

You can form your own companies under these conditions:

1. Be hyper-inclusive - Go out of your way to make sure everyone is welcomed into and part of a group. This needs to be student-led. Every student needs to be invited to join a team. They might not accept, but they should be invited.

2. Numbers - The minimum company size is one person and the maximum is eight.

3. Companies - There can only be twelve total companies per semester.

 There is only so much potential investor funding

 All team responsibilities will be shared, but you will have areas you focus on or specialize in
