

Name : Woofle Barklava Valkybrie

Titles : Lupine Queen, Miracle Queen, The Queen Who Is Alive and Dead (She temporarily died)

Age : 23

Tiering : High Outerversal+ (In the soul contains all logical possibilities and as such all possible worlds as it is perfect and infinite. Woofle can weaponize it as emotional energy using her Eye of Anima that sees through all and perceives the nondual ineffable unknowable ultimate truth underlying reality that is God. As such she is beyond the infinite dimensions of reality and much more. Magic is the power of God given to mortals so this would apply to anyone who can use magic anyway but this is one of the highest forms of it. A Buddha who achieved pure existence is what she is.)

Stamina : Unlimited

Speed : Irrelevant (Can exist outside of space-time due to the Eye of Anima)

Abilities :

Blessings :

This is her nature as a being of the duality of infinite emotion and infinite intelligence made manifest into two eyes.

Eye of Nous :

The eye of logic that perceive everything with infinite logic and cannot be fooled. These eyes give infinite intelligence as such mimic Omniscience despite not truly being Omniscient. Such eyes give immunity to all effects targeting the soul and mind. Their existence cannot be erased for they see through it. Even the future can be predicted via sheer logic with this one even against a being of infinite unpredictability. Anything that can be learned will be learned instantly even things hidden behind abilities of concealment.

Eye of Anima :

The eye of the essence that perceives all with infinite emotions. These eyes allow for seeing the minds, essences and souls of all things and interacting with them and anything else incorporeal. It allows for using the immutable energy in mutable ways as it is a power of paradox. As such one can use spiritual energy to heal others, create spiritual constructs such as fire and ice and much more such as the 13 Elements of the Kitsune, Yin and Yang and more. It can also allow one to crush essences leading to existence erasure. Essence is deeper than soul it is the thing that makes something something for the essence of fire is Ignis she theoretically can erase anything if she has the proper spell or is close enough. Due to her constantly being flooded with emotion by this she is immortal unless her essence is erased.

Soul Land :

Wonderland :

A world where Love itself is life. Those who have no love in their hearts die instantly. It also works on those who are just evil as evil in her worldview cannot possess true love. The land of the Mind that reflects the soul is what a soul land is so the fractured psyche of Woofle can allow the laws of physics to be broken as it's a land bereft of them.

Magnus Opus :

The embodiment of someone's experience and choices in life.

Indomitable Spirit :

“The word impossible is meaningless. Invincible is just a word. I will touch the untouchable, break the unbreakable ,kill the immortal and change the immutable.”

The will to never give up makes the impossible possible if she tries hard enough. As long as she continues to charge forward even if its impossible a hole in that impossibility will be made and allow a single possibility to exist. As such abilities that guarantee an outcome become meaningless and those who control logic itself see her break through it with sheer emotion and spirit. Any absolute at all is meaningless against someone's will that defies it. The only exception to this is what she has turned into her own core of being the Absolute of Love which is God's love and her love for Lance Osheram. She can also adapt to threats due to this and gain resistances and overcome them and immunities due to this.

Abilities other than this :

Superhuman Characteristics (She is a Lupine as such everything about her is inhuman including her senses which are all imbued with the same powers as her eyes.), Combat Mastery (She has mastered every martial art in the world.), Astral Projection, Non-physical Interaction, Nonexistent Physiology and Abstract Existence (The eye of Anima can be used to see the emptiness of all existence and its inherent lack as such shows the Sunyata beneath everything and being nonexistent. As such she can be in a conceptual state as all do.), Self-Sustenance (The Monks have taught her secrets that make bodily needs such as food ,air , water and sleep unnecessary), Energy Manipulation (Energia is a spell that allows for the manipulation of energy and projection of it.) , Elemental Manipulation (Can manipulate every element in the Kitsune Elements, Classical Elements and Periodic Table as well as spiritual and psychic/mental elements.), True Flight, Air Manipulation, Gravity Manipulation (Can defy gravity due to magic such as Aero and Gravitass.) Teleportation , Space-Time Manipulation (By folding in space-time with Spatium she can teleport wherever.), Emotion , Mind,Concept and Soul Manipulation (Eye of Anima), Creation (Can create essentially anything out of emotion), Purification (Eye of Anima), Incorporeality and Illusion Negation (Eye of Nous and Anima), Superhuman Charisma (The Eye of Anima allows one to resonate with others infinitely better than someone without it to influence others subtly.), Healing and Immortality (High Godly, Can Regenerate from everything except her Essence being erased be it her history, her concept , her soul ,mind body etc. Type 1,2, 3 (Normally), and 5 (Due to the Soul and Essence)), Nondualism (The Eye of Anima sees through the illusions of duality as such Woofle is nondualistic and cannot be affected by abilities of duality as she is divinely simple. Essentially all dualities boil down to whether something is P (Predicate) or Not P (Its privation) and she transcends both P and Not P.)
