The 7 Day Timeline of God

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." (Genesis 1:1)

"In the Beginning", many good Christian Theologians have pondered the meaning of the "The beginning".

And for good reason, what beginning is God referring to here? God has no beginning, so God must be referring to the beginning of his Creation, the first thing he created. That is what many have concluded anyway, and I must agree with them, because it would seem that there is no other alternative.

Some have argued that God refers to the Beginning of time, because only when time exists can there be a beginning to anything. Which is true, having a beginning to something necessitates the existence of time in order for that thing to begin in the first place.

So, if time is indeed the "beginning" being spoken of here, then that would mean that time was the first thing that God created...but it says that he "Created the Heaven and the Earth" in the beginning, so how could one say that he created time before that? Well, I would say that it is implied in the text, God created the Heaven and the earth in the beginning of time, meaning that God had already created time.

We as humans do not really understand time or how it works, one would have to be outside of time in order to observe time and understand it completely.

I would assume that God created time for the sake of his creatures, since we are not like God, and we do not exist in the past, present and future simultaneously. God had to create a means by which his creatures could navigate through the universe and have a sense of what is happening at that given moment.

Without time, I imagine that humans would be quite helpless and confused, and probably could not exist the way we do now. Only God can comprehend all things at once, thus, he needed to create a filter through which his creation could live and understand what they are experiencing in the present moment.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Even though most of us would agree that time is a hassle, and a burden that we could very much do without, I think it is actually a fundamental necessity for human life to exist. I am not certain that any man could make the argument that Adam and Eve were not existing with a sense of time, because the Sun, the Moon, and Stars existed to give them an idea of time passing.

Day and night would have still existed, and thus time did in fact exist before the fall of man.

Time did not originate at the fall of man, we only became fully aware of time at the fall of man, due to our mortality and short lives.

God used 24 hour periods to recreate our world into a habitable planet. Time existed before mankind did.

Not only did Time originate before the fall of man, it did not originate at the creation of man either, because we see God created for 5 days prior to the creation of man. Thus, time is and always will be a part of God's creation.

You may be wondering why I am making this argument about time in the first place, that is because I am going to be discussing the importance of time to God and his plan for mankind. Time was God's first priority when creating mankind, he had planned out the amount of time that we would exist on this planet before he even recreated it for us. We are not just monkeys running around this small ball of water and mud until we pass into a black hole or an asteroid wipes us out. God has had everything planned out from the beginning. He set a time limit, a very specific and exact amount of time that we humans would exist in this sinful world.

The reason for this study is to reveal that hidden truth to you, so that you may be fully prepared and aware of what God has planned for us in the very near future, and also for Eternity.

And with that being said, It is "Time" to begin.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Genesis 1:3-31- The 7 Days of Creation

"And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. ⁴ And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

⁶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. ⁷ And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. ⁸ And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

⁹ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. ¹⁰ And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. ¹¹ And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. ¹² And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good. ¹³ And the evening and the morning were the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: ¹⁵ And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. ¹⁶ And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. ¹⁷ And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸ And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And the evening and the morning were the fourth day. ²⁰ And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. ²¹ And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good. ²² And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. ²³ And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

²⁴ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so. ²⁵ And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

²⁶ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. ²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. ²⁸ And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

²⁹ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. ³⁰ And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so. ³¹ And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day."

(Genesis 1:3-31)

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 1

“And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. ⁴ And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.”

On the first day of God’s recreation of earth, he creates “light”. This is interesting, because there is no mention of God creating “darkness”, yet it exists here on the first day, before he created anything else.

*There is a very important explanation to this, you can learn about that in full detail in my Study on that here(Study), this study will be done shortly.
I will summarize briefly what this means:*

God creates light on the first day, it is the first thing he creates. The Darkness that is mentioned in this verse can actually be found in verse 2.

“And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.” (Genesis 1:2)

“Darkness” was already present in this universe before God came to recreate it. In order for Darkness to exist on this planet prior to God’s creation days found in the verses after this one, the earth must have existed prior to the world we live on now. Satan once ruled over the earth that existed prior to this one, until he fell into Sin, then all of creation fell into darkness with him. That is the reason for the darkness existing on the earth before God came and started his creation story for man. Darkness existed here on earth because the earth existed prior to God’s recreation of it. God came from his 3rd Heaven to repair this broken world, and create mankind. And if you recall, the light that God created, was the “Light of Men”(John 1:4-5). Now, I feel that the light created here in verse 3, is in fact the light of the Spirit of Life, the Spirit of God. I am not saying that he created the Spirit of God here, the Spirit of God is Eternal with no beginning. But I am saying that I believe he created the light of moral goodness and life in a world of Darkness and evil.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

There is a reason that he contrasts the light and the darkness here. We see the explanation in:

"Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness." (1 Thessalonians 5:5)

"And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day." (Gen. 1:5)

Notice the amazing similarities between this verse and verse 5 of Genesis!

Pretty incredible! This proves that the first day of creation mirrors the end of time, with the Light and darkness being divided/separated from each other.

The children of light shall be divided from the children of Darkness! This solidifies my theory that the first day of creation was in fact the creation of the Spirit of life and light. God created a means of salvation in the very first day, for "where there is life/light, there is hope"-Stephen Hawking

When God created the light, he effectively created the doorway to redemption and salvation for those imprisoned in a dark world of sin. God's first day of creation was a prophecy of the light that Jesus Christ would bring as the "Lamb slain from the foundation of the world".

The "Lamb slain from the foundation of the world"...hmm, sounds like God is trying to tell us that Jesus was prophesied as the light of the world from the foundation of the world if you ask me. From the literal foundation of the world(Luke 6:48)(1 Corin. 3:11); Jesus was the redeemer and the light!

So...what am I saying here exactly...? Well, if you are still not catching my drift, I am saying that Jesus was literally the Foundation of the World! The Cornerstone! The Rock upon which the World is established!

The light of the world IS the foundation of the world, Jesus IS the light of the world! Jesus is the light found in Gen. 1:3! This makes perfect sense based on other verses of scripture! The Light=Jesus; The darkness=Satan

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Darkness existed because Satan existed, Satan is the Father of lies, and sin, and death. The Darkness on the face of the earth was caused by Satan. And God brought light back into the world by founding it upon the sacrifice of Jesus Christ to bring redemption to the world. The Lamb Slain from the Foundation of the World is the light of the world!

Day 1 means 2 things:

1. Day 1=The Dividing of Light from Darkness

This is a prophecy of the final judgment of mankind, when the Sheep and the Goats are divided, but it is also a prophecy of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. Adam and Eve were prophesied to fall in the first day of creation. The dividing of Light from Dark=The discernment between Good and Evil, which Adam and Eve received after eating the Fruit of the tree.

Thus, the first day of creation was a prophecy of Adam and Eve knowing Good and evil, existing in the light and the dark.

2. Day 1=The promise of the Lamb Slain from the Foundation of the World

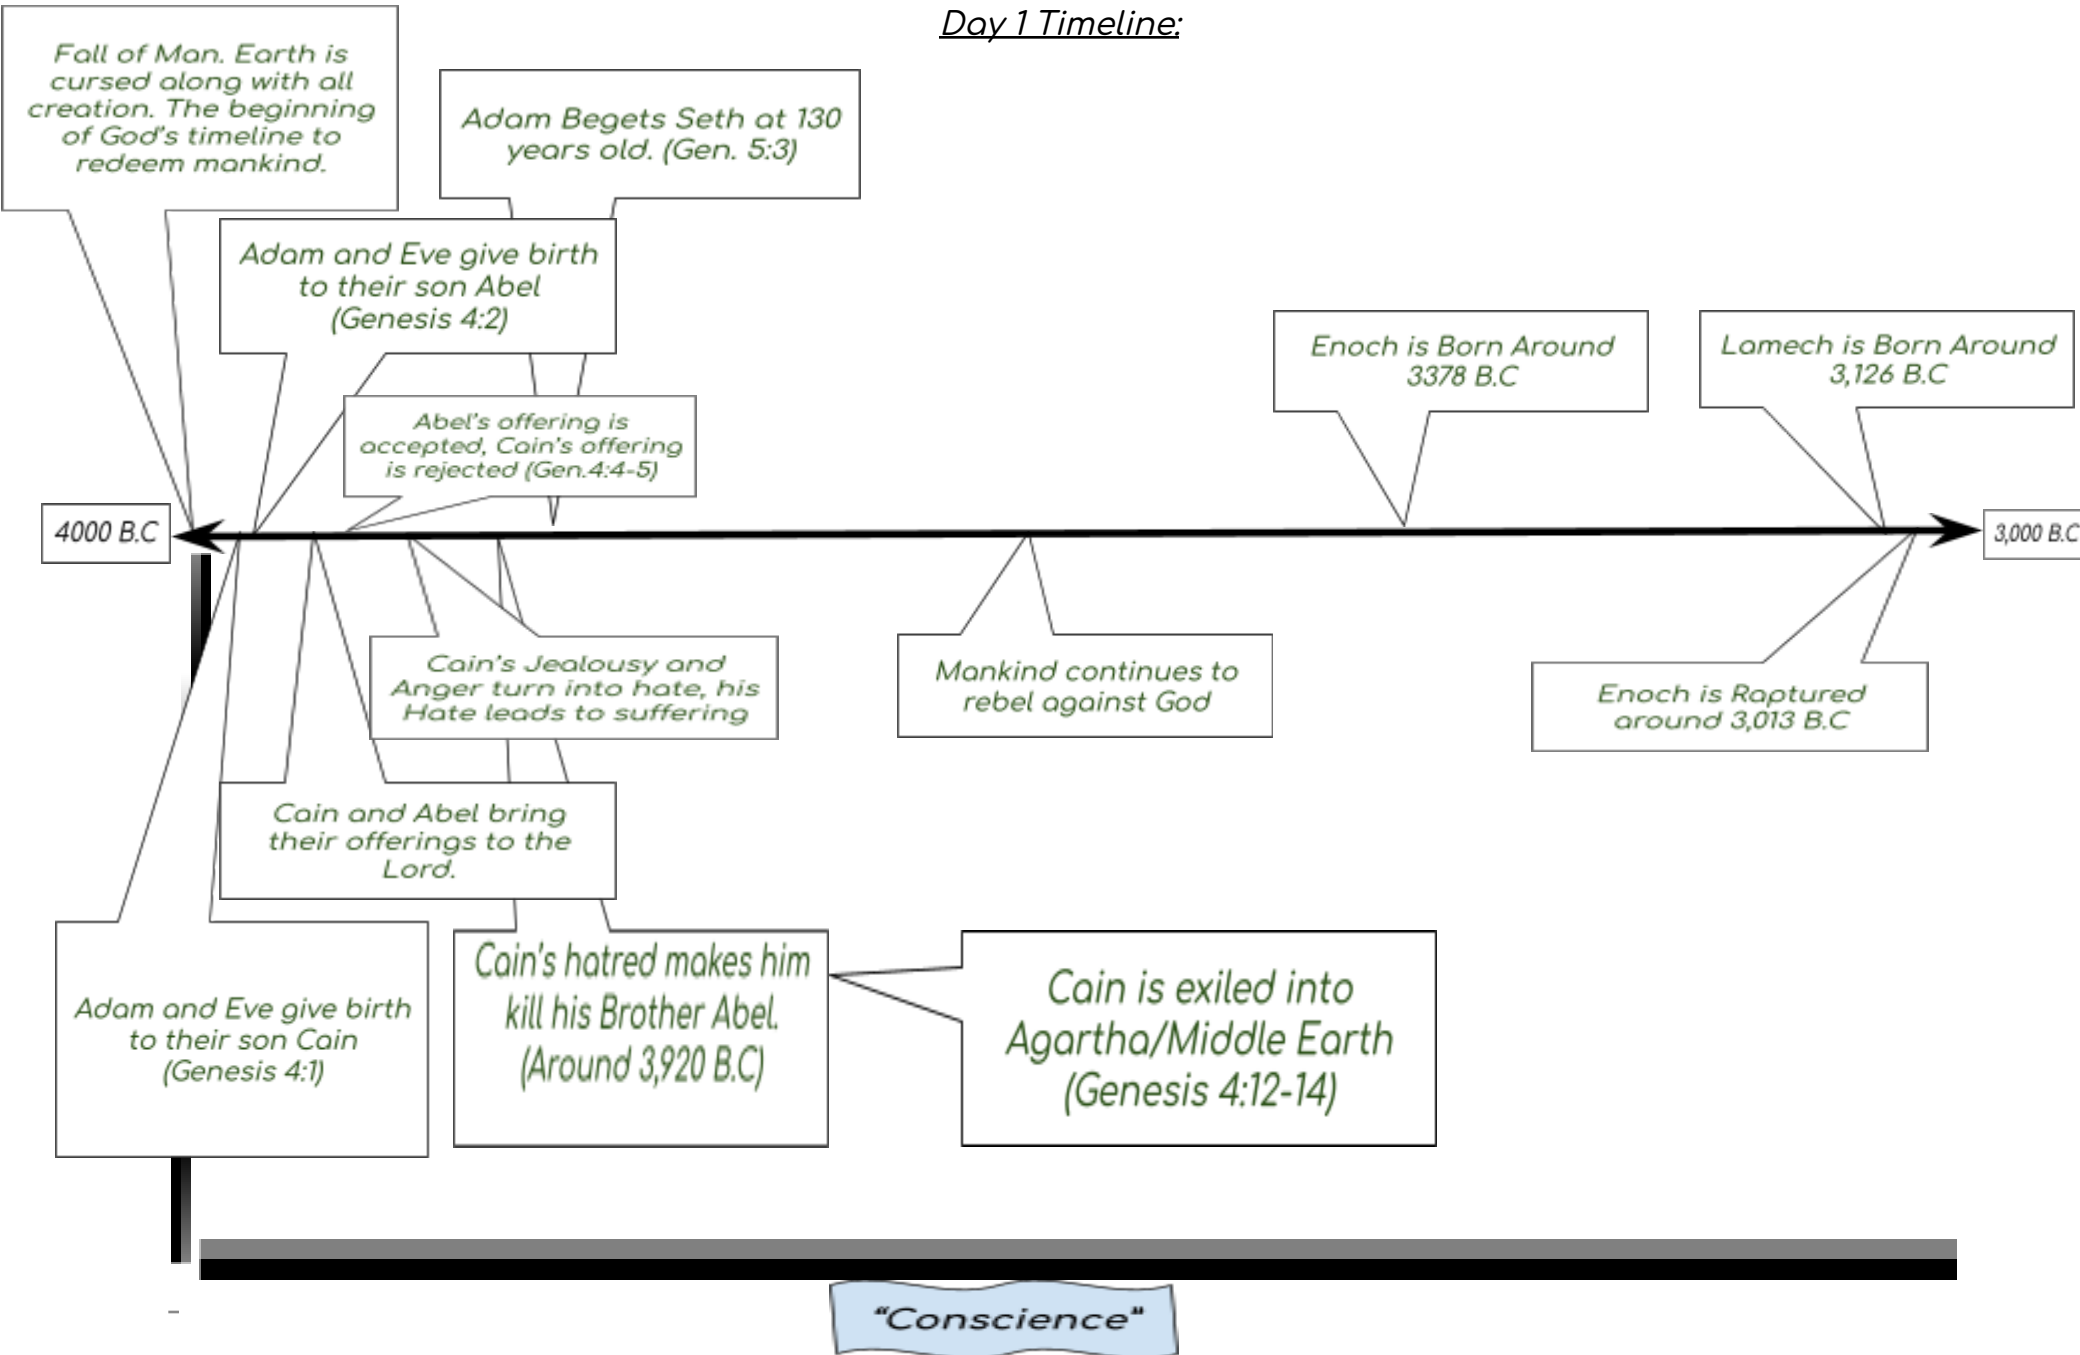

The light being created in a world of Darkness implies a means of redemption and light being given to those that seek it. It also implies that Jesus was literally the foundation of the world. This world was founded on the idea that Jesus would be the light of it, and bring redemption to those held in darkness.

The First day of creation represents the first 1000 years of human history, starting at the fall of man, which I believe is 4000 B.C, and leading up to 3000 B.C/the 2nd day.

During this "Dispensation" or Age, mankind becomes more and more aware of evil, and becomes more conscious of the consequences of sin. The first day ends in disaster, with mankind becoming defiled with fallen angels, and having evil thoughts 24/7. But, in each dispensation/Day, God has mercy on the righteous. In this case, Enoch was Raptured to Heaven around the very end of this first day, as a prophecy of the Rapture of the Church at the end of the Church Age.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 1 Timeline:

The 7 Day Timeline of God

As you can see, the first day is very eventful to start off with, but ends with Enoch being Raptured, and nothing much is mentioned beyond that. Mankind is reaching the point of no return around this time. One important thing to notice about the First day, is that Jesus gives Adam and Eve the Skin of a lamb for covering, as a prophecy of Christ's sacrifice and righteousness covering our sins; but also Jesus is represented in Abel's Sacrifice to God, which is why God is so satisfied and pleased with Abel's offering, and not Cain's, which represented the Jewish mindset of "Works" to please God.

The two offerings presented in this first day represent once again, the "Dividing of night and day", the separation of the "Children of the night" from the "Children of the day". One is works based, and seeks to please God with their own righteousness, foreshadowing the Jewish mindset; the other offering is based on humility, and faith; and it represents the need of a sacrifice to atone for one's sins.

One other thing I wanted to reveal to you while on this topic, is that Cain was actually cast out from the "Face of the earth", and was forced into exile as a fugitive "In the earth". I highlighted this in my timeline, but I figured it would help to clear this up for anyone that may be confused. The Earth is actually Hollow, and there is an entire World thriving beneath our feet. This is where the Garden of Eden is located, as well as Abraham's Bosom, and Sheol/Hell.

The Nephilim took refuge in Middle earth during the flood, which is how they survived and returned to the surface later on. There are many passages of Scripture to prove this, but you can study this topic here, in my "Hollow Earth" study. I will now list the Genealogies of the First day:

Day 1 Genealogy:

Adam begets Seth=130/ Seth Begets Enos=105/ Enos Begets Cainan=90/ Cainan Begets Mahalaleel=70/ Mahalaleel Begets Jared=65/ Jared Begets Enoch=162/ Enoch Begets Methuselah=65/Methuselah Begets Lamech=187. This Genealogy gets us to 3,126 B.C, and it concludes the First Day, with Lamech being the last one born in the First 1000 years.

This concludes Day 1

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Bible Verses For Explanation:

"But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." (2 Peter 3:8)

To understand how we make the connection between the "7 Days of Creation", allow me to give some scripture.

This verse is one of the most revealing, God would not have said this for no reason, or if it were not true. God wanted us to study his word enough to find this hidden truth, and many Christians have done just that!

We have found that God has in fact "declared the end from the beginning". With each day of creation, God foretold what would happen during that Millennium, and he also revealed the total number of years that mankind would exist on the earth. Because of the fact that God has told us that "One Day of Creation" equals "1000 years" on earth.

You must understand this Doctrine, because without the ability to understand this timeline, you will be very confused and lost when it comes to Bible Prophecy and scriptural events.

The human timeline is very refined and precise. Things are always happening according to God's prophetic time table.

Upon observing my Timeline later in this study, you should notice that things tend to happen in the 1000s, 2000s, 40s, 70s, 7s, and so on. There is a pattern, and a theme to our timeline.

*"For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night."
(Psalms 90:4)*

Another verse to prove the One Day and 1000 year relation. It is proven in scripture, and to deny this Doctrine is to deny Scripture.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

"Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days." (John 11:39)

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins" (Ephesians 2:1)

Mankind was dead for four days in their trespasses, Jesus came on the 4th day to resurrect us from the dead. Lazarus being a symbolic figure of all "Dead men".

So, just with these verses alone we can determine that Jesus would come and resurrect mankind after 4 days/4000 years. Which makes sense, because guess what God did on the 4th day! I will cover this more when we get to day 4, but I will say this: God created the two great lights, the "Sun", and the moon! One light to rule the day, and one to rule the night!

The "Sun" is the light of the world and it represents Jesus Christ, who is the light of the world, and the "Son of God".

So, we have covered 4 days/4000 years with scripture, then what?

"After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." (Hosea 6:2)

Then we have the next two days of human history, which is the Age of Grace/Church Age. After 2000 years of the Church Age, God prophesied that he would revive Israel. That revival will occur at the return of Jesus Christ in 2030 A.D, which is 2000 years after his death and the beginning of Judgment for Israel.

The Nation of Israel was actually cut off with their messiah, the same day they killed their messiah, they were cut off from God and put under judgment. This would become very apparent to them in 70 A.D when the temple was destroyed. But, we have from scripture the entire timeline of man till the Sabbath day/Millennial Reign.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

"Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee." (John 4:43)

Jesus spent 2 full days in the Gentile City of Samaria, which represented the Church Age of the Gentiles for 2000 years. Thus, we have once again multiple sources of scripture proving the 2 day timeline of the Church Age, which equals 2000 years.

This lines up with God's timeline, because we know that mankind was created at the end of the 6th day, they were given the Spirit of God on the 6th day. So, it would make sense that the End of the Church Age would end on the 6th day. Because mankind is reborn into God's kingdom on the same day they were created.

I will cover this more in my Day 6 page, but it all lines up perfectly, and that is how we know that God wants us to understand his 7-day timeline.

"Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done" (Isaiah 46:9-10)

Our mighty God has revealed to us in his word that he has "Declared the End from the beginning". He promised us that somewhere in the Holy Bible, he has hidden a mystery, meant to be found by those that diligently seek him. That secret mystery was known by the Jews of old, and accepted by the Early Christians, yet so many have lost knowledge of it these days.

That mystery that God hid in Scripture is found in Genesis 1, and it is the revelation of the 7-day timeline of God, which represents the 7000 Years of mankind on the earth, with each 1000 years bringing one specific event that foreshadows God's overall plan for redemption.

Yes, my Friends, the Lord Declared the End of Time in the very beginning of time! The First Chapter of the Bible Declares the Last Chapter of the Bible!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

God has always worked in perfect timelines and numerical patterns. So it is no surprise to us Christians that God has set up an exact timeline for us while on earth.

If you look at the Jews of Old, they always believed in this prophetic revelation in Genesis, and they have always believed that God works in patterns and numbers.

This is made evident by the fact that God worked in patterns of 7s for the jews. Think about it:

- 7 Days each week-The Work Week
- 7 Day Creation period-The Creation week
- God rested on the 7th Day and made it Holy
- The Shemitah Cycle=Sabbath Year Every 7 Years
- The Jubilee Cycle=7 sets of 7 Years, with Rest on the 50th
- The 7th from Adam(Enoch) was Raptured
- The Word of God is purified "7 times" (Psalms 12:6)
- 7 of each clean animal on the Ark
- Noah in the Ark 7 Days before it rained
- Jesus stays in Heaven for 7 Days before returning
- The Ark comes to rest on the Mt. on the 7th month
- 7 Years of Famine/7 Years of abundance for Egypt
- 7 Years of Labor for Rachel and 7 for Leah
- 7 Seals, 7 Trumpets, 7 Thunders, 7 Vials
- 7 Churches
- 7 Angels
- 7 Spirits/Lamps

The list goes ON and on for days my Friends. There are over 600 instances where God uses the number 7 prophetically!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

*"Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.¹⁷ It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed."
(Exodus 31:16-17)*

The covenant with Israel and God is an Eternal Covenant, and the Sabbath day was given literally as a "Sign" for the Jews! A sign of God's creation week! God would not have said this unless he wanted us to understand his 7-day prophetic Timeline my Friends, there is no other way to understand it!

"Signs are for the Jews", that is why God gave them the Sabbath day, for a "Sign" to them, that on the 7th day/7000th year, they would have rest and "refreshment" from their labor and sorrows!

Truly amazing!

"And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath" (Mark 2:27)

God made the Sabbath "For" man! What does that mean? Because the Sabbath was given to the Jews...yet God says here that it was given for "Man", referring to "mankind" as a whole. Thus, God has revealed that he made the Sabbath as a means of revealing his plan for all mankind, not only the jews. Man was not made for the sabbath, but rather, God made the Sabbath-The 7th day of rest- for the world.

God made the Sabbath Cycle for all mankind, so we could understand what God has planned.

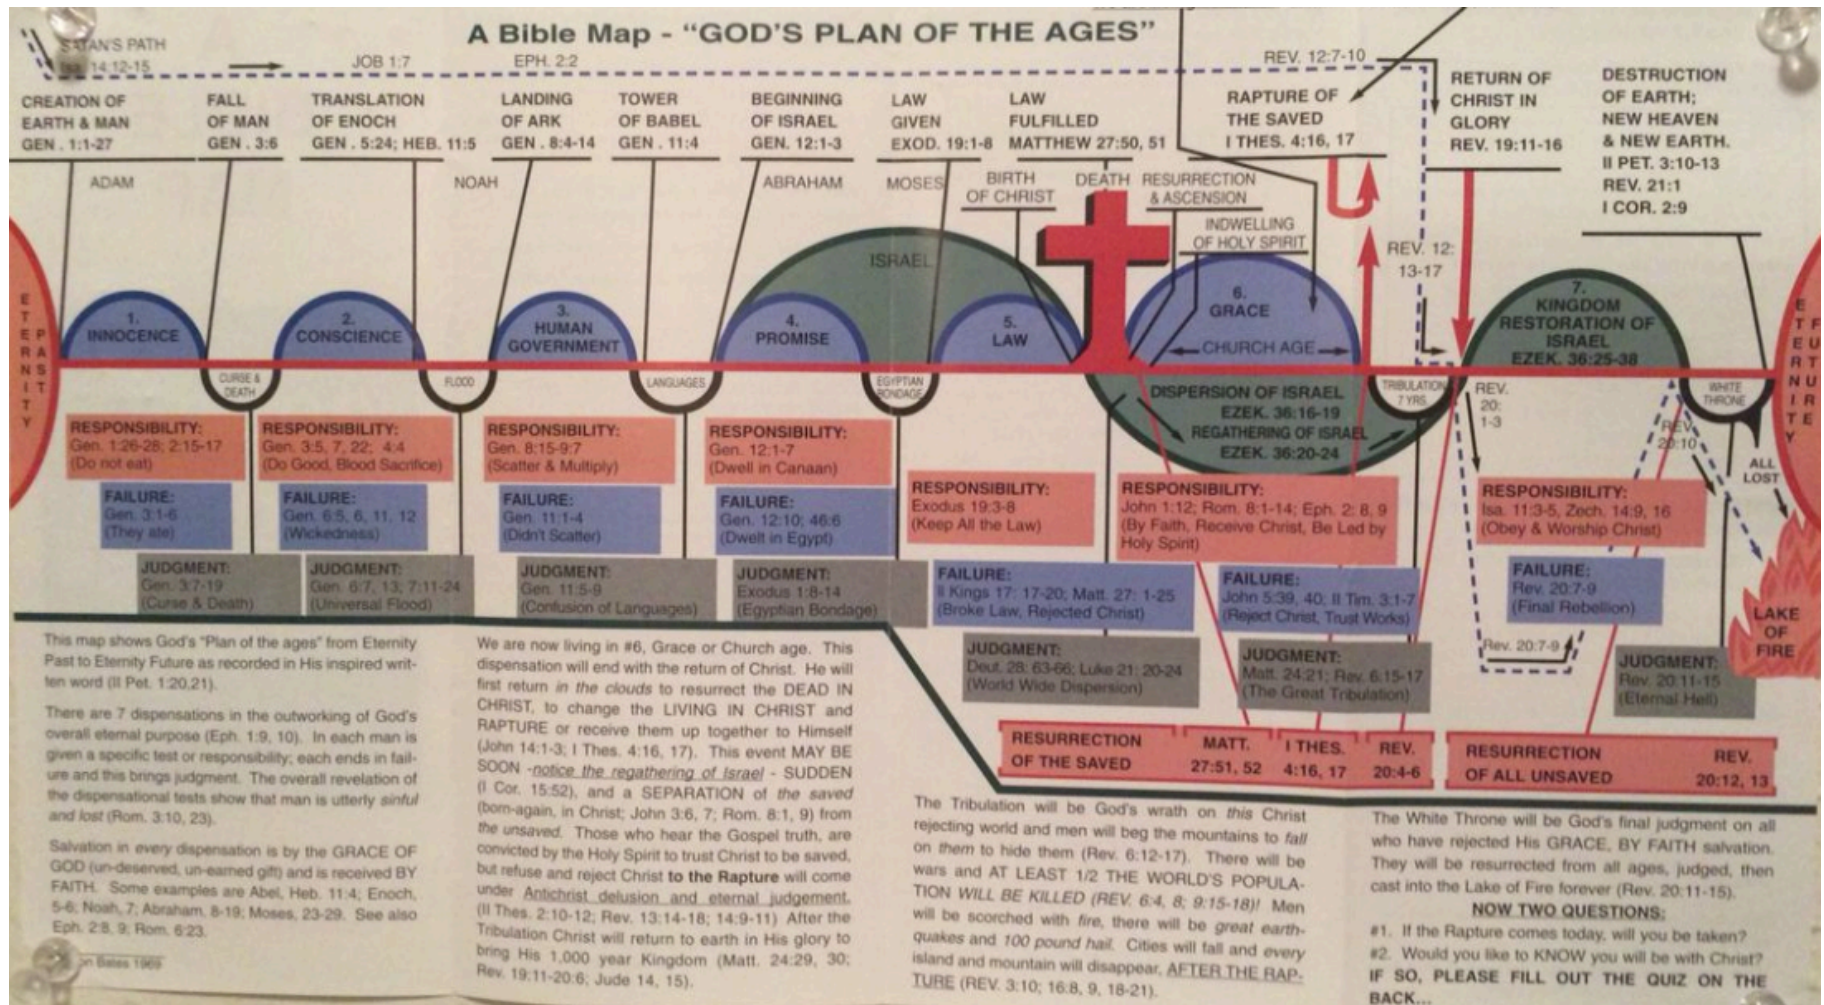

It becomes clear, my Friends, when looking at all the evidence, that God has created a 7-day timeline for us to follow and understand. By doing so, we are able to determine where we are exactly on God's timeline!

This is amazing, because we are now able to determine that we are in fact living in the very final moments!

End of Explanation

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The last 5 pages were a brief scriptural explanation as to why we believe in the 7 day timeline. I will now use the rest of the study to show timelines and Genealogies, and reveal the exact timeline of God.

Here is a picture from Google to help you understand the overall timeline. This is not a timeline of my own making, I agree with it for the most part, but I have some minor disagreements. This shows "dispensations".

The 7 Day Timeline of God

This chart demonstrates the 7 Dispensations/Ages of God for man. It also gives the theme of that dispensation and the failure of man during that dispensation. Notice that each and every dispensation ends in mankind's failure, and they bring judgment upon themselves because of their rebellion and sin.

This is an important pattern to understand, because of that pattern, we can predict that the Church Age will end in failure as well. The fact that the Church fails like all of the other dispensations before it, proves that there will not be some great awakening or revival that takes place prior to the Rapture of the Church, and the end of the Church age.

The Greatest revival that has ever taken place will begin right after the Rapture, during the tribulation period.

A "Great multitude that no man can count" will be saved during that 7 year period, but not before.

This Church age ends in apostasy and rebellion, just like all the rest. This timeline is also in agreement with the 7-day timeline of God, and the 7 dispensations correlate to the 7 days.

We will get into great detail for the exact timeline of God, from the beginning to the end.

I will also link the Dispensations to their corresponding day of the week, and explain what it is and what it represents.

The First day that I just covered is the dispensation of "Conscience". It is called this because Mankind first became "Conscious" of both Good and Evil. This consciousness of both Good and Evil began the moment Eve ate from the Tree, this is actually the second dispensation. The First dispensation took place during day 0 technically, the First dispensation was "innocence", and it was the shortest Dispensation of the 7. It is believed that Adam and Eve were only in Eden for about one month before they sinned, thus, this Dispensation of "innocence" was only about one month long.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The Dispensation of Innocence ended in the first of many failures of mankind, Adam and Eve chose to believe Satan over God, and thus, they made Satan their God. From that moment, Satan became the Ruler, prince, and "god" of this evil world, and all of creation "groaneth in pain together until now"(Rom. 8:22).

So, within the first day/1000 years, 2 Dispensations had already begun and failed, for the most part. The dispensation "conscience" does not completely fail until the flood, but it was doomed to failure the moment Cain slew Abel.

Day 2:

"And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. ⁷ And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. ⁸ And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day."

Day 2 of God's creation is rather important, and has multiple meanings to it like Day 1.

The first thing God does in Day 2, is create a "Firmament". Now, I dare not get into the whole debate about the "Firmament", because there are SO many deceived Christians that love to claim that this Firmament is a literal Solid glass dome that covers our "Flat earth". I cannot afford to waste time on such foolishness in this study, which is a good thing, for the sake of the "Flat Earthers", because it is very easy and fun to debunk that absolute garbage.

So, God created the Firmament to "Divide the waters from the waters". God separated the waters on the surface of the earth from the waters in the sky(Clouds). Yes, The Water above the "Firmament" are simply Clouds, which are literally floating bodies of Water. The "Firmament" is called "Heaven" by God, and thus the Firmament is the "Sky"/1st Heaven. Now, it is important to understand that God's Word is ultimately the Firmament, because it was also his Word that made the foundations of the world "Firm". But, by God's Word, he made the Sky a "Firmament" that separated the Seas from the clouds.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

So, what does the Dividing of the Waters from the Waters represent? I believe there are once again 2 meanings to this day:

- 1. The dividing/separation of the waters represents the separation of the "Heavenly waters/people" from the "earthly Waters/people".*

Remember what I said about the "Firmament" is, it is the "Word of God". So, by the Word of God some of the Waters are separated from the earth and taken to Heaven.

