

Ok apparently I'm put in a position where I have to talk about Ariadne, the admin of the instance treehouse.system, because it seems like she's seeking to engage in some very poorly attempted doxing. The attempt is going to be a failure, because she's coming to a very cliché conclusion. But I feel like I have to bring it up because she's directing this attempt at me, and it seems like she's doing it to discredit me across the kolektiva.social defederation. And this appears an attempt to target eightpoint through me.

Multiple insider sources from their discord who have been too afraid of these people to confront them directly because of their dangerous behavior have been forwarding me messages from their discord and their plans to attack me and through me eightpoint.app as a means to discredit us.

Whisper campaigns have been attempting to paint me as a person named Laurelai Bailey, and honestly, I don't know how many different people have to be accused of this before others stop throwing her name around at anyone they disagree with, but it's not true, I'm not Laurelai Bailey.

Their evidence...is the very rumors they have helped perpetuate.

The screenshot shows a Discord chat interface with a dark theme. At the top, a user named 'Ariadne' with a pink deer avatar sends a message at 04:40. The message says 'ok' followed by 'got your smoking gun because laurelais pals fucked their opsec' and a blue link to a silverheart.social profile. Below this is a screenshot of a tweet from 'BrimstoneCrow' on silverheart.social. The tweet text mentions '@terio@kolektiva.social' and '@LeftistLucas@kolektiva.social' and discusses a migration. At the bottom of the screenshot, another user 'Blåhaj Blast' with a pink fox avatar sends a message at 04:41 saying 'I've been working this story for two years and then they, and then they just tweet it!'

People on akko.disqordia.space spread this rumor that got spread around on kolektiva which BrimstoneCrow assumed was true by mistake. So they are citing the very rumors these people helped push.

That's as Adrienne says her "smoking gun".

This is what is called the woozle effect

As for Eris herself here she is celebrating suicide baiting with open nazis.

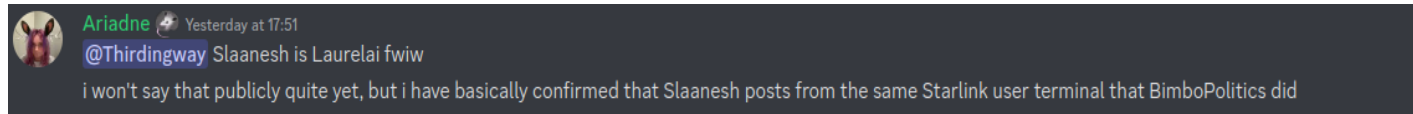

I have seen these very same woozle tactics from the KYLR crowd which @RiotLinguistics@kolektiva.social belongs to and she started spreading these rumors on twitter starting by saying I was somehow friends with Laurelai, also not true. See below screencap.

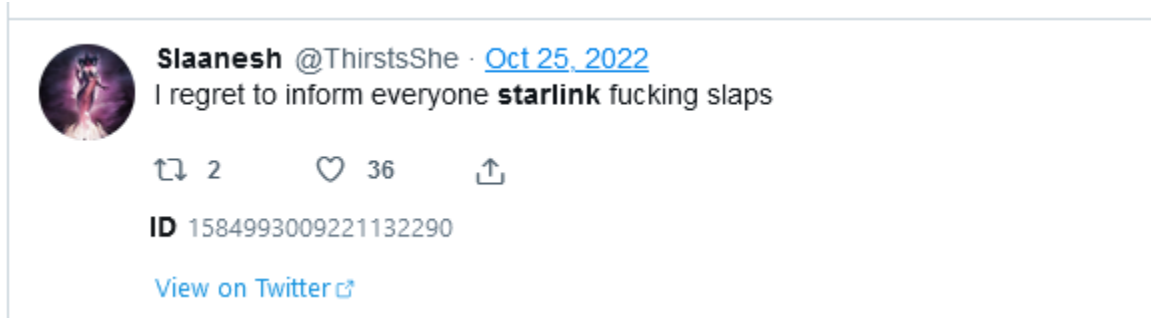

And when that didn't stick apparently they escalated into saying I was her through Eris of akko.disqordia.space. After the first time I criticized RiotLinguists's article on KYLR for generating a woozle effect of self referencing nonsense, she later comes after me with more self referencing nonsense.

More nonsense

While I do have starlink i got it in october and posted about it in october

From what I can tell bimbo politics/Laurelai went offline last feb/march or so. So even if we both did have starlink which would be funny, she would have had to have it long before I got it. Which just shows Adrienne is lying to the people there. Why? I don't know. I feel bad for the users of anna@witches.lives's personal discord as some of them are afraid of Adrienne, enough to leak this to me due to how far out of left field she is spiraling on this nonsense. I had DM's from four different people outing this latest attempt in one way or another.

So We have adrienne sourcing her so called smoking gun from the rumors Eris of akko.disqordia.space created and circulated on kolektiva.socia from the rumors that RiotLinguistics@kolektiva.social created on twitter. Adrienne lying about her proof from some kind of starlink connection that can't exist. Anna allows all of this on her discord. Multiple users leaking their plans because of how unethical this behavior is. I've kept my cards close to my chest to protect my sources until now but they have been growing in number and its safer to acknowledge they exist as discontent rises internally there. If you are from there and you are reading this you don't have to live like this. You don't have to live under the threat of smear campaigns if you dissent.

You can go to literally any other instance and make friends there. People will accept you.

Even if you have done some questionable things under their banner, I'm sure people are more forgiving than you think they are and I know some of you might have been caught up in the nonsense web they have been spinning. Maybe you believed them. I understand what that's like. Maybe you didn't know what Adrienne was like. I get that too. Nobody is going to be mad at you for getting fooled by someone. It's a very human thing to have happen.

This entire cluster of people simply cannot let it go that i defederated kolektiva.social over them spreading rumors from kiwifarms. Even if you don't agree with my conclusion on defederating them I implore you to look at the behavior I am highlighting here. The lying, the fabricated evidence, the growing number of people within their own ranks who are leaking their plans and behind a lock posts attempting to organize this smear campaign.

If they would do this to me, they would do it to anyone who questions or provokes them. They only got unlucky enough to have people within their ranks who are people of conscience who did the honorable thing of questioning their narrative and exposing them.
