

Country Project

Name:

Pick any country (except America)

Country:

-You will be presenting this information through Google Slides.

-Pictures MUST be included

-All information on the rubric must be included.

If you are looking up a term please make sure to search the term and put AP Human Geography after it. Otherwise you may get incorrect information.

- Please list all of your sources for each slide in the “Notes” section (bottom white box) of that slide

-If you have any issues please let me know ASAP. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE LAST MINUTE!

Unit 1 Requirements

- A reference and thematic map of your country
  - the thematic map can show any type of data

(Thematic Map Examples)

- Identify any distinct regions with your country → identify what type of region they are and a brief explanation
- Briefly explain the differences between Formal Regions, Functional Regions, and Vernacular(Perceptual Regions) Give an example of each of these within your country.

Unit 2 Requirements

- The three measures of population density → arithmetic, physiological, agricultural
  - What do these measurements reveal about your country?
- Population statistics → CBR, CDR, IMR, NIR, TFR
- pro-natalist, anti-natalist, or no policy
- migration trends within your country
- Push and pull factors of your country
- refugees, IDP, or asylum seekers? - need more here

Unit 3 Requirements

Culture Requirements

- Location of your country on a global map/continent map
- Is the dominant culture in your country folk or pop? Provide examples of how you know this to be true.

- What are some key components of the culture of your country? Think traditions, taboos, celebrities, music, clothing, housing styles, any component of culture.
- Food □ What types of food are popular in your country? Why?

Language Requirements

- What is the official language of your country? Are there other languages that are commonly spoken as well?
  - If your country does not have an official language, use the most common language spoken.
- Break down the language tree for the dominant language □ family, branch, group, language, and dialect (if you can)
  - How did this language diffuse to your country □ origination of the family/branch

Religion Requirements

- What is the dominant religion in your country? Does it have an official religion?
- Ethnic or universalizing religion?
- Are there other religions in your country besides the dominant one?
- Brief history of the religion and how it diffused to your country.
  - Origin, diffusion, distribution, disposal of the dead, sacred spaces, etc.
- Are there any religious conflicts taking place within your country?

Unit 4 Requirements

- When was your country created/established?
- What type of political entity is your country?
  - nation-state, state, multi-ethnic state, multinational state
- Unitary or federal state?
- What supranational organizations is your country a part of?

Unit 5 Requirements

- What is the primary type of agriculture that takes place in your country? Is this type of agriculture commercial or subsistence?
- Does your country have any agricultural hearths?
- What are the major crops that your country imports? Exports?

Unit 6 Requirements

- What is the largest city in your country? Is it a primate city or does it follow the rank-size rule? Or is it neither in your opinion. Be sure to explain.
- Any mega or meta cities in your country? Global cities?
- Squatter settlements? Suburban sprawl?

Unit 7 Requirements

- Approximately when did your country industrialize?

- Is your country a core, semi-periphery, or peripheral country? How can you tell?
  - What do these measures tell us about your country? Any special economic zones (SPZ), free-trade zones, or export-processing zones (EPZ) in your country?
- Sustainable development within your country? Ecotourism?
  -

EXTRA STUFF(Optional, can include if you want)

- Popular music in your country
- Celebrities from your country
- Random/fun/little known facts about your country
- Any other information you find interesting or relevant about your country that you have not already included