Think about this, by the "Word of God" some of the Waters that were on the earth were taken to Heaven and divided from the rest of the worldly waters. What does that remind you of?

"Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. ¹⁴ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." (John 1:13-14)

The "Word" was made flesh, and by that same "Word" that was given for us, we Christians, that were earthly waters, were separated from the world and taken to Heaven with the Word of God, and by that "Word" of God, we are firmly placed with Jesus in Heaven. Thus, the first meaning of this Day and its creation is once again the separation that takes place between the Godly from the ungodly. The Children of Heaven are separated from the children of the earth, the children that are above the Firmament/Word of God from the Children that are below the Firmament/Word of God.

"And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world." (John 8:23)

Another great verse which proves my point here. Jesus Christ himself confirmed the Day 2 theory by saying that he is "from above", while the Pharisees are from "beneath". The waters are separated by the word of God, just like the righteous from the unrighteous. Jesus is the "Firmament" and foundation of the world.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

2. The second meaning of the 2nd Day is Noah's Flood, which occurred during the second day, 2344 B.C to be exact!

This is rather obvious, because God broke open the fountains of the deep and also opened the "Windows of Heaven" to flood the entire world. Both Groups of waters were opened to flood the earth during the 2nd Day.

So, the 2nd day was pretty straight forward, pretty simple. Everyone knows that the flood of Noah's day happened during the 2nd day, and that is no coincidence. Once again, we are able to take all of scripture to understand what God has prophesied in the days of creation.

"Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he." (John 13:19)

The Lord Jesus Christ has told us all these things, so that when they come to pass, we can believe in him.

By understanding what God literally predicted with each day of Creation, we can believe in his sovereignty and omnipotence by seeing that it all came to pass.

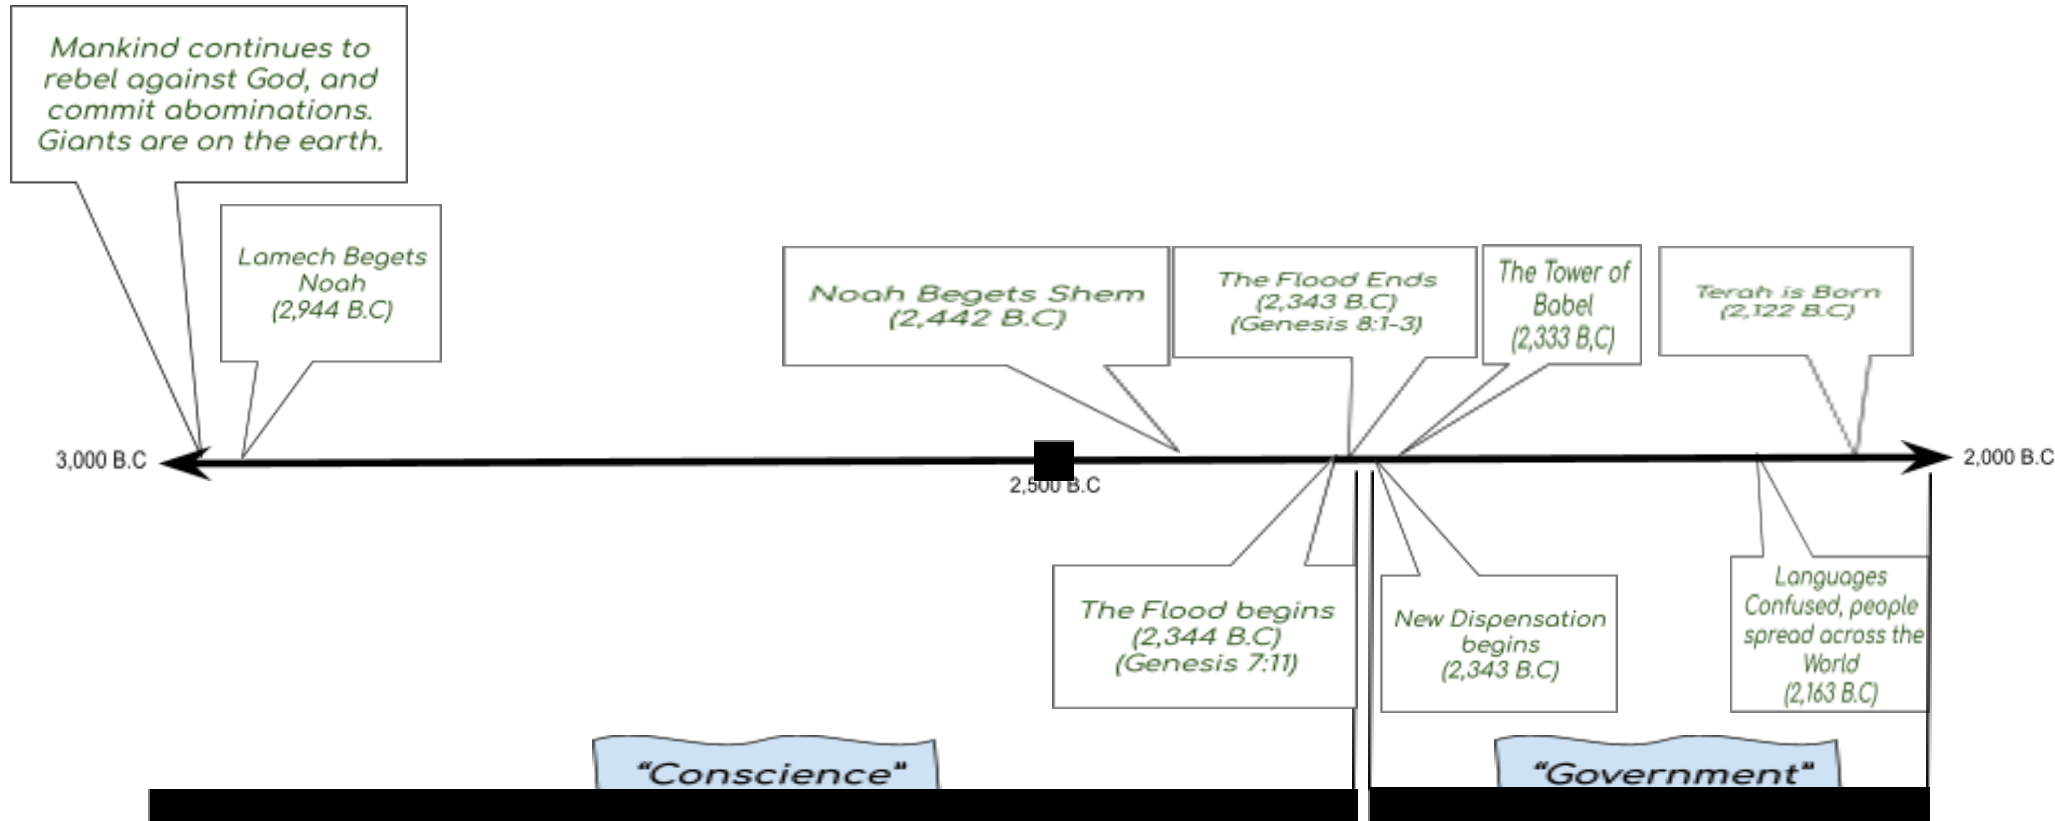

He told us all the things that would come to pass in the very beginning.

Again, pretty amazing! Remember, The "Testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy"(Rev. 19:10), so, if we know that this entire 7-Day timeline is one Giant prophecy of the Future of mankind, then we know that the "Spirit of prophecy" will most Definitely be giving the "testimony of Jesus" while doing it! Thus, we should be able to link each day of creation to Jesus Christ in some way!

The Second Day would not have been a good time to be alive. In fact, I imagine it would have been very similar to our modern day world of evil and rebellion. The second set of 1000 years was filled with Fallen Angels, lawlessness, Giants, sin, hate, and abominations. Even after the most horrific event in human history, mankind still rebels against God only 20 years later to build a giant tower that defies God's will/purpose.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 2 Timeline:

As you can see, the Dispensation of Conscience ends in failure, and the punishment for that failure is the Global Flood, the most catastrophic event in Human History. The Next Dispensation, "Government", begins, only to end in failure about 200 years later. Day 2 contains two failed Dispensations, and also has great symbology for the final "Global Judgment" caused by the Failure of the Church Age during the Great Tribulation.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

So, these timelines/illustrations are just the basic events from Biblical history, just the most important things. I will cover the smaller details in the latter end of this study, so that you can get an understanding of the entire 7 day timeline of God quickly, and not read through too many pages of information if you don't want to.

The primary goal for the first part of this Study is to reveal the 7 Dispensations of God, and reveal the whole 7-day timeline of God from beginning to end with the most important details. The latter half of the study will be for getting into the smaller details of the timeline, and really dig into the deeper meaning of each event on the timeline.

For the moment, I wish to have you understand the most important part of the timeline, and that is the event that takes place every 1000 years. Pay attention to the beginning and End of days, and notice God's pattern with the 1000 years in between the critical events. For example:

4,000 B.C=The Fall of Mankind, the Lamb slain from foundation of the World, The foreshadowing of the Separation of light from Darkness, Beginning of Day 1, and the end of the Dispensation of Innocence.

3,000 B.C=The Rapture of Enoch, the foreshadowing of the Rapture of the Church, The End of the first day, beginning of the second.

2,000 B.C=The Flood and tower of Babel, the division of mankind across the world, the end of the second day, beginning of the 3rd, and the birth of Abraham.

With each 1000 years, something prophetic and significant happens according to God's timeline. Some Bible scholars have attempted to put the fall of Mankind at a much later date, even up to 5,000 B.C, implying that there were actually 5 days until the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, which does not make sense. Such theories do not line up with the 7-day timeline, or scripture. I firmly believe that God started the 7-day timeline of man the moment they fell, and that was at exactly 4,000 B.C.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Think about it, God was the one that orchestrated and determined the timeline of man from the very beginning, so he was literally able to start "time" for mankind at their fall at any time he chose to! God quite literally could have chosen any date to start mankind on, it was up to him completely. So why would he choose to start us at 4,650 B.C, or 4,300 B.C, or even 4,050 B.C? Why would he choose to start us on some random pointless date?

Of course God would start us on exactly 4,000 B.C! No later or earlier than that, but exactly 4,000 B.C.

Because that would perfectly set up his 7-day timeline, starting at some random date would throw off all of the important events to land on random dates as well. There would be no order, or plan to it, just random pointless dates with no meaning.

But rather, God had the entire timeline of Man planned out in patterns and perfection before it even started. By starting in 4,000 B.C, God could precisely accomplish his 7 day timeline and patterns while leaving his fingerprints and plan to be found by us. So that we could understand what God has planned, and let the truth of his word be known to us.

Remember, God declared the end from the beginning, if one denies the 7-day timeline of God, then they are unfortunately also denying the fact that God has declared the end from the beginning. Many Christians have accepted this Doctrine, and the Jews believe it as well. So for us to remain ignorant and complacent in regards to this Revelation is dangerous.

As Christians, we must all ask for the Holy Spirit to reveal truth to us, we cannot simply determine truth with our own understanding. You must ask, and you shall receive. This is a pretty complex Doctrine, but once one studies enough, it becomes easier to understand why God would have created a 7-day timeline for mankind, and how it lines up with scripture perfectly.

Day 2 Genealogy:

Lamech Begets Noah=182/ Noah Begets Shem=502/Shem Begets Arphaxad=100/ Arphaxad Begets Salah=35/Salah Begets Eber=30/Eber Begets Peleh=34/Peleg Begets Reu=30/Reu Begets Serug=32/Serug Begets Nahor=30/ Nahor Begets Terah=29-. This genealogy gets us from 3,126 B.C to 2122 B.C with the Birth of Terah. Terah is the last one born during the second 1000 days. This Concludes Day 2

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 3:

"And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so."¹⁰ And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. ¹¹ And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. ¹² And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good. ¹³ And the evening and the morning were the third day."

In the 3rd Day, God created the oceans and the dry land. The waters he called "Seas", the Dry land he called "earth".

The 3rd day of Creation is a prophecy of two things, like the other days were.

1. It prophecies of the separation of the Red Sea for the Israelites to escape from Pharaoh. Think about the amazing similarities that we can find in the the Miracle of the Red Sea being divided and the 3rd day of creation, where God separates the waters/"Seas" and create "dry Land".

This is exactly what God did with the Red Sea, he separated the Waters to create "Dry Ground" for the Israelites to cross over and escape on.

"And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. ²² And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left." (Exodus 14:21-22)

Israel was able to cross the "Sea" on "Dry Land" because God separated the waters from the Land, just like he did in the 3rd Day creation.

God "made the sea dry land" by dividing the waters in both cases. The way God prophesied future events from the very beginning is truly mind blowing!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

2. The second meaning of the 3rd Day of creation is even more amazing!

In order to understand the second meaning of the 3rd Day, we must understand what the Red Sea Moment symbolized.

- What did the slavery and bondage of the nation of Israel for 430 years symbolize?

The captivity of Israel is very important to understand. The nation of Israel is famous for how many times it has gone into captivity and been under bondage to another nation that is more evil than itself. But the Slavery in Egypt was the first time the nation of Israel was in bondage, and it was the most severe and important of them all.

The slavery of Israel in Egypt represents the Slavery of all mankind to Sin and death in Satan's world. Abraham, The "Father of the nation of Israel" sinned against God and brought this slavery and bondage upon the rest of his seed.

This is identical to the way that our Father Adam sinned against God and brought Bondage and slavery to sin and death to the entire human race, to all of his seed!

Thus, Israel's bondage to slavery was a recollection of what Adam has brought upon us all, and also a prophecy of what God would do to free ALL slaves to sin through Jesus Christ.

Just as God delivered Israel from bondage to slavery in Egypt, he also came and delivered ALL Men that were bound to be slaves of sin by his Son Jesus Christ.

With every single event that has happened in the OT scriptures, God has both recorded man's failures/bondage to sin and also the way that he delivers them at that present time but also in the future through Jesus Christ.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

- What did the judgment upon Pharaoh and the evil land of Egypt symbolize?

The 10 Plagues that God brought upon Pharaoh and the land of Egypt were representative of the judgements that God will bring upon the evil world of the Anti-Christ when the time comes that he rules over this world like Pharaoh did in Egypt.

Many of the 10 plagues can be found in the Trumpet and Vial Judgements of God during the Tribulation period. Why God chose the number 10 is interesting, I believe it represents the judgements and condemnation that all men deserve the breaking of God's Holy law/10 commandments.

Those 10 commandments are written on our hearts, and we know them when we reach the "State of accountability". So, God brought one judgment for each law that was broken upon Egypt which represented the sinful world. So, in other words, those judgements are the same judgements that the entire unrepentant world deserves, and will one day soon experience during the tribulation.

With the Law comes the knowledge of sin for mankind, because we are sinful.

God brings judgment upon this evil world(Egypt) and its ruler(Satan) to make his glory and might known to all of creation, and to set his "captives free".

The Red Sea moment represents sinful mankind that was stuck in bondage between a foe that was too strong for themselves, and a Sea that was impossible to cross by themselves. This represents the fact that Satan and the forces of Darkness are too strong for any man to resist alone, and the fact that we cannot live a sinless life and obey the law of God to set ourselves free! The nation of Egypt symbolizes the powers of darkness, Pharaoh symbolizes Satan, the nation of Israel represents mankind, and the Red Sea Represents the impossible Sea that man must cross to please God and live a sinless life. Both Egypt and the Red Sea were overcome and beaten by God, which is a foreshadowing of how Christ would also one day conquer both.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Moses was told to stretch out his hand over the sea (Exodus 14:16), this symbolized Christ stretching out his hands on the cross to save the world. By stretching forth his hand, Moses let the power of God flow through him to part the Red Sea and clear a path to the "Promised Land". Jesus Christ did the same thing by stretching forth his hand to take the sins of the world, he allowed the power of God flow through him to raise him from the dead, and conquer sin and death for ALL mankind.

Jesus Christ parted the impossible Red Sea that no man could hope to cross alone with his sinless life and death, and he made a "straight and narrow path" for all men to follow that leads to the promised land.

