withdraw American military forces from Iraq

Erdogan will revive the Turkish genocidal tradition

- Should American personnel be removed from Syria, President Erdogan will be able to use his tanks and airplanes to revive the Turkish genocidal tradition by expelling the Syrian Kurds from their towns and villages along the entire border with Turkey. These are the same Kurds -- remember Kobani? -- who drove out ISIS from its Syrian "caliphate" and enabled other Syrians to regain their freedom and return to their own homes.
- In early February, the Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesman begged Turkey to cease its assault on Afrin, claiming -- truly enough -- that "the continuation of Turkey's military operation will facilitate the return of instability and terrorism to Syria." Indeed, deprived of American protection, the Kurds will hardly find anyone else willing to rescue them apart from Iran. If that happens, the Kurds will reward Iranians with same loyalty and devotion that they showed hitherto to Americans. Understandably, since they will owe their lives and homes to Iran, not to the United States.
- Even if the implications of the massacre in Afrin were not so clearly evident, President Trump should remember the worst mistake of Obama's presidency in the area. This was Obama's precipitous and petulant decision to withdraw residual American military forces from Iraq. So, Mr. Trump, we beg and urge you not to copy Obama, who made his big mistake and reversed it, but to reverse your mistake before you make it.

Increasingly preoccupied as he is with his dream of restoring the Ottoman caliphate, Erdogan recently said: "We say at every opportunity we have that Syria, Iraq and other places in the geography [map] in our hearts are no different from our own homeland. We are struggling so that a foreign flag will not be waved anywhere where adhan [Islamic call to prayer in mosques] is recited."

That includes Greece.

URGENT CALL
Syrian Christians in NE - Syria Are at Risk of Extinction

The Syrian Military Council of Syria calls on our partners in the Global Coalition to ensure security and protection for religious and ethnic minorities living in North East Syria. ISIS is still a threat. Turkey's mercenary forces, who fought with al-Qaida and ISIS, are waiting to get the green light to move into Syria, so that they can kill all "infidels" of the region. That means Christians, Yazidi, Kurds, and other minorities.

We also ask the Global Coalition and NATO to reject the plan of Turkey or any other foreign country of the region, to enter the borders of NE - Syria, which are already secured against terrorists. Our SDF forces are already stationed on the front lines and together with the Global Coalition forces, such as France and the UK, we will be able to put an end to tyranny, individualism and dictatorship.

Do not abandon the hundreds of thousand IDPs, who found refuge in NE - Syria. Do not abandon our people, who united to stand for democracy, equality and tolerance in the midst of sectarianism and dictatorship. A debt is owed to all of our martyrs, who gave their lives to preserve the Syrian religion and culture that have suffered for religious and to remove the scourge of ISIS from the world, including your countries.

MY THAT FUCKING ERDOGAN THREAD

Lots of good, solid, & credible information about our best anti-ISIS allies, the Kurds.

<https://twitter.com/oldmandownther/status/958032288838766592>

I was on Twitter when the Kurdish people started tweeting to Centcom & every other U.S. political & military official they could find letting them know that Kobani was under attack from ISIS.

I watched as some of the brave Kurds stopped American built ISIS tanks they only way they could by carrying satchells of explosive up close to the tanks in virtual suicidal defensive operations.

I watched pictures of U.S. military planes flew overhead being tweeted at the very same time the Kurds were pleading with U.S. officials to stop ISIS from gaining a foothold in the city before it was too late.....TO NO AVAIL.

Over time I have learned much about Middle East politics because I'VE WATCHED all this and more.

I've come to love and respect the Kurdish people for being who they are, our most faithful anti-ISIS ground troop allies, & the multi-ethnic democracy featuring religious freedom they're trying to build in Syria or as they call it.... ROJAVA.

reuters.com/article/us-tur... Turkey is a NATO member that gets to designate journalists, academics, & Kurdish people as terrorists OFFICIALLY!

ISTANBUL (Reuters) - Turkey's highest court on Friday ruled the sentencing of nine academics for signing a letter in 2016 that called for an end to the conflict in the country's southeast amounted to a violation of their rights, state-owned Anadolu agency said.

The academics were accused of spreading terrorist propaganda for signing an open letter titled "We will not be a party to this crime!". It was published in January 2016 in reaction to months of fighting between the state and the outlawed Kurdistan Workers Party (PKK), after a 2-1/2-year ceasefire broke down in 2015.

After the ceasefire ended, the Turkish government had put large parts of the southeast under curfew and some largely Kurdish areas were bombarded by heavy weapons.

Who are the Kurds?

AN INTERVIEW WITH JOEY LAWRENCE

A new collection of photography captures the Kurdish struggle against ISIS – and their efforts to build a radically egalitarian society based on principles of peace and democracy.

The emptiness of Turkey's complaints against Syrian Kurds

washingtonexaminer.com/opinion/the-emptiness-of-turkeys-complaints-against-syrian-kurds

Turkey is LYING about the Kurds!

- The Kurdish zone in Syria is the most stable and secure region in the country.
- The Kurds almost single-handedly defeated al Qaeda and then the Islamic State at a time when both received support from the Turkish intelligence service and members of Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's family, if not Erdoğan himself. Kurdish forces allied with the United States when Turkey sought to undermine the U.S. position.
- Turkish intelligence is deeply flawed and politicized.
- Turkey's previous incursion into northern Syria ended in anti-Kurdish ethnic cleansing.

