
Personal Data Sheet - Part 1

(NOTE: Students should gather this information before leaving home. It needs to be guarded carefully. Parents may want to keep a copy, too.

Basic Information

Your Full Name:

Date of Birth:

Place of Birth (city, state/province, country):

Location of your birth certificate:

Citizenship country ID (i.e. in the US - Social Security #):

Passport #:

Driver's License #:

I.D. of host country where resident:

Location of your secondary school records:

Blood type:

Military service registration (i.e., in the US, the Selective Service #):

Date and place of baptism:

Names and numbers of credit cards/debit cards:

Bank account numbers:

Electronic transfer apps set-up (i.e., Zelle, Venmo, etc.)

Schooling

List schools attended. Begin with primary schools, giving dates attended, addresses, special activities or courses of study, and any special awards won or degrees earned.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

Health history

Childhood diseases you have had (note dates):

Vaccination records

Be sure to have your official health record—International Certificate of Vaccination
Include any special vaccines you have had due to the host country(ies) you have lived in.

Diseases known to run in the family (such as diabetes, heart disease, cancer, etc.)

Contact Information

Your present address and telephone number:

Permanent address:

Address and phone # of people to notify in case of emergency:

Personal Data Sheet – Part 2

Guard this information carefully.

Employment:

For each job, list the name of the company, name of supervisor, address, dates worked, hourly wage, responsibilities, and reasons you left.

1.

2.

3.

4.

Parents:

Father's full name:

Date and place of birth:

Mother's maiden name:

Date and place of birth:

Parents' approximate annual income:

Parents' contact information

Email:

Phone / WhatsApp / Signal:

Address:

Reference/Recommendations

Names and addresses of people who know you well enough to write a letter of reference or recommendation.

...to help you get a JOB:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

...for a SCHOLARSHIP based on ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

...for a SCHOLARSHIP based on SPIRITUAL MATURITY:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Hobbies, Interests, and Special Abilities: