

<Name>

<Professor>

<Subject>

<Due Date>

Progressive Reform Society

US.2.11.5 Presentation

- Entertainment at the Turn of the Century
 -
- Motivations for New Entertainment
 - Why do we want entertainment?
 -
- Vaudeville
 -
- Minstrel Shows
 -
- Movies
 -
 -
 - Great Train Robbery \(movie link here\)
 - Movies Grow
 -
- Circus
 -
 -
 - Advance men-
 - Printed Advertisements-
 - Train comes in → Tent goes up → Parade → Paid performance
- Amusement Parks
 -
 - Trolleys-
 -
 -
 -
 - What is there to do at an amusement park?
- Sports
 -
 -

- Baseball
 - [redacted]
- Basketball
 - [redacted]
- Football
 - [redacted]
- Women in Sports
 - Biking- [redacted]
 - Basketball- [redacted]
 - Tennis, gymnastics, ice skating and swimming
- Recreational Reading
 - Newspapers
 - New features including comics, sport sections, Sunday editions, women's pages, stories, and graphic pictures.
 - Increased readership from [redacted] million to [redacted] million over 30 years.
 - Competition between newspaper companies lead to reporters doing whatever they could to sell more papers.
 - Lead to yellow journalism- [redacted]
 - Magazines and Popular Fiction
 - Congressional law lowered the cost of postage for periodicals lead to increase of Magazines
 - Magazines of the early 1900's included stories about average American desires and determination to succeed.
 - [redacted] stories
 - Examples of Recreational reading included:
 1. [redacted]
 - How do these compare to modern magazines?
 1. [redacted]
- Music
 - Previous musical styles included marching band and classical, as well as some folk songs.
 - New genres of music began to form.
 1. Negro Spiritual- [redacted]
 2. Ragtime- [redacted]
 3. Jazz- [redacted]
 - New Music Technology
 - Player Piano- [redacted]
 - Phonograph- [redacted]

Homework: Find a modern song that you feel represents the culture of today. Write a summary of how you feel that song represents your culture. Include examples from the lyrics.

HW Rubric

Completed Each Task:

4 Student completed all tasks assigned effectively ▾

Effort Displayed

4 Student response to tasks demonstrated an effort beyond expectations ▾

Use of Lesson Concepts

4 Student integrated and expanded upon the ideas of the lesson into their responses ▾