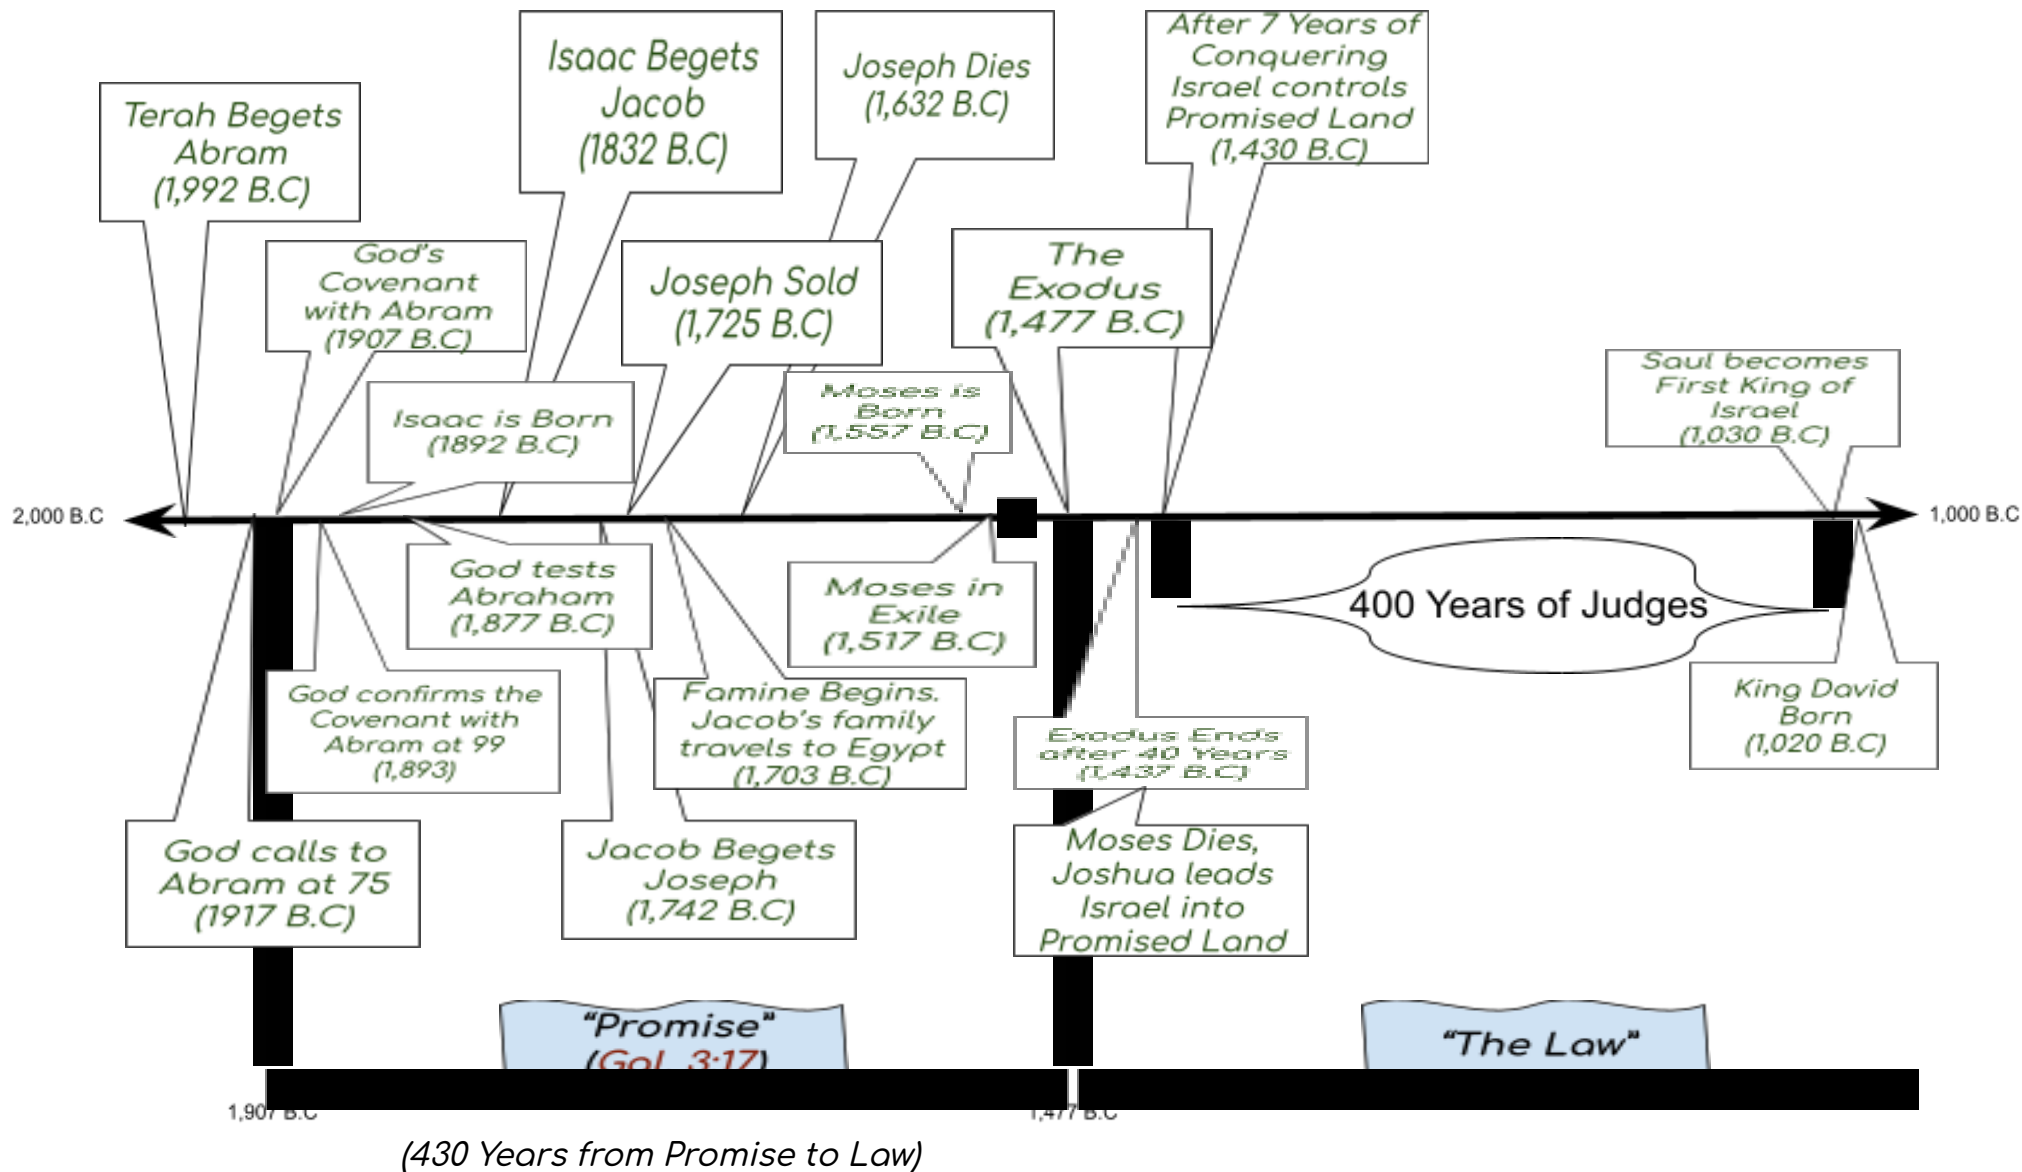

It is well known that Moses was meant to be a Type of Christ-like figure that both saved mankind from their bondage to sin and death, and also established an eternal covenant with men so that they would know their God and his Law. This becomes very clear when one understands the truth of the Red Sea moment, which was prophesied of in the 3rd day of creation. Thus far, God's timeline is perfectly on track, with 3 days now passed, and the messiah has been foreshadowed with each day.

Remember, Abraham was told by God that his seed would spend 400 years in captivity because of his sin:

"And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years" (Genesis 15:13)

Again, this symbolized Adam, the Father of mankind, who brought captivity to all men, and made us all become "Strangers and slaves" in a land that we do not belong. This also represents the 4 days/4000 years that mankind was "Dead in their iniquities" before Christ came. Remember what I discussed in page 10, there are verses that reveal this same truth. God had always planned on redeeming mankind from their captivity after 4 days/4000 years. That is what Israel's "400 years" of captivity represented. Thus, the 3rd day prophesied what would come to pass in the 4th day, both in Genesis, and also in the story of the Exodus.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Once again my Friends, I wish to reiterate the fact that this timeline is purely based on scripture alone, and that you can literally go and find all of these time frames and dates for yourselves if you doubt my work.

I am going to make an entire page dedicated to listing all of these events in order and giving the date they happened as well as the Scripture reference for them, so that all you must do is go down that list and easily track from the beginning of time till the end based completely on scripture.

Not all of the times/dates are given in scripture, but we can use deductive reasoning and time mapping to create a nearly perfect timeline of Biblical history.

God's 7-day timeline lines up perfectly with scripture, and I mean perfectly! Exactly 4000 years into Human's existence, Jesus Christ the savior of the world changes the entire timeline of man and starts the new age of "A.D" that we now live in. And now, exactly 1992 years later, we are at the very end of the Church age, and on the brink of the beginning of Daniel's 70th week.

We will be getting into that soon, but I just wanted to encourage all who read this that the timeline is biblical, and truly lines up perfectly with human history, and our future!

I am breaking this 7-day timeline into 7 parts because there is simply too much to put into one long timeline. It is far more efficient and manageable by doing it in 1 day/1000 year periods. I will list all of these timelines in order at the end of this study so you can quickly and easily navigate between them to study the full timeline.

I will also be creating one general timeline that covers the very most basic and important of events from the beginning to end.

I want you to be able to study this and understand this as easily as possible, so I will give you plenty of resources to aid you in that process.

This Concludes Day 3:

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 4:

"And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:"¹⁵ And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.¹⁶ And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.¹⁷ And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,¹⁸ And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.¹⁹ And the evening and the morning were the fourth day"

In the 4th Day of Creation, God creates "lights in the firmament of Heaven". He made "two great lights" to rule the "day" and to rule the "night". These 2 lights are the "Sun" and the "Moon".

He also created the Stars of Heaven on this day, which disproves the idea that the Stars that we see in the sky are Angels, because Angels were created long before these stars on the 4th day of Creation.

But, moving on, back to the 2 great lights, which are our main point of focus for this specific day of creation. Once again, I believe that there are in fact 2 meanings to this day, like the rest:

- 1. The first meaning of this day of creation is quite obvious, and that is Jesus Christ, the "Sun"/"Son" of God gives light to the world in the 4th day/4000th year of human history.*

"Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." (John 8:12)

"As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." (John 9:5)

Jesus Christ is the light of the world. Just as the Greater light(The Sun) gave light to the world in the 4th day of creation; the greater light(The Son) gave light to the world in the 4,000th year of human history! Now, all of this would be completely absurd, IF we didn't have the exact timeline to confirm that Jesus Christ did in fact come in the exact 4000th year of mankind! Scripture proves this timeline true over and over!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

So, like I said, the first meaning is pretty simple, and easy to understand. Jesus Christ is the greater light, and was prophesied to come into the world on the 4th day!

- 2. The second meaning is a little more complex. There are some that believe that the Moon/"lesser light" represents John the Baptist, who was a lesser "light" in the world during the time of Christ...while others believe that the moon symbolizes the Bride of Christ, who is currently the "light of the world" while Jesus is in Heaven.*

So, I will give reasons and scripture for both ideas:

- John the Baptist:*

"He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.⁹ That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world" (John 1:8-9)

Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.³⁴ But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.³⁵ He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. (John 5:33-35)

John is identified as a "shining light", and he is said to have "bore witness of the light(Jesus, the Son).

Some say that since John was identified as a "light" that bears witness to the sun, he must be the lesser light/the Moon spoken of in Genesis. Due to the fact that scientists have determined that the Moon does not actually emit light of itself, but rather it reflects the light of the "Sun", so in other words, it "bears witness" of the light of the world, the "Sun"/Son.

I cannot deny the amazing similarities and commonalities that John and Jesus have with the sun and the moon. They both play identical roles in lighting the world. It is quite amazing, because that would mean that God not only prophesied of Jesus(the Son) on the 4th day of creation, but also John the Baptist(The moon) who came in the Spirit of Elijah.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

- The Bride of Christ:

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid." (Matthew 5:14)

"Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness." (Luke 11:35)

"For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." (2 Corinthians 4:6)

"We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts" (2 Peter 1:19)

As you can see, I was able to find far more scripture to support the Bride being the "lesser Light"/Moon than John the Baptist. It is my opinion that God prophesied of Both John and the Bride being the Light of the world.

