

The Secret of Jelly Mountain by Des Hunt

Walt: understand more sophisticated texts and to recognise the underlying themes within.

Chapters 3-4

Start with proper sentences please.

	QUESTIONS
1.	How do Jessy and Jason do their schoolwork?
	Jessy and Jason complete their school work in their garage using video conference gear. The garage is set up like a classroom with desks whiteboards and more.
2.	Where is their schoolroom and what is VC gear?
	Their schoolroom is ... is set up in their garage it has shelves desks tables and chairs also white board. VC gear is... video conferencing gear is like skype or face time they video a lesson so Jessy and Jason can learn to.
3.	Who is Joanne Petherbridge?
	Doctor Joanne Petherbridge is the head of the TESI (The Endangered Species Institute)
4.	Who is George?
	George is a tuatara from the university of Auckland he is an endangered male.
5.	What do the twins learn about him?
	The twins learn about him that he is a male and an endangered species also that male tuataras hatch in hot weather and female tuataras hatch in cold weather.
6.	Who does the diary Jessy finds belong to?
	The diary that Jessy found belongs to Maria Stockwell.
7.	What do they learn about her when they start reading the diary?
	That her father left her to go to war and she cut out an old army photo and put it in a locket and she would not take off the locket until her father comes back.
8.	What does Jason suddenly realise about the clay figures?
	Jason suddenly realises that on the bottom of the clay figures it was not a WS it was a MS. So he thought it was Maria Stockwell's grave.
9.	What does the twins' father think about Joanne Petherbridge's beliefs?
	The twins' father thinks that humans don't do anything wrong but the doctor Joanne Petherbridge thinks humans are doing things wrong because of global warming and climate change and Jessy also believes that it is true. Which makes their dad angry.
10.	What do they get for their birthday? How do they feel about it?
	The twins get a quad bike for their birthday they felt very happy and surprised.
11.	Why does he feel like a hypocrite for accepting it?
	Jason felt like a hypocrite because he believed in global warming and he was just adding to it with the quad bikes that burn heaps of fuel.
12.	Using a laptop investigate the Huia . Use the Main Ideas map to sort your information. https://docs.google.com/drawings/d/15bqCZRO6au78xv1wBS13Ne4xMcmV431IzASkz9mcoM/edit

