We also walked along past a 5 or 6 star hotel, not dressed smartly, and the doorman invited us in to have a look around. I was impressed and will never forget that. See what first impressions can do for you

hi Nigel

Me to Everyone (10:38)

data in camp is a problem, but people are working on that night and day

if anyone has to leave we can keep in touch afterwards by all means nigelstonhamcoaching@gmail.com

oh, you all know that, sorry

Juliet Nakawooya to Me (Direct Message) (10:40)

Thanks Nigel for mediating this.

Me to Everyone (10:41)

i am wondering here whether someone like Juliet could become a brand ambassador to earn income for her non profit in Uganda

Me to Everyone (10:41)

to train sewing etc, and to build internet access for students

NRC KAKUMA 4 to Everyone (10:41)

We do access internet from UNHCR NGO's set up centers. like NRC,DRC, SAVIC and others.

Me to Everyone (10:42)

1. quality control... (it looks a great model)

Dr. Hc Nikki De Pina to Everyone (10:42)

interesting , not quite understanding the model but will request Nigel to share. where is your head office based ?

Me to Everyone (10:43)

i hope there is NO office, since that is an overhead...

Dr. Hc Nikki De Pina to Everyone (10:43)

😊 true

Me to Everyone (10:43)

but i expect there is.

i am working to get 1400 home offices in Kakuma by this afternoon, with a wifi hotspot for them and their neighbours...

Juliet Nakawooya to Everyone (10:44)

Thank you Nigel for the compliment. I would love to. This was a great introduction for us to get to know this, thanks for the effort.

I still have to make a wider review about this.

NRC KAKUMA 4 to Everyone (10:47)

that is so impressive Nigel it is really challenging here, sometimes after we left home from centers some cant connect to fast internet.

Me to Everyone (10:51)

my friend Joshua in Uganda takes his phone and makes it a hotspot, when he travels, so hthat locals can share his data bundle to others. thats how i envision the 1400 hotspots. we have piloted a similar model in Kakuma over the last 2 years with PDRI a peace initiative there

Thank you all...

Austrians have an inclination to spend 15 minutes saying hello and 15 minutes saying goodbye, which is trick in a half hour meeting... :-) I have kept some of my personal attributes alive...

Speedy hello, connect fast and deep, work out who connects and who not, and say goodbye briskly but politely. And then chat over the ether, a beer or coffee/wine... :-)