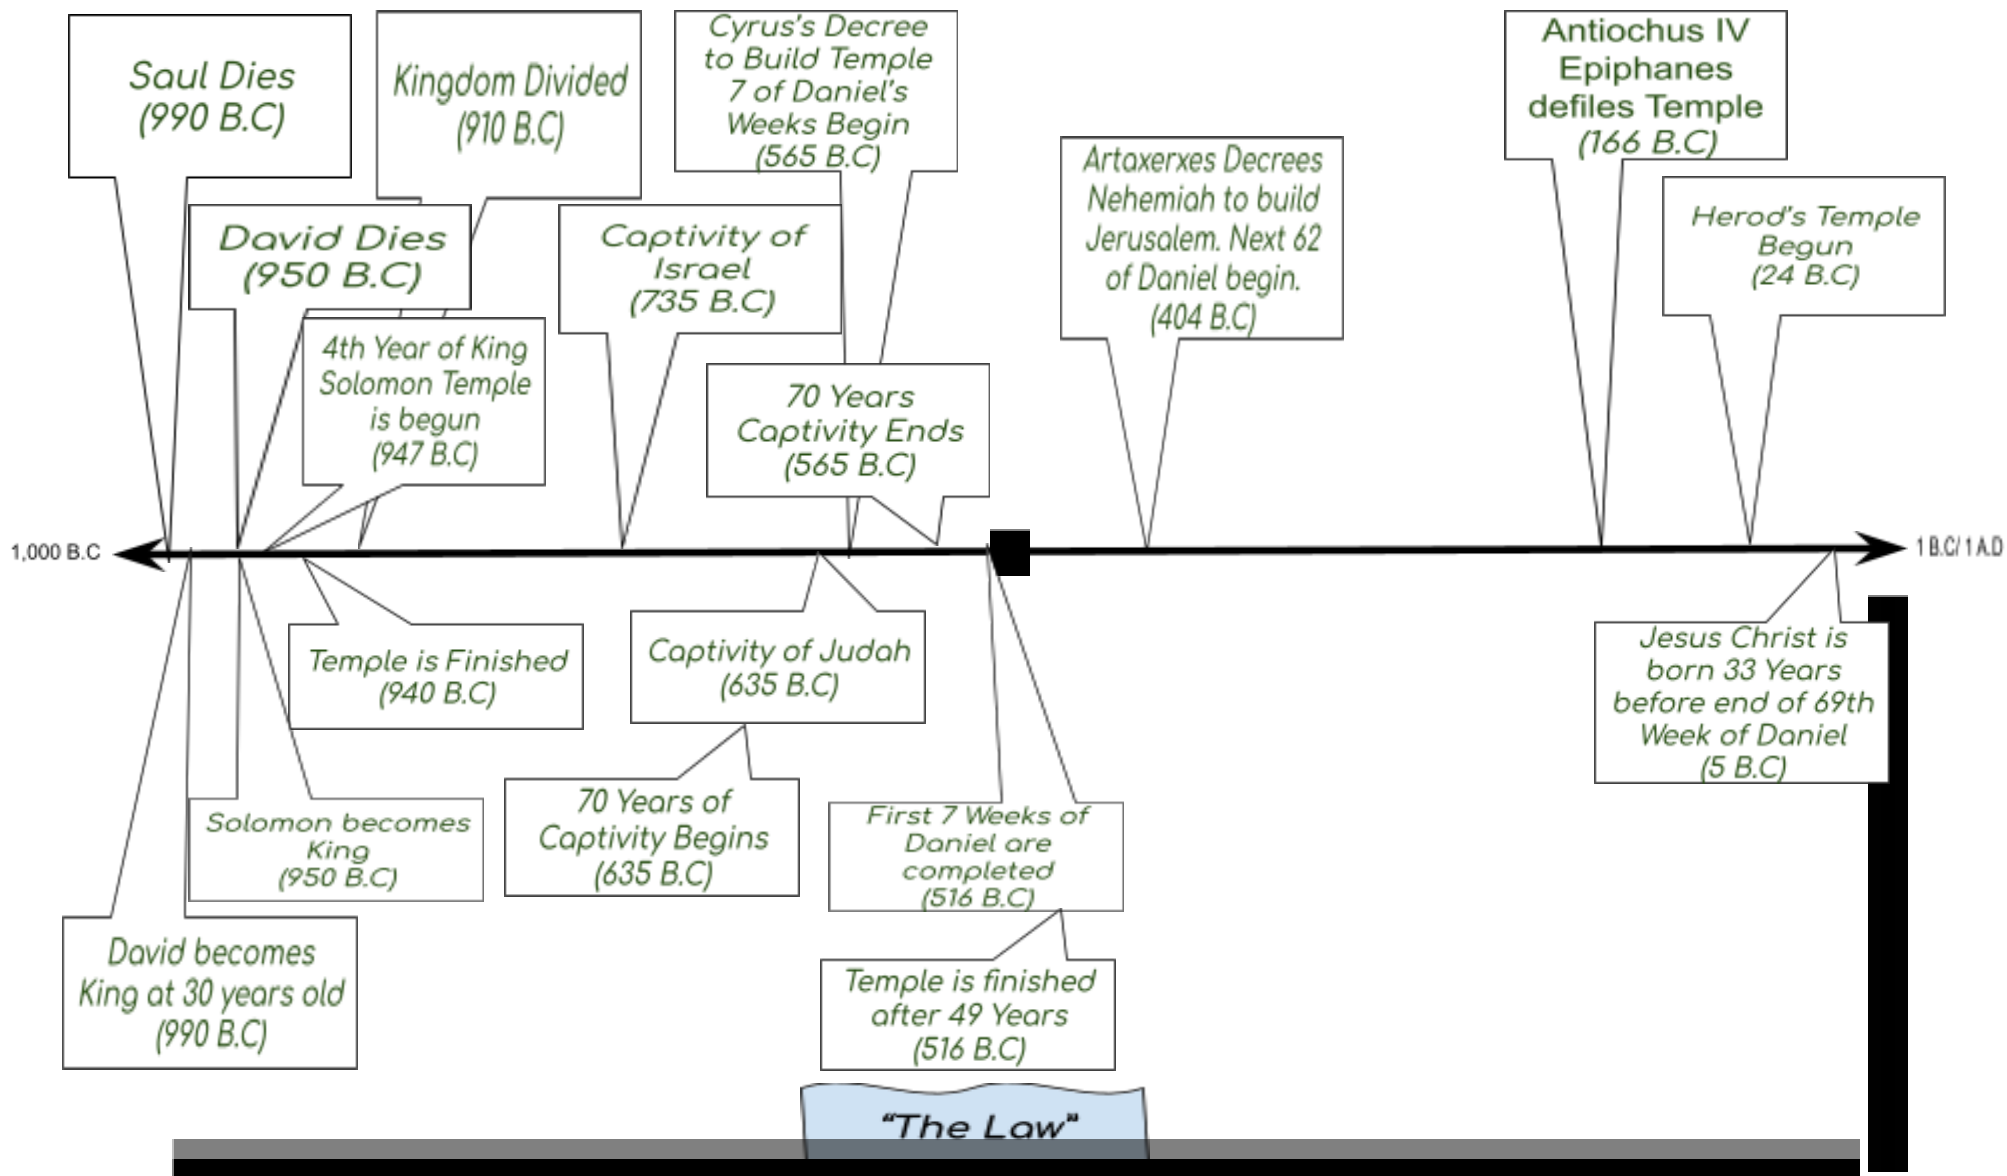

Both John and the Bride of Christ rely on Christ to give them light, just like the Moon. Both of them are said to be lights shining in darkness, and both bear witness of the true light that shines upon them and within them.

It is thus my understanding that we must include both of these in our understanding of the 4th day. It is true, that the Bride of Christ did not become a light until the death of Christ and his official ascension into heaven 50 days after that. Pentecost was the most accepted date of the beginning of the Church Age.

But think about it...it wasn't until the "Sun" had finished its course/work on earth that the Bride/moon began to give its light, just like we see occur every day. So again, it seems logical to conclude that the Moon/lesser light is the Bride of Christ.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 4 Timeline

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Something very important to notice on this Day 4 Timeline, is that the first 7 Weeks of Daniel occur separate from the next 62 Weeks of Daniel. Most Christian scholars put the 62 weeks and the 7 weeks together for a total of 69 Weeks in one time period with no separation between them.

But that is the wrong understanding of Daneil's timeline. In (Daniel 9:24-26), it clearly separates the First 7 Weeks of Daniel from the next 62 weeks. In fact, the term "69 weeks" never occurs in that passage at all, it is completely made up by people that do not understand it.

"Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times." (Daniel 9:25)

The dividing of the first 7 Weeks and the next 62 Weeks proves that there was a time gap between the two events.

Just like Daniel's 70th week is separated by nearly 2000 years, the first and second group of weeks are separated by a period of time. This is so important to understand my Friends, because those who put the 62 weeks together with the 7 weeks with no separation between them end up with a bad timeline, and give incorrect dates for the birth, and death of Christ because of it.

Because of the fact that we know that there is a separation between the first 7 weeks and the 62 Weeks, we can accurately determine the timeline that leads up to the birth and death of Christ.

The first 7 Weeks started with the Decree of Cyrus to Zerubbabel to go rebuild the Temple of God in Jerusalem in 565 B.C, and the temple was completed 49 years later in 516 B.C. The next 62 Weeks did not start till about 111 years later, Between the year 405 and 404 B.C, which is when King Artaxerxes gave his decree to Nehemiah to rebuild Jerusalem and its walls. Some scholars believe that the 62 weeks started around 444 B.C, but they are mistaken, because of their failure to separate the two groups of weeks, they put the date about 40 years too soon.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The proper date for the start of the next 62 weeks is 405 to 404 B.C, because 62 weeks equals 434 years in total. If you add 434 years to the Year 405/404 B.C, you come to the year A.D 30, which is exactly when the Messiah was cut off like Daniel prophesied. We know that Jesus Christ was 33 years old at the time of his death and resurrection, due to the fact that (Luke 3:23) reveals to us that Jesus was exactly 30 years old when he started his ministry, and his ministry lasted 3.5 years before he was "Cut off" by his own people.

Even more amazing than that, Luke 3:23 reveals that Jesus started his ministry no more than a couple of days after his 30th birthday in September, A.D 26.

"And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli" (Luke 3:23)

Scripture reveals that Jesus "Began to be about thirty years of age". Emphasis on the "began" here my friends, because this would mean that Jesus quite literally only just "Began" to be 30 years old, he started his ministry when his 30th year on earth began.

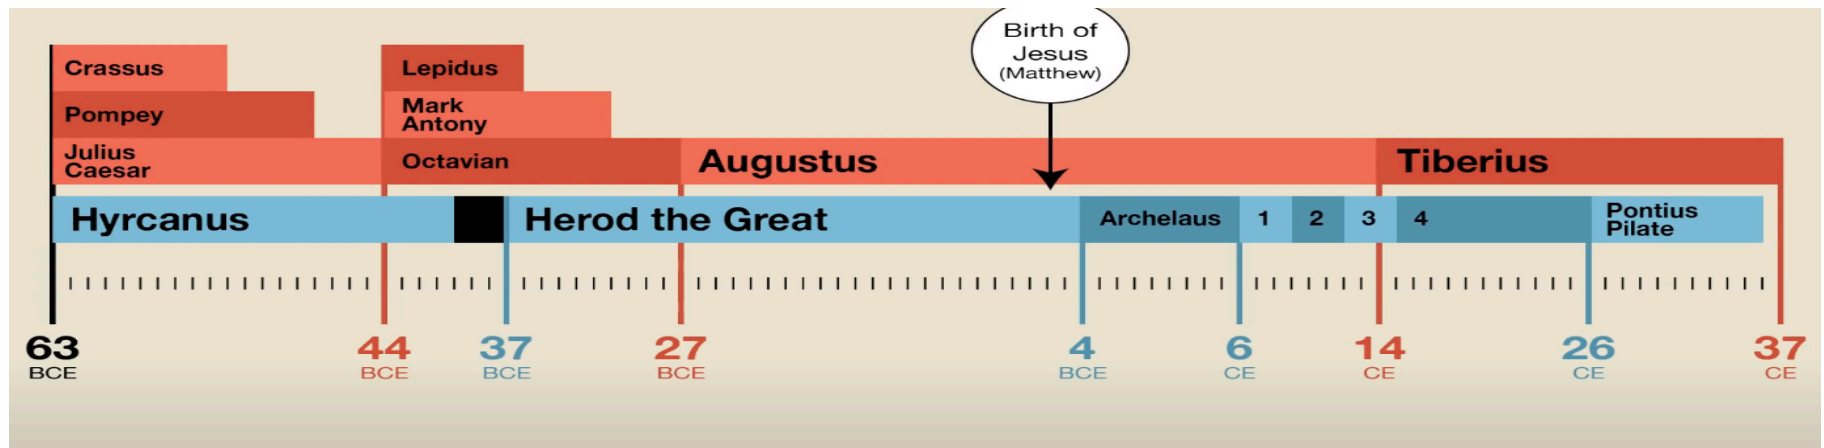

This is important, because if his ministry started on his birthday(His Birthday being September 5th, 5 B.C), and lasted 3.5 years, it would come to March 5th, A.D 30; which would have been passover in the year that is most commonly accepted as his death.

Some people say A.D 33, and some say A.D 28, but I believe both are incorrect, and that A.D 30 is the perfect and correct date of Christ Death and resurrection. And I will give several reasons as to why I believe that.

But the primary reason is because that is what scripture teaches. Jesus was born in 5 B.C, that is almost universally accepted, because he was born one year prior to the death of King Herod, who died in the year 4 B.C. So, if we all agree that Jesus was born in that year, and scripture teaches that Jesus was 33 years old when he died, that means he died in the year A.D 30, simple as that.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Here is a helpful diagram from YouTube. This person also came to the conclusion that Jesus Christ was born in the year 5 B.C according to scripture, and according to other historical documents that put Herod's Death in the year 4. B.C.

There is no Year "0" in the Calendar, it goes from 1 B.C to the year A.D 1. Also, Jesus did not live to make it to his 34th birthday, as he died 6 months prior to September 5th. Thus, he would have been the perfect age of 33 years old, as most agree he was.

If Christ did in fact die in the year A.D 30, that means he died exactly 40 years prior to the destruction of the Temple and Jerusalem, and 40 is the number of Judgment and testing. This time gap is too perfect to ignore, 40 years after the Jews had "Cut off" their messiah, and stopped Daniel's 70th week from being started, Judgement is brought upon them, and not only that, but the very judgment that God prophesied of in the Old Testament.

They were scattered to the four corners of the world, and have waited since then to be "revived" by their messiah when he comes. They became a nation again in the year 1948, however, this is not the revival that was spoken of in (Hosea 6:2), that day will come when they believe in Jesus as their messiah.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The reason I spend so much time explaining the true date of Jesus's Birth and Death is because they are probably the two most important dates in the Bible. By knowing and understanding these two dates, we can determine where we are on God's 7-day timeline, and how much longer we have in this Church Age.

As you know already, the 4th day ended around the same time Jesus was born, from anywhere between 5 B.C and 1 B.C. That means that 4 days have been spent, and that we have only 3 days left according to God's timeline, but the last day is the "Sabbath day"/the Millennial reign of Christ; which means that we only have 2 days remaining after Christ's birth...or death. 2 days equals 2000 years for the rest of Bible prophecy to be fulfilled and for the messiah to come and reign on the earth!

This 4th day is extremely important, because it was the "Day"/millenia that mankind was resurrected from the dead, and given the ability to become Sons of God once more. Jesus was prophesied to come and give light to the world on the 4th day from the very beginning.

Remember these dates going forward my friends, they are important.

Jesus's Birth= 5 B.C-1 year prior to Herod's Death

Jesus's Death= A.D 30- 6 months prior to his 34th Birthday

The destruction of the temple= A.D 70- 40 Years after the Death of the Messiah

The Book of Revelation is Written= A.D 98 to100, About 30 Years after the Destruction of Temple

Israel Becomes a nation= A.D 1948-Israel makes Jerusalem its capital=AD 1950

These dates are really the foundation of the entire Church Age, and New Testament Era, remember them.

This Concludes Day 4

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Ok, so now that we have come to our conclusion concerning the greater and lesser lights, and we have revealed God's prophetic truth hidden in the 4th day, I now need to address something very important and...interesting:

The Jesus time gap:

How do I put this simply...? Let me say it like this, the 7-day timeline for mankind started at exactly 4,000 B.C, meaning that it was exactly 4,000 years from the time that Adam and Eve were cast out into the sinful world, to the arrival of the messiah, Jesus Christ.

If exactly 4,000 out of our 7,000 years were used to reach the messiah, and we will have two full days of the "Church Age" after the Messiah, and One full day for the "Millennial reign" with the messiah, that leaves no time for the 33 year life of the messiah while on earth...otherwise the total amount of time on earth would come out to about 7,030 years. That should not be...because God is perfect, and there is no way he is going to accidentally miss perfection by "30" years.

Let me rephrase what I am saying, 4 days takes us to around the Year 1 B.C or 1 A.D, if we were to start the next 2 day period of the Church age at that moment, then the Church Age would have technically ended in the Year 2,000 A.D; and the Millennial reign/7th day would have begun at that same time...meaning that we would be Living in the "Millennial reign" of Christ right now!

Which we know is not true, because the Rapture has not happened, nor the Tribulation or second coming. So, if that is false...what is the explanation?

Well, I believe I have the answer to that! And it is a bit complex:

To sum it up quickly, the 33 years of Jesus's life on earth were not counted in God's Timeline. You may ask how that is possible, and well...I have an explanation for you. But, in order for you to understand what I am about to reveal to you, you must first understand the Difference between the "Kingdom of God" and the "Kingdom of Heaven".

The 7 Day Timeline of God

- The Kingdom of God:

The Kingdom of God must not be conflated with the Kingdom of Heaven, because they are two very different Kingdoms meant for 2 very different groups of people at different times.

The Kingdom of God is:

1. For the Children of God
2. Eternal
3. Within you
4. Ungoverned by man
5. Located in and IS the Holy Spirit(Romans 14:17)
6. Power, Truth, and Spirit
7. Incorruptible
8. Not limited to any time period or physical location
9. Flesh and Blood cannot inherit it
10. IS God

The Kingdom of God is quite literally God himself, because God is perfect, Eternal, Omnipresent, incorruptible, and not limited by any man made construct. It is God's Sovereign rule over ALL creation and over ALL kingdoms.

God's Kingdom/The Kingdom of God is located wherever God is located, thus, God's Kingdom is everywhere!The Kingdom of God enters into a believer and makes them new. The Kingdom of God is Spiritual in nature, and lives within only God's Children.

The best way to describe this Kingdom is like this:

Everything is contained in God's Kingdom, but not everything contains God's Kingdom in it. This is because God sustains all of creation, but not all of creation contains God within it. That is why the Second Death is the Lake of Fire, because the Lake of Fire will quite literally be the Eternal separation from God's Kingdom.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The Lake of Fire will have neither the Kingdom of God within it, nor shall it be within the Kingdom of God, it shall be totally and completely separated from God. So, when one talks about the Kingdom of God, know this, that everyone is already living within the Kingdom of God, but only Born Again Christians have the Kingdom of God living within them!

- Kingdom of Heaven:

The Kingdom of Heaven is far different from the Kingdom of God that we just discussed.

The Kingdom of Heaven is a literal physical place, a physical kingdom that exists right now, and has existed since the Creation of Adam.

In order to fully understand both of these Kingdoms fully, you will have to go and review my Study on it (Here), or you can watch a great Series from Brother and Pastor Mike Pearl on YouTube below>

▶ Kingdom of Heaven vs Kingdom of God - Eight Kingdoms, Episode 1

The primary point to understand for the Kingdom of Heaven is that it is most commonly identified as the Millennial Reign of Christ. Christ will rule and reign over the “Kingdom of Heaven” for 1000 Years, so the majority of times the Phrase “Kingdom of Heaven” is used, it refers to that 1000 Year time period. That is the most important thing to know about the Kingdom of Heaven, is its future fulfillment when Jesus reigns.

The Kingdom of Heaven is Temporal, located and bound to this specific location called “Earth”. It is governed by men as of now, and ruled by Satan, until Christ returns and conquers Satan and reclaims the Kingdom of Heaven for God.

The Primary reason I have revealed these Kingdoms to you in this study is because I believe that this right here is our explanation as to why and how Time literally “stopped” or froze while Jesus was here.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

If you remember, Jesus Christ and John the Baptist both preached about the Kingdom of Heaven in the beginning of their Ministries. They both preached the same thing concerning the coming Kingdom of Heaven:

Jesus: "From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Matthew 4:17)

John: "In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, ² And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 3:1-2)

As you can see my Friends, both Jesus and John taught that the Kingdom of Heaven was at hand. Jesus and John were both referring to the "Millennial Reign" of Christ while teaching this, they were both preaching to the jews that their messiah had arrived, and that the prophecy of his Government and rule could be fulfilled if the jews were willing to accept him.

So, Yes, God gave the jews the ability to choose to believe, and accept Jesus as their Messiah before he moved to the gentiles, the Church Age could very well have never happened if the jews had only accepted their messiah right then and there. The Kingdom of Heaven would have begun if they accepted him.