Putin manipulates Erdoğan, plays the Kurds, and weakens America ...washex.am/2PbLab8

Summoned by Russian President Vladimir Putin, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan was in Sochi, Russia, on Tuesday. In a communiqué following the meeting, the two leaders agreed that Russian forces would supervise a Kurdish withdrawal from an area of northern Syria contested by Turkish forces.

But that's just the paper headline. This is a big win for Putin.

While the ceasefire will generally be on pro-Turkish terms, it will further suck the NATO member state into Moscow's orbit. Putin will force the Kurds to choose between annihilation and submission under a condition of relative but not total independence (the Kurdish energy economy will go to Syrian dictator Bashar Assad and Russia). In these outcomes, Putin will further diminish American credibility while strengthening his economic and military hand in the Middle East.

To be clear, this will not be good for America.

"Erdoğan: "With my dear friend Putin, we will discuss the current situation . . ."

At the airport in Ankara, before he left for Russia, Erdogan said something almost touching: “With my dear friend Putin, we will discuss the current situation . . .”

It is a new world, yes, one that some Americans like, a lot, and one that others of us think is ominous. Last year, after his latest fraudulent election, Erdogan staged his latest inauguration. The list of attendees was instructive, and predictable: Medvedev of Russia (standing in for Putin). Orbán of Hungary. Maduro of Venezuela.

Maduro pronounced Erdogan a “leader of the new multi-polar world” — which is accurate.

The year before, Orbán had said, “We all sense — it’s in the air — that the world is in the process of a substantial realignment.” He was meeting with Putin — who hailed Hungary as an “important and reliable partner for Russia in Europe.”

That is certainly true.

Erdogan Just Keeps Dunking on Trump

bloomberg.com/opinion/articl

He's gotten everything he wanted

- He got a green light from President Donald Trump to take over Kurdish parts of Syria;
- He trashed a ludicrous letter from Trump warning him not to be a “tough guy”;
- He got a “cease-fire” deal from Trump giving him everything he wanted;
- He broke that agreement and resumed attacking Kurds within hours of its signing;
- And for one final highlight-reel dunk on Trump, he warned of consequences for that “tough guy” letter.

Truly a fortnight for the ages. It has not exactly been a romp in Hef’s Grotto for Trump, on the other hand, who has been utterly humiliated by Erdogan at every turn, writes Eli Lake.

The latest pathetic Turkish social campaign is to list attacks by ISIS in Turkey so that we shouldn't think of why ISIS leaders were living in Turkish controlled areas.

What they don't tell you that is that most of those targeted by ISIS in Turkey were Kurds and pro YPG..

Text: H.Res.296 — 116th Congress (2019-2020)

H.Res.296 - Affirming the United States record on the Armenian Genocide.

H. Res. 296

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

October 29, 2019.

Whereas the United States has a proud history of recognizing and condemning the Armenian Genocide, the killing of 1.5 million Armenians by the Ottoman Empire from 1915 to 1923, and providing relief to the survivors of the campaign of genocide against Armenians, Greeks, Assyrians, Chaldeans, Syrians, Arameans, Maronites, and other Christians;

Whereas the Honorable Henry Morgenthau, United States Ambassador to the Ottoman Empire from 1913 to 1916, organized and led protests by officials of many countries against what he described as the empire's "campaign of race extermination", and was instructed on July 16, 1915, by United States Secretary of State Robert Lansing that the "Department approves your procedure * * * to stop Armenian persecution";

Whereas President Woodrow Wilson encouraged the formation of the Near East Relief, chartered by an Act of Congress, which raised $116,000,000 (over $2,500,000,000 in 2019 dollars) between 1915 and 1930, and the Senate adopted resolutions condemning these massacres;

Whereas Raphael Lemkin, who coined the term "genocide" in 1944, and who was the earliest proponent of the United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide, invoked the Armenian case as a definitive example of genocide in the 20th century;

Whereas, as displayed in the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Adolf Hitler, on ordering his military commanders to attack Poland without provocation in 1939, dismissed objections by saying "[w]ho, after all, speaks today of the annihilation of the Armenians?", setting the stage for the Holocaust;

Whereas the United States has officially recognized the Armenian Genocide, through the United States Government's May 28, 1951, written statement to the International Court of Justice regarding the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, through President Ronald Reagan's Proclamation No. 4838 on April 22, 1981, and by House Joint Resolution 148, adopted on April 8, 1975, and House Joint Resolution 247, adopted on September 10, 1984; and

Whereas the Elie Wiesel Genocide and Atrocities Prevention Act of 2018 (Public Law 115-441) establishes that atrocities prevention represents a United States national interest, and affirms that it is the policy of the United States to pursue a United States Government-wide strategy to identify, prevent, and respond to the risk of atrocities by "strengthening diplomatic response and the effective use of foreign assistance to support appropriate transitional justice measures, including criminal accountability, for past atrocities": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that it is the policy of the United States to—

- (1) commemorate the Armenian Genocide through official recognition and remembrance;
- (2) reject efforts to enlist, engage, or otherwise associate the United States Government with denial of the Armenian Genocide or any other genocide; and
- (3) encourage education and public understanding of the facts of the Armenian Genocide, including the United States role in the humanitarian relief effort, and the relevance of the Armenian Genocide to modern-day crimes against humanity.

Attest:

Clerk.

US is now covering for Turkey after being fired at.

How deep up Turkey's ass will the US be forced to crawl? What's the point of having the greatest military on earth if you then just kowtow to authoritarians like Erdogan?

Been very disappointing to watch this debasement.
