

CURRENT OPEN POSITIONS

Readathon Lead Shadow (1 open position)

The Readathon Lead Shadow will work directly alongside Janelle Henry and Anne-Marie Tasto, as well as the existing parent-led Readathon team, to learn the ropes of planning and running the school's annual Readathon (Jan 6–Feb 3, 2026). After the year of shadowing, this person will serve as co-lead with Janelle Henry for Readathon 2027. This role supports the Readathon's mission of fostering a love of reading while raising funds for essential PTO-backed programs. If interested please contact: president@ncpto.org

Readathon Committee (3-5 open positions)

Help bring our PTO's biggest fundraiser and celebration of reading to life. Committee members support with planning fun events, organizing prizes, and keeping families engaged throughout January. It's a rewarding way to foster a love of reading and make a big impact on our school community! If interested please contact: president@ncpto.org

Calling All Video Editors! - Readathon

The Readathon team is looking for someone with video producing/editing skills to help us create and polish our annual Readathon video. It's a short-term gig that makes a big impact. Please reach out to president@ncpto.org.

Variety Show Lead (1 open position)

The Variety Show is a treasured community event that allows students to shine and brings families together to celebrate creativity and school spirit. Help bring the magic of our annual Variety Show to life! The Variety Show Lead plans and coordinates all aspects of the event from December–March, including rehearsals, family communications, and show production (lighting, music, line-up, and more). A fun and rewarding role that makes a big impact on our school community! If interested please contact: president@ncpto.org

Variety Show Committee (2-3 open positions)

Join the team that makes our annual Talent Show shine, help with rehearsals, family communication, and event logistics from December–March. If interested please contact: president@ncpto.org