"And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent." (Luke 4:43)

"The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it." (Luke 16:16)

On the other hand, Jesus began to preach the "Kingdom of God" after the Jews had denied him. It is odd, because it would seem that Jesus was preaching both the "Kingdom of God" and the "Kingdom of Heaven" at the same time for a little while, before he began to exclusively preach the Kingdom of God only.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Well, how is that possible?? How could Jesus have seemingly preached two different Kingdoms at the same time? Did he preach the Kingdom of God to only certain people? No, because if we go back to Matthew and compare it to Luke, Jesus preached the Kingdom of God in the same places that he preached the Kingdom of Heaven...so it wasn't only certain people.

How could he have preached two things at the same time...? Let me give you a good example of what I mean:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:3)-Beatitudes in Matthew

"And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God." (Luke 6:20)-Beatitudes in Luke

Surely by now you see where I am going with this my Friends...right? Well, if not, let me explain, because it is so very interesting!

In the two different accounts of the Beatitudes that I have given, Jesus says two very different things...yet, it is said that these two events are accounts of the same moment in time..

Most people argue that the accounts are not 100% accurate because they are just given by the apostles' memory, and weren't inspired by God...which we know is not true, because scripture says that ALL scripture is "God breathed", right. So, how do we reconcile this my Friends? I am curious how you would answer this question, if you were asked by some Atheist who aimed to debunk your faith in Christ.

Say an Atheist came up to you and asked you this question: "If all scripture is God breathed, and inspired by God alone and not man, then why does Jesus say two different things entirely in the same moment in different accounts?"

The 7 Day Timeline of God

What would you say? How would you respond? It would seem that they have raised an excellent point, and to them, they may think that they have disproven scripture with such a question. But, not us my Friends, after this you will know how you answer that question.

The answer to that question is a bit complex, and some may be unable to accept it.

Now that you know the difference between the "Kingdom of God" and the "Kingdom of Heaven", you should be able to get a basic understanding of what I am about to say.

There are 2 possible explanations for this phenomena:

Jesus Christ preaches that two different kingdoms were coming at the same time, in the same place, in the same speech on the Mount. The only possible way that he could do that is because he is God, and he is present in every possible future.

- 1. Yes, I am speaking about two parallel timelines/ realities.*

When Jesus Christ was born into the world, time itself may have split into two different paths/timelines. It was split into the possible timeline of the "kingdom of God" or the other possible timeline of the "Kingdom of Heaven". Now, this is not like the movies, or TV Shows, time does not work like that.

Human beings are only present in this one fixed reality, there are not infinite parallel realities or timelines. There are no different worlds that exist in a different timeline completely. That is not what I am saying. I am saying that in this fixed reality of time in this world, Jesus created 2 temporary possible outcomes that existed at the same time. Both the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Heaven existed at the same time, and these two Kingdoms are literally two different timelines/realities. The Kingdom of God is essentially the Church age, which is a 2-day/2000 year time period, the "Kingdom of Heaven" is the Millennial reign, and it is a 1-day/1000 year time period. Both these time periods are very different from each other.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Both of these options were available to mankind at the same time, thus, there were two timelines/parallel realities in existence at the same time.

Jesus was the doorway to both of these timelines, he was the mediator and gateway to both of these Kingdoms. But remember this my Friends, Jesus was fully God while on earth, thus he was present in both futures and kingdoms. Jesus preached the Kingdom of God in the Beatitudes, and he also preached the Kingdom of Heaven in the beatitudes, he was able to do that because he was present in both of them.

Jesus really did preach both the "Kingdom of God" and the "Kingdom of Heaven" to his disciples on the mount at that same moment, because he was present in both of the temporary timelines that were in existence at that time. Jesus was able to teach 2 completely different kingdoms during the same speech at the same time because he was present in both. I know this is very difficult to understand, and it may sound like some made up false Doctrine, but I ask you this, what is your explanation for this phenomena?

How can you explain the fact that according to the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ himself said two different things at the same exact time. The Holy Spirit is the one that inspired the authors of the Gospels to write what they did, thus it cannot be some difference of opinion or account from the apostles themselves.

Jesus Christ had to have literally taught both kingdoms during the Beatitudes, otherwise the Holy Spirit would be lying. Thus we know that one cannot simply excuse this as some error, or difference in the apostles opinion. This is the truth given by the Holy Spirit himself, and he wants us to understand it.

Jesus knew very well what the Jews would choose to do, but that did not mean he wouldn't give them the chance to accept him and believe. He made the "Kingdom of Heaven" just as much an option for the future as the "Kingdom of God". Thus, time was not operating like it normally did during the rest of human history, because this was a deal or no deal type of situation. Either the jews would accept Jesus as their messiah, and thus start the "Kingdom of Heaven", or they would deny him, and end up starting the Kingdom of God at his death. There was only one other time in human history where such a choice was given, and that was the Garden of Eden.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The last time mankind was given the ability to decide the future of the world was in the Garden with Adam and Eve, where God gave them the most important decision they could make.

The First Adam was given the ability to choose between two possible timelines/realities. Both were equally possible. The First Adam was a type of doorway to both timelines, just like Jesus/the last Adam was the doorway to both Kingdoms.

Adam chose to sin against God, and deny his words and follow Satan, but God used Adam's choice for Good, and brought redemption to many people, and conquered Sin forever because of it.

The Jews then also chose to sin against God, and deny their messiah, and follow Satan, But God once again used their evil choice for Good. God would then use their denial of him, to start the Kingdom of God, and bring salvation to the Gentiles as well.

These were the most important decisions in human history, both had 2 options, Death or life, blessing or cursing! But I used Adam and Eve as an example in hopes that you may understand what I am saying here.

Two temporary timelines existed, and were presented to the Jews so that they could choose which timeline/Kingdom would come next. They chose the "Kingdom of God"/Church Age because of their denial of their messiah. Thus, the "Kingdom of Heaven" was delayed until a later time.

Time, on a larger scale, stopped during Jesus's Life because of this phenomena. Because two timelines had the ability to become reality, God's 7-day timeline stopped for 33 years during Jesus's life, until the choice was made to start the "Kingdom of God"/Church Age. Once the choice had been made, time could then continue from where it stopped at 1 B.C.

Time could not continue until the Jews had chosen which timeline to follow. Had the Jews chosen Jesus, time would have started at A.D 26 when Jesus was 30 years old, and the Millennial reign would have followed.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

This diagram shows the two timelines that started and existed during Jesus's life and ministry. The choice was given to the jews, who could either choose the Kingdom of God, or the Kingdom of Heaven.

They chose the Kingdom of God, because they denied their messiah. But, during this 33 timeframe, time according to God's 7,000 year plan for mankind stopped. It stopped around the same time that Jesus was known well enough to cause the division of time from B.C to A.D. Which was when he was about 4 years old.

The world took 4 years to acknowledge the birth of God into the world, then the calendar was divided into 2 time periods.

So, if we stop the 7-day timeline when Jesus was born at 5 B.C, then that would create a 33 year "Time Gap", but if we stop the 7-day timeline at the same year the timeline switched from 1 B.C to A.D 1, then that would create a 30 year gap.

I am going to go with the latter timeline, with a 30 year gap for Jesus's life.

This would mean that time stopped at 1 B.C and resumed on A.D 30 at pentecost. So, 1 B.C=year 4,000 years after the fall of Adam, and A.D 30=4,001 years after the Fall. This makes sense, as I explained earlier, there cannot be two timelines existing at one time.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

So, what does this mean though? Well, it means that the time in Which Jesus lived on the earth, there were 2 paths that mankind could follow, 2 different timelines that ended in different times and different ways. The Jews chose to reject their messiah, and thus reject the Kingdom of Heaven as well, fulfilling Daniel's prophecy. It is important, because it changes our 7-day timeline by not changing it.

It becomes critical because you don't add those 30 years to the overall 7-day timeline.

It makes sense, because without this time gap, the Church age would be over already, and the Millennial reign would have started by now. Meaning Jesus Christ would have already come down to earth and finished his wrath during the tribulation by now...last time I checked, the mountains and Islands are still in their places...right?

So, please remember this Time gap when studying this timeline, without it, you will find that things are thrown off big time, and they don't add up.

2. The second option is that Jesus somehow spoke both versions of the beatitudes, but some apostles heard one version, and some heard the other.

So, in this theory, Jesus was able to teach both Kingdoms at the same time like last time, but this time, instead of being present in both timelines, he simply spoke two different things to two different groups at the same time.

Perhaps those that were truly faithful that he was the Christ heard him say the "Kingdom of God", and those that doubted him, and didn't believe heard the "Kingdom Heaven". This would make sense according to other scriptural accounts. Jesus was able to disguise his appearance and identity and prevent his disciples from recognizing him on the road to Emmaus. This gives us the ability to deduce that Jesus had the ability to reveal knowledge or withhold knowledge from certain people. This would apply to words as well.

So, it would be possible for Jesus to teach 2 different Kingdoms at the same time, and also have the Holy Spirit speak through the apostles to reveal that truth in scripture.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

This option is basically the same as the last to be fair. Jesus Christ is God, and is capable of anything and everything. He is omnipresent, and he is present in every possible future. I believe that both are true.

I believe that Jesus was both present in both timelines, and he was also to teach about both Kingdoms/timelines at the same time because he was able to let some disciples hear the "Kingdom of God" and other disciples hear the "Kingdom of Heaven".

I believe that both are true, because we know for certain that both timelines existed:

"And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. ¹³ For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John" (Matthew 11:12-13)

"The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it." (Luke 16:16)

There are too many verses and examples of where Jesus literally taught two different things at the same exact time and in the same Teaching. These two verses are great examples of my point here. Jesus reveals that the "law and the Prophets were until John" in both Luke and Matthew. But, there are key differences in these two verses again. Luke's teaching once again teaches the "Kingdom of God", and Matthew once again teaches the "kingdom of Heaven". This is the same teaching of Jesus at the same time in his life. This is interesting, because Jesus teaches that the Dispensation of the "Law" stopped at "John", but during John's life, both the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Heaven were preached. The "kingdom of Heaven Suffereth violence"; and the "every man presseth into" the "Kingdom of God". This is another key difference between these two teachings. The "Kingdom of God" cannot suffer violence, nor can the enemy take it by Force, only the Kingdom of Heaven can experience that.

Jesus once again taught about the 2 different "Kingdoms" at the same moment in time during his life. I will let you decide what you think about this, but to me, there is only one explanation.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 5:

"And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven."²¹ And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.²² And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.²³ And the evening and the morning were the fifth day."

In the 5th day of creation, God creates "Life" for the first time during this creation period. He creates the Sea Creatures and Birds of the air and tells them to be fruitful and multiply.

This day of creation prophecies of the "Outpouring" of the Holy Spirit upon all flesh during pentecost, which was the moment that the "Kingdom of God" started, and time resumed.

"Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life"

It is well known and accepted by all scientists that "water" is the key to Life. Without water, life does not exist.

Many times in scripture God proves this to be true, when he compares the "Holy Spirit"/Spirit of Life to "living water".

"If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified." (John 7:37-39)

"Whosoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; for the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." (John 4:14)

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. (John 10:10)

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Life, it gives Life to all who have it. That is why God relates it to water, because water gives life to all who have it. Without water, there would be no life on earth. Without the Holy Spirit, no man would have Eternal life.

Thus, the 5th day was a prophecy of the Life that would be given through the Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

This day is fairly simple, I do not see any further meanings or prophecies as of yet...however, it is always possible that there is an ever deeper meaning here.

As always, this day of creation did indeed foreshadow Jesus Christ coming and dying for us all so that he could give us life with "Living water"/The Holy Spirit.

Jesus came to give life "More abundantly" to those that Love him. The more abundant life is Eternal life in Heaven, and the only way to heaven is by being born again(John 3:3) with the Holy Spirit.

The days of creation get much simpler after the 4th day. The life of Jesus was the climax, and it decreased in importance and gravity after that.

Until the Second coming of Jesus, the events in between those two comings are rather unimportant, besides a few specific events, the last 2 days/2000 years have been rather uneventful in regards of scripture or prophecy. That is, until 2020 arrived...since that time, things have converged and escalated at rates never seen.

It is clear that we are now living in the very final moments before the Rapture of the Church, but I will cover the last 2,000 years and give a basic overview of the few prophetic events that did occur.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 5 Timeline

The 7 Day Timeline of God

To be honest, there are very few prophetic or Biblically significant events that occur after the year A.D 500. It is almost like the Church Age was meant to be about "faith" and not "sight" or "signs" or something...too bad there is no scripture for that...(2 Corin. 5:7).

Things gradually slow down and get quieter and quieter as the Church Age progresses, and from my understanding, it is because God was testing to see if the Church Age would succeed purely by faith, without signs or miracles, or prophecies. God gave mankind the entire timeline from beginning to end through the Holy Scriptures, through which also we attain salvation, wisdom, knowledge, and understanding.

God tested mankind to see if his Holy Word would be enough to keep them faithful for 2,000 years, and it was not, because this Church age has ended in failure like all of the rest.

The Majority of Churches are lukewarm, and the rest teach absurdly false Doctrine. There is but a small remnant left, and that is the true Bride of Christ. Those that have held to the fundamental doctrines and teachings passed on from the first apostles, and thus, from Christ himself.

They are those that Love God more than anything ,and actively look for his Glorious appearing for the Rapture of the Bride. I would estimate that there are only around 2 to 3 hundred million Born Again Christians that fit into this category.

Even though there are roughly 2 Billion Professed Christians, it is likely that no more than 2 hundred million are going to be Raptured. There are so few Christians that truly care about Jesus or his soon return, so few that Love God and allow his Spirit to lead them...and that is why this world has become a literal Hell hole.

Think about it, the 2 most deadly and destructive wars that have ever been fought occurred during the Church age. The most deadly Pestilence/plague ever took the lives of nearly 100 Million people during the "Church Age". And the greatest lie that has ever been propagated on mankind was told during the Church Age(That lie being that "Satan" and God don't exist").

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Since Christ was "Cut off" by Israel as it was prophesied in Daniel, the 70 weeks have stopped, and proceeded no further than the 69th week. The 70th week never started, and it is still waiting to be fulfilled during the "Time of Jacob's trouble".

During the Church age, the rulers of Darkness had to rule from Darkness, and they could no longer be out in the light openly. The power of the Spirit of God within born again believers is enough to make the Demons flee to the shadows. So, during this Church age, Satan and his Demons have been ruling this world from the shadows, and have been slowly growing in power and control of the entire world. Bit by bit and drop by drop, the Enemy has been seizing power and preparing for the day that he is given authority to rule openly again, which will be the day that the AC is revealed.

The Holy Spirit within believers is currently restraining evil, just like a "Lamp" casts out darkness, and restrains the darkness from covering the room, so too does the Holy Spirit restrain the darkness of this world from covering and consuming this entire world. The Holy Spirit will do so until the time of the Rapture has come, and the Church Age has been completed(2 Thess. 2:7).

During the rise of the Christian Church, Satan tried to destroy them completely until they were extinct, but that didn't work, and in fact, it only made Christianity spread that much faster. There were several Roman Emperors that sponsored nationwide persecution of Christians. This was Satan's attempt to destroy God's people, and prevent the Word of Christ's Salvation from spreading throughout the whole world.

After failing miserably as usual, Satan decided to deceive the Church, by creating his own False Church that would become so powerful, that any Christian that did not submit to the Church's authority and doctrine would be killed. This "False Church" is commonly known as the "Roman Catholic Church", but I personally regard this Church as the "Great whore of Babylon", the "Mother of harlots", and the "Church of Satan".

I am certain that there are many that would disagree with me, and even be offended by what I say, and that is fine, I am not here to tickle your ears and tell you what you want to hear. I am here to speak truth, for God, not lies for Satan.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Satan's go to weapon is deception. He is too weak and stupid to actually take or do anything by force.

He has to do everything in secret, and deceive his enemies. So, Satan created a False Church, he did this to "Divide and conquer" the True Church of Christ. This worked very well, because it is human nature to divide and fight against each other.

As I am sure you are aware, Satan continued to use that same strategy of "Divide and conquer" the rest of the Church Age. This is why we now have thousands and thousands of "Denominations" that all claim that they are the "True Church" of God. Satan has divided the Church so many times that it has become genuinely hard to find what the true Church looks like, or what it is. He has hid the True Church as a needle in a haystack, and he has made it very hard for people to find the truth of Scripture by going to Church.

The one thing that Satan has never been able to defeat is the "Word of God". The KJV Bible is still the perfect inspired Word of God, and Satan has tried over and over to burn all Bibles and remove the Word of God from the face of the world. Once again, Satan failed miserably. This is because God himself promises that his "words shall endure forever". God told us that his Word would always be found here on earth, and that the enemy would never triumph over the "Word of God".

So, during this time of such confusion and deception, it is best for people to sit down and study the word of God for themselves, and avoid the snares of the enemy.

God told us that mankind would be "Ever learning" yet "Never able to come to the knowledge of the Truth"\(2 Timothy 3:7\).

