

Towny rules

1. Tampering with claimed plots without permission, including but not limited to, exploding tnt, moving entities, opening inventories, etc.
2. No spamming, advertising, begging, harassment, insults, excessive swearing, or offensive attacks towards other players. (No racist, sexist, or discriminatory comments or attacks).
3. No racism, sexism, discrimination, or other offensive attacks towards other players in chat.
4. Do not discuss any controversial, inappropriate, or hateful topics in the global chat.
5. Do not build any inappropriate builds, symbols, words, etc. Even if this is inside your claim or town, it is still not allowed and will be removed.
6. No cheating or hacking, as well as abusing any exploits or bugs you may find. (Always report bugs to a staff member). This includes the sharing, promotion, or advertisement of these things as well. No using any mods that give an unfair gameplay advantage. Always check with staff if you aren't sure if a specific mod is allowed.
7. No forms of impersonation of players will be tolerated. The only exception is if you are given permission by the person you are trying to impersonate.
8. Creating a death trap for players/teleporting players maliciously in an attempt to kill them/creating an unsafe or deathtrap warp.
9. Doing /sethome at a player's base without permission.
10. If a player is kicked from the town against their will (such as by the mayor or the inability to pay taxes), the mayor has to grant them access to their builds/chests/items.
11. Attempting to bypass pvp permissions by use of lava, fire, or other ways is not allowed.
12. No spam killing players without their permission.
13. No evading punishments. If you would like to dispute a punishment, talk to a staff member or fill out a ban appeal. Do not join on an alt to try to appeal as this will lead to a greater punishment.
14. No using alts or other accounts on the server unless you are given explicit permission from a staff member.
15. No creating any form of lag machine on any server. This includes any machines that aren't intentionally causing lag, such as automatic farms. Staff members have the right to remove any machines that are causing lag.
16. Be respectful to all players and staff. If you have an issue, take it up with a staff member, don't make an issue worse. Do not waste the time of or lie to a staff member or bother players.