He also said that "knowledge would increase"\(Daniel 12:4\). Both of these have happened during the Church Age, more than ever before in Human history. People are always learning new things, yet so few have come to the truth. Knowledge has increased exponentially, yet God's people are still perishing for a Lack of it\(Hosea 4:6\). Day 5 was pretty eventful to start off, but it slowly died down as time went on. The Church Age will end in failure, as you will see soon.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 6:

"And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so. ²⁵ And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. ²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. ²⁸ And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it."

In the 6th day of creation, God created the land animals which he called "Beasts", and he made mankind last.

He made man "in our image", revealing the truth of the Holy Trinity from the very beginning. But what exactly did God mean when he said that man was created in "our image"?

Well, he actually says "image" and "Likeness" in this passage, but he also says that man was made in the "Similitude" of God in (James 3:9), which is very similar to "Likeness", but has some minor differences.

So, in total, God uses 3 different words to compare mankind to himself, and how he made mankind to be a replication of himself in almost all respects. I believe he used 3 specific terms because each one has a way of revealing the Trinity, and how man was made to reflect all 3 persons of the Godhead.

It could mean that Image=Body, Likeness=Soul, And Similitude=Spirit...but that is only speculation.

*It is my opinion that the "Image" of God is "Body, Soul, and Spirit".
Where Jesus=Body, Father=Soul, and Holy Ghost=Spirit.*

This would make sense, because it is written many times in scripture that Jesus was the "image of the invisible God". Just like Adam was created to be in the Image of God, the Last Adam(Jesus) was the perfect image of God. What does that mean? It means that Jesus was Body, Soul, and Spirit the whole time.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

You see, when you and I first sinned, we lost the Holy Spirit of Life within us, and we became sinners doomed to Hell. We are now only $\frac{2}{3}$ of God's image. We are now only Body and Soul, but we are without the Spirit.

Yes, we all have our own Spirits within us, but those Spirits are not Life, those Spirits are on borrowed time, and if one does not accept Jesus Christ in time, his Spirit will die the "Second Death".

Only God's Spirit has Eternal Life in it, and only by having God's Spirit within you can you be in the full image of God. Jesus Christ never sinned, and thus he never lost the Holy Spirit within him. Because of that, he remained in the Image of God his whole life, and was obedient unto death. By doing so, Jesus reclaimed the dominion and authority over the earth and mankind that was first given to Adam.

The last Adam did what the First could not. Adam was made in the image of God, he had the Spirit of God within him, and he was perfect, like God. But, it only took a very small amount of time for Adam to sin and fall from the "Glory"/Image of God. Upon sinning, and losing the Image and Glory of God, Adam's dominion over the world was forfeited to Satan, who is still as of this day, the ruler of this world. As we discussed earlier, Satan must rule in the shadows while the Church is present, until his time has come, he cannot rule openly.

When the time does come, the Antichrist will rise and rule openly over the whole world, just as Adam was meant to do.

The 6th day of creation prophesied 2 things, like most of the creation days:

- 1. It prophesied the rule of the AC over the entire earth during the end of the 6th day. The last 7 Years of the Church Age/6th day will be the time of "Jacob's Trouble". From the Year 5993 to the year 6,000, the Satanic Man/Beast will rule over the entire world openly for the first time in history. The Antichrist was prophesied to arise on this day when God created the "Beast" of the earth, and then created "Man" and gave them dominion over the entire world. God prophesied that a "Beast"/Man would arise on this day and rule over this world.*

The 7 Day Timeline of God

"Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish." (Psalms 49:20)

"I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts." (Ecclesiastes 3:18)

This is an important truth to understand my Friends. Once mankind lost the Holy Spirit, and fell from the Glory of God, and were no longer in the image of God, they became "like beasts" in most respects.

Yes, of course man is still higher than the beasts and of more value than them(Matthew 6:26), but, they are on the same level as the beasts because of the fact that they are still "Flesh"(Gen. 6:3). All that is flesh in this sinful world perishes and dies. Only with the Holy Spirit can men have Eternal Life, without it, we are as the beasts that perish.

This is important, because the Antichrist is identified as a "beast" as well. This "Man of sin" and "Son of Perdition" is a "Beast" because he is not even fully human. The Antichrist will have Nephilim ancestors and may even be a Nephilim himself. He will be an abomination to God, he will be a corrupted and perverted form of mankind that God regards as nothing more than a "beast". But, this beast will have dominion and power over all the earth for 7 Years!

God gave mankind dominion and power over the earth when he created them, and set them above the "Beasts". But, Satan intends to reverse and corrupt what God made to be good, and he intends to have a "Beast"/abomination rule over all the earth as Adam was supposed to. This is what the first meaning of the 6th day prophecy was. God told us that a Man/Beast would rule over the earth during the 6th day, and have dominion over it.

It is important to note that this MUST happen within the 6th day of creation, with the 6,000th year of men's existence on earth! It cannot happen after the 6,000th year, that is the Millennial Reign, so it must happen during the 2,000 year period of the Church Age, at the very end of the 6th day! It will start in the year 5993!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Just wait till you find out what year we are on! Spoiler alert: We are OUT OF TIME!

- 2. The second meaning of the 6th day prophecy is a good one! Something to rejoice and celebrate over! On the 6th day of creation, mankind was made in God's image, and they were given authority and dominion over it. This was a prophecy of what will happen both at the Rapture of the Church, and the second coming of Christ!*

At the Rapture of the Church, which takes place before any Seals are opened and before the Antichrist is revealed, all Born Again Christians will be once more Glorified and conformed unto the image of God, by being fully filled with the Holy Spirit of Life once more, and by having their Bodies Redeemed and reunited with their Eternal Spirits!

The 6th day prophesied this moment, the moment that Mankind would once again be in God's image, and likeness. "There is nothing new under the sun" my Friends, what God did on day 6, he shall do again! God made us in his image on day 6 of creation, and God will remake us in his image in the 6-day of history. Truly amazing! Because this means that in the very first chapter of the Bible, God prophesied the redemption and Glorification of mankind once more! It also means that there is Bible prophecy in the first chapter of scripture that still has not been fulfilled! A 5,992 year old prophecy is about to be fulfilled!

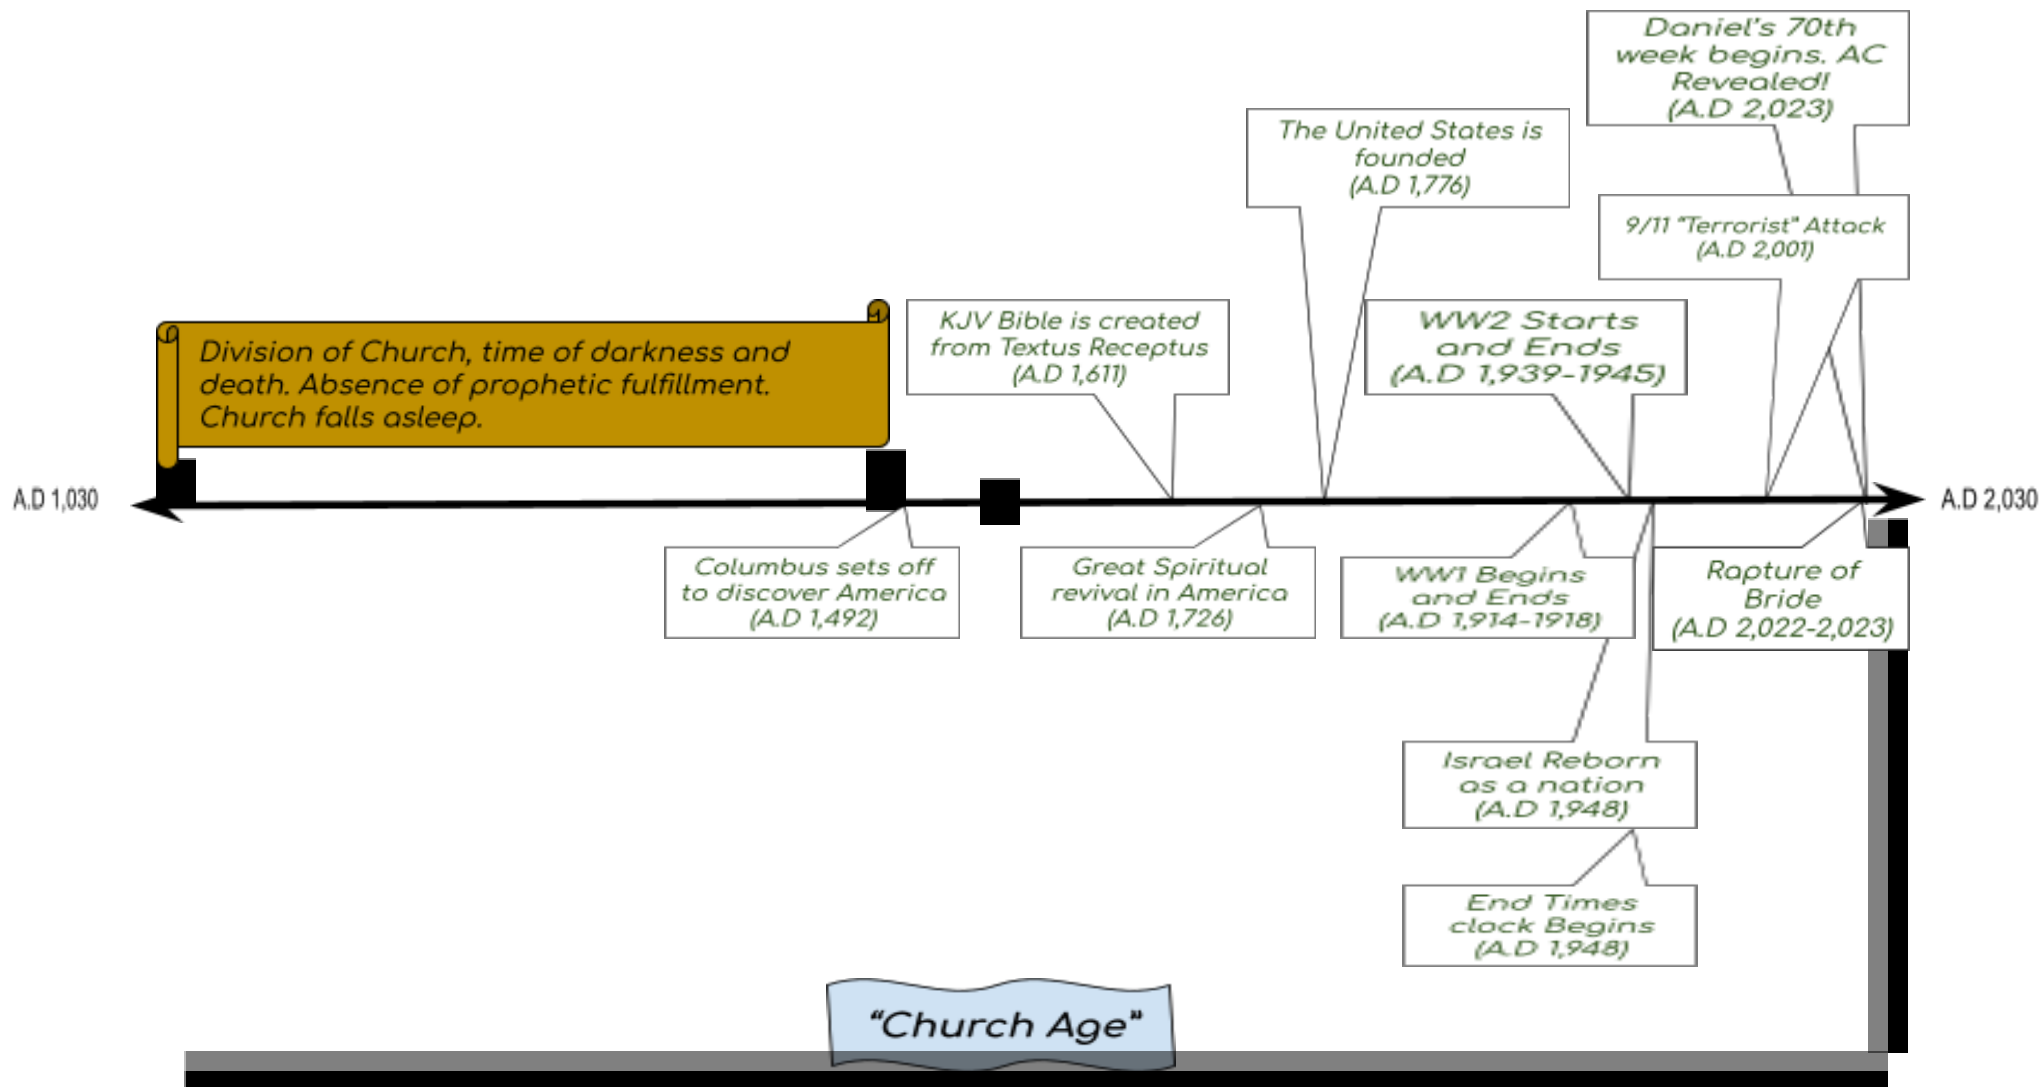

Finally, at the second coming of Christ, Jesus himself will rule over the earth as the Last Adam, and the true image of God! As both God and man, Jesus himself will set things right as they were intended to be as he rules over the earth for 1,000 years! God prophesied this moment as well, the true Son of God, who is the true image of God, will rule in man's place as King, Lord, and God over the whole world!

The 6th day is really Good, and also really bad! It is the best moment for Christians, but the worst moment for the worldly sinners that hate Christ.

The 6th Day will end in the Year 2030, when Jesus Christ returns with his Bride for Judgement!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

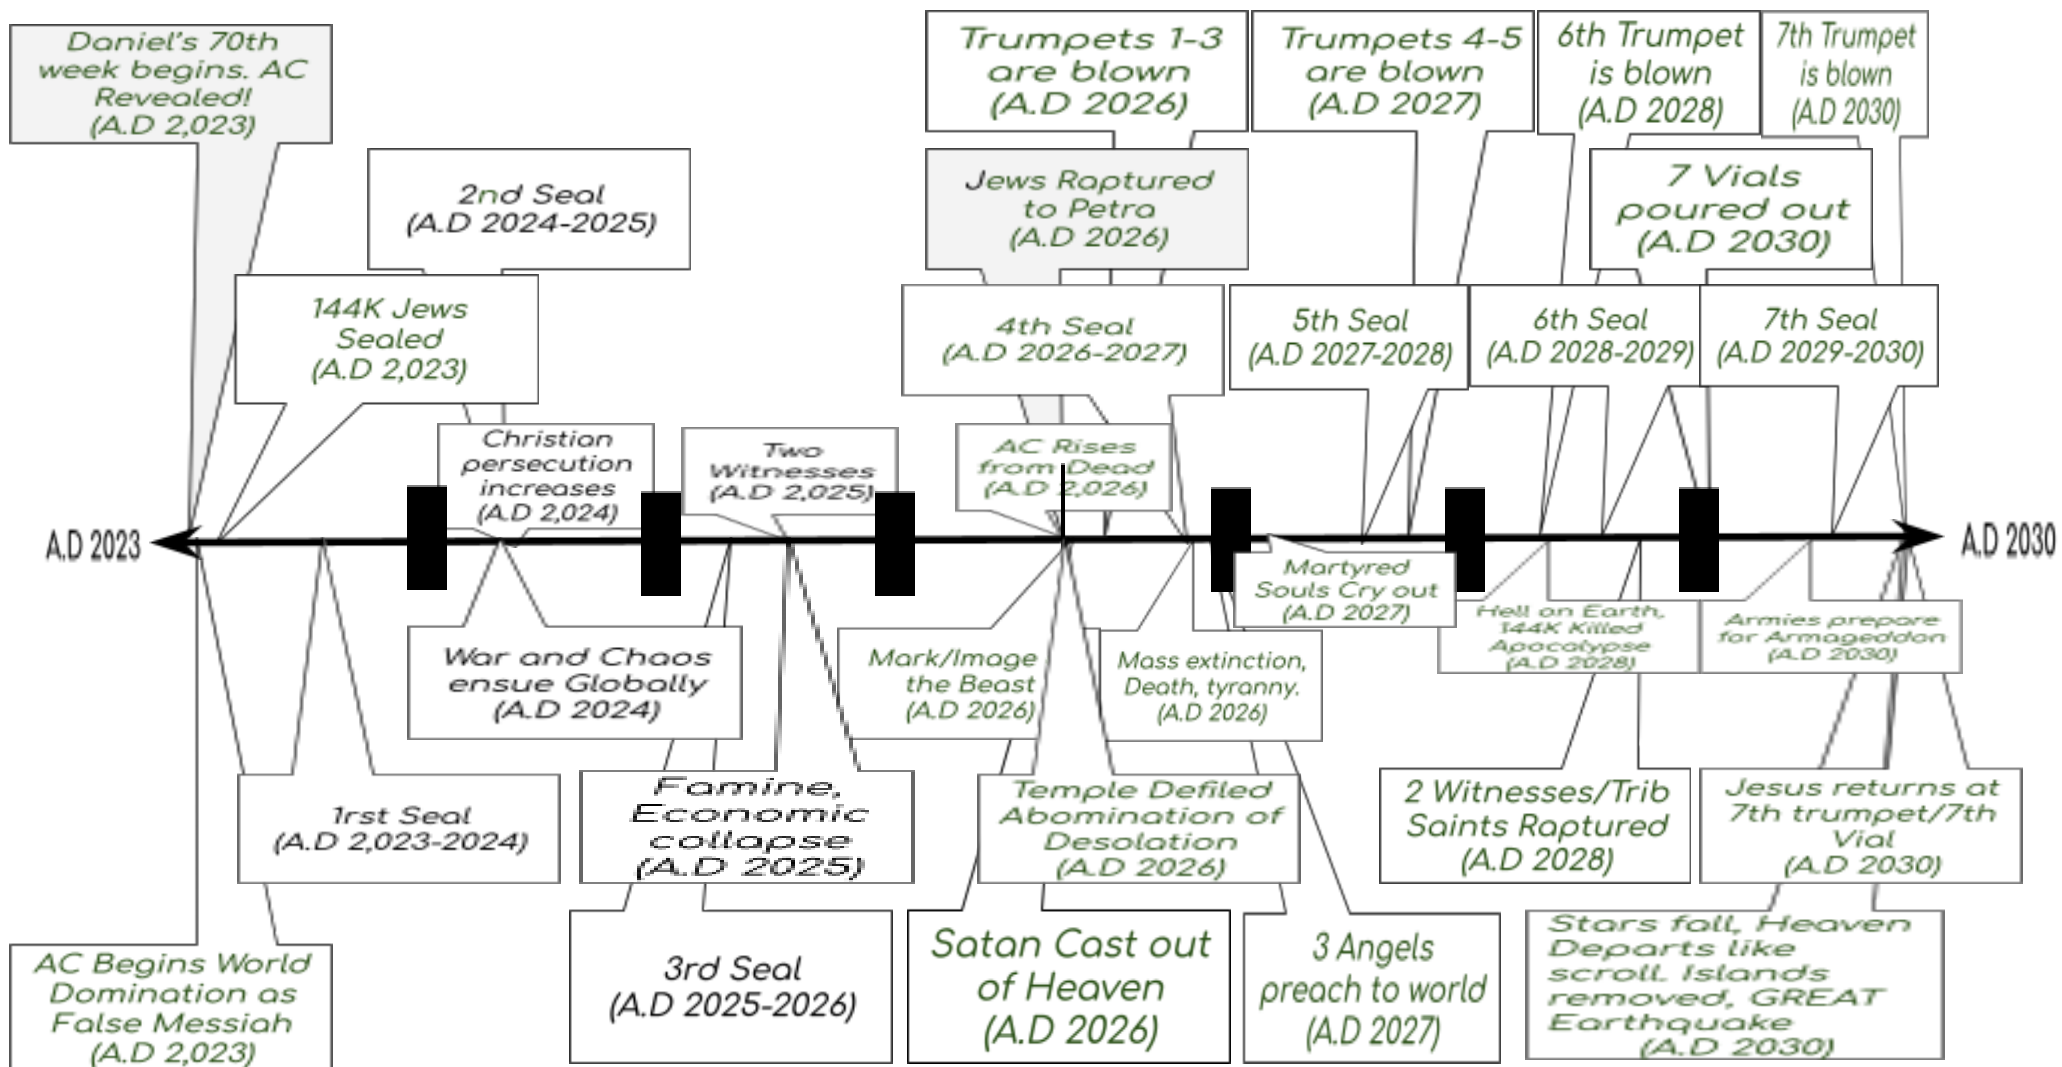

Day 6 Timeline:

I will do a separate timeline that is focused on Daniel's 70th Week, there is not enough space on this one.

Here is a time-chart that I made to go with the timeline of Daniel's 70th week. This is the order of events during the Tribulation.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

The 6,000th Year is the end of the 6th day/6th Millennia. Year 6,000 corresponds to the year "2,030". Which means that the Tribulation must begin in the year 5,993.

As I am sure you have deduced by now, we are in the year 5,992, with only one year remaining until Daniel's 70th Week, and less than that for the Rapture of the Bride.

Jesus died in A.D 30, and he will return for the Nation of Israel exactly 2,000 years/2 days later, in A.D 2030.

This is such a simple calculation, that many Christians have come to the same conclusion. God is revealing this timeline to many with the Holy Spirit as we approach that day.

This is why Paul told us that we do in fact "Know the Times and seasons". It is not because we ourselves know them, but because we have the inspired Word of God, in which God declared the End from the beginning!

Thus, we have access to and can indeed know the times and seasons of both the Rapture of the Church, and also the Second coming of Christ for the Jews.

This was all directly from scripture my friends, this entire timeline was based off scripture, and scripture alone. It was scripture that provides all of the dates and genealogies so that we can track time and history.

God wanted us to discover this, and that is why he revealed it to so many Christians these last couple years with the Holy Spirit, so that we could spread the news of his soon return, and look up to the heavens because our redemption draws near!

This timeline is nearly irrefutable, as it is completely based on scripture. You may check my dates, and my math, but it is correct. And according to God himself, we ARE IN THE VERY FINAL MOMENTS my friends.

And I mean the very final seconds of the Church age! Jesus IS Coming SOON! Let NO one take your crown! Be ready and watching always! Pray for and witness to the lost souls while you can!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Jesus rebuked the Religious leaders of his time for not “knowing the time of their visitation”, implying that they could have known from scripture! And they indeed could have! Daniel’s prophecy gave them everything they needed to predict the coming of the messiah!

Jesus gives the same warning and rebuking to those lazy, lukewarm Christians that do not know the Times in which they live. He does so because we CAN and DO know the times in which we live, and we CAN and HAVE found his timeline, and the date of his return.

Those that are faithful and studious will find what God has hid, because those that “Seek” shall “find”.

“And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times” (Matthew 16:3)

“And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.” (Luke 19:44)

Make no mistake my Friends, God have hidden the secret of his return in plain sight, for only those that seek it to find. Others, who profess to know Christ, and make no effort to study his word or find the truth will be blind and unaware of the nearness of the Rapture, and that is exactly what we see!

I am certain that we all have family at this very moment that have mocked us and scoffed at us for our faith in Jesus’s soon return, and said things like “People have been saying Jesus is coming back soon for 2000 years”. This should be no surprise to us, God told us that these things would happen. Their lack of faith only proves God’s word right once again, and they also prove that we are right about the times in which we live.

Regardless of their uneducated opinion, Jesus will return soon, whether they are ready or not. I pray that you all would take this seriously, and repent, and be as zealous as possible, because our time is truly up! Work for the Lord now, for you are about to rest for Eternity!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Day 7:

...

In the 7th day of creation, God created...nothing. He rested. He kicked his feet back and watched his beautiful creation enjoy itself...until Adam messed everything up...which didn't take long.

"For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it." (Exodus 20:11)

"It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed." (Exodus 31:17)

The 7th day is the Sabbath Day, God established it and blessed it forever. Notice God says that the "Sabbath day" is a "Sign between me and the Children of Israel". Not the whole world, just the Jews.

This reveals that the 7th day/Sabbath day/Millennial Reign of Christ will be only for the Jews. Yes, Gentiles will exist there, but they will come and observe the feast days and basically become Jews themselves.

The entire world will become the Nation of Israel, because Israel will rule over the whole World. It is my understanding from scripture that the Bride of Christ will not be present on the earth during the Millennial Reign. I believe this because if the Church were present on the earth during the Millennial reign, the Church of Christ would be ruling and reigning over the world, not King David, and not the Jews.

It is more likely that the Bride of Christ will remain in the 3rd Heaven until the New Earth is created, for a much more in depth study on this, check out my "Millennial Reign" study (Here).

The point is that the 7th day/Sabbath day was given only to the Jews for a reason, it was God's way of prophesying that the Jews would rule and reign with him on the 7th day/Sabbath day. The Millennial reign was promised to Israel, not the Church.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

I need not create an entire timeline for the 7th day, because it is the day of rest, and only good things will be occurring during the whole thing. There is little to say about the 7th day besides "rest". I will say this however, for those that need a refresher on eschatology.

Immediately after the 7th day/Millennial reign is complete, Satan will be released from prison, and deceive millions of people into following him into rebellion against God, at that time, God will destroy the entire world and universe with fervent heat, and begin the White Throne Judgement. During the White Throne Judgement, all unsaved men and women will stand before God and give account for all of their sins, and for their denial of Christ for their salvation.

The White Throne is only for unsaved fellas that are not in the Lamb's book of Life. Some Tribulation Saints may have to stand before God at this time, but they will not be cast out, because they are in the Book of Life.

After the White Throne Judgement is complete, God will create a New Heaven and Earth where only righteousness dwells! I tell you this my Friends, there is no movie, Video, or Book that will do this moment justice! This moment will be the GREATEST Moment in human history! Imagine Life Starting from scratch, but this time with no fear of Death, or pain, or suffering, or Sin! I ask you to imagine it, yet I know you cannot, because it is impossible! It will be the most amazing moment that we cannot even imagine right now!

Then, Eternity in that perfect world begins! Again, PRAISE GOD! I cannot WAIT for that moment!

What Glory, what Love, and what Peace awaits those who believe in Jesus Christ, and those who bow their knee to the one true God of gods and King of Kings! I submit to you my dear friend and whoever is reading this, that your Labor is NOT in vain in the Lord! I assure you this, ye who are weary, you WILL rest! And I promise you this, my brethren who sow in tears, you WILL Laugh! Our blessed Lord and God is watching every moment, and he knows who you are and what you want! Our battle is nearly over! Your race is nearly finished! We are almost FREE! Stand FIRM, KEEP the Faith, LOVE your brethren like there is no tomorrow, PRAY without ceasing, and THANK God for his mercy in all things! How GREAT IS OUR GOD! This timeline, these words, they are not my own, but they are inspired by the Spirit within me! I tell you this, Jesus is at the Door!

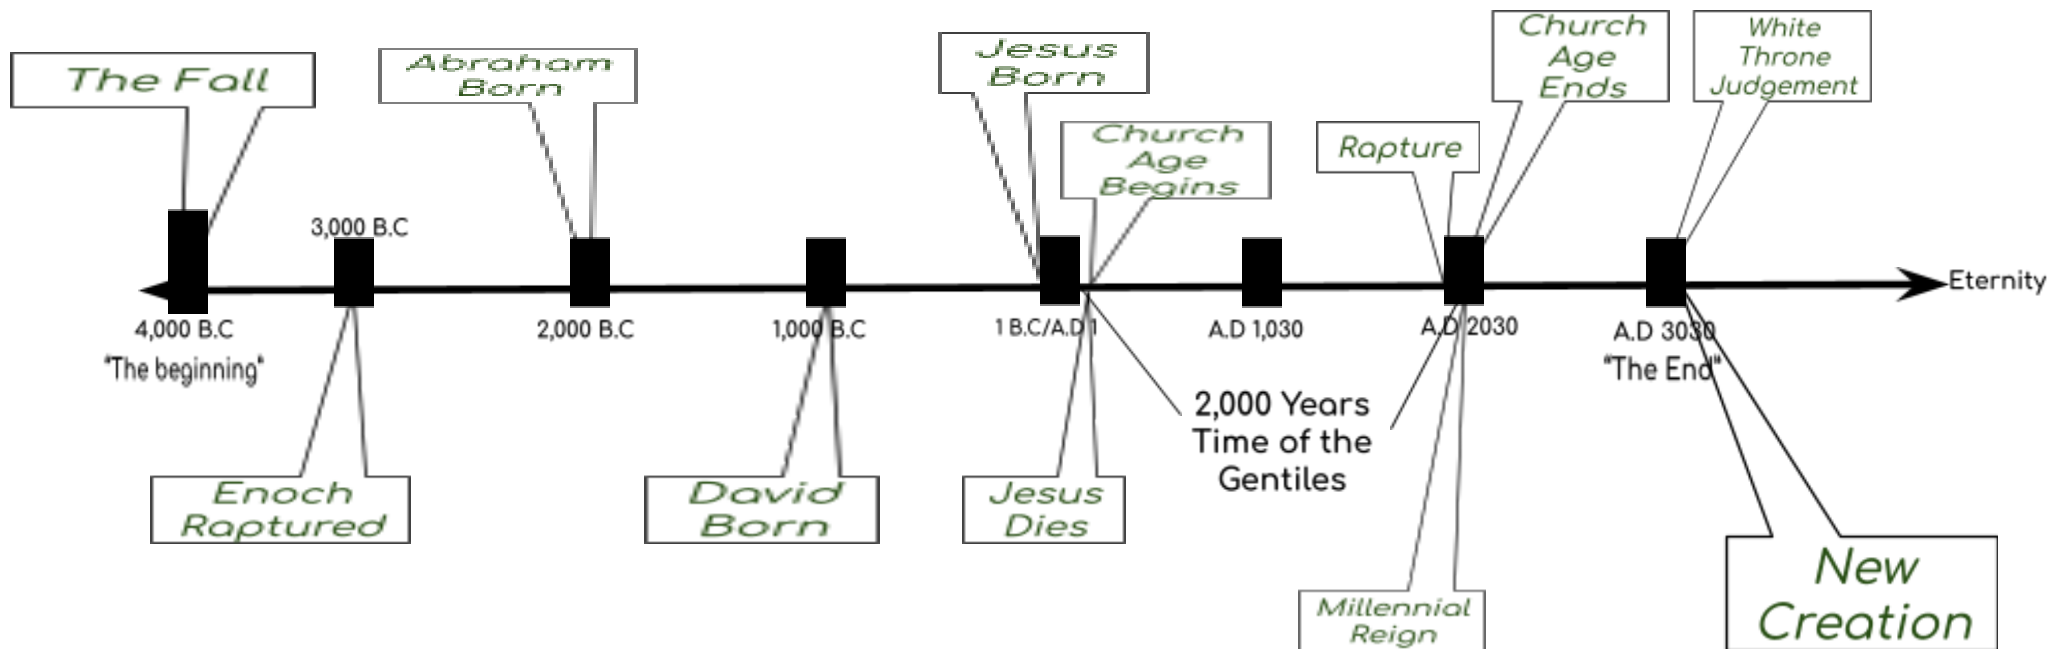

The 7 Day Timeline of God

7 Day Timeline:

Remember, time stops at 1 B.C and Resumes at A.D 30. Meaning the next 2 days begin at A.D 30, not A.D 1. Because of this, we know we aren't in the Millennial Reign yet, and that we have 7.5 years before that begins.

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Conclusion:

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:" (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

"Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?" (Job 7:1)

"Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. For this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob." (Psalms 81:3-4)

"And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be." (Daniel 8:19)

God has set appointed times for everything. For your life, and your death. For the creation of the world, and the end of the world. ALL things have appointed times within this temporal, sinful universe.

The End of time is an "appointed time", it was appointed by our Father before the creation of the world.

God has had a precise and exact plan for mankind since the very beginning! And remember, God has already "Declared the end from the beginning". We can and have found the truth hidden in plain sight by God.

"It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter." (Proverbs 25:2)

"Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." (Daniel 12:10)

My Friends, I implore you to listen to what the Lord is saying in his word! If you study, and apply your heart to find the truth, you will find it! God promises that all those who seek, shall find! You must seek the truth, if you are to find it! God has declared the end from the beginning, unless you seek it, you will not find it!

The 7 Day Timeline of God

Only through God can one attain wisdom and truth, and only when one applies their whole heart to seek God shall they find him. The "Wise" shall understand the words of God, they will know his appointed times and see the day approaching!

"But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief." (1 Thessalonians 5:1, 4)

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." (Hebrews 10:25)

My Friends, Jesus clearly taught that we will see the signs of his soon return (Luke 21:28), but he also rebuked the Religious leaders of his day for not knowing the time of their "Visitation". This again implies that Jesus expected them to study Daniel's prophecy well enough to know the times and seasons like the Wise men did.

God wants us to know his plan, and his appointed times! That is why he gave us the entire Holy Bible! To study it and put the pieces together for the last 2000 years! And guess what, just as we are approaching the very end, we put the pieces together well enough to construct an entire timeline of God's appointed times!

From beginning to end, we have been given the understanding of it all from his Spirit and from his Word. I am convinced that this timeline is 99% accurate, and that it reveals the truth of how little time we have left. Day 6 is nearly over, we have no more than 10 months left. I am not setting a date, nor am I insisting that I know the day or hour or anything like that. I am simply saying that I know the "Season", and I know the "Time" is at hand. You need only look at the world we live in to confirm that fact.

Those that love God enough to seek him with their whole heart will find him, and they will find his truth. They will be watching and ready for that blessed moment, they will be accounted worthy to meet the Lord in the air, and they will be taken to Heaven to be with him there! You must ask yourself, are you Rapture Ready